False Pretences Charge.—Supt. P. O'Mahony charged Richard Mulcahy, Curragh, Ardmore, with obtaining the sum of £14 6s. 9d. by false pretences, also with stealing a cheque.

Defendant pleaded guilty,
The evidence showed that defendant cashed a cheque, value for the sum stated, for his father in a local shop. He later returned to the shop, took the cheque out of the drawer and cashed it again in another shop.

Supt. P. O'Mahony charged Richard Mulcahy, Curragh, Ardmore, with obtaining the occasion and consequently great numbers turned up and witnessed one of the most exciting games ever played in the Sportsfield.

Dungarvan fielded a full team which included C. Moylan, W. Barron and M. Landers of the inter-county team, which it may be said did not add to the hopes of the more inexperienced Cappoquin team. However, many had great hopes for Cappoquin tince: their magnificent display at Tallow some time ago and to what a measure were those hopes

GAELIC NOTES : SENIOR CLUBS By "TAOBHLINE."

I wish to offer heartiest congratulations to the Cappoquin senior hurlers who had a sensational win over Dungarvan on Sunday last in the second round of the senior hurling championships. Their victory was no fluke and on the run of play it was richly merited. Apart from Sunday's victory the Cornerstone men have accomplished a rere feat by making the headlines their first year in senior competition. Rarely do we see a promoted team make the grade in senior ranks; usually the junior champions go out in the first round, but Cappoquin who are an earnest lot have gone a step further which may be an incentive to future junior teams who automatically become senior on winning second the ball, delighted their most ardent supporters by a great all round display in which Jim Sargent, Jas. Anearne, J. Brackett and the veteran P. English, started. I warned Dungarvan last week that the opposition was not to be treated lightly but little heed was taken with the result that the championship now goes into the melting pot and it will prove interesting to see who will contest the county final from this end.

I heard over the week-end that a

A very thrilling and exciting game was witnessed in the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, on Sunday last when the eagerly awaited game between Dungaryan and Cappoquin in the senior garvan and Cappoquin in the senior hurling championship match took place. COLLAPSES IN TRAIN AT DUNGARVAN.

A well-known Waterford commercial traveller in the person of Mr. J. Travers, (62), 9, South Parade, met his death under very sad and sudden circumstances shortly after he had taken his seat in the 9.30 Waterford-Cork train at Dungaryan Station on Tuesday last. Mr. Travers was a Tuesday last. Mr. Travers was a frequent and familiar visitor to Dungarvan on behalf of his firm, Messrs. Shaw, Drapers, Waterford. He had been in town on the previous day, and, apparently in the best of health, had carried out his business transactions. On Tuesday morning he attended first Mass at the Parish Church, returned to his hotel for breakfast and later left for the station. He purchased a ticket for Lismore and took his seat on the train. While sitting in his compartment he got suddenly ill and within fifteen minutes had expired. While

The outlook before the match was as gloomy as ever the old team had to face but the fighting spirit of Kilrossanty once again manifested itself and for the hour the spectaitself and for the hour the spectators were treated to a ding-dong struggle. The gaps in the Kilrossanty side were manned by Pat Veale, former captain of the Comeragh side and hero of many a hard-fought game; Martin Fitzgerald, John Lonergan, J. Organ and T. Kiely. The side lined out as follows: P. Fizzerald (goal)

A Bright, Clean House is just what every good housewife is proud to own. Consider the beautiful designs you can effect with some of the new paints and distances manufactured paints and distempers manufactured to-day. You know the beauty that goes with silk, satin and velvet, the dignity in certain situations of marble and plaster, and the serenity of wood pannelling. All these effects are tainable in the new paints and distantable in the new paints and tempers stocked by us. Imagine is you can the opportunities that await those who understand the properties of paint and distempers. Not only it possible to transform the appear ance of the whole house if you purchase your materials with care and discretion, but every room in your house will be exquisite in design and colouring, and above all, if you do not devote care and attention to your house woodwork every year, your house will have that neglected appearance that you will all regret.—Harpur Bros., Waterford.
