Threshing 'Test' Case Decided

Claim at Kilmacthomas Court. Full Decree for Dungarvan Millowner.

A case in which more than usual interest by members of the County Waterford farming community was centred (and already referred to in these columns) was decided by Mr. Francis J. Morrissey, District Justice, at a special sitting of the Kilmacthomas District Court at Kilmacthomas Courthouse.

It was one in which Mr. John J. Lynch, steam threshing machine owner, of Ballyduff, Dungarvan, claimed, from Mr. Walter Drohan, farmer, of Monvud, Stradbally, being amount due plaintiff for threshing done for defendants at his request, during the harvest of 1945.

Mr. J. F. Kenny, solicitor, of Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co., solicitors, Dungarvan, was for plaintiff, and Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solicitor, of Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, solicitors, Dungarvan, defended.

Mr. Kenny said the plaintiff had been threshing for farmers in his district for the past nine years at the rate of £10 per day with various allowances for broken time, etc. There had been occasional disputes about time.

Mr. Morrissey said that when threshing was done by the hour in the area in question it generally worked out at about £4 17s per day.

John Lynch (son of the plaintiff) gave evidence as to the work done by the defendant for his father. Defendant might have asked him before the work commenced how much he would charge.

The witness, continuing his evidence, stated that he could not remember if the defendant asked him what he was going to charge, but if defendant did ask (he witness) was not sure he would have said £10 per day. When the defendant offered him £18 after the threshing was over, witness refused and said it was a matter for his father.

Joseph McGrath, farmer and threshing machine owner, Clashmore, said he never had any difficulty in getting £10 per day in his area. Sometimes he got £12 and even £15.

In giving a decree for the full amount claimed (£20), Mr. McCabe said that he was satisfied plaintiff had not contravened the Emergency Powers Order.

DAIL QUESTIONS

In the Dail on Tuesday, 23rd ult., at question time, Mr. D. Heskin, T.D., asked the Minister for Lands (1) if he would state whether, in cases where the passing of the Land Acts, the landlords required embankments for tenants, the Land Commission now carry out such repairs in those cases where they accepted such responsibility.

The Minister, replying, said the Land Commission arranged for the execution from time to time of such repairs as may be necessary to embankments maintainable out of funds provided by the former landlords for the administration of which the Land Commission are responsible.

Reply—The Land Commission have not yet come to a decision as to what action (if any) they may be able to take towards the repair of the embankments along the Nire River, on the Ashdown estate, Record No. S-441, County Waterford.

Reply—There is at present on hands for allotment in County Waterford a residue of 55 acres of the townland of Boreenacreevy on one estate, and also an area of 67 acres recently vacated by a migrant. The Land Commission have had offers of some 12 estates in that county, comprising 2,290 acres, but they are unable to give any estimate of the proportion of such area, or the Land Commission on other estates inspected by them, which it may ultimately be found necessary and feasible to acquire.

Messrs. J. Lyons and Co., Ltd., of Cudby Hall, W. Kensington, were at West London Court on Tuesday fined £500, with 200 guineas costs, for allowing about seven tons of food to be wasted between December 12th and January 2nd.

They were also fined £5 for failing to take reasonable steps to prevent mice infestation. James Thorne, assistant kitchen manager at Cudby Hall, was fined £50 for aiding and abetting.

Death of Mr. Michael Morrissey, O'CONNELL ST., DUNGARVAN.

His many friends in and around Dungarvan joined with deep regret at the death of Mr. Michael Morrissey (senior), O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, which sad event took place on Sunday last. The deceased was keenly interested in all forms of sport, but more particularly in coursing and fishing; he was a keen judge of any species of canine animal and an expert with rod and line. Quiet and dignified in manner, he made many friends, and his large clientele of patrons, to whom as a first-class tailor, he gave the utmost satisfaction during life, as well as his numerous friends, will deeply deplore his passing. A large cortege attended at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Monday evening last. The deceased was interred in the cemetery, following the celebration of Masses of Requiem on Tuesday.

