ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT IN COOLNASMEAR.

On St. Patrick's Night and on Monday night the Kilgobinet Drama-tic Class produced "Troubled Bachelors," a comedy in three acts, by A. J. Stanley, and "The Slip Carriage," a one-act comedy by Raymond Young.

The people of the local district, and those from beyond the parish boundaries, who have already enjoyed the efforts of this young class, were once again entertained to a wonderful night's hilarity. "Laugh and grow fat" a once well-known song used say. If laughter induces corpulency, those who had the good luck to be among the audience in luck to be among the audience in Coolnasmear School on either night had better keep a watchful eye on their figures. The same old song used say: "If your face wants to laugh—well, let it." On those two nights it would have been utterly impossible to prevent one's face from laughing. It is no exaggeration to laughing. It is no exaggeration to say that it is extremely unlikely that school walls ever re-echoed to such spontaneous gurgles and bellows of delight.

Irish Teacher Vacancy—A letter from the Department stated that the Minister regretting his inability to alter his decision conveyed in pre-vious letters concerning the proposal to appoint Mr. N. S. Cullen, as Mass on Saturday morning, the into appoint Mr. N. S. Cullen, as teacher of Irish and general subjects. The letter requested the Committee to proceed with the appointment of a qualified teacher to the post from the list of other candidates.

Senator Butler said that this was the second time that the Minister for Eduction had refused to sanction the appointment made by the Committee some months ago. Even though he would like to make another effort to have the appointment sanctioned, he felt it would be only a waste of time. They had refused to sanction it on two occasions. He thought that they should proceed with the selection of one of the person of Mr. Michael Devine, whose death occurred at his resi-

An Fear Mor said it was terribly disappointing that the appointment had not been sanctioned. He (An Fear Mor) happened to be in Dublin recently and called to the Department and pointed out that Mr. Cullen was a native Irish speaker, secondly, that he was a University and Football Club are arranging to hanced its already high reputation. Lismore Notes.

St. Patrick's Day.—The feast of the National Apostle was observed in a very quiet manner in Lismore and surrounding districts. Damp, heavy weather prevailed over the week-end and consequently there was very little outdoor activity. Although shamrock was reported to be rather scarce in the locality everyone seemed to find a spray to wear and, in addition, badges and other appropriate emblems were very much in evidence. The local troop of scouts paraded to early Mass on Sunday morning and each member received Holy Communion. There were also unusually large numbers of communicants among the congregation at Mass on Sunday and Monday morning. On St. Patrick's night very enjoyable entertainment was provided for a capacity house at the Courthouse when the Lismore Dramatic Society presented an excellent mirth provoking one-act comedy preceded by a variety concert. Among the artistes who contributed to the variety programme were: Miss Kathleen Crawley; Mr. J. Foley, Mr. W. Ho-gan, Miss K. Ormonde and Miss Betty Doherty: Those taking part in the comedy were: Mr. Jas. Campion, Miss Mary Willoughby, Mr. Andrew Coleman, Miss K. Crawley and Miss M. Noonan. Without exception all the artistes gave highly creditable performances and were loudly applauded by the audience. The ceilidhe which followed proved senator Butler said that they had two candidates before them, one getting 76 per cent. and the other 66 per cent. The candidate who got 76 per cent. did not qualify as regards age. He favoured giving the scholarship according to the marks and if this man was disqualified because of his age the other man could get it. a great success, being attended by a Church St., Lismore, which took place at the District Hospital, Lis-

The C.E.O. told the meeting that their present wages were £2 12s. 6d. a week; the new wages would be 66s. 3d.

Both aplications were granted.

Mr. Kyne also proposed that Mrs. Bonner, Cappoquin, get 5s. increase as from the 1st April.

This resolution was also passed.

New Engine Suggestion—Mr.

Morrissey said he understood that the engine used in the engineering class was of an old and obsolete type. It would be very difficult to teach pupils motor mechanics with an engine like that. He suggested used type in this country.

Mr. Kyne thought that would not be any great hardship on Mr. O. Mileadha. If a workman got it to earn it would be a good thing. Co. Council workers get only £104 a year. He was not doing too badly at all.

The necessary resolution granting the necessary resolution granting allowance was then like the like the in the engineering Instructor's hands.

Delegates to Congress—Messrs. J. Clancy, Mr. F. Walsh and Senator J. Butler were appointed the three delegates from the Committee to the annual Congres at Lisdoonvarna on June 11, 12 and 13.
