Although the meeting of the above teams in the first round of the junior hurling championships at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last provided a game played at a fast pace, marking was so close that anything in the nature of scientific hurling was at a discount, accurate striking and ball control were also poor due to the nature of the sod which was very greasy after the showers of the forenoon and a very heavy shower just before the start

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK EGAN LATE MRS. B. A. MOLONEY,

A highly esteemed and respected young Mid-Waterford lady passed away at Dungarvan District Hospi-tal on Sunday last, but twelve months which occurred at his residence on Monday morning last, after a brief illness, caused a painful sensation in the town and throughout the county, where he was held in the highest esteem by one and all. A keen and practical business man, deceased was one of the most extensive farmers in the county up to about 20 years ago, when he retired from farming after burchasing the Hibernian Hotel, where he has since carried on business with conspicuous success.

There was a very large and representative attendance at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, who knew her. Of a gentle, refined and cultured nature, she was exceedingly popular. A model Catholic, every act of her all-too-brief career was animated by the purest and most lofty motives. Her demise now after a year of happy married life and while she was still on the threshold while she was still on the threshold of buoyant young womanhood has caused widespread and unfeigned sorrow throughout these parts.—The Light of Heaven to her gentle soul.

A remarkably large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains on Sunday evening from the Hospital to Dungarvan Parish Church, and from thence on Monday to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they were received by Very Rev. E. English, P.P., where they were rested overnight on a catafalque before the high altar.

However, for the greater part of the time they were fortunate quality and action, by Forerdnner out of Bold Lily, by Theo Bold out of Linton Lily, by Macheath out of Tyne Lily by Forager.

part of the time they were fortunate in having brilliant sunshine. The well laid out grounds attached to the Convent of Mercy looked so beautiful that they certainly enhanced the inspiring scenes. Forming in the grounds of the Convent Schools the Procession slowly wended its way through the grounds to the Convent Chapel filling the air with dulcet sounds of sweetly harmonised voices in hymns of praise to the Bessed Mother, accompanied by the very softly played music of the Boys Brass and Reed Band under Mr. J. Walsh. Large crowds lined the entire route to witness what was really a most edifying spectacle. On arrival at the Chapel, Benediction was given by Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C. After Benediction once more filed out to the Grotto, Hymns were then sung in honour of Our Lady accompanied by the Band. It was indeed a splendid display of reverence and devotion on behalf of all. C.Q.M. Sgt. John Fennelly (D.A.O. Kilmacthomas L.D.F.), corroborated the evidence of the previous witness and told the Justice that the coat was valued at £2 6s. Defendant joined the L.D.F. on the 30th May, 1941, and resigned on the 24th Nov.,

Defendant, who did not appear (neither did he appear last Court-day), was fined £2. The Minister for Defence (re-presented by Mr. Keller) prosecuted Messrs. Ml. Walsh, Ross, Kilmeaden; Patrick Stewart, Kilbarrymeaden, Kill and Ml. O'Brien of Ballydurn, Clonea; for a breach of the L.D.F. (Emergency) Regulations inasmuch as they misused L.D.F. equipment. None of the defendants were present

Capt. Gerald Fitzgerald (Asst. Area Officer of the L.D.F.) in evidence stated that he saw Stewart on April 13th, last, and found him wearing his uniform whilst working in fie'ds at Bonmahon. Defendant had previously been warned con-cerning this particular breach of re-gulations. On the same day at Ballyduff, witness met Walsh who was sowing seeds wearing the tunic. This defendant was also aware of the regulations governing L.D.F. equipment. Continuing his evidence, Capt. Fitzgerald stated that on the 29th March last, at Fews, he was on duty there where he saw O'Brien in a forge. Defendant was wearing the great coat, cap and trousers, and gave witness the excuse that his civilian clothes were wet from the previous night's rain. Answering the Justice, the Army witness stated that all three were now ex-members of the L.D.F. and added that the uniforms would be returned. Witness did not wish to press the case very much but would like it to serve as a warning to others. This type of offence was particularly prevalent around these parts and several of the L.D.F. mem-

GAELIC NOTES: SENIOR CLUBS

By "TAOBHLINE." I wish to congratulate the Waterford senior and minor footballers who put up such a marvellous display against Tipperary at Carrick-on-Suir on Sunday last, in the Munster championships. I predicted last week that there would not be much in it bethere would not be much in it between the two senior teams at the final whistle, and I was right. Tipperary were at full strength against a Waterford team who did not field out as selected. Candidly, I have never seen the Waterford men play as they did on Sunday last, and they went down fighting against a Tipperary team who have ambitions of taking Munster senior honours this taking Munster senior honours this year. It is hard to single out any one of the Waterford backs for special mention—all played so well—but I would like to pay a well deserved tribute to John Kiely, Stradbally, who completely subdued the elusive Army famed footballer, Lt. Croghan. The Stradbally trio, Connors, Fleming and Tom Veale, were in devastating form, and at full back the sole Kilform, and at full back the sole Kilrossanty representative, Tom Veale, rendered sterling service. The Dunhill man, Nickey Casey, completed a great back line, and a feature of the game was his lengthy kicking of a heavy, greasy ball. Willie McGrath was a tower of strength at centre field, where his bustling tactics proved advantageous to the Waterford men. Kevin Whelan, Christy Moylan and Jackie Good were the pick of the forwards, and with a little more co-operation from the remainder they might have taken the lead in the closing stages.

The minors were very unlucky, and on the run of play they deserved to have won, outside of extra time, when t was noticed they tired.

Cappoquin nearly created a first-class sensation on Sunday last at Tal-low, in the senior hurling champion-ship, against the locals. I understand they had the better of the play but missed some golden opportunities during the course of the game. It must have gone very hard on Tallow when Sonny Curley had to go down from defence to attack, and the town of the Cornerstone men had the Tallow players at sixes and sevens. Tallow luckily enough won by a point, which was secured by Mick Curley, Mass cards were received from: which was secured by Mick Curley, who came out of the goal to pull the game out of the fire

At Coolaneen (Melleray).—The meeting of Cappoquin and Modeligo at Coolaneen (Faugh-a-Ballagh grounds) near Melleray on Sunday in junior football promises to be one of the closest games of the year. Cappoquin, up to this were strong favourites, but last minute news has favourites, but last minute news has come in that Modeligo expects to have three or four new players that will make al: the difference. Saint Augustines (Abbeyside) have agreed to play Dungarvan in the junior hurling championships instead. Dungarvan will now be fielding two hurling teams, one in minor hurling versus Cathal Brugha's and the other in junior hurling versus Saint Augustines. In minor hurling Fitzie expects the assistance of a number of College boys while Dungarvan will field their usual 60 per cent. C.B.S. boys. The St. Augustine's hurlers are taking the game seriously and hurleys are being shaped and boots pegged for Sunday's game. The age old rivalry between the "village" and the "town" is once again coming to the between the "village" and the "town" is once again coming to the fore. Perhaps Sunday will give the village boys something to shout about. Who knows?

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. Camogie Club's Defeat.—The local challenge with camphire on visitors emerged victorious. The Ballyduff Club were not at full strength, but the substitutes gave a good account of themselves and when the championships come round they should be able to give any team in West Waterford a close game. Seldom has a more outstanding or enjoyable production been held at Lismore than the Lismore Dramatic Society's presentation at the Happydrome on Ascention Thursday of a splendid three-act play 'The Spina-ing Wheel." That the Society has won a high reputation by many successful productions over the past few years was proved by the huge crowds which filled the spacious hall at both the matinee and night performance and one and all were unanimous in declaring this latest venture to be easily the best effort to date.