The chief mourners were—Michl. Morrissey, O'Connell St.; John Morrissey, U.S.A. (son); Mrs. Connors, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Taylor, U.S.A., Mrs. D. Sullivan (daughters); Mrs. B. Galvin, U.S.A. (sister); Denis Sullivan (grandson); Mrs. K. Maye (niece); Mrs. E. Morrissey (sister-in-law); Mrs. M. Morrissey (daughter-in-law); Messrs. Jerry Connors, John Campbell, Jacquin Taylor and Louis Sullivan (sons-in-law).

Mass cards were received from—His loving son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Annie; his loving daughter, Annie; Dan and Denis; Nora O'Shea and family; Mrs. O'Shea and Michael; George Turley and family; Joe and Thomas; Joe Foley; Foley family, Mitchel Terrace; Kitty Power and family; James Barrow and family; Elsie Morrissey, Abbeyside; Jack and Kitty, which Pat and Mrs. Morrissey, O'Connell Street; Bridget Moloney and family; The Springs, Mitchel and Margaret; Whelan, P. Quinn, O'Connell Street; John White, South Toe; Paik and Cait O'Shea and family; Jimmy Attridge and family; Robertham, Yorshire; Mary Attridge, Wilm. family; Davis Street; Mrs. M. M. Lannon; Daniel Attridge, Keatinge Street; McCarthy family, Davis Street; Patsy and Mrs. Foley and Angela; A. O'Donovan; Mrs. Burke, Annie and Paddy; Sheehan, family; Shandon; Alice Young and family; Nicholas and Moly Walsh and family; Mrs. Fraher and family; Ring, Bridge, Thomas and family; Scatliffe Hennebery; J. McCarthy and family.

Gaelthach Grants—Nearly 10,000 schoolchildren in the For-Gaeltacht, Gaeltacht and Beac-Gaeltacht were paid the £2 grant for the school year, 1944-45. The grant is provided annually by the Government for children who use the Irish language habitually in their homes and who are making satisfactory progress at school. The number of households which benefitted from the grant was 4,701. In Donegal 3,454, Galway 3,338, Mayo 1,084, Wick 940, Cork 389, Waterford 336 and Meath 83 children received the grant.

DUNGARVAN SHOW COM. MITTEE MEETING

HIGH TRIBUTE TO HON. SECRETARY. Mr. A. Hurt, President, presided at a meeting of the above in the Court House, Dungarvan, on Wednesday. Present were: Lord Wm. Beresford, Capt. J. Wain, Messrs. P. Quinlan, T. F. Lynch, N. Morrissey, J. Wall, N. Connors, C. Langley, F. Morrissey, P. Dwan, J. P. Cushman, P. B. Sheridan, N. Fitzgerald, M. J. Dronney and J. X. Bowen.

On the proposition of Mr. Quinlan, the 12th Secretary was authorised to pay the prize money and all expenses in connection with the recent Show.

A working committee consisting of the following was formed on the proposition of Mr. Fitzgerald, seconded by Lord Wm. Beresford: Mr. Bowen, R. de Vere Hunt, P. Quinlan, M. Fives, F. Dwan, C. Dempsey, N. Connors, C. Langley, T. F. Lynch, M. Kelly, as it was considered the other committee was to be unwieldy.

The Chairman and the members paid a high tribute to the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Jack Lynch for the wonderful success of the recent show and said they did not think it could have attained such a high degree of perfection down to the smallest detail were it not for his organising ability coupled with his indefatigable energy.

