He thought that such farmers should get special facilities as regards shelter belts and lime. They had not the facilities of the lowland farmers, and the least they should get were special subsidies for lime and shelter belts.

The Chairman said suppose they got four-fifths from the Committee and paid one-fifth themselves it would be an improvement.

Mr. Norris—The secret of good silage is manure.

The Acting Secretary told Mr. Heskim that the proper procedure was (1) to cut young and (2) to pack properly. People who erected silos in years gone by did not make the silage under proper supervision, with the result that it was not properly made. After the first year they did not make it again; others made it successfully and were capable of making it every year. The grant was £.10, but it was hard to give a full estimate of what the erection full estimate of what the erection would cost; there was sand and gravel to be drawn and things like be another red letter night in Costs. quin—a night that shall be talked of for many a day after. Mr. Harty—As regards milk and butter productions, the object in view has not been attained at all. Chairman—There is every chance that cattle are going to be better.

Mr. Harty said that the whole trouble was the cost of production was too high.

Mr. O'Ryan said that the small farmers were at the mercy of the rancher, and they should organise and come together. The position was that the small man must sell and the other man need not because he had grass for the cattle at the cattle are going to be better.

COUNCIL

Mr. T. McCarthy, Chairman, presided at the mecting of the Dungarvan U.D.C. on last Friday. Also present: Messrs. M. Morrissey, T.D.; T. Kyne, L. Veale, N. Kelly and M. O'Meara, Acting Town Clerk.

Mortage Interest.—Arising from the Manager's orders regarding a letter from E. A. Ryan and Co., solrs., on behalf of Mrs. J. Bluetter Youghal Road, asking to forego the interest on a mortgage held by the Council in respect of land recently sold by her and which was refused by the Manager. by the Manager.

Mr. Veale asked if it was customary to charge interest on outstandary to charge interest on outstanding arrears of rates.

The Acting Town Clerk explained that some years ago £50 rates were due to the Council and a mortage was got on the holding. He thought the Manager could not remit it.

Jubilee Nursing Association.—Dr. Ward, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, in a letter regarding the position of the Jubilee Nurses' Associsation in the Public Health Bill, stated that the question of withdrawing grants did not arise and that the services of the nurses

Mr. Morrissey—They should know the consumption in the town by this.

Mr. Kelly—For the factory Mr. Strutt got in 500 tons and it was built up and ricked. It is quite dry at present, although it has been out in all weather.

Co. Home Allegation.—The Chairman said that a report had been made to him that recently two women of the travelling class—one an expectant mother—were walking to the Co. Home at Loughmore when the woman got suddenly unwell and lay down on the footpath. While she was there a woman from Loughmore came along and asked what was wrong, and when she was told about it she immediately sent a that some years ago £50 rates were due to the Council and a mortage was got on the holding. He thought the Manager could not remit it.

Jublice Nursing Association.—Dr. Ward, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, in a letter regarding the position of the Jublice Nurses' Association in the Public Health Bill, stated that the question of withdrawing grants did not arise and that the services of the nurses may be used as far as possible.

Mr. Kyne said that if that was correct, there was no hardship on the Association. It is up to them to give more facts. They only gave ageneral statement.

The Chairman said he thought the Jublice Association. They (Council) could not do anything otherwise, Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., said that in view of the facts as stated in the letter to the Jublice Association were groundless.

(By our East Cork Correspondent). There was a splendid attendance at Castlemartyr on Sunday last to witness the second try out of the newly formed Imokilly senior hurling team who were pitted against a smart combination representing Dungarvan. The selectors, be it said. acted very wisely in bringing about the fixture, for it meant giving the team a varied experience of the Coghlan, Rossmore House, Kilmac- Sec. do., and the members of Clash- craft as played by a neighbouring county. Another tribute to the more G.A.A. Clubs. The race started selectors lay in the fact that an incialmost sharp to time and as the comdent (altogether unwarranted) petitors spread out over the course, arose at the last meeting of the which is in a picturesque setting overlooking the wooded banks of the Blackwater, it presented a pretty picture. Feast of St. Joseph.-The feast of St. Joseph. Patron of Tallow Carmelite Convent, was duly honoured by the Community. Following the usual morning exercises of the Order, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Father Hearne, P.P. A very large congregation was present, the majority of whom received Holy Communion, At the conclusion of Mass Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was imparted by Rev. Fr. Hearne. Sympathy .- On behalf of their many Tallow friends, we desire to extend to the family and other relatives of the late Mrs. Mary Greene, Dunmoon, deepest sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. Obituary. - His many Tallow friends learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. Thomas Looby, of Kilwatermoy, which sad event took place recently following a rather brief illness at the District Hospital. Dungarvan, and to his bereaved relatives is extended the sincere sympathy of their Tallow and Kilwatermoy friends. Born at Modelligo, in youth, Tom, as he was popularly called, took up residence in Kilwatermoy parish well over half a century ago, where by his wonderful integrity and honesty of intentions he endeared himself to the hearts of all of whom he was intimately associated with. Keenly interested in agriculture from his knowledge of farming and live stock matters, and his advice on such subjects was frequently sought and freely given at all times. A noted Irish speaker, he did everything possible to promote the language of the Gael, and his passing has severed yet another link with the older generation. The funeral of deceased from Dungarvan to Modelligo Cemetary, where the interment was made, was of striking proportions and re-presentative of all classes of the community, Very Rev. Father Shine,

