Held on Tuesday, before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J.).

Ejectments.—Mrs. K. Healy sought ejectment order against Joseph Whelan in respect of a house at Still Lane of which he is a weekly tenant at a weekly rent of 8/-. Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., for applicant. Mr. P. J. Morrissey (Messrs Farrell and Morrissey, solrs.), for the defendint, said his client consented to a deree, but asked for a stay of 2 mo Mr. Williams objected and said his instructions were not to agree to a stay. His client was ordered by the Urban Council to carry out extensive repairs, which it will be impossible to do while a tenant is in the house. The roof needed to be taken off. His client also tried to get alternative accordation for his tenant but failed.

Mr J. Ormonde, B.E., acting county surveyor, said notice was served on the landlord and tenant under the the landlord and tenant under the Towns Improvement Act by the Urban Council. The house is in an extremely dangerous condition. The roof is very bad, and the walls also. They are out of plumb. It is dangerous for Whelan as well as for the people passing along the street. He would ask that Whelan be got out as quickly as possible as it is really dangerous.

Mr. T. McCarthy (Chairman) pre-sided at the meeting of the Dungar-van Urban Council. Also present: van Urban Council. Also present:
Messrs. T. Kyne and L. Veale.

Presidential Election—A resolution from the Westmeath Council was read asking all public bodies to agree on a nominated President so as to avoid putting the country to expense.

Mr. Kyne said it was the privilege of the people to elect a President if they wished. He thought it was waste of time asking public bodies, or anyone else, to interfere in a matter of this kind. If a President was to be elected, it should be by the wish of the people.

The contributions from this area have not passed unnoticed into "unrecovered" Ireland as can be seen from the following quotation from a letter which was received last week from Mr. Cahir Healy, M.P.—

"A contribution of almost £100 from Dungarvan is really very fine and per head of the population is perhaps the best of any place outside the Six Counties. It shows a virile national spirit as well as a practical sympathy with those who are suffering for the National Faith they hold. We thank you very much."

The Chairman agreed, and the resolution was marked "Noted."

Turl.—The following letter was read from the Department of Supplies: "I am directed by the Minister of Supplies to acknowledge your letter transmitting copy of resolution adopted at a recent meeting of the Council regarding inferior quality of turf on sale in Dungarvan. The Acting Clerk and that as in spector had called to the merchant pector had called to the merchants during the week and he pointed out to them that the merchants in Cork wanted protection while measuring the foreshore. Witness accompanied him. He found that the distance from the place from where the gravel was taken to the cliff was four feet.

Patrick Keane denied taking gravel within four feet of the cliff. He took the gravel from a position between medium and high tides; an ordinary high tide sweeps the cliff and an ordinary medium tide would be within 3 to 4 yards of the cliff. Witness gathered the pebbly gravel from the foreshore and brought it to where his man could collect it. He did not leave any holes in the foreshore but

The Chairman said that another thing was that when turf was being delivered from Kerry or any place else to Dungarvan, it should be covered. When it was in open waggons it got the rain and got wet, and the people had to suffer. They should ask the railway company to see that it was covered with tarpaulin.

FOUR-COUNTY FOOTBALL LEAGUE MATCH

The opening game in the Four-county Football League will be staged at Dungarvan on Sunday next, when Cork meet Waterford. On Sunday 11th March, at Tipperary, Clare meet Tipperary, with final on March 25th. The senior football seection is entirely in the hands of Stradbally (county champions), this year and their selection for Sun-Gorman (Army); W. Barron, Moylan, P. Lannen, J. Good, Hosey, T. Curran (Dungarvan); P. Lynch, T. Veale, R. Maguire (Kilrossanty); Ed. Foley (Ballycoe).

No doubt, the Stradbally selectors are in earnest about getting the best team possible and we hope the side Field will live up to expectations. Cork are fielding their best team and were considered by many to have been unlucky to go under to Tipperary at Clonmel in the semifinal. A football revival in this county is long averture and the county is long overdue and a vic-tory on Sunday next, after so many crushing defeats, would mark the irst step towards that goal. The game is timed for 3.30 and hriller is assured.

The New Hall.—Within the past few weeks, wonderful progress has been made in the work of completing the new hall and from reports to hand it is expected that it will be completed in a short time. The local branch of Muintir na Tire deserve to be congratulated on their successful undertaking. It is hoped that the enterprise shown by the Ballyduff people will be a good example to other districts and that many new halls under the same auspices will be erected during the next few years. It is hoped that the opening ceremony will be held at an early date.

present from all the surrounding districts. All arrangements were in the capable hands of Miss M. Montayne and Mr. J. Ruste, joint secretaries, under whose efficient supervision everything worked with clockwork regularity and all present spent a very happy and enjoyable night. Keen and closely contested games were the order throughout the night and the lucky winners were heartily congratulated on their success.