STUP GREYHOUND "LONG SHADOW"

Fawn, 26ins., 80lbs., April '43. Lucky Combination ex Carrick Swan. Undoubtedly one of the best-looking and best-bred Dogs at Stud. Breaking his leg as a sapling, his sire needs no introduction. He was the fastest and gamest of his day, while his dam is a beautifully bred Key Reel Tom ex Busy Letty). Although only at stud a very short time, "Long Shadow" has been visited by some of the best bitches in the country, and his pups are exceptionally strong and good-looking. The first bitch mated to him last December was mated to him again on the 12th of this month, which proves the quality of his young stock. He is certain to produce a fine V.S. and is open to inspection at any time. Will be to a limited number of selected bitches only at the very low fee of 6 guineas (for the present) at owner's risk. Owing to heavy bookings, four days' notice is necessary, and no bitches will be mated unless V.S. certificate is produced. Further particulars apply—

KERRY AND LIMERICK ARE JUNIOR CHAMPIONS.

Kerry, 3-3; Cork, 1-7.

Despite the adverse weather, the Munster junior football final, played at the Minto Ground, Limerick, on Sunday, Kerry thus have the honour of having won the senior, junior and minor Munster Football Championships this year.

A fast forward-line and a decided superiority at centre-field, coupled with a grand display by P. Kelleher (Fitzgeralds, Kilarney), were the factors in Kerry's victory.

Cork held a lead of two-points at half-time but Kerry went all out in the second period and their forwards were down the Cork defence with some magnificent hand-passing movements.

Cork opened the scoring with a point by P. O'Grady, but Kerry went ahead on a goal by P. O'Keefe. Then, from a 21 yards free, Cork reduced matters with a point by J. Downey, and soon after took the lead with points by P. O'Grady and P. Mullen. Kerry then regained the lead with a goal by T. Long, but this was short-lived as Cork had a goal and a point by P. O'Grady to leave the half-time score, Cork 1-5; Kerry, 2-0.

Kerry started the second half in great style and had scores by T. Sullivan (pt.), S. Keane (gl) and T. Long (gl), before Cork rallied with two points by J. Downey. Kerry then completed the scoring with a point by T. O'Sullivan to leave them worthy winners.

LIMERICK'S DRAMATIC FINISH. Limerick, 6-6; Cork, 5-6.

At Buttevant, in the Munster Junior Hurling final, a draw seemed certain, but a goal obtained in the last five minutes gave Limerick a hard-won victory.

Cork may be considered unlucky to be beaten at the close as they had rallied splendidly to draw level after being led by 4-3 to 2-1 at half-time.

West Waterford News.

SYMPATHY.

Deep sympathy is extended to Sgt. and Mrs. Gallagher, Ardmore, on their recent sad bereavement, occasioned by the death of their son, Bob, who was a member of the Ardmore and district.

CLASHMORE V. OLD PARISH.

The junior football championship match between Clashmore and Old Parish, at Dungarvan on Sunday next, is arousing considerable interest and a great game is assured.

Old Parish, who have trained hard, are favourites, and are confident of victory. In a recent practice match Clashmore failed to impress, but may show an improvement on Sunday. They have a great tradition to uphold and will have big support. It is hoped that the game will be played in a clean, sporting manner.

PRAYERS FOR FINE WEATHER.

At the Masses in Clashmore Parish Church on Sunday last, Very Rev. Fr. W. Flynn, P.P., exhorted the people to pray for fine weather for the crops and the harvest, in accordance with the instructions issued by His Lordship the Bishop.

POPULAR PRIEST ON HOLIDAYS.

On his holidays at present is Rev. Fr. D. Slattery, C.C. Clashmore. Father Slattery is a leading athletic enthusiast, being President of Waterford County Board, N.A.C.A.L. and Chairman, Clashmore G.A.A. Club. His many friends join in wishing him a pleasant holiday.

ARDMORE "PATTERN".

The usual "pattern" dance was held in Ardmore Hall on Sunday night last. First-class music was supplied by the Brideside Serenaders' Dance Band, and there was a large attendance. Mr. M. Moloney, hon. sec., and the organising committee had all arrangements perfect. At the conclusion of the dance, Mr. W. Mookler returns thanks to all who supported the function, and complimented the band on their excellent performance.

