Regretted Demise.—It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Bartholomew Twomey (the result of an accident) which took place re-recently at Rugby, near London, The deceased was an employee of the Electric Company, Rugby, where he was accidentally killed. The late Mr. Twomey was a member of the forces, and had been demoblised a few months ago when he took up employment with the Electric Company. The bereaved widow is a member of a well-known Ballyduff family, see Miss Kitty Hegarty, Mo-collop, Ballyduff, to whom the deep sympathy of the entire community is extended in her sorrow and loss. deceased was a most assuming and popular young man and the an-nouncement of his early demise is deeply and deservedly regretted and to his bereaved widow, relatives and friends deep sympathy is extended.

-May he rest in peace. Hunt Club.-The local Hunt Club are having some very enjoyable runs of late and each Sunday a large num-ber of hunting enthusiasts are to be seen, either on horseback or afoot crossing the hills and plains. The chief topic at the moment in hunting circles is the Ballyduff Hunt Cup plate to be run at the Lismore Point-to-Point Races on Wednesday next, and speculation is rife as to the result. Spectators will not soon forget the thrilling finish which the 1945 Cup Race provided and all are look-ing forward to another exciting tussle next Wednesday.

G.A.A.—Once again the G.A.A. championship season is approaching and an earlier start than usual is being made as first rounds will com-mence on March 31st. Down Bally-duff way the local hurling and football clubs are getting everything in readiness for the opening of the season when the wearers of the red and white will meet their old rivals, Tourin, in the opening round of the hurling championship, which should provide a titanic struggle as meetings ween the teams have always provided first class games. The local junior football club have a bye in opening round while the minor ball club, St. Michael's, meet Lismore Ramblers in the initial round, which will be played at Ballyduff on Sunday, May 12th and another first class game should result.

Obituary.—We regret to announce the death of Miss K. Meskil, which took place at her residence Red Forge, Glendine, on Saturday last, after a rather protracted illness and at a moderately advanced age. The deceased was a member of an old and highly respected family and was held in the highest esteem by young and old and her passing is deeply and and old and her passing is deeply and deservedly regretted. A most devout and exemplary Catholic she was fortified by the rites of the Holy fortified by the rites of the Holy Church, of which she was always an exemplary member. Of a quite and retiring disposition she made numerous friends who regret her passing and to her bereaved relatives the deep sympathy of the entire community is tendered. A pracical tribute to the esteem and respect in which deceased was held was amply forthcoming by the large and reforthcoming by the large and re-presentative cortege which accom-panied the removal of the remains from her late residence to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore, where they were received by Very Fev. Fr. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., who recited the prayers for the dead. On Monday morning Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of her soul and the interment took place in the presence of another large attendance many travelling very long distances to pay a last tribute to at old and valued friend. Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., officiated at the grive-side R.I.P.

Death of Mr. J. Walsh .- The death which took place recently at Youghal Hospital of Mr. John Walsh, Park, removes one of its most esteemed and popular inhabitants. Of a genial and unassuming disposition and of a truly honest and upright nature ne was a firm favourite with all who knew him and his passing is deeply regretted amongst his legion of friends especially the Gaels of whom he was always an outstanding supporter and no Gaelic game was porter and no Gaelic game was played for miles but included de-ceased as a spectator. On Sunday evening the remains were removed to Inch Church and were accompanied by a large cortege of incur-ners and friends and included many from the Knockanore district where deceased was well and popularly known. On Tuesday the funeral took place to Ardagh Cemetery where all that was mortal or deceased was reverently laid to rest. Rev. Fr. Aherne, C.C., Inch, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.

Popular Official Retires.—The re-tirement of Sergt, Turlough O'Brien, of Killenagh, Knockanore from the Garda Siochana, is regretted by his many friends all over West Water-ford and East Cork where Sergt O'Brien was very popular. On his retirement, Sergt. O'Brien was the recipient of a silver tea service and a wallet of notes from his many friends in the Knockanore district the presentation being made recently at Youghal, where he is presently domiciled. Sergt. O'Brien is well-known in literary circles and many outstanding outstanding articles have oeer written by him, and he is widely read and also is an artist of mote his paintings, especially portraits, being much admired. His many friends oin in wishing him very many years of health and happiness.

In sporting circles.—Some very in eresting trials have ben witnesset at the race-course on the Moorehill Estate during the past couple of weeks between some of the season's have been watched by large crowds especially by those who wish it "study form."

Baldwin's Hall, Kill.-The clance held here on Sunady night last was under the auspices of the Dunhill Camogie Club; it proved a great and popular success, and provided a night of good enjoyment for a monster gathering of enthusiastic devotees. Music was supplied by a first-class band; the Ladies' Committee had charge of the catering, and the entire ngements were without the test hitch. Dancing was from 10 o'clock to 4 a.m., and gaiety was the keynote all the way.

