AN TAOISEACH IN DUNGARVAN

An Taoiseach, Mr. De Valera, addressed a large gathering at the Square, Dungarvan, on last Sunday. The meeting was in support of Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly for the Presidency, and for the local Fianna Fail nomide by veterans of the Old I.R.A. wearing their service medals, and was escorted by them to the town. On arrival at the Square, where a big rowd had gathered, he was greeted by prolonged cheering. A guard of henour of Gardai, under Supt. P. platform. As his arrival was earlier than expected, the meeting was de-aved for some time, but when it began, one of the largest crowds ever seen on the Square had assembled. An Taoiseach was accompanied by Mr. P. J. Little, Minister for Posts and Telegraphs; Mr. Sean Goulding, Catherleach Seanad; Mr. Michl. Morrissed, T.D., and Capt. Brennan, Ireland's Greatest Leader.

Mr. M. Morrissey, opening the meeting, said that the people of Dungarvan were privileged to be present at the meeting that day, as he was privileged to preside, to hear the leader leged to preside, to hear the leader of the Irish nation speak. "I am delighted," continued Mr. Morrissey, "to see such a large meeting. I am delighted that the people of Dungarvan, as well as the people of all the country, are beginning to realise that there is only one leader for the Irish nation—Eamon De Valera. You have shown that to-day by coming here in such large numbers to pay homage to Ireland's greatest leader—Eamon De

Continuing, Mr Morrissey said that they were able to assemble at the meeting as people of a free and demo-cratic State. It was the Constitution of 1927 that had made that possible, and it made possible the fact that they could elect for the first time the first citizen of the State. An Taoiseach had come to Dungarvan in connection with that election as well as the election of the local Fianna Fail repre-sentatives to the County and Urban

GAELIC NOTES: SENIOR CLUBS

By "TA()BHLINE."

All followers of the Waterford hurling team are eagerly looking forward to Fermoy on Sunday next where the Deise men throw down a strong challenge to the Premier County hurlers. The displays of our hurlers in league tournaments and benefit matches for the past six months are not encouraging but the Munster Hurling Championship is a different proposition and when our boys line out on Sunday next they boys line out on Sunday next they will be quietly confident of beating Tipperary and avenging a twelve months old defeat suffered at Clonmel last year. There is no getting away from the fact that we are quite capable of winning on Sunday next and our team on paper looks a formidable one. I promised last week to tip off our players on what methods to adapt to beat Tipperary and I am firmly convinced that if my suggestions are adopted they will bear fruit.

In the opening round of the Four County Hurling League we had Tipperary visitors to Dungarvan last Autumn and the Waterford team who played on the day in question was reckoned a strong contender for League honours. They, however, disappointed their many supporters by their fooling display and they got a hurling lesson typical of Tipperary first-time pulling, man and ball. Tipp. turned up with a bare team Tipp, turned up with a bare team minus some of their most prominent for the second year in succession.

Not one of the Waterford players took the match serious and a fairish crowd were treated to delightful hurling by the Tipperary men whilst out the hour. My three points should help the Waterford players: (1), away from the start; (2), first-time pulling and no gar ery play; (3), play and defeat Tipperary at their own game. I will add a fourth point: No player is to change places unless he is instructed to do so by the Selectors. My reasons are, the memories of the 1942 Munster Final against Cork are still fresh.

To the Editor, Dungarvan Observer.

Sir,—Will you kindly let me have a little space in your paper to protest against the compulsory acquisition of part of my land at Abbeyside by the Dungarvan Urban Council.

The position is as follows: I own 19 acres of arable land. Of this, 64 acres are under crops (wheat, beet, potations, oats, mangolds, etc.), with 4½ acres of leves a balance of 8 acres of permanent pasture which I require to maintain my dairy cows, calves, etc. The Council are acquiring 4½ acres of this, which leaves a balance of 8 acres of permanent pasture to maintain my dairy cows, calves, etc. The Council are acquiring 4½ acres of this, which leaves a balance of 8½ acres of permanent pasture to maintain for head of stock. This compulsory acquisition will render my way of living impossible. Thanking you in anticipation, yours faithfully.