CELEBRATE AT ARDMORE.

On Sunday night last a very successful curm ceoil and céilidhe were held at St. Declan's College Hall. Leading Gaelic artists contributed to the curm ceoil, and the céilidhe was well patronised and was most enjoyable.

CLASHMORE MAN'S DEPARTURE.

On Sunday last Mr. Barron, Kilmore, Clashmore, left the U.S.A. on the liner "Brazil". He has spent about twenty years in this country. He is well known to many of our people, and his many friends join in wishing him every success in the U.S.A.

ARDMORE "PATTERN".

Owing to inclement weather the usual big curm ceoil did not patronise Ardmore "pattern" on Sunday last. Towards evening, however, when the weather cleared, there was a steady influx from the surrounding districts, and for some hours big numbers were to be seen performing the "rounds" at or stations in the grounds of the old cathedral at the eastern end of the village.

HURLING.

For local hurling fans the next game of interest will be the Ardmore v. St. Davids match at Clashmore. A good game should attract a big crowd to this popular venue.

SALMON FISHING.

The salmon fishing season, just concluded, was reasonably successful. The opening months were very bad, but during the last few weeks there was a good run of fish and crews had exceptionally good catches.

Waterford Committee of Agriculture.

Mr. P. R. Power, chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on last Saturday. Also present were Messrs. M. McGrath, W. Downey, Mr. T. Morrissey, M. F. Walsh, D. Coghlan, W. Norris, J. Mansfield, D. Hurley, Acting Secretary; M. O'Sullivan, Instructor in Agriculture, and Mr. J. O'Connell, Secretary.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. P. R. Power (outgoing) and Mr. O'Ryan (do.), were unanimously re-elected chairman and vice-chairman, respectively.

AGRICULTURAL SCHEME.

A letter from the Department stated that the Minister approved of the allocation in respect of the Agricultural Scheme for 1946/47.

The Minister also approved of the grants towards the low pressure fruit sprayers for 1946.

UNMILLABLE WHEAT.

The Department, writing in connection with the committee's resolution regarding disposal of unmillable wheat, stated that growers may be granted permits for feeding their own animals. The letter pointed out that the price was not controlled.

Mr. Morrissey said he thought that some of the mills were not able to deal with the corn. He was of the opinion that some inspectors should come to see their workings.

Acting Secretary - The Millage Inspectors are actually authorised to do that.

Mr. Downey - The mill-owners are aware of the fact.

Mr. Morrissey - I think we should ask the Department to see that an inspector is present when the mill is working, to make any necessary arrangements to clean the corn afterwards.

Acting Secretary - But there are inspectors doing that.

Mr. Norris - There is no doubt that some mills should not be out at all.

On the proposition of Mr. Morrissey, Mr. Norris moved a resolution in connection with that effect was passed.

Later the Acting Secretary read a communication from the Department regarding the subject, who stated that inspections would be carried out when threshing mills were in operation, and if there was faulty threshing machinery, the threshing mill would be liable to penalties.

WHEAT PRICE INCREASE.

Mr. Morrissey said that it was an opportune time to ask for an increase in the price of wheat.

The meeting agreed and a resolution was passed in view of the increased cost of harvesting machinery and labour the Department be asked to increase the price of wheat to £3 10s per quarter.

POULTRY HOUSES GRANT.

Mr. D. Heskin, T.D., writing re request for increased grant towards poultry houses, stated that he had interviewed the Minister on the matter and was told that it was under consideration. A statement being prepared but he did not know when it would be ready.

FARMERS' FEDERATION.

Resolutions of the Farmers' Federation (1) asking that the price of wheat be increased to £3 per quarter; (2) asking for better prices for all agricultural produce; and (3) asking that labour be included in employment allowance, were adopted.

