Coolagh Lane.—Mr. Veale again referred to the necessity of repairs at Coolagh Lane, and said this was always done by the council in the past. This lane was used by about 20 ratepayers. It is a small matter and if taken over by the council would be only a very small liability.

Mr. McGrath said that during his time as borough surveyor the coun-cil at one period put about 50 loads of stone into it and ran the roller over it, but that would not make it a council responsibility.

The Chairman said he agreed with Mr. Veale that something should be done towards repairs.

Clerk—I wonder is it a matter for the County Council. They have taken over all roads in the urban

Mr. P. Butler seconded.

Mr. Morrissey, T.D., supporting the proposal, said Councillor Caulfield was an old, valued member, and a regular attendant at all neetings.

He (Mr. Morrissey) was very pleased to see him elected unanimously.

Returning thanks, the Chairman said that he never expected the honour of being appointed chairman. Although he was vice-chairman, he had nearly forgotten as fact as due to the very good attendance of the previous chairman he very rarely was called on to act.

Vice Chairman—On the proposal of Mr. Torpey, seconded by Senator Butler, Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., was appointed to the vice-chair.

Wice-Chairman.—On the proposal of Mr. Torpey, seconded by Senator Butler, Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., was appointed to the vice-chair.

Chairman—In 1938 were the people siting turf and bread vouchers?

Mr. Phelan—N.Q. They are now setting turf, milk, etc., in food youchers.

Mr. Phelan—No They are now getting turf, milk, etc., in food veuchers.

Mr. Kyne said that nearly all workers had got increases in small bonuses up to 11/- due to the cost of living figures, and if those who are able to work get 11/-, surely those in receipt of home assistance are entitled to a corresponding increase. He has a feeling that the relief given is wholly inadequate.

A Word of Advice to Holiday ers. - Nowadays many much needed articles are in very short supply, and perhaps unobtainable in your home town. Why not combine business with pleasure and when passing through Waterford pay us a visit. We may be able to satisfy your wants, or at least be of some assistance in helping you to procure what you need. It would be impossible for us to enumerate the many and varied stocks which we hold, but we are not boasting when we claim that everything from the proverbial needle to an anchor can be procured. Our departments are many, but the one word HIGHEST sums up the quality of our goods.—Harpur Bros., Waterford.

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES

Holiday-makers at Bonmanon these days include Mr. Vincent Ash-ton, who is accompanied by his wife ducts an expansive and flourishing usiness concern across Channel. Well nigh three decades of years have elapsed since Mr. Ashton—then but a mere youth—first set foot in Bonmahon, and he immensely enjoys his annual visits to the place, doubtedly does, its bracing atmosphere and the friendliness and hosp tality of its people. It is hoped that, as soon as existing transport diffi-culties will be completely removed, he may be pleased to set up a branch of his business in the once famous copper mining village and so provide lucrative employment for a staff drawn from the locality.

Death of Mr. John Higgins.—It is with feelings of deepest regret we learned of the death of Mr. John Higgins, Cooltubrid, Kilmacthomas, which occurred at St. Patrick's Hos pital, Waterford, on Thursday week Deceased, who was a septuagenarian sition, and to his last hour displayed a truly wonderful example of patient resignation to Divine Providence. Of a quiet and most unassuming disposition, he had won for himself the universal esteem be much longer minus a camogie combination of its own. So—club to gether ye comely and courageous colleens of Stradbally!! of all who had the pleasure of knowing him. The late Mr. Higgins had lived and worked in Watford, England, for more than 30 years; his good wife pre-deceased him, and he is survived by his highly-respected sons and daughters—Messrs. John and Patrick Higgins, Watford; Miss Mary Higgins, do.; Mrs. Mansfield, do., and Mrs. Cunningham, do., to whom and ningham, do.) and his sister-in-law (Miss Hannah Whelan, Cooltubrid) moval of the remains on Friday even-ing to the Parish Church, Newtown. Requiem Mass for the happy repose of his soul was celebrated in the sacred edifice on Saturday morning his recent success at the Waterford greyhound racing track through the medium of Kilchooney Rose (by Correct Man, out of Kilchooney Lady). Another local owner of a performer which has also scored at the same track is genial Mr. M. B. (Bertie) Power, Ballyboy, Kilmacthomas, and we congratulate him, too.

Sunday night last. The opening feature was a 2-act sketch, and the players, who brilliantly enacted their respective roles in the screamingly funny piece, were Messrs. Nick Casey, Jack Dee, Joe Flynn, Pierce Coffey and Gusty Foley. Miss Ann King (a gifted pupil of the Mercy Convent School, Kilmacthomas), danced a hornpipe and a reel, and was applauded to the echo for her pit-pat performances.

Brinsley MacNamara's fan 3-act comedy, "Look at the Heffernans," was next staged, and proved the piece-de-resistance of the entire show. The players engaged (who, both individually and collectively, were meritoriously given a big hand for their pronouncedly true-to-life portrayals of the different characters they represented) were Messrs.

