Dungarvan District Court.

ASSAULT ON YOUNG SCHOOLGIRL

CARTERS AT LAW

At the Dungarvan District Court on last Tuesday, before Mr. E. O'Riain D.J., the annual renewal of publicans' licences in the district were granted.

Continuation of the ad interim licences held by Mr. N. Kelly, Devonshire Arms Hotel; Miss A. Lawlor, Lawlor's Hotel; Miss Kathleen O'Neill, St. Mary Street; and Mrs. Esther Mackey, O'Connell Street, was granted in each.

Mr. T. C. Williams (J. F. Williams and Son, Sores), made the application for Mr. Kelly and Miss O'Neill, and Mr. Quirke for Miss Lawlor, and Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey for Mrs. Mackey.

Moving the application for Mr. Kelly, Mr. Williams said he was unable to produce the will of Mr. Jas. Dunne, who devised the property to the applicant and his brother, Michael.

GAMEKEEPERS' LICENCE. The gamekeepers' licences of Messrs. J. Aird, Cappagh, Joseph Foley, Friary Street, and Bernard Dev, Emmett Street, were renewed.

DANCE LICENCE.

Mrs. Nora Monahan, Ocean View Hotel, Clonea, was granted a public dance licence in respect of the dance hall at the hotel, subject to having two fire extinguishers provided in the hall. The number of dances granted was 12 all-night from 9 to 3 and 20 from 8 to 12.

Mr. Jas. Colender, Garranbane, was granted a public dance licence in respect of the Pike Dance Hall.

Mr. J. P. Kenny (E. A. Ryan and Co.) made the application for Mr. Colender and Mr. Williams for Mrs. Monahan.

"NO LIGHTS."

The following were fined for using unlighted bicycles (amount of fine in parentheses):—James Carleton, Bridge Terrace (2/6); Martin Walsh, Two-Mile-Bridge (2/6); M. Power, Killosera (2/6); L. Lynch, Ballykerlogue (2/6); T. Ahern, c/o Walsh's, Clonea (2/6); P. Healy, c/o P. McCarthy, Ballinacree (2/6); John Walsh, Ballinacree (2/6 and 1/-); P. Kieley, Knockateenore (2/6); M. Sheehan, c/o Keating's, Knock (2/6); Miss B. Christopher (no tail light on motor car—P.O.A.); J. McCarthy, Ballinacree (2/6 and 1/-); Wm. Walshe, Knock (2/6); P. Moloney, Cappagh (2/6); T. Walsh, Ballinacree (gave wrong name—5/- and 2/6); B. McGrath, Two-Mile-Bridge (2/6); W. Power, Ballykerlogue (2/6); P. Moore, do. (2/6); G. McKeown, Leamybrien; Giblin, Laughton, Enright, Burke, Dungarvan; Conley, Ballinacree; and Serr, Liddane, Dungarvan, were the complainants.

GUARD DEASY SUMMONED MORGAN MANFIELD.

Guard Deasy summoned Morgan Manfield, Mitchell Street, for (1) failing to produce his driver's licence, and (2) failing to produce certificate of insurance.

He was fined 5/- on the second summons and the first summons was dealt with under the P.O.A.

A STIFF FINE.

Prosecution that was a very proper statement to have taken, and that was extraordinary in that the defendant was not present to give an explanation, the Justice imposed a fine of £3 on Nicholas Beresford, Skehanine, Dungarvan, for working a horse with sore. Guard Deasy was the complainant.

BRUNK.

Guard Naughton summoned Thos. Costigan, Cathal Brugha Place, for being drunk. Fined 5/-.

Guard Giblin summoned P. O'Brien for a similar offence. Fined 5/-.

MINUTE OF MEDALIST.

Guard Burke summoned James Costigan, Cathal Brugha Place, for being drunk and begging.

Mr. P. J. Morrissey, who appeared for defendant, said he was instructed to apologise to the court. Costigan was working at the harvest that day and could not be present.

Supr. O'Mahony said that this particular type of case was getting very serious, particularly where this defendant and a few others were concerned. A man gets drunk and then he has no money and the first person that comes along he threatens him to give him money. People give him money because they are afraid of him. Some time ago a farmer came to the barracks who had been hit with a stick because he would not give money to him. He (Supr.) was not saying that this defendant was one of these men on that occasion. This particular type of case must be put down.

Justice—Was this defendant so drunk that he was not aware of what he was doing?

Guard Burke—He was not so drunk as that. He threatened a man in my presence that he would break his jaw.

The case was adjourned to the next court.

COUNTY CAMOGIE BOARD

A meeting of the County Camogie Board was held at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Thursday, 19th September.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and signed. The Secretary gave a verbal report of the meeting of the Munster Council held in Nenagh on Sunday, 18th August.

The question of the Camogie Annual was next discussed. Mr. Comerford proposed that any money received by Munster Council from our County Clubs should be used to pay the overdraft.

The following musical programme was contributed by Mr. E. Fleming, A.T.C.L., during the Mass: "St. Mary's," "Ave Maria," "Kyrie," "Agnus Dei," "O Sanctissimus," "Adeste Te" (F. Zolaturra).