Mr. Morrissey said there was a reply to the resolution regarding subsidy to agricultural workers to keep them on the land. They should also ask for increased price for milk for at present the price paid for milk was no inducement for farmers to keep their cows. He had come to the conclusion that a farmer who kept them was only a slave because he was getting no encouragement to keep them on the land. They should also ask for increased price for milk.

Mr. Mansfield - With the cost of labour gone up, farmers are entitled to get a gallon for milk.

Mr. McGrath - Is there not a fixed price for milk?

Chairman - Yes.

Acting Secretary - 10d. in the summer and 1/- in the other seasons.

The Chairman said there was a certain amount of difficulty regarding the milk position and recalled the arrangements which the Minister had made with the Irish Dairy Shortage Breeder's Society regarding the price of milk. The Minister had guaranteed certain things and it would be very hard on us to go back on them now. The Chairman agreed that if the dairy cow went it would lead to a scarcity of store cattle.

No action was taken.

PIG MARKETING.

A resolution (forwarded through the County Council) from the Cavan Urban District Council, protesting against proposals in the White Paper dealing with the pig industry and asking that the former system of having weekly and fortnightly pig markets be reverted to was read.

It was adjourned to the next meeting and in the meantime copies of the White Paper are to be circulated to the members.

SHEEP SHOW SUBSIDY.

The meeting agreed to grant a subsidy of £10 towards the Sheep Show in Dungarvan next September.

An application for a premium loan by John Kiely, Ballinagoolake, Ballinacorney, was approved.

A "WEED WILTER."

Reporting on the trials with "Agrokone," a weed-killer, Mr. M. O'Sullivan said it was very satisfactory.

Acting Secretary - It is ten times better than blue-stone. The price has been completely wiped out and it checked a lot of other weeds.

Mr. Morrissey thought the allowance of blue-stone (12 lbs.) should be increased by 2 lbs. to make it effective.

The Acting Secretary said he would not like to see it stronger than it was on Sunday last, prayers were asked for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Mary O'Donovan, Clashmore, the anniversary of whose death occurred this week. Masses were offered for her eternal repose.

Cork Defeat Galway.

Cork 2-10 Galway 0-3

Contrary to expectation, Cork had an easy victory over Galway at Berris Sunday to qualify for the All-Ireland hurling final against Kilkenny or Antrim, who meet in the second semi-final at Croke Park next Sunday.

A poor game disappointed the large crowd and there was a movement for the exits long before the end.

Without being in any way brilliant there was hard hard hurling in the first half, with close marking and keen tackling. Cork, making better use of their chances than Galway, took the upper hand early, but an interval lead of five points by Cork gave no indication that Galway were to be almost completely outplayed in the closing stages.

With few thrills and the play rarely approaching championship standard, Cork's game bore no comparison to the 1944 and 1945 semi-finals.

Galway showed promise at the start, but when John Killen put in an amount of serviceable work around midfield, but their front of attack was all the time held by C. Murphy, Buckley and J. Murphy, with Mulcahy safe in goal. After a time Lynch and Cottrill took Cork were mid-field masters for the greater part, having matters much their own way through the second half. While not so accurate from trees as usual, Ring was again a good centre-forward for Cork, getting good support from Healy and C. Murphy (Bride Rovers).

Closely guarded by Forde, G. O'Riordan at full-forward for Cork got little hope, but from the corners Kelly and M. O'Riordan were quick to avail of openings.

The Galway backs fought stubbornly but there was no saving the wily Cork forwards, Duggan in goal, however, saved his charge time and again and added to his already high reputation. J. Gallagher and S. Gallagher (sub.) were best of the Galway forwards, with Nestor occasionally flashing into the picture.

The collapse of Galway might perhaps be traced in origin to the failure of their forwards during the first half, when, well fed, they were unable to make any headway when the verdict was out of doubt when Cork scored a goal immediately after respite.