Nick Casey (in the part of James Heffernan), Jack Dee (Paul Heffernan), Joe Flynn (Marks Heffernan), Jack Wall (Festus Darby), Pierce Coffey (Ignatius Crennion), and Gusty Foley (Sidney Heffernan), the Misses Mai Coffey (Marcella Molloy), Anne Foley (Alice Heffernan), Mary Power (Rose Ann Rooney), Nan Connors (Tessie Malone), and Kitty McGrath (Mabel Scally). The Misses Madge Stevens and Judy Foran (both of Stradbally) danced a double and a hornpipe in a manner worthy of the unstinted plaudits which re-warded their efforts. Miss Mare Cashen (Ballyogarty) and Mr. Tom Power (Dungarvan) rendered the music for the step-dance numbers. The proceeds go to the funds of the Kilmacthomas and Stradbally Dis-trict Nursing Association, which body is deeply grateful to both the players and the audience, and is especially thankful to Rev. T. Draper, C.C., Stradbally, and Mr. Jas. Queally, Car- of blood-letting unscathed. ahane, do., who were in charge of the Faha Society. On Holidays.—Son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Maurice Lannon, Seafield, Bonmahon, is Mr. John Lannon, who is enjoying a well-earned holiday at his natal home. He is brother of Mr.

Fair.-At Kilmacthomas fair held on Tuesday 3-year-old bullocks fetched from £28 to £34; 2-year-olds, £15 to £20; I to 11-year-olds, £5 to Mrs. Ashton's father, Mr. Thos. Wall, farmer, Ballinarid. Mr. Ashton conspringer heifers, £22 to £26. Exchange, anacted in the sheep section changes enacted in the sheep section were at prices similar to those which prevailed at the June fair. Bonhams, 70/- to 80/-; strong stores, 100/- to 150/-; sows with litters, £25 to £30, according to numbers and quality. An appreciably large clearance was effected.

Camogie -- Dunhill beat Kilmac thomas in a friendly camogie clash at Kill. A nice-sized crowd witnessed the game, which was refereed by Mr. Thomas Walsh (Kilcanavee). The sides provided an exhibition. The Mahonside players were—The Misses K. Walsh, M. Flynn, P. Flynn, K. Power, M. Walsh, B. Walsh, M. Russell, M. Veale, W. Murphy, E. Maher, A. Minnick (cap-tain), and M. Kent.

Have it that the Misses K. Walshe, M. Flynn and P. Flynn, Stradbally M. Flynn and P. Flynn, Straddaily (a very promising young trio of caman-wielders), are anxious to have a camogie team formed in their own

At Ballylaneen to-morrow (Sunday) the junior football teams of Stradbally and Kilrossanty meet to decide their tie in this year's Western Divisional Championship Competition. Ideal weather conditions prevailed and a very large crowd was present to see victory large crowd was present to see this splendid clash. After their decisive victory over Lismore recently Tallow were considered by many to have an easy thing in this game against Tourin, but as matters turned out the Bridesiders were feeling anything but comfortable in the early stages of the match, as Tourin had matters much their own way and were leading by 0-7 to nil at half-time. At this stage the Tourin supporters were jubilant and hopes of victory ran high. The Board of Fishery Conservators water. Mr. K. Keane and the Conservators were not pressing the case and the defendants admitted the offence.

Mr. Keane, Inspector, having given evidence, the Justice imposed a penalty of £1 and the defendants admitted the offence.

Mr. Keane asked that the salmon season was very bad in Youghal this year and the Conservators were not press low settled down with great determination from the change over and soon began to reduce the lead. A positional change in the Tallow team was made when M. Mulcahy was brought out from goal to centre back position to mark P. Fives, who was responsible for most of Tourin's scores in the first moiety. This proved the turning point, and, keeping up the pressure, Tallow had a few grand goals which put them shead. Tourin tried all they knew in an effort to recover, but it was of no avail. For the last 15 minutes Tallow were in complete control and mination from the change over and soon began to reduce the lead. A

Glen Rovers and plenty of excitement was provided. Unfortunately, however, the game had to be abandoned after about 25 minutes' play owing to the failing light. Play was fast and furious throughout, and as scoring was even with two goals each, it is hard to say what the result would have been had full time been played.

Gaelic Field Renovations.—In preparation for the forthcoming senior hurling fame between Tallow and Dungarvan, the local hurling and football club has at long last begun renovating the hurling field. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining sufficient supplies of wire, etc., it will not be possible to carry out the project as originally intended, and timber stakes must now be used as formerly. However, the very energetic club members can be relied upon to make as good a job of it as possible under the circumstances, and everything will be abin charactering the hurge game on the local hurling for the guards.

The defendant stated that on the day in question he had drink taken and did not know what he was doing. He was very sorry for what happened and he would pay for the glass and give up drink if he was left off.

Guard O'Connor charged the same defendant with, on May 25th, finding him and two others at the Lighthouse obstructing the thoroughfare as a result of which people had to step off the path.