WHEN THEY LEAVE SCHOOL!

NOW is the time to think of your children's future-not when they are on the threshold of the outside world. You want to give them the benefits of a good education and a better start in life than was available in your own childhood days-buit it is so difficult to earmark savings for this purpose nowadays.

You can make provision for their college education at a cost within income if you begin when they are young. This can best be accomplished by the Educational Endowment Assurances of The Irish Assurance Company, which provide an annual sum for an agreed term of years.

Secretary, Mr. D O'Sullivan said it was with much regret he had to inform the meeting that due to circumstances outside his control, he must tender his resignation as from that date. In accepting the Hon. Secretary's resignation on the motion of the Chairman, a sincere vote of thanks was passed with acclamation to Mr. O'Sullivan on the good services he had rendered during his terms of office and best wishes were extended to him in his new sphere of duties. The Hon. Treasurer's febort submitted by Miss M. Ryan, which was considered highly satisfactory showed the financial position of the branch to be particularly good, and a hearty vote of thanks was passed to her. A spirited discussion then took place as to the best ways and means for furthering the language movement throughout the district, which resulted in some decisive measures being generally adopted. Election of officers resulted as follows: Mr. M. Beecher, Chairman; Mr. P. J. Collins, vice-do.; Mr. D. Collins, Hon. Sec. Miss. M. Senator Butler asked were the reports before the different bodies.
The Secretary said he could not say if they were before them or not. Some of the members stated that the auditor's report relating to the Mental Hospital had been before that Arising from this, Mr. Kyne said that he noticed that the last meeting of the Mental Hospital was held on the same day as the Board of Assistance. He wondered if they could be held at different dates. The members could not be in two places at the same time.

A suggestion by Mr., O'Ryan that the Secretary of the Board of Assistance get in touch with the Clerk of the Mental Hospital Committee with a view to having the meetings held on different days was agreed to.

CUTTING OF HEDGES.

Mr. P. Butler drew attention to the order for the cutting of hedges and said it wasn't fair to ack formula. and said it wasn't fair to ask farmers to cut them at this time of the year. Acting County Surveyor—It's not our fault. We are compelled to see that they are cut. I have no option in the matter.

Mr. Butler—I think the time should be extended. I am not complaining about the cutting at all, but the time. It's rather late in the year now to be asked to cut them. The emergency is not yet over.

Mr. O'Ryan said that anything did not matter for the past six years, but hedges. The farmer had to sow crops and get the land ready and they must put these aside and cut hedges. He thought that it was time farmers took a firm stand about LOCAL BANK LOANS.—A resolution was read from the Irish Farmers' Federation that for the relief of rates all local bank loans be converted into non-interesting bearing verted into non-interesting bearing Mr. O'Ryan said it was foolish to expect banks to give loans interest

Mr. Kyne said he would agree with the resolution. His knowledge of banking accounts was not beyon that of the ordinary layman, but it was an extraordinary thing that 4 or 5 per cent can be charged for Mr. O'Ryan drew attention to a paragraph regarding surcharge of as house building, etc. In was a fact that of the total expenditure of this country one-third was paid to the banks in inerest. would be oversubscribed shortly after it was opened. In Australia they had nationalised the banks and made a good job of it. They had done the same in England. He would congratulate the Farmers' Party for coming out into the open about this matter.

Mr. O'Ryan said it was ridiculous to suggest that loans be given free of interest. How could the banks give it free? They had to maintain banks, staffs, etc. Would the Labour Government in England give loans free to people?

Mr. Kyne said nobody spoke of getting money without interest. If they got money from the so-called banks they had to pay 4½ per cent. interest on it to keep up their grandeur. Let their own money be invested in their own country the invested in their own country, the money to be held and retained in their country. He would challenge Mr. O'Ryan to controdict the statement that of the total expenditure of money in this country, one-third

Mr. Butler—For six years they weren't asked to cut the hedges, and now on February 1st they are asked to do it suddenly.

Acting County Surveyor—Ninety per cent. of the people have cut them.

Chairman—Why not let it go to the middle of May? Farmers are yery busy now.

Mr. Boyle pointed out that the councils get a slight reduction in the rate of interest from banks.