Pierce Thornton, inactive for a long period through injury, sustained in the football semi-final last year, showed no approach to his old-time form and was no match for the Cork centre-half, Lott, who did not want for aid from Young and O'Donovan.

Except that Galway brought on M. Nestor for T. Kelly at right corner forward, the teams fielded as selected, but Galway made positional changes as substitutes were called in during play.

To avoid confusion in colour, Galway played in all white, Cork in their usual red.

THE PLAY.

Ring (Cork) opened with a point from the wings in three minutes, but Gallagher (Galway), from a free, quickly equalised. In the 7th minute Cork went ahead by a point from a hand pass, and a goal by Kelly gave Cork a lead of 1-2 to 0-1 at the end of the first quarter.

The only second quarter quarter was a point for Cork by Kelly, following a characteristic solo run by Ring, and Cork led at half-time 1-3 to 0-1.

A minute after resuming, Ke had a goal for Cork, Healy and Lynch (free) adding points, before S. Gallagher (pt.) scored for Galway. Ring, M. O'Riordan and Lynch (free) had points for Cork in turn.

Mulcahy, in the Cork goal, saved from a ranging shot by J. Gallagher, Ring (Cork), from a free, and J. Gallagher (Galway) had exchanged hands before Lynch (pt.) closed for Cork.

Mr. J. Conroy (Loaighis) refereed.

Cork - T. Mulcahy, W. Murphy, C. Murphy (Valley Rovers), D. J. Buckley, P. O'Donovan, A. Lott, J. Young, J. Lynch, C. Cottrill, P. Healy, J. Ring (capt.), C. Murphy (Bride Rovers), M. O'Riordan, G. O'Riordan, J. Kelly.

Galway - S. Duggan, M. J. Flannery, P. Forde, R. Quinn, B. Hanniffy, J. Brophy, W. Fahy, P. Gardner, John Killen, J. Gallagher, P. Thornton, J. Callanan, M. Nestor, T. Flynn, P. Jordan, Subs. - S. Gallagher (for Callanan in first half; D. Flynn (for Hanniffy), Jas. Killen (for Quinn), in second half.

POPULAR OFFICIAL.

On holidays in his native Dromore (Waterstown) at present is Mr. Jerh. O'Donovan, agricultural instructor, (O'Farly County Committee of Agriculture). His many friends in his native district are pleased to see him in excellent health.

ANNIVERSARY.

At the Masses in Clashmore Church on Sunday last, prayers were asked for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Mary O'Donovan, Clashmore, the anniversary of whose death occurred this week. Masses were offered for her eternal repose.

Ballymacarby and Nire Valley Musings.

HOLIDAYING. Spending a holiday in his natal Four-Mile-Water at present is Rev. Thomas Kearney, of Glasgow. We heartily wish this Rev. gentleman a pleasant and enjoyable holiday in his native surroundings.

Also on a recent visit after an absence of 25 years was Sister Agnes, formerly Miss Honora Tison, Croungraue, Ballymacarby. This charming nun—a Sister of Charity—is looking fit and well. She carries back with her to her convent home in London's big city the prayers and good wishes of her numerous friends that she may be spared for many years to come in carrying out the work of the Lord.

OLD RIVALRY TO MEET. The chief tugs in Gaelic circles in Ballymacarby and the Nire at the present moment is the forthcoming meeting of Touraneau and Nire in the third round of the County Championship, which is down for decision at Modelgo on Sunday, 4th August, and speculation is rife as to the result. The home team has a very convincing win over Dunganarvan at Touraneau on Sunday, July 21st, their first championship engagement. This match is sure to be a thriller and should attract a record crowd. On each occasion on which the teams of these sister parishes met a great deal of news in foreign countries to-day, from where each month news comes of speculation successes, so it is small wonder that our horses are in such demand throughout the world.

