WESTERN DIVISION CAMOGIE NOTES

Last Sunday marked a big advance in camogie in the county, by the formation of the West Waterford Divimation of the West Waterford Divisional Board. This food, subject to the County Board—which is the governing body—has very wide powers, the chief being transfers, draws and fixtures, gates and objections. All the officers were elected with big majorities, and the Chairman of the Board put through a heavy agenda in very fast time. We were very thankful to Very Rev. W. Flynn, P.P. Clashmore, life president of the Board, who honoured us with his presence.

SYMPATHY.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. J. Curran, Green Street, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Bridget Finn, which occurred recently at her divisional secretary, on receipt of application, will notify the clubs concerned. Another point to which attention is drawn is that, even if a club ceases to exist, and the players wish to play with another club, they must obtain a formal transfer from the Divisional Board, if they have played in the previous twelve months (rule 11, page 29). played in the previous twelve months (rule 11, page 29).

day in the land of the living. Try to do some action each day during Lent to please Jesus Christ, and for no other reason. And what will not be the response of His Royal Heart?

(b) There is no way of treating human creatures, except by beginning at God's end. Men are not made by Governments, nor do they powerful, Almighty, and we must declared by the oracle as the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of God and the knowledge of Man are the two poles of man's intellect the twofold object of its researches. Cardinal Newman writes of himself at the age of fifteen as "resting in the thought of two and two only absolute and luminiusly self-evident beings himself and his Creator.

And we may say that in our local care of the hen for her brood: "Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered together thy children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wing, and thou wouldest not" (Matth. 23.37). And at Mass, day after day, Our Lord gives new proof of this love, when at the moment of Consecration He renews effectively in His most holy soul the disposiin His most holy soul the disposi-tions with which He accomplished our redemption on Calvary. Lord of heaven and earth and of allthings, whereas Man is one of God's creatures composed of body and soul and made unto God's likeness.

The fundamental question in the world today is about Man and Society, not so much about Economics.
It is not always realised that knowit is not always realised that knows that God is a Person and the

You and I who tence, whom we call God and our | believe in the God of Truth have a Father, is for the thinker about this | special motive for speaking the viisble earth of ours, the fact of truth. A lie is an offence against facts. It is not because men believe God, who is reality and truth in rein God that He exists; rather because He exists, do all men whose eyes are not deliberately closed to the truth believe in Him and pray whom He is well pleased, and in the truth believe in Him and pray to Him.

"He who is not with Me is against Me" (Luke 11.23). We stand for God or we stand against God, this once more is the fundamental alternative that shall decide the destinies of all mankind: in politics, in the sciences.

"AN RINN The "Runaidhe's" Notes on last week's issue of the outcome of the appeal by Old Parish Club against the decision of "An Rinn' Tournament Committee in awarding the medals to "An Rinn" has caused much annoyance and perplexity to G.A.A. followers not alone in Ring but throughout every part of West

In the first instance the Objection Committee at the last meeting of the Western Board referred to the unsporting manner in which An Rinn" acted against Old Parishwhich club did so much to make the tournament a success. Well, to put a straightforward question (no use beating about the bush) what did Old Parish Football Club do to help An Rinn Football Club? Admit-mittedly they travelled to Ringplayed and won the match with a team which was subsequently proved illegal. Then the Runaidhe" and the Objection Committee come along and tell us that by objecting to an illegal team we are acting in an unsporting manner. If that be the case I wonder could the Objection Committee tell us what purpose the G.A.A. Rule Book serves. Again, the committee showed its disapproval by not handing over to An Rinn Foot ball Club the fee, which was loaged with the appeal. We of An Rinn Football Club are of unanimous opinion that the Objections Committee has not got any copy of the "Official Guide." He was a great despiser of the world. Like Mac Piarais he hated England with a holy hate. His private life was stainless. All who looked upon his countenance loved him. He lives in myth amongst the Gael as Barbarossa lives among the Germans. Both have a tradition that one day they will awake from their magic slumber and come forth once again to fight the lost battle with the ancient foes of their re-spective countries. Of his death as now recorded in history it is inaccurate to say that he died of a broken heart. For three hundred years it was thought so but then by accident a State paper was found in Ath Cliath which showed that Carew with the permission of Mountjoy, sent an agent, Blake, to Spain to poison Aodh Ruadh.
