Matron's Report Before Board of Assistance. AGA COOKER RECOMMENDATION

At the monthly meeting of the Waterford Board of Assistance at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on last Monday, Ald. P. Caulfield, chairman, presiding. the Secretary (Mr. M. weather caused a lot of waste. Apart day, Ald. P. Caulfield, chairman, pre-siding, the Secretary (Mr. M. O Floinn) said that the passing of the very necessary. He expressed the very necessary. He expressed the ing out of the repairs and improve-ments at the County Home. Senator Butler—What do the re-pairs cover? What is it for? Secretary—You had that before you already. It is in connection with improvements at the County Home. Senator Butler—It has nothing to do with the T.B. Scheme? The resolution was then passed.

COUNTY HOSPITAL VISITS In connection with the query raised by Mr. T. Kyne at the last meeting of the board regarding visits to the County Hospital on last Xmas Day, the Secretary said he had got a re-

The Secretary stated that in connection with the matter of a harrow he didn't think that the board should be asked to subsidise them. It was up to the County Council to increase them. They had a general rule that applied in such cases. As far as he remembered this worms and the that a harrow and chill plough were that there was no shed available for the child, but afterwards it was stopped when the case came before the Manager.

Mr. Kyne said that surely if it was given in respect of a child up to sure that there was no shed available for the damper of a shed.

Mr. Kyne said that notwithstanding all they had been told they were getof the institution and from a visiting | ting very little help. mmittee. There had been a great lot of talk and Press publicity about it. They would remember the point that was made about cold milk being | known farmer, of Forenaught, Dungiven and the Sister in charge saying that the proper facilities for heating it were not available. The M.O. of the institution had recommended that an Aga cooker be provided, but the Manager had deferred the purchase of one in view of the high cost. Since that time he (Mr. Kyne) had read in an English Trade Journal that the for the next 10 years. Was it suggested so that they would have to wait for 10 years before an Aga cooker would be purchased? The food was still being given cold because sister-in-charge could not provide it hot because of the antiquated range. The condition of this range was such that it should have to be kept going night and day. He noticed that there was an increase in the estimate for fuel. Why not if it had to be kept going night and day. Would it not be more economical to purchase a cooker when necessity de-manded it? He knew something

Senator Butler said that there was no doubt in the world that a cooker great benefit and would pay for itself in a short time. Turf was an expensive item and there was an increase opinion before that he thought the price would come down, but Mr. Kyne had quoted from a Trade Journal that it was not likely to come down for at least ten years.

Mr. Kyne—Actually the price today of £750 is only £150 above pre-war price.

Ald. Kenneally—We'll never see 50 per cent. reduction in 12 months. COOKING FACILITIES

Mr. J. Ormonde, Acting County Surveyor, said he had made a report on the Aga cooker and he thought that in a short time the price would be reduced. The present price was £700 and he believed that was the Master Patrick J. Begley, EMERALD TCE., DUNGARVAN.

> If anything can lessen the sorrow of parents on the death of a child it is the sympathy and regret ten-dered by friends and neighbours. The spontaneous and widely re-ceived expressions of sorrow will, we trust, in some small way, lighten the grief of Garda Daniel and Mrs. Begley, Emerald Terrace, Dungarvan, on their great bereavement occasioned by the death of their son, Patrick, on Friday evening last at the Hospital, Dungarvan. Aged 14 years Master Begley was a promising pupil of the Christian Brothers Schools, Dungarvan, and was most popular with his teachers and school fellows. The deceased boy was interested in all forms of sport and was particularly keen on swimming and fishing. In the former sport, during the last two years it was our pleasant duty to record many successes by this promising aquatic student at swimming competitions in Dungarvan, Tramore

County Hospital on last Xmas Day, the Secretary said he had got a report from the matron on the matter. The report stated that it was the continuous practice for the past 30 years that no visitors were allowed into the County Hospital on Xmas Day, and Mrs. Cooking facilities had considerably improved in the County Home, but he would agree that an Aga cooker would be the ideal solution. They were well pleased with the arrangements out there now. Mr. Kyne said that in his opinion Mr. Kyne said that in his opinion Mr. Cormonde said that he believed that was the maximum. Red Cross Annual.—The annual meeting of the Ballydust Branch of Red Cross was held recently, at which there was a very large attendance. The minutes of the last meeting having been read and adopted, the Hon. Secretary submitted his report as follows: On this the sixth general meeting of our branch, I have pleasure in report-ing a successful year. The work done by the branch was well up to the standard of former years. We were able to carry out all the work entrusted to us by the Central Branch and earned their commendation as well as that of our County Committee for the good work done. To the Central Council's appeal for potatoes for the Continent we were able, through the generosity of the people to forward 100 sacks weighing 51 tons. In this work we were greatly helped by the splendid appeal made by your priests, Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., and Rev. J. McCarthy, C.C. who spared no effort to help. Our thanks are also due to Mr. J. Berry and Mr. D. McCarthy, who gave their lorries free to take the potatoes to the rail-way station. The next appeal was for clothes for the destitute people of Europe. So great was the response to this appeal that in less than two months ten chests of clothes were sent to Dublin at the estimated value of £160. The success of this appeal was due to the splendid way our priests put the matter before the parishioners whose generous hearts-priests and people-are touched to help all in need. The Christmas whist drive was successful and enjoyable and the seasonable prizes were appreciated by all. We sincerely thank the Parish Council for giving us the use of their hall and Mr. T. Barry who gave us the lights free of charge. Before concluding, I wish to put on record an expression of our appreciation of the good work of the late Mrs. B. Prior, who was treasurer of the Granch since its inception until branch one of the best in Munster.

