Dungarvan C.B.S., 2-1. and Reed Band, marched to the Carlie Field, Dungarvan, to see their releagues pit their skill against the representatives of Thurles C.B.S., in the Munster Junior Hurling final on last Sunday. The day held a special significance for the local Brothers' Schools, for in its long and illustrous history in the educational sphere this was the first time that supils of the school had reached the caveled position of battling for the Munster Colleges' junior hurling honours. It was a feat in itself to reach the Zinal; and though the local boys failed, they showed that in hurling skill and artistry they in hurling skill and artistry they were the equal of their conquerors. Undoubtedly, there was keen disappointment at their failure, but they have nothing to be ashamed of, for they were as gallant in defeat as they would have been in victory. The visiting boys were a heavier and stronger side and they used this advantage to good effect. Speedier 100, and better able to adapt themselves to both ground and overhead hurling they showed a fine positional sense of play and generally combined better. The local boys mover reached their true form, explayers got away with a lot of loose play. Midway in the second half thep put in a great rally but the leeway was too far to make up and they petered out towards the end.

Thurles pressed from the start and had a wide in the first minute. Returning again they forced a free which was also wide. A free to the home side followed which was sent over the bar by M. O'Connor to open the scoring. Dungarvan fouled at midfield and the resultant free was cleared by Wade who sent his forwards again into the attack. The wards again into the attack. The visiting backs were sound and Egan (Thurles) caught the eye, by a fine clearance to well up field. Thurles now took the offensive and McHugh (Dungarvan) was prominent saving his net. After five minutes, Egan, from a free, levelled for Thurles. Thurles pressed again and had two wides. Another raid by Thurles saw McHugh saving in brilliant goalie was again in the picture with his timely saves. A 70 to Thurles was pointed by Kenny and in a further Thurles raid McHugh was injured, retired and was replaced by Glblin. Some minutes later the

On resuming, Barry, Fraher and Wade were prominent warding off Thurles attack. Both sides visited in turn without result. Attacking again Dungarvan forced two frees in succession, which, however, proved fruitless. At this period there were some exhilarating and exciting exchanges. A foul at midfield by Dungarvan saw Kenny send the free over the bar and some minutes later Brierton had a similar score for Thurles. A Dungarvan offensive followed and the Thurles goalie. Thurles. A Dungarvan offensive followed and the Thurles goalie, who was playing very well, conceded a 70. The resultant puck was short but well placed and a concerted rush by the forwards saw Cunningham in good position to send a rasper to the net for Dungarvan's first green flag. The local boys were going Lynch to Richard Condon, £30; Patk. Lynch to Richard Condon, £34; John in good position to send a rasper to Farrell 30 John Monayne, £234, John Monayne, £ ontinued to press until the final whistle. Mr. D. O'Sullivan refereed.

RING FISHING DISASTER

One Man Killed and agan, Thomas Terry, Deck a Morrissey, Thomas Murphy and Patrick Keane. Two Missing.

On last Wednesday morning, while pursuing their peaceful occupation of fishermen off Helvick Head, tragedy swift and sudden overcame the crew of a Helvick fishing trawler, snatching three of them into eternity and leaving a sole survivor to tell the tale of the disaster. By their tragic and violent deaths a household has been robbed of its father and brother, and a 75-year-old boat as it was being hauled aboard.

First intimation of the tragedy was given by the crews of a number of other boats which were fishing in the vicinity when they arrived at Helvick Pier about mid-day. One of the boats brought the dead man ashore and in another boat was the Opening the proceedings Supt. P.

Doyle, Lismore, who deputised for Supt. O'Mahony, Dungarvan, said, that all they knew about the tragedy was that between 9 a.m. and 9.30 a.m. on Wednesday morning, the deceased, accompanied by his son John, Patrick Whelan and Nicholas Cuddihy, left Helvick Pier in their boat to go fishing. Some time about 11 o'clock the trawl got caught in some obstacle, four to six fathoms deep. They pulled the trawl for some minutes and then suddenly there was an explosion, which blew them all sky high. His son, John, and Nicholas Cuddihy have not yet been found. Patrick Whelan was the only survivor and I am informed by the doctor under whose care he is that he is unable to come here to is that he is unable to come here to the inquest to give evidence. The evidence of Patrick Whelan is vital and must be heard unless some other evidence is forthcoming. In the circumstances he (Supt. Doyle) nust ask for an adjournment to Helvick Pier about mid-day. One of the boats brought the dead man ashore and in another boat was the sole survivor.

John Terry, a member of the crew of the latter boat, in an interview with our correspondent, gave a graphic eye-witness's description of the tragedy. To the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests for Eire and all persons whom it may concern:

All Party Street, that is one reason why they are successful. An early spring does not catch them unprepared; they have settled beforehand the seeds, plants and bubs, that they have decided the number and kind of garden tools that are required. Some garden experts have predicted an early spring, like good campaigners they have purchased their simple tool needs already, and the assurance of July weather in March would not flurry them a bit. They are prepared. You, too, may need a spade, a rake, a digging fork or a trowel. A spade saves so many backmoved; a rake saves so many backvituate at VAN, in h Residle free blews.

Another point the players should remember is the Antrim invitation still holds good and I expect our hurlers to travel as selected to Belfast after the Munster championships, where they will play the ships, where they will play the locals in a challenge game. I hope the senior inter-county players look forward with enthusiasm to June 10th, otherwise the Gaels of Antrim may say we are not worth bringing to Belfast.

I beg to report that I have audited the accounts of the Dungarvan-Harbour Authority for the year ended 1942 all accounts due and unpaid 1942, all accounts due and unpaid by the harbour authority on 31st March, 1944, have been brought into ccount in these abstracts as if they had been paid within the financial year. It will be observed that a sum of £575 8s. 8d. is so included. This amount is due by the harbour authority to the Dungarvan Urban District Council under agreement in respect of Road Maintenance, Lightng and Salaries. Up to 1940 the harbour authority met the annual contribution for those services in full (£220 per annum) but since then only £304 11s. 4d. was paid for the four years ended 31st March, 1944, leaving the balance above re-

In these years the harbour authority was unable to meet its liabilities and this fact was apparently not taken into account when reckoning profits. I am obliged to call attention to the ions of Act 25, Local Govern ment (Officers) Regulations, 1943, in relation to Mr. O'Meara, Clerk, and Mr. Curran, Harbour Master, who are only covered by Personal Bonds present. Premiums on insurances have, in all cases, been paid to date.
The accounts were carefully prepared and were presented for audit in a satisfactory manner and I received all the information and expenses. planations I required.