ELECTION ADDRESS WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL (LISMORE AREA).

Ladies and Gentlemen,— Having been requested by several influential Ratepayers to again go for-ward as their Representative on the Waterford County Council, I have decided to do so, as an Independent Candidate, as previously I have represented this Area since 1927, and I think that during this long 10/- period I have faithfully performed my duties, and safeguarded the interests Pike Fife and Drum of the Ratepayers in every way. My record on the Council, and its several subsidiary Committees, is now well known to the public, and, relying on this record, I now respectfully ASK FOR YOUR No. 1 VOTE on June 14th, and can promise to prove as faithful a Representative in the future as in GRAND DANCE (in aid of above) WILL BE HELD AT the past.

Yours respectfully, THE PIKE HALL

TALLOW NOTES.

Corpus Christi Procession at Tallow.—In brilliant sunshine on Sunday last, Tallow held its first Eucharistic Procession through the town. The route, over a mile long, was lavishly decorated with flags, bunting, streamers, flowers and other manifestations of honour and welcome to the King of Kings, Who was for the first time in the history of the town being publicly honoured. The route comprised the four principal streets and townparks. During the procession no one was allowed to stand idly by looking on. Along the otherwise empty streets marched four deep, more than eleven hundred men, women and children, alternatively praying and singing in honour of Him Who was blessing the town and parish, and to Whom they were consecrated publicly in the Square at the beautiful altar of white and gold (incidentally the work of a local tradesman). The Procession, headed by Crossbearer and altar boys moved off from the precincts of the Carmelite Convent grounds at three o'clock, and as the Sacred Host, borne in the Monstrance by Very Rev. M. F. Hearne, P.P., under the Canopy, reached the entrance to the Convent, the guard of honour drawn from the local Coy., L.D.F., came smartly to attention and presented arms, while the L.D.F. bugler and drummers sounded the general salute. On reaching the Square Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given and at its close the Procession proceeded to the Parish Church where Benediction was again given and as the final blessing was being imparted the guard of honour presented arms and the Church resounded to the general salute sounded by the bugler and drummers, the ceremonies being most impressive. In attendance were, Very Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P., Knockanore; Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., Glendine, and Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C., Tallow, conducting the exercises en route. The guard of honour was under P/L Michael Power and forty Proof of deceased's popularity was evidenced by the large and representative con-course of sympathisers which was present at the removal of deceased's remains to the Parish Church, the coffin being borne by relatives, neighbours and friends. Present a.so were Very Rev. Fr. Hearne, P.P., and Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C., who received the coffin at the entrance to the Church and recited the prayers for the dead. At the subsequent interment which took place in the cemetery adjoining the Church, equally large numbers of the general public attended, prior to which Requiem Masses for the repose of de-ceased's soul were offered by Very Rev. Fr. Hearne, P.P., and Rev Fr. Meehan, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside. Chief mourners were: Mrs. M. Doyle (widow); Miss May Doyle, Mrs. T. Feeley, Mrs. J. its unwelcome appearance in a number of districts in Co. Waterford, particularly along the seaboard. Present weather condition favour the spread of the disease and the onset of blight has been so rapid that, in one area at least, a number of crops have been practically wiped out. Potato growers should take immediate steps to have their crops sprayed. In this connection it would be well to remember that spray does not cure blight, it only prevents it. The object therefore should be to have crops sprayed before the disease appears. For a first spraying what is known as the halfstrength blue-stone solution may be used, i.e., 4lbs. blue-stone and 5lbs. washing soda in 40 gallons of water. Later sprays should be full strength—double above figures in 40 gals. water. Where proprietary sprays are used directions given on packets should be followed.