Waterford

Munster for Railway

Cup Final.

Munster, 0-6; Leinster, 1-2

Once again Munster (holders) have reached the Railway Cup Hurling final just as they have done every year since 1927, but it was only after withstanding a great second half rally by Leinster that they survived their semi-final tie at Waterford on Sunday when they won by the narrowest of margins.

Holding an interval lead of five points (0-6 to 0-1), Munster seemed to have the game well in hand, but positional changes worked wonders in the Lairester team immediately on widespread Sympathy is extended to Mrs. A. O'Doneghue, wife of Mr. W. J. O'Doneghue, V.S., Waterford (and Kilmachomas), in her sad bereavement occasioned by the death last week of her brother Mr. Edward O'G'ady Walshe, Tipperary, who was nephew of Very Rev. Michael Canon Walsh, P.P., V.F., Lismore, and cousin of Very Rev. T. B. Walshe, B.A., P.P., St. Patrick's, Waterford, and Rev. T. Heley, M.S.C., Moyne, Co. Galway. Deceased, who leaves a widow and family, was assistant superintendent of the Irish Assurance Company; he was a well and popu-Company; he was a well and popularly known figure throughout Munster, and his all-too-early demise is sincerely regretted by all who knew him. R.I.P.

mr. Patrick Sheehan, whose death occurred recently in England, was a native of Ballinarid, Bonmahon. Possessed of many estimable qualities of head and heart, he enjoyed a very wide popularity, and on learning of his premature passing his numerous friends everywhere breathed a sigh of grief and a prayer for his soul. He belonged to a very respectable family and the deepest sympathy is felt with his bereaved ones. May he rest in peace.

Death of Mr. J. McKeon.—The death of Mr. John McKeon, Bally-vaden, Kill, on yesterday (Thursday) morning week, removed a widely connected and worthily well-esteemed member of the community. The point after two 70's had been sent around the Munster goalmouth as the whole Leinster forward line nected and worthily well-esteemed member of the community. The deceased, who was in his, 83rd year, was a fine type of manhood and was richly endowed with those grand principles that make the true man and the great Christian. Always on the best of terms with his neighbours, his honesty, loyalty and charity gained for him the golden opinions of those who were privileged to call themselves his friends. The late Mr. McKeon's genial persociality and ready wit made him a charming companion. Of a verity, his supreme giffs of good citizenship never failed to impress his legion of acquaintances, who share with those who were the nearest and dearest to him officer of the old D.M.P. (from which force, incidentally, was drawn the world's champion tug-o'-war team of approximately forty years ago, and he was on the combination and participated in its every contest). On yesterday evening week the remains of the late Mr. McKeon were removed to St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, where they were received by tenered Herbert in this sector for Munster and they more than held their own against Kennedy and their own against Kennedy and Rackard. There were some great duels between Mick Mackey, at full forward and M. Butler, the Leinster full back. Mackey had an early point but Kennedy put Leinster level, Munster did the remainder of the scoring this half with points from Ring (2), Ryan, Mackey and Ring, in that order. Half-time score, Munster, 0-6; Leinster, 0-1.

Midway through the second half Gargan from a goalmouth scramble secured a goal and after constant pressure Langton added another, but the Munster defence held out to the

Irish Red Cross Society DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. T. McCarthy, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council on last Friday week. Present, Messrs. L. A. Veale, J. McGrath, M. Clancy, N. Kelly and M. O'Meara, Acting Town

Mr. J. Downey, Loughmore, came before the meeting, complaining that water was going in the front door of his house because the path to the door was too high. If the flag was raised it would prevent the water would be referred to the Borough Chairman-A number of people there have the same grievance and the same applies to other places, too, such at Keating Street. We should try to do something for these people.

The Acting Clerk said he saw the paths at several of the houses and they were almost impassable and he suggested putting a load of gravel on them because their (Council's) housing account was practically nil at the moment. It was impossible to get into some of the houses. Nos. 19 to 25 were very bad. The concrete paths were higher than the steps.

Mr. McGrath—Downey's suggestion to raise the flag would do away with Acting Clerk—He is only looking for that for himself. Chairman—If you gave a list of these people to Mr. Ormonde?
Mr. Veale—In Mitchel Tce., there is a number of houses like this also. The footpaths there are useless.

Acting Clerk—It's worse in Loughmore. I'll see Mr. Ormonde again in the morning. ABBEYSIDE ALLOTMENTS. Regarding the matter of allotments for Abbeyside, the order of the Manastated: Having made all reasonable efforts to acquire by agreement any land suitable for allotments for the 1946 season in the abbeyside area, it is hereby resolved to acquire part of the lands of Miss Mary B. Queally, B. Queally, Coolagh, containing 4½ Coolagh, containing 4½ acres.

In connection with the application for plots the Acting Clerk stated that 180 applications had been approved, 142 in Dungarvan and 38 in Abbeyside. There were 7 applications late. In Dungarvan there was sufficient ground for 141.

To the Chairman, the Acting Clerk said the land was at Mapstown and and asking that a proper boundary fence be erected. The Acting Borough Surveyor stated that barbed wire had not been available but stocks were expected this week and the price would not be very much affected. The length of the wire required would be 150 yards The matter was deferred to the RETURN TICKETS ON BUSES. Replying to the Council's resolution asking that return tickets be made available for travellers as in pre-war days, C.I.E. wrote that the matter was being considered by them.

Mr. J. McGrath called attention to the fact that there were no transferable tickets as regards travelling on buses and trains. Previously a tra-veller on a bus could return by train. Buses should also run to the station for people who were going to travel INQUIRY RE SWIMMING POOL.