Mr Kyne—I believe the members of the Co. Council would be astounded if they knew what the council had paid in interest on loans. Further resolutions from the same body asking that legislation be enacted to fix an equitable maximum

Supt. P. O'Mahony charged Danie Wade, Congress Row, and J. Wade Keating Street, with assaulting G Tutty, Loughmore. There was a charge against Tutty of being drunk

Mr. P. J. Morrissey (Messrs, Farrell & Morrissey), who appeared for the Wades, said that the charge was Hall. Daniel Wade was in the ba and some friends invited him to take a drink. He says it was the first time in six months he had had a drink, and had no idea what happened only what he was told. Afterwards he apologised when he was told he was in the wrong. Since that day he had not touched a drink. John Wade, who is a relation, took Daniel Wade's part when the latter was involved. and he also had apologised.
Supt. O'Mahony said the row had occurred in the vicinity of the Town Hall, where the Guards kept them apart. It seemed Tutty was afraid to go home, and Guard Burke went with him. The Wades followed them and, despite the Guard, assaulted Tutty, who declined to prosecute. Replying to Mr. Morrissey, Guard

Worth of the Waterford fifteen. In the first place there was a number of newcomers on the team, some of whom gave good displays. But then the opposition was not outstanding. One could easily guess how they would fare against a first-rate XV. Secondly, conditions were not very favourable for good hurling. The ground was rather heavy and slippy. Mr. Quirke—It is a thing that should be looked into.
Chairman—As Mr. C'Ryan has pointed out, the Manager made an looker that councillors can look at the ward lines of failing to finish and make the most of opportunities. This was very apparent in the first half when the home side certainly lost at least two major scores. Perhans least, two major score. Perhaps, this may be accounted for by overeagerness on the part of some of the newcomers. As against that, how-

Amongst other things, all the bireties of the stage of the want of the year 1940. with the Waterford team for this

In the opening stages of last Sun-day's game, it looked as if the home side were in for a tough struggle, when after seven minutes of play both sides were on level terms at 1 point each. The home side, however began to forge ahead and led 1-3 to 0-2 at half-time. There were challenge reduced a 7 points lead to points. The home side, however, rallied and two majors put paid to Wexford's account. After Fanning had cleared an opening burst by Wexford, Rackard returned the clearance which was sent wide. Another Wexford attack ended with the ball going inches wide of the upright. The home side pressed from the delivery and Boggan and Bailey (Wexford) were prominent in clearing. A further Wexford offensive saw Waterford's goalie defending well. After five minutes' play Power (Waterford) had a picture point from an acute angle. After the home side had wided again. Wexford regained the offensive and when a Waterford back went down injured, Rackard pounced on a loose ball and sent over the bar. Three minutes later Waterford had the lead again when Carew pointed. Another home offensive followed and O'Neill in the Wexford goal Wexford offensive saw Keane and by Mrs. Cogan, Medical Hall, O'Con-Goode defending brilliantly for nell Street; Mrs. Ml. Waterford were at this stage, definitely on top and the visitors back lines were continuously under pressure. A lull in the home side's offensive saw Cullen (Wexford) send a long drive to her forward line where Rackard secured to send a stinger to the net. This was the signal for a raily by the visitor. Who came back again for the same player to point. The scores now stood with the home home side leading 2-3 to 1-3. Wexford had another go at the home defence but O'Brien (goal), Fanning, Fleming, Keane and Goode were conspicious saving their lines Following an saving their lines. Following an abortive Wexford 70, Waterford attacked for Casey to slam home a goal. This regained confidence for the home side and when a little later P. Fanning added another major, the fire went out of the Wexford side. Owing to the absence of Lt. E. Young, who was to referee the game, Rev. Bro. Dungaryan Show Revival.

The Dungarvan Show Committee have decided to revive and re-establish as an annual event the Dungarvan Agricultural Show. The Show. you will remember, for many years was an outstanding annual event in Dungarvan, in addition to being a most valuable asset to the Agricultural community. Having regard to the state of emergency created by the war, the Show had to be discontinued after the year 1940. It is felt, how ever, now that times are improving that the time has also come to revive this outstanding feature of County

A great deal of work is involved in connection with this revival and of course the expenses will be heavy. The preparation of the show ground will involve considerable expendi ture in the present year. Naturally they have considerably deteriorated for the want of care since the year umping course will have to be rebuilt which item alone will be most

The committee feel that the re-vival of this event would have a wide general backing. Funds must be made available to meet the very considerable outlay that will be in volved this year. Any assistance you can give will be greatly appreciated, and any subscription however small, will help. The very wide range of events and exhibits should make the Snow a matter of great interest for all classes of the community. Prizes will be given for numerous classes of horses, cattle and jumping competitions. In addition, it is proposed to have a home industry section where prizes will be given for poultry, fruit, flowers and vegetables, and in addition for home produce such as jams, jellies, home made cakes, needlework, etc. Sweep Draw.—The total proceed of the Hospitals Sweep draw on the Leopardstown 'Chase which took place on Wednesday at Ballsbridge showed an increase of £216,000 the last Sweep. Only three cash prizes of £100 each came to Waterford. Ticket No. M.W.52556, c/o Alice M. Cullinan, O'Co. Well Street, Dungarvan; M.R.57842, W. A. Deevy Waterford, and M.T.33480, Fourteen Hopefuls, Carrigeen, Waterford. On inquiry we learned that the ticket drawn c/o Mrs. Cullinan, is shared