The Justice warned defendant and fined him 10/- and ordered him to pay 30/- costs, and imposed a suspensory sentence of two months with hard labour not to be enforced if he was of good behaviour for twelve months.

Good Shooting.—We congratulate Fr. C. Cronin, Ballinvella, at present home on vacation from his mission in Colwyn Bay, Wales, on his excel-lent shooting on Saturday last when he bagged two deer in a field adjoining Scarbar wood, one a doe, a fine specimen and nicely marked, and the other a kid of about two months. These deer belong to a small herd which lives in Scarbar wood and plagues the farmers having land in the vicinity by very frequent raids on crops of all kinds, but especially turnips, cabbage, etc. A new method of deer-hunting was evolved by Mr. T. Looney, Kilnacarriga, when he ingeniously snared a splendid male specimen in a cabbage field near his home about three weeks ago.

GALA WEEK. DUNGARVAN DEFEAT CAPPOQUIN.

Gala Week opened in Dungarvan on Sunday last at 2 p.m. when cyclists faced the starter in the round-the-houses cycle race, starting from the Equare. The track was via Main Street, Church Street, along Mitchel Street, Fair Lane, O'Connell Street, Square and thence to the Gaelic Field. The three placed riders were all out for the job being equipped with modern road racing machines and in cycling togs, so that the locals with ordinary machines and in Sunday dress for the most part were "out of it" before half the circuit was competed.

The race was succeeded by two G.A.A. matches at the Gaelic Field.

In the first encounter Old Parish and Finisk Rovers played a junior football match. Old Parish had the assistance of some Dungarvan players and won a rather arm game on the score: Old Parish, 3-5; Finisk Rovers, 0-3.

The senior hurling encounter between Dungarvan and Cappoquin produced some nice passages. Much interest was manifested in this encounter due to the victory of Cappoquin over Dungarvan in the championship game a few weeks ago. Both teams fielded short of their championship side but each player gave of his best and interest was gave of his best and interest was maintained to the end THE GAME Dungarvan scored from the throw-in and Rea in the Cappoquin goal saved his act in the first minute, play being transferred to the other end where Cappoquin wided a seventy. Keeping on the pressure Cappoquin had a point, and from the resulting puck out had another. Dungarvan again attacked but they were repulsed and Cappoquin wided. The Old Boro transferred to the other end where T. Curran finished to the net. A sideline touch to Dungarvan was Dungarvan scored from the hands of Knockanore on Sunday evening last when they met at Lismore Gaelic Field in the second round of the county championship. Lismore were a much depleted team, being short the services of Miss Mary Heelan, who has gone to England, and several others. They were outclassed in every department and Knockanore had an easy win. The referee was Mr. C. Higgins. A very good challenge game was played on last Monday night between Camphire and Glen Rovers and plenty of excitement.

Stack and Curran shared the honours in another goal. A free to Cappoquin was cleared but they returned to point. Barron had a Dungarvan point and Cappoquin had a similar score at the other end. Dungarvan point and cappoquin had a similar score at the other end. similar score at the other end. Dun-garvan wided a free and Cappoquin forced, Moloney saving his net under pressure. Mountain cleared a Cap-poquin raid and Ren was again called on to save, both sides then had wides. Rea, in the Cappoquin goal, brought off another great save. Dun-garvan again sent wide before Cap-poquin raced away for a point. The half-time score read, Dungarvan, 4-1; Cappoquin, 6-5.

Cappoquin, 0-5.

The resumption saw both ends visited without result. Rea cleared a rasper, but Curran met the ball on the rebound and crashed to the net. A Dungarvan free was cleared and Cappoquin were away for a point and followed up with a well-earned goal. Dungarvan had two wides before Curran again netted. Barron had a further Dungarvan point and Lannen picking up after Cappoquin had cleared had a like score. Barron wided a Dungarvan 70. Lieut Daly had a good goal for Cappoquin to which Curran replied with a like score for Dungarvan. A further point to each side finished.

TRAIN DERAILED OUTSIDE WATERFORD

A serious derailment, fortunately without loss of life, occurred on the Waterford-Cork, Coras Iompair Eireann line, at the approach to the bridge, spanning the River Suir, about a mile from Waterford City, shortly before 8 o'clock on Tuesday night. The train involved was the 4.5 p.m. ex-Marlow to Waterford. The mishap, reported to be due to expansion of the rails in Tuesday's first wave of summer heat, caused a big sensation in the city and throughout Tuesday night and Wednesday morning huge crowds visited the scene of the near-disester. Really providential escapes were had by the engine driver, Mr. Jas-Cleary (60), Ferrybank, who was trapped in the engine cab for more than three hours and who is at pre-sent detained for treatment for injuries at the County and City Infirmary, and his colleague, Fireman, Henry Flynn, The Glen, Waterford, both married men.

Similarly fortunate were the thirtytwo passengers, who with the exception of the inevitable shock, also escaped unscathed. The accident, of a character for-