LISMORE NOTES. Annual Corpus Christi Procession —Inspiring scenes of religious fer-your were witnessed at Lismore on Sunday last, on the occasion of the annual procession of the Blessed Sacrament. Although the weather up to Saturday night was very uncertain, ideal conditions prevailed on Sunday, and large crowds from Lismore and surrounding parishes as-sembled for this great act of public worship, making the procession one of the largest and most successful dare. since its inauguration. The entire town was lavishly decorated for the Knockanore Church on Wednesday occasion, young and old having evening there was a tremendous worked untiringly up to a late hour gathering. The coffin was received on Saturday night and early on Sun-on Saturday light and coase day morning to prepare a welcome for the King of Kings. Each street Masses were celebrated for the was gaily decked with bunting, flowers and evergreens, and suitably many points along the route. The order of the procession was as follows: Banner of the Sacred Heart carried by members of the Men's Confraternity, Boy Scouts followed by C.B.S. and other boys of parish, Men's Confraternity and men of the parish Girl Guides, children's choir

Monastery where a temporary altar. Monastery, where a temporary altar, tastefully arranged, had been erected and surounded with a lavish display of flags and bunting. Here Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Very Rev. Canon Walsh. was given by very trev. Callon walsh.

The scene presented at the Elevation was most impressive and edifying, when as the Royal Salute was sounded by Bugler T. Walsh, the guard of honour presented arms, and all heads were bowed in humble adoration of the Eucharistic King. The procession then wended its way through Upper New Street, Station Road, and Chapel Street, and so back to St. Carthage's Church, where final Benediction was given. All along the route large crowds who were unable to join in the procession knelt in adoration as the Sacred Host passed by. The huge throng participating was splendidly marshalled by members of the Maria Confratornity and availant Men's Confraternity, and excellent order was maintained throughout.

Great Camogie Game.—The replay of the unfinished game between Lismore and Glen Rovers, which took evening, proved one of the most ex-citing clashes at the local venue for some time, and after forty minutes of lively play Lismore emerged winners by 1-0 to nil. Exchanges were fairly even in the first half, with both sides going all out for a score. The interval whistle, however, still found matters followers began to talk of a scoreless draw. Lismore now began to play with greater dash on the change over and soon asserted their superiority in most departments. Most of the play in this period centred around the Glen Rovers' defence lines, and about ten minutes from the end Lismore crashed through for the winning goal to the great delight of their sup-porters. Excitement reached fever pitch as the Rovers made a last big attempt to equalise, but Lismore were more than equal to the occasion and held their lead to the end. Mr. J.

Power, Glounthaune, was the referee.