RACING. Racin' enthusiasts from the locality travelled to Powerstown Park, Clonmel, on Thursday last week, where a very big crowd enjoyed a pleasant day's sport in real summer-like weather. This beautiful racecourse, one of the finest in the South of Ireland, is favoured more and more every year by lovers of the turf. Here some of the finest animals are to be seen. Irish breeders are making big news in foreign countries to-day, from where each month news comes of speculation successes, so it is small wonder that our horses are in such demand throughout the world.

SOCIAL. Lovers of the light fantastic travelled to the Halfway Hall on Sunday night last, where a very enjoyable social was held under the auspices of the Knockmeal Excursion Club. The large company present expressed their appreciation of the delightful programme of music supplied by the Glenside Strangers. A most enjoyable night's dancing was spent by all.

SPRAYING. The injunction spray early, spray thoroughly, spray often, has been being assiduously adhered to in the Ballymacarby and Nire districts during the past few weeks. The potato crop is making very satisfactory progress, and there is no indication that blight has been detected to date. Farmers anticipate a bumper crop this year.

REPAIRS. Taking advantage of the summer recess, Newtown School is undergoing much-needed repairs. Rev. Father Menkel, P.P., under whose jurisdiction the school last, is an indefatigable worker. He has left nothing undone, either spiritually or temporally, in furthering the interests and well-being of his parishioners. We wish him many years of health and happiness in our midst.

DEATH OF MR. SEAN WALL. Fortified by the last rites of the Catholic Church, which he was a most exemplary member, Mr. Sean Wall, Faha, Kilmacthomas, answered the Great Call on Monday, 29th ult., at the all-too-early age of 21 years. A carpenter by trade, he was in the employment of Mr. Thomas Morrissey, builder and contractor, Crawley, Kilmacthomas, until failing health forced him to relinquish work not so long since. The deceased was an exceedingly well-known member of the Faha Dramatic Society from its inception. Possessed of many kindly attributes his departure hence is much regretted by all his friends throughout these parts, and his proximate lies have the sincere sympathy of all who are acquainted with him. Accompanied by a very large cortege, the remains were removed from the residence on Tuesday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballylonean, where they were received by Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Strabally, who said the prayers for the dead. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass on Wednesday morning, the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers, and amid every manifestation of profound sorrow. Fr. Walsh again officiated at the graveside. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave, and many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. Peace to his gentle soul.

Late Mrs. M. Dunford, Shanbally, Kilsenny—It is with the sincerest regret we chronicle the death of Mrs. M. Dunford, Shanbally, which sad event occurred at her residence on Wednesday evening. The death of Mrs. Dunford marks the passing of another of the old stock, who was beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Deceased was a grand type of Irish woman, who proved during her long and useful life that she was a genuine lover of Faith and Fatherland. Followed by a very large cortege of mourners and sympathisers, the remains were taken to Strabally Parish Church on Thursday evening, where, following Requiem Masses to-day (Friday) the burial will take place.

Lismore Notes.

WEDDING BELLS. A very profound and interesting wedding took place at St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, on Tuesday morning of last week when Miss Kitty Conlon, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Conlon and Mrs. Conlon, 24 Main Street, Lismore, became the bride of Mr. Daniel O'Keefe, postmaster, Blackrock, Cork, youngest son of Mrs. Nora O'Keefe and the late John O'Keefe, Ringmahon Cross, Blackrock, Cork. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Lismore. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her sister, Miss Nora Conlon, S.R.N., as bridesmaid, and the best man was Mr. Thomas Linehan, post office, Blackrock, Cork. After the ceremony a reception was held at which a large number of guests attended. We join with the many friends of the happy pair in wishing them every happiness in the years to come.

FOOTBALL MATCH AT BALLYDUFF. Our juvenile footballers travelled to Ballyduff on last Wednesday week to meet Ballyduff in the first round of the Junior Football Championship and after a hard hour's playing the game resulted in a draw on the score: Lismore, 1-1; Ballyduff, 0-4. The replay should attract great interest, but up to the time of going to press the date and venue for the match have not been fixed.