P.P., officiated at the graveside. Racing.-Only one local stable was represented at the Bank Holiday race meeting at Limerick, and its representative, Mr. T. Hughes' Flying Pal, capably ridden by Mr. Sean Hyde, being very narrowly beaten by Mrs. A. Knowles' Craighall (Mr. P. P. Hogan in the saddle). in the Limerick Plate, value £130. meeting. O'Brien's "Highland Luck," in the capable hands of Mr. Dan Barry, won the Open Light Weight race at Dungarvan meeting on Thursday week, in which Mr. A. O'Keeffe's "Gala Star" was second with Mrs. L. Hyde's "Flying Pal" (Mr. S. Hyde) was third. In the Killosera Open Race Mr. D. Barry's "Killa-ron" (Mr. Donal Barry) was de-clared the winner, Mr. P. Barry's "Joe Soap," ridden by the owner, second, Mr. J. M. O'Brien's "Jack Chaucer" being third. A feature of the latter meeting was the doubles accomplished by Mr. M. Riordan and Mr. Donal Barry, the former riding the winner of the Confined Maiden Hunt Race and the Open Farmers' Race, and the latter the Open Maiden and Killosera Open Races.

High Court Appeals at Cork Sit-ting.—Before Mr. Justice Martin Maguire, James Leahy, Belvidere, Tallow (plaintiff), appealed agains the decision of the Circuit Court Judge, sitting at Fermoy, dismissing his claim for £20 against Richard Tanner, junr. (defendant-respon-dent) also of Belvidere, Tallow, for trespass on plaintiff's lands, causing damage and spoil, knocking and breaking down fences which had been erected by the plaintiff thereon.

The defendant-respondent denie having caused the damage allege and pleaded that the lands, the sul ect matter of the suit, were his sole and absolute property, having been demised to a predecessor in title of

Mr. S. MacD. Fawsitt, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Linehan and Regan, solrs.) for the plaintiff-appel-lant; Mr. M. Binchy, S.C., with Mr. P. D. Fleming, B.L. (instructed by Messrs A. Carroll and Co., solrs.) for ### Defence Force Officers Commissioned at Cork.

At different centres throughout Ireland, officers of An Forsa Cosanta Aitul-the new L.D.F., received their commissions on Sunday last.
The ceremonies in Munster were held at Collins Barracks, Cork; Sarsfield Barracks, Limerick, and Kickham Barracks, Clonmel. At Collins Barracks, Cork, 94 new officers attended Mass at the barracks chapel, prior to the ceremony, the celebrant being Rev. Father G. Cyprian, O.F.M., St. Francis Church, officers also attended. Following this the officers were paraded on to the barrack square in ten sections. Capt. Twohig was in charge of the officers and Comdt. J. Healy, O/C 47th Battalion L.D.F. was in charge of the whole parade COLOURFUL CEREMONY. Colonel S. McGoran, O/C 1st (Southern Division) having taken his place behind the table accompanied by Major Halpin, the cere-monial began with the Saluting of the Colours by the whole parade, headed by the 47th Battalion Band. The commissioning ceremony proper then started. First, the names of those about to be commissioned were read by the Staff Officer. Comdt Henry, each man coming to attention as his name was called. Then the section was marched in front of the colours where, cap and glove in hand, they took the Oath of Allegiance on the New Testament. This done, they saluted the colours. Marching to an adjacent corner of the square, the officers signed the Oath and were then invested with the insignia of their rank (shoulder bars) by Army officers.

Each officer marched to the table where Colonel McGoran stood, saluted the O/C who shook hands with him in congratulation. The last stage in the ceremony was the reception of the first salute, this being given by Sergt.-Major Carolan who at the same time received from each officer his signed Oath.

Before the colours were marched off. Col. McGoran congratulated the new officers, emphasising the re-sponsibility which was theirs, saying that their commissions made them the keystones of a new force the success of which would depend upon the example and efficiency of its leaders. They had, however, a headline from the Cork County leaders of other times who had put Cork into the foremost rank in the struggle for freedom. Colone McGoran placed another objective before them: it was up to them to make Irish the medium of speech in the new Force. He looked forward to great things from the new L.D.F. so that if ever an emergency arose it would be in a position to maintain the freedom for which past genera-tions of Irishmen had fought and

Munster added the College All-Ire-land Hurling title to the Railway Cup double of the previous week when a selection representative of Cork. Clare, Tipperary, Limerick and Waterford proved much too clever for the Leinster team at Croke Park on Sunday last. The margin of seven points hardly flattered the southerners, who were better equipped in every section, and whenever the country had ever known.

The toast of "The Newly Commissioned Officers" was proposed by Major Halpin, who declared that the ceremonies of the morning were historic, for they were the birth of a new Force. He had been associated with the L.D.F. since its inception and knew it to be one of the finest, if not the finest, voluntary forces the country had ever known.