Excellent Entertainment.—On Sunday night last, Equity Productions concluded their stay in Line when "Drama at Inish." Other plays presented during the week were "Things That Are Caesar's," and "Marrowbone Lane." THE TEACHERS' WORK. In a previous issue we dealt with the question of the value of the teachers' work. It is left to the reader to decide for himself when he has thought over the facts. The question of remuneration must naturally follow the question of the value of the work. Before one can say that the work is worth this or say that the work is worth this or that amount several vital points must be examined. First of these is, we think, the importance of the work to the children. Except for a negligble few, every child in the State is taught by the primary teachers. About 85 per cent of our children receive no other education. Therefore it follows that the mental and moral welfare is in the hands of the primary teachers. It is undeniable that the teachers have done and are doing excellent work in this respect, for young people have gone to every for young people have gone to every quarter of the globe and have made their mark wherever they settled. At home we have shown that we can manage our affairs as well as any nation on earth. To a greater extent probably than any other country, pub-lic work on councils and corporations s carried out in Eire by the ordinary citizen—and carried out pretty successfully. Our people have a keen and intelligent interest in home and foreign affairs. Matters of worldwide interest and concern are discussed intellegently. Our home life is as good as may be found anywhere. Our industrial and agricultural The next vital point is, at what cost > England, to-day, those in similar positions are in receipt of salaries almost double those for Irish teachers, and this not including a substantial war bonus. The burden of the reviva: of a native language dangerously close to extinction need not be borne by teachers in England (Apart from any other consideration we believe that those who are doing w much for the preservation of our native language, the language that enshrines the Catholic mentality and national fervour that preserved through centuries of oppression our Faith and national identity, should be treated not only with justice but with generosity). It is difficult to understand why our teachers should receive only about half what teachers abroad receive. It is easy to understand why our best young men and women should choose to emigrate and use their gifts where cation they will ever receive that it is of vital importance to every parent to ensure that our teachers are the very best and that they can give of their best. You cannot have the best in any profession unless you make the conditions such as will encourage the best to adopt that profession. If you get the best into the profession they will be unable to give of their best unless the circumstances are favourable. Poor, narrow family, Fountain; Mrs. K. Geary, Mrs. D. G minds can never give our children the rich, broad mentality that is their right and their country's necessity. Extensive reading, travel and unlimited opportunity to absorb the best that the world can offer is necessary if our teachers are to open the minds of our children and lead them out to see the wonders and the wonders are wonders and the wonders and the wonders and the wonders are wonders. them out to see the wonders and glories that God created "for man's use and benefit." It is sometimes argued that we cannot afford to pay for such education. Are we to take it then that our children must be mentally and morally starved? No parent will agree. The one thing we cannot afford to do without is There, without exaggeration, we have the gift to our people and the colouring, and above all, if you do not devote care and attention to your woodwork every year, your house will have that neglected appearance with care and discretion, but every room in your house the gift to our people and the colouring, and above all, if you do not devote care and attention to your woodwork every year, your house them? Annual Procession.—The annual Procession of the Blessed Sacrament was held in Ballyduff on Sunday week when inspiring scenes of devotion were witnessed. It proved to votion were witnessed. It proved to be one of the largest processions yet held in the village, large crowds travelling from all the surrounding districts to take part in the great act of homage to the King of Kings. The village was gaily decorated with flags bunting and evergreens and presented a beautiful and artistic amearance and showed that no appearance and showed that no effort was spared to do honour to the Blessed Sacrament. The stewards are to be congratulated on the ex-cellent order and efficiency in which the entire proceedings were carried out. Final Benediction was given in the Church which was filled to its utmost capacity. During the Procession hymns were beautifully rendered by the Church Choir.

Obituary.—It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Patrick Barry, which sad event occurred at The deceased was a member of an old and respected family and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. Quiet, unassuming and genial he made numerous friends who regert his passing, and to his bereaved relatives sympathy is universal. A large concourse accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Michael's Church, Ballyduff, where they rested overnight. Requiem Masses were offered up on Saturday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a clarge and the state. in the presence of a large and representative gathering and amid every manifestation of deep regret. Very Rev. Fr. Dowley, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., officials.

Death of Mrs. J. Geary.—It is with feelings of deep regret that we record the death of Mrs. Jane Geary, which sad event occurred at her residence, Green Road, Moorehill, after a rather protracted illness and fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church. Deceased was relict of the late Mr. Patrick Geary and was a member of an old and highly respected and esteemed family. The and Mr. T. Foley (Chairman, Grange Cumann) were also present. A letter regretting his inability to be present was read from Mr. Thomas Mulcahy, was read from Mr. Thomas Mulcahy, Drumslig.

The Chairman (Mr. Burke) outlined the object of the meeting, which he said was for the purpose of preparing a programme for the coming Presidential and County Council elections. He urged all members to get down to the important task of returning the Fianna Fail nominees.

Mr. Burke dealt at length on the down to the important task of returning the Fianna Fail nominees.

Mr. Burke dealt at length on the suitability of Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly as President of the country, and then went on to deal with the local administration and again urged his hearers to vote for the local candidate (Mr. Mansfield) and the other Fianna Fail candidates in the coming elections, so that they will have local bodies that will assist the Government in carrying out their extensive post-war programme, and in their efforts for a united Ireland.
