MATCHES AT DUNGARVAN. Although not up to the standard usually associated with champion-ship games, nevertheless, the brace of matches for the Russell Cup, decided at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, or Sunday last, were most interesting and the fairly large crowd that patronised the fixtures were pleased with the display. The newly oromoted seniors, Ballycoe, took on Dungarvan in the first encounter and for their first match in thi grade against such a wily and experienced team playing on their home pitch those newcomers to senior ranks pleased their supporters by their display. Their full-forward line was decidedly weak and while they got plenty of the ball, particularly in the first molety, they acked the thrust and dash necessary to raise flags in a senior encounter.
They were up against very strong opposition in which Paddy Walsh and Dec Good figured prominently. The second encounter was beween the old rivals, Stradbally and Kilrossanty. This was, as is usual between those two teams, a robust hard game with the issue in doubt p to the final whistle, and while the Reds maintained their winning equence, it was conceded by all that the wearers of the green and gold were unlucky not to win or at least make it a draw. It was the most evenly contested game between the wo sides since the county final in 1942 when Stradbally won by a point despite terrific Kilrossanty ressure in the closing stages. On totched two in the second moiety, Ellrossanty concentrated on trying again denied. M. Veale, changed from the Kilrossanty full-forward ine to the full-back line gave an atstanding display. as the referee in the Dungarvan v. allycoe game. From the throw-in allycoe put Dungarvan on the offensive but play transferred to mid-field where Ballycoe again sent back register the first score, a point. agarvan took play to the other ed and had three overs in succeson before Ballycoe broke away and vent into the attack. A free to Ballycoe, 25 yards out was sent over ressed from the delivery and a free Good) was wide, while Barron was inches wide with another try for a point. Ballycoe, per Sean McGrath, were next attacking but Good cleared. A free to Ballycoe 40 ards out was pointed by E. Foley to 0-0 in Ballycoe's favour. Lannen the efforts of Veale who was playing I great game, but the effects were up the field where J. Mountain Rovers Club Draw.—The residence, Bleantis, Ballinamult, of Mr. Thomas Morrissey. The deceased, who was well advanced in years, was a splendid type of Irish. Catholic manhood. A sterling nationalist all through his life he was an old Fenian and Land Leaguer, who, in his young days by precept Fine Football for Russell Cup.-The games on Sunday gave great pleasure to the spectators. Dungar-van gave a polished display against Ballycoe in the first half but in the second half want of training told against them. Ballycoe seemed to lack dash and appeared to be dis-jointed in their efforts. The game will do them a great lot of good for their championship outing. The struggle between Kilrossanty and Stradbally was a great treat; fast Australia, and Mrs. B. Moloney, and a brother of Sr. Mary Evangelist, Convent of Mercy, Queensland. P. Ryan handled the game in a most capable manner.

Russell Cup Final—It was hoped to play the final on Sunday which appears to be the only clear date likely for some time but one of the teams at least would not be able to field out. The final is postponed until a suitable date can be found. Ring Tournament Came On Sunday next at 3.30 (S.T.) at Ring, Kilgobinet and Ring meet in the semifinal of the Ring medal tournament. Declan Sullivan will take charge of the game. This game promises to be a very keen one as Kilgobinet and Ring have both trained hard for the semi-final. The date for the final is not yet selected. I hear that Ring are very confident of victory in this game as at least two new players will be seen out. Kilgobinet are trying out a new selection which they believe will go far this year.

Ring Draw.—The draw in aid of the Ring Club has been postponed from St. Patrick's Night until Mon-day, March 19th. Will ticket hol-

Rangers at Kereen on Sunday next at 3 p.m. (old time). This game will be watched with interest as both teams are fairly new and with the championship games coming off shortly the contest will be very keen. This attraction at a new venue should be very well attended Hurling Final Postponed. — The western S.H. final, Tallow v. Dun-

The game is more important than the individual and all differences should be overcome. Ardmore has some great old Gaels and they should take steps to help by having a special meeting called to settle all the differences. Our games are needed in the rural areas.
