DEATH OF MR. PATK. PHELAN DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT Graignagour, Ballymacarbery.

There was a very striking tribute paid at the funeral to Four-Milepaid at the funeral to Four-Mile-Water on Sunday evening last to the memory of the late Mr. Patrick Finelan, Gratgnagous, Ballymacarbery, whose regretted death occurred at his residence on Saturday evening, June 23rd. The funeral was the largest seen in that area for a long number of years, and testified to the very great regret felt at the passing of this popular man. The deceased, who was a noted agriculturalist was due to his quiet and unassuming disposition and his integrity in all his dealings, one of the most popular figures in West Watermost popular figures in West Water-ford. To his bereaved wife, young family, his mother, sisters and bro-thers, we join with their legion of friends in tendering very sincere sympathy in their great loss. Very Rev. Fr. Meskill, P.P.; Rev.

C. Cassidy, C.C. and Rev. Fr. Hickey (brother-in-law of deceased) met the remains at the Church gates when the funeral arrived at Four-Mile-Water, and recited the prayers for the dead. CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

NA.C.A.—At Bandon on Sunday last our brilliant cyclist, J. J. Foley, added yet two more victories to his already long list of successes. This was in the one mile handicap and two mile championship, both of which he won in convincing style, retaining the latter title since last year. Although the opposition was very stiff, made up of the cream of Ireland's cyclists, yet, the issue was never in doubt, and Jimmy swept to the front in each race, clearly outstripping his opponents. clearly outstripping his opponents.

Mr. Dan McGrath, another outstanding local athlete, also upheld the honour of the Club at Navan on the same day when he won the 880, 440 and 1220 in convincing style.

G.A.A.—At the Sportsfield, Tallow, on Monday last Cappoquin senior hunling team met Tallow in a practical state of the were ideal. The local team was minus the services of some of its most prominent players but never-theless they played a splendid game and were besten only by a narrow margin. Very fine hurling was witnessed in the second moiety as Cappoquin strove hard to overhaul their opponents. Despite their efforts, however, they were still in arrears when the final whistle went. This defeal however has not discouraged the boys and when they meet Portlaw with a full team in the near future we have for another victory.

CAPPOQUIN PARISH COUNCIL.

Rev. Fr. Dunphy, C.C., presided at the usual monthly meeting of the Parish Council held on Wednesday. The correspondence included a letter from the C.I.E. with reference to the Council's application of an extension of the bus service to Cappo-quin. In this letter it was stated that for the present there would be no aleration in the service but that later on, if there was an improve ment in the petrol supply the Company would give favourable consideration to the application. The draft of the memorial to the directors of the National and Munster and Leinster Banks asking that full time banking facilities be provided in town was read and approved. It was ordered that the memorial be prepared for signature and circulated in the town and diswrite to the Co. Manager asking that attention be given to the following matters: (1) improved water supply; (2) public scavenging, and (3) housing. As it had been suggested to the Council that a change in the day for holding the monthly fair would result in better attendance of buyers and larger fairs, it was decided to consult farmers, stockholders, etc. asking for suggestions in the matter. It was also decided to consider the practicability of holding horse
