CAMOGIE NOTES

The inter-county championship, Cork v. Waterford, took place in Dungarvan on Sunday last in sweltering weather. A very good game was witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiastic followers. Cork fielded a good team where fast pulling and hard hitting was the dominating characteristic of the dominating characteristic of their play. Waterford played a stylish game though not up to the standard of last year, and it would seem at half-time that they could emerge victors, the score being 1-2 to 1 goal. In the second half, Cork played with the sun and very quickly made it creat that their combined hard hitting would win the day. They pressed hard and soon had their reward with a goal. Waterford again came into their stride in the last five minutes and fought hard for a score but without avail. Fate seemed to have been against them because repeated op-portunities failed to secure the Trockmount. Kilmac.) AT THE SEASIDE.

With a veritable heat-wave prevailing last week-end big crowds flocked to the seaside. There were particularly big crowds at Ardmore and Monatrea and the general atmosphere was reminiscent of the good.

On resuming the Cork girls were not long in reducing the arrears and taking the lead. Waterford put in a good rally and though they forced three 25's in the cosing stages they failed to pull the game of the fire

Following a Waterford wide in the first minute, Cork had a midfield free from the delivery, but .N. Breen was prominent with a long cleanance. Waterford attacked again clearance. Waterford attacked again but wided once more. Returning again, the home side missed a major score by a narrow margin. After ten minutes, A.