h feelings of very deep regret we ord the death of Miss Ellen seney, which sad event occurred ently at her residence, Carrigeen, ne, after a brief illness and Glendine, after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, of which she was a most exemplary member. The late Miss McSweeney was a member of an old and highly respected family whose ancestors have been associated with the district for many years, and the deceased was one of its most popular inhabitants, and on all sides the announcement of her death was received with feelings of leath was received with feelings of very deep regret, not only in her native parish but all over West Waterford and East Cork where she was well and popularly known.
Quite, gentle and unassuming, she was beloved by young and old alike, who found in deceased a friend to share in their joys and help and sympathise with them in their sorrows. A keen student of Irish, a language she spoke fluently, she loved Ireland and all things rish as only a true Irishwoman can, and the younger generation loved to listen to her stories of Ireland's glorious though sorrowful history and to hear her sing and play the lovely songs and music which can only be found in Ireland. Alas! she is gone from amongst us and with her passing is severed another link from that grand type of Irish-woman. To her bereaved relatives deep sympathy is extended in their deep sympathy is extended in their sorrow and loss. On Wednesday ning the remains were removed quiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of her soul and the funeral took place to the family plot in Templemichael Cemetery ceased was reverently consigned to mother earth in the presence of another very large gathering of relatives, friends and sympathisers, and amid many manifestations of deep report of the above winners to moderate bitches. celected. The chairman appealed to all members to train hard for the coming championships and congratulated the teams on their 1944 display, especially the minor team and hoped that championship honours would crown their efforts in 1945.

Congrainlations.—His many friends and neighbours in Ballyduff extend their best wishes to Mr. D. Heskin, T.D. (who recently departed from amongst them) on the purchase of a new farm at Deerpark, Lismore, from Mr. J. Duke. His friends all over the Decies and more especially in his native village, wish him every success in his new home.

45 Drive.—A very successful 45 drive (under the auspices of the Knockanore Camogie and Football Club) was held at Knockanore on Sunday night last and was a great success, a very large crowd being present from all the surrounding districts. All arrangements were in the capable hands of Miss M. Montayne and Mr. J. Ruste, joint secretaries, under whose efficient supervision everything worked with clockwork regularity and all present spent a very happy and enjoyable night. Keen and closely contested games were the order throughout the night. The chairman said that for the past six but the Chairman said that for the past six but the Chairman said that for the past six or seven months he had noticed that when the National Anthem was being played at the Cinema it was not getting the respect it was entitled to. He are noticed that at the end of the performance, when it was being played a number of people—not children but grown-ups—got up and walked to the exits. That was not right. A letter should be written from the Council asking that the people stand to attention during the playing of the National Anthem and that request could be put on a slide and shown on the screen. At a recent showing of pictures by the L.D.F. it was a great thing to see how everyone stood to attention when the National Anthem was played. A pin could be heard dropping. He did not believe this disrespect to the National Anthem was deliberate. He thought it was just thoughtlessness The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to.

Overspent Estimates.—A resolution

Death of Mr. P. Cleary.—Very deep and sincere regret has been caused by the death of Mr. Patrick Cleary. Ballinarid, Bonmahon, which cc-curred on Thursday of last week, after a short illness and while yet in his early forties. Deceased, who was an industrious and progressive was an industrious and progressive agriculturalist, was a man of singular integrity of character, a generous, kindly and helpful neighbour, and was immensely popular. Worthy member of a widely connected and highly respected family, he was son of Mrs. and the late Mr. James Cleary (farmer) Rellinarid that the centerprise shown by the Ballyduff people will be a good example to other districts and that many new halls under the same auspices will be erected during the next few years. It is hoped that the opening ceremony will be held at an early date.

G.A.A.—The annual meeting of the Ballyduff G.A.A. Club was held recently at which there was a large attendance. The secretary's report was considered very satisfactory and the treasurer's report showed the club to be in a good financial position. All outgoing officers were relected. The chairman papealed to all members to train hard for the coming championships and congratulated the teams on their 1944 display, especially the minor team and hoped that championship honours would crown their efforts in 1945.

Goggatulations.—His many friends and neighbours in Ballyduff extend their best wishes to Mr. D. Heskin, T.D. On Monday of This Week, Mr. Patrick Kirwan, Turf Commission Agent, took up residence at his newly "The Regal Bar," The Glen, Water-ford. Paddy Kirwan, as he is more familiarly known to his expansive friendship circle, is an outstanding fine type of Irish manhood, whose rare qualities of head and heart earn for him the golden opinion of those who are privileged to call themselves his friends. He is impact with the his friends. He is imbued with the spirit of progressiveness and a high standard of probity characterises all his activities. The sporting frater-nity will be glad to learn that Paddy is "carrying on" in his capacity as bookmaker (both office and course, as usual). Right heartily do we wish our valued friend continued and in-

It is becoming more evident that, as far as essential foodstuffs are concerned, this country will have to rely on its own resources long after hostilities have ceased.

No matter what happens abroad, the need for maximum food production at home is as great in 1945 as in any year since 1939.

These are facts which should be borne in mind during the present sowing season, and because of them every farmer should increase as much as possible the area under

Catholic Church, to which he was ever devotedly attached, Mr. Jeremiah (Jerry) Collins, Riverside Tce., died on Monday night at a comparatively young age. The deceased had been employed in England for some time and failing health caused him to return to the horseland a few months since. His demise came as a shock to a large circle of friends, for his earnestness and sincerity had secured for him a warm place in the affection of those with whom he came in contact. He fought with the British Army in France during the 1914-18 war. He foined the IRA. in 1920 and took up service in the Free State Army later.
