A Word of Advice to Holidaymakers. — Nowadays many much-needed articles are in very short supply, and perhaps unobtainable in your home town. Why not combine business with pleasure and when passing through Waterford pay us a visit. We may be able to satisfy your wants, or at least be of some assistance in helping you to procure what you need. It would be impossible for us to enumerate the many and varied stocks which we hold, but we are not boasting when we claim that everything from the proverbial needle to an anchor can be procured. Our departments are many, but the one word HIGHEST sums up the quality of our goods.—Harpur Bros.,

ABBEYSIDE SKIPPER AT MONTREAL

We take the following from an issue of the "Montreal Herald" of June in port, three of them aircraft car-riers (the MacDermott, MacAndrew and MacCallum), the Port of Montreal is a busy sight these days. The colours of the Irish Free State dipped for the first time in Montreal as the Irish Spruce passed astern of the Irish Larch, both in harbour toether, as the most colourful sight this port has seen for many years. Captain David Foley, of the Irish Larch, a veteran of the oil trade from the Gulf of Mexico, and the Japa-S, hese run for many years, has on board the Irish Larch a 19-year-old apprentice seaman, chipping paint on the deck, who is son of one of Ireland's most noted parliamentarians. This boy, Michael Davin, a student of Blackrock College, was intended to be a dentist, but the call of the sea was too strong. With all the sea was too strong. With all cadetships on the Irish Shipping Ltd. occupied, the young Irishman chose the hard work of an ordinary seathe hard work of an ordinary seath man in order to get his time in for a junior officer's ticket." Donnelly and Baird, who had been considered unbeatable not to speak of the 13 other competitors which made a field of 15. Keeping a favourable position tation was made in the presence of the committee by the vice-president, Mrs. Alexander, at a farewell party given by Mr. and Mrs. Paxman at Ballyrafter on Friday last. Mrs. Alexander said that the committee availed themselves of this opportunity to express their appreciation of Nurse Knowles' work in the district for the last ten years and their regret at her departure. They all knew the many difficulties there had been to contend with and how tired and exhausted she must often have felt after the long bicycle rides which she had done owing to the lack of motor transport. But Nurse Knowles never spared herself, and by her skill and sympathy has done much to help Sargent, another splendid athlete, the sick and poor in Lismore. The committee wished for the opportunity to give her a token of their appreciation, and decided to have a collection among the members only. But when the many friends of Miss Knowles heard of the project they begged to be allowed to contribute, and as a result it was with very great pleasure she was able to present the nurse with the sum of £58. Concluding, on behalf of the committee, Mrs. Departure. -- The departure of Mr. Alexander then expressed their very best wishes for her happiness and good fortune in her new position. In a few well-chosen words, Mr. A. W. Paxman endorsed the sentiments expressed by Mrs. Alexander, and said that during all the years he had been that during all the years he had been connected with the Nursing Association in Lismore there had never been a more satisfactory nurse than Miss Knowles. Tallow were definitely the better team, and in the second half were in complete control of the game. But we must congratulate the home team on playing with traditional Lismore perseverance and determination right up to the final whistle, even though they knew there was little chance of reducing the Tallow lead. And as a result the game was much more closely contested than the final score would suggest. Tallow now go on to meet Tourin at Lismore Gaelic Field on Sunday next. Knockanore and Ballyduff also line out in junior football at the same venue, and this double programme should provide patrons with plenty of excitement. The minor hurling match between Cappoquin and Araglen, which had been billed for Lismore on Sunday last, did not take place as the Araglen team failed to put in an appearance. This was most disan appearance. In the first half, play was very evenly contested and on resumption, and particularly in the last quarter, the local fifteen showed better training and ran out winners on the score, 10-5 to 4-4 for Lismore. Outstanding for the winners were Charlie McCarthy, Bill Sheehan, Connie Ryan, M. Ronayne and S. Prendergast and scorers for Lismore were P. Moore, M. Whelan and M. Pollard. On Sunday next the local juniors meet Tourin at Lismore in lengthened period and local anglers had quite good sport, some exceptional good baskets being taken.

Pride of place, however, goes to a reaches. Quite a large number of trout taken by other rods during the past week turned the scales at from 1 to 1½ lbs.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

"Pattern" in honour of St. Declan, patron saint of the district was held at Ardmore on Sunday last, and from an early nour there was a steady stream of visitors to the historic spot. All day long pilgrims were to be seen devoutly performing the rounds" at the scene of Leclan's labours. Towards evening the crowd increased and the village and the en-Votions were arranged to coincide with the Pattern " celebrations, and during Exposition of the Elessed Sacrament there was a continuous stream of worshippers to the church.

The main altar and sanctuary were beautifully decorated for the occasion, while the Papal and National Flags were flown at the church gates.

Solemin High Mass was celebrated each morning, there being a big congregation on each occasion. Sacred music was supplied by a choir of visiting nuns. On Sunday night the usual dence was held in St. Declan's Hall, when there was a huge attendance of the supplied of the supp dance from all parts of West Waterford. Music was supplied by Lily Jones' Band. A big crowd also at tended the long ceiliche held in St. Declar's College Hall. St. Declar's Feast Day, 24th July, was as usual observed as a holiday in Ardmore Sympathy.—At a largely attended special parade of Clashmore Cov. L.D.F. held on Sunday last a vote of tympathy was passed to Mr. James Mansfield, Dungarvan, on his recent bereavement occasioned by the sad death of his mother.

Local Improvements.—As a result of a suggestion from the local Parish Council to the County Manager. County Council employees have carried out several local improvements during the past week. An expression of gratitude is due to the County Manager and the Acting County Surveyor for their prompt action in see-ing that the Parish Council's sugges-tions were carried out.

The Camogie Championship.—A huge crowd travelled from Clashmore to Whitechurch or Sunday last to chaet the local camogie tearn in their championship match with St. Mary's (Dungarvan). Every possible mode of conveyance was pressed into ser-vice traps, drays, etc. A tribuic is due to that young Clashratore team for their heroic fight against the county champions. Although not at full strength (Miss K. Mansfield was missed from the forwards), they worthily upheld the honour of Clash-more and their supporters are proud of them. A tribute is due to the referee (Mr. P. Mornssey) for the capable manner in which he handled the game, but the stewarding gave rise to complaint. On all sides is regre, that there should be such in unsatisfactory conclusion to a great

L.D.F. was one of the first recruits. He received apid promotion and vas a member of the Lismore District Staff up to the time of his departure

Ardmore Bound Tower. - High above the historic village of Ardmore the beautifully proportioned Round Tower raises its apering form to the height of about 100 feet. It is the most perfect specimen of its class—a singularly graceful column outlined in more sombre tints of the hill bearing. The tower is divided on the puiside into four storeys, marked on by projecting string courses and slight repartes. The masonry is of the filest coursed ashlar. A conical stone sap of characteristic pattern crowns the

There is little data to calculate the etact age of the tower, but, be and doubt, it is a late speciment it may in fact; be as late as the end of the 12th sentury. It is the outstanding ancient structure in West Wateford and a source of much interest to visitors to Ardmore

St. Declan.-According to an Cent visitors St. Deciain was born at Drumroe, Mean Cappo quin. and les ceived Christian Baptisan, upbritiging and education within his native tyrritory.