The Eastern Secretary's report was read, which showed that a number of teams had lapsed in that division. The Chairman having examined the situation that this state of affairs was due to:

1) Players going to England. 2) Lack of enthusiasm amongst some of the players. 3) Amalgamation with other clubs. Comerford said that there should be some law about registration.

Arising out of the report, it transpired that Miss K. O'Sullivan, St. Columba's team, was suspended by the Eastern Chairman, according to the bye-laws a recommendation from Eastern Division for the suspension should have been sent to County Board. This was not done.

The Chairman ruled that Miss K. O'Sullivan was thereby not suspended. St. Mary's objection was next dealt with. After due consideration the objection was dismissed.

Mr. Dalton, representing St. Mary's, congratulated St. Columba's on their victory. Miss K. O'Sullivan thanked Mr. Dalton. It was decided that the county cellists be held in Dungarvan if possible.

Fashionable Wedding at Youghal.

Condon, M.L.A., of Ashton Court, Youghal, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing.

The bride, radiant in a white slipper satin gown with gathered bodice hand-embroidered in silver with tulle veil, white feather and silver headpiece and a shower bouquet of carnations, was given away by her father, Mr. John Condon, the two-year-old niece of the bride was her train-bearer and wore a maize-satin, and net dress.

Miss Irene Kelleher, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.

Ballymacarbery & Nire Valley Musings.

HARVEST PROGRESS. With favourable weather conditions during the greater part of last week, most of the wheat and oat crops in the district were saved, but an appreciable percentage was un-savable and had to be cut and collected unbound.

The seriousness of the work in hand, together with the erratic nature of prevailing weather conditions, proved a considerable damper on the spirits of harvesters; gone was the good-natured banter and frolicsome gaiety of other years, to be replaced by a more earnest and fitting of us as we are, the very fine hour as possibly could be managed. One couldn't help but notice the change in the conditions of the harvest, which were the more youthful participants.

At evening when the day's work was done, the men gathered in the merry laughter and shouts of glee as they sat in the golden glow of sunset, chatting and smoking their pipes. The young men were jumping, while their elders looked on with hearty approval. Instead of the usual quietude of the farm, in many cases the workers were compelled to return to their respective homes to change their rain-soaked clothing.

The lucrative and somewhat difficult task of blackberry picking has been very much retarded by the adverse nature of prevailing weather conditions. During the occasional fine days, the blackberry pickers could be seen in the fields and by-roads searching the hedgerows for the fruit, which appeared in the form of a crop at the beginning of the season. The untimely rain has caused considerable damage as much of the fruit has decayed. The pickers are being a rather slack trade in the district.

Among the successful candidates of the Convent of Mercy Schools, Dungarvan, at the recent Intermediate examination in the subjects of English, Mathematics, and Science, were Miss Kitty Harney, Ballymacarbery, and Miss Margaret McCarthy, St. Mary's, who were both highly commended. The latter's teachers, who must surely be congratulated on such signal proof that their labours and zeal are not fruitless.

Back in his natal Graignagower, Ballymacarbery, on a holiday is Jack Phelan. The amiable visitor is accompanied by his son, Master Jimmy Phelan. Although only 12 years of age, young Jimmy has created quite a stir in the district. He has learned how to swim only six months ago and since his arrival has proved himself a most capable swimmer. The latter's father, who is a most capable swimmer, has a most enjoyable "day in our water."

In the Ballymacarbery and Nire Valley districts all work and no play doesn't seem to be the motto of the youth there. A large number of the young men are taking part in the night of bowling held in the night of September 21st, to attend the night of the Colling Super Ballroom and under the auspices of the Servemore Association (Clonmel Y.C.). A most enjoyable night was spent by all concerned, dancing to the strains of the excellent music furnished by Jack England and his orchestra.

At the Parish Church, Ballyduff, the marriage of Miss Mary Phelan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Phelan, to Mr. J. Phelan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Phelan, was celebrated on Saturday, September 21st. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Shanahan, C.M., assisted by Rev. Fr. Shanahan, C.M. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur Leopold, of Cork. The bride wore a navy blue and white ensemble. The honeymoon is being spent in the West.

Postponed.—On all sides keen disappointment was voiced following the announcement of the postponement of the Autumn Horticultural Show at Ballyduff owing to unforeseen circumstances.

Harvesting.—The fight to save the harvest is going on apace from early morning until late at night and every dry hour is being used to the best advantage.

Prayers for Fine Weather.—In accordance with the wishes of the Irish Bishops, prayers were offered up in the various churches in the district on Sunday last that God in His mercy would grant favourable weather to save the harvest.

Sale of Farm Stock and Implements.—A very successful sale was held at Ballyduff on Thursday last of farm stock and implements, which were disposed of at remunerative prices.

Threshing Operations.—Threshing operations are now in full swing on the Moorehill estate at Ballyduff, and from reports to plant the yield and quality is well up to the average of former years.

On Holidays.—At present holidaying in Cappoquin is Miss Mona Moloney, daughter of Guard and Mrs. Moloney, Main St.

Harvesting Machinery.—The demand for spare parts for harvesting machinery still far exceeds supply, so it may be difficult for farmers to obtain everything they require this season.