PRETTY WEDDING. Two well-known local families were united in matrimony at St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, on Wednesday, July 24th, the contracting parties being Mr. Joseph Dooley, second son of Mr. Patk. Dooley and Mrs. Dooley, Glenview, Ballytraffer, Lismore, and Miss Patricia Foley, daughter of Mr. Patrick Foley and Mrs. Foley, Sundown, Ballyva. Lismore. The Rev. Fr. Wm. Ahearne, C.C., Lismore, officiated at the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss M. Foley, sister of the bride, while Mr. E. Kenny, Dublino, acted as best man. The reception was held at the home of the bride where many friends of both parties were entertained. The bridegroom comes of a popular and esteemed family and enjoys the circle of a large friendship circle. His amiable life-partner also comes of a widely connected family and is one of the most popular young ladies in the town. Both were the recipients of a large number of costly and serviceable presents to mark the auspicious occasion, which is a high tribute to their popularity. They will join with their legions of friends in warmly wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dooley length of years of health, happiness and prosperity.

CAMOGUIDHEACHT. Camogie fans from all parts of West Waterford are eagerly looking forward to the meeting of St. Mary's (Dunganarvan) and Tallow in the Western Divisional final at Lismore on Friday, Sunday evening, 2nd August, and a record attendance is expected. While Dunganarvan are favourites after their excellent display in defeating a strong Clashmore side in the Great Call on Monday, 29th ult., at the all-too-early age of 21 years. A carpenter by trade, he was in the employment of Mr. Thomas Morrissey, builder and contractor, Crawley, Kilmacthomas, until failing health forced him to relinquish work not so long since. The deceased was an exceedingly well-known member of the Faha Dramatic Society from its inception. Possessed of many kindly attributes his departure hence is much regretted by all his friends throughout these parts, and his proximate lies have the sincere sympathy of all who are acquainted with him. Fr. Walsh again officiated at the graveside. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave, and many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received. Peace to his gentle soul.

GOOD CRICKET MATCH. Lismore was the venue of a very interesting cricket match on Saturday last when the home Club had a Cahir XI as visitors. Lismore, winning the toss, elected to bat first but on slipping, wicket fareo disastrously against excellent bowling by Nolan and Monroe, who claimed 5 wickets for 8 runs to 3 for 4 respectively. Lismore were all out for Cahir found runs difficult to get against the home team due to the good bowling of the Foley Bros and Messrs. Gough and Casey who helped in no small manner by the first-class wicket keeping of P. Tierney. Barry was the only Cahir batsman to show any enterprise before he was bowled clean by Casey for 15 runs. Cahir were dismissed for 49. Batting with confidence, Lismore showed a big improvement in their second venture, scoring 68. Rev. Dean Stanley, G. Little 12 and F. Tierney 12. It had been decided to draw stumps at 7.30 but as it was the Cahir team did not attempt the impossible task of securing the necessary runs leaving the match drawn.

ITEM OF INTEREST. When Tipperary and Galway lined out in a hurling match at Mitchan Stadium on Monday night the whistle will be held by a well-known Lismore Gael in the person of Joe Duggan. The referee at this stallwart wielder of the caman both at home and across Channel congratulated him on being chosen to control this big game and feel confident that he will win as great a reputation as a referee as he has won as a player. Joe has been playing with a London Club, the Brian Boru's for a long time and has been instrumental in gaining victory for his team on many occasions. Another Lismore man who is winning distinction in London's Gaelic circles is Mick Regan. Also playing with a London Club, Mick has started in many thrilling clashes before large throngs of exiles. There is a rumour that he was going to Canada but we learn this was unfounded. He is expected to return home for a short holiday in the near future and can be assured of a hearty welcome from his innumerable friends and well-wishers.
