EFFICIENT CO. LIBRARY SERVICE NEEDED

Co. Council Considers Deputation's View. Suggested Transfer of Headquarters. Sum of £8,000 Needed.

A deputation from the County Libraries Committee was present at the quarterly meeting of the Waterford County Council (Senator Butler, vice-chairman, presiding) at Dungarvan on Monday in connection with the suggested transfer of the County Library headquarters from Lismore to Dungarvan. The deputation consisted of Very Rev. Dr. Curtis, Prior, O.S.A., Dungarvan; Rev. Dean Stanley, Lismore; Messrs. F. Mac Murchada, County Librarian, and J. Brennock, Assistant Librarian.

Addressing the meeting Very Rev. Dr. Curtis said that at the last meeting of the Libraries Committee it was unanimously decided that the County Council be requested to grant a petition, namely, that a new library headquarters be erected in Dungarvan. This building would serve a two-fold need; it would guarantee adequate library service to the people of Dungarvan; and it would also ensure that a supply of books throughout the county would be efficiently maintained.

Position of Dungarvan Branch. Continuing, Dr. Curtis said that the Library Committee was very much concerned with the position of the Dungarvan branch, and that was why they were urgently requesting the council to remedy the position by undertaking the building of a library. This new library would also serve as the headquarters for the whole county. The branch library at Lismore was at present a branch library, but it was completely inadequate for that purpose. It was too small to contain the number of books required throughout the county. At present they had a stock of books not exceeding 23,000, to give a minimum service throughout the county 45,000 books were needed. To do that a building was required in which the books could be properly housed and properly catalogued.

The structure of the Lismore building, continued Dr. Curtis, was defective, in that the books suffered through dampness. Finally, since Lismore is at the far end of the county, an attempt to make the Lismore library headquarters for the whole county is to make the county service uneconomical. The only solution is to build the headquarters at Dungarvan, which will give adequate service to the people of the town and, at the same time, ensure satisfactory service throughout the county.

Service at Standstill. Concluding, Dr. Curtis said: The County Libraries service has been in operation for 17 years. Great progress has been made since the beginning. Seventy centres throughout the county are now being served with books. For some years, however, the service has been at a standstill and the minimum level has not been reached. To reach this level it is necessary to expand, that is, to build a new headquarters for the county and to work it at Dungarvan, which will be worthy of the library service.

Co. Librarian's Report. In a report on the present state of library provision in the county (circulated to the members of the council) the County Librarian stated that a public social service which, having been primarily established to fulfil a definite function and attain a definite aim, failed to achieve its purpose without reasonable degree of efficiency. The County Library, now 16 years in existence, had as yet only reached 50 per cent of what is considered a minimum standard of efficiency. It, therefore, came within the category of an "uneconomic" service. It was uneconomic in the sense applicable to any business concern in which a certain amount of capital had been invested and which, owing to expansion, requires a further investment to meet the public demand for the products in which it deals. In order to bridge the gap which van it would serve a double purpose. He had to give an opinion on this question to the County Council and was his considered opinion that the building should be erected in Dungarvan.

Mr. Ormonde held that the Lismore building would be sufficient for the purpose if £2,000 were spent on it. He held that that sum would be able to fix up the Lismore building. Mr. Murphy had said that if the new building were in Dungarvan they would save on transport. He (Mr. Ormonde) held differently. They had to transport books from Lismore to Dungarvan and possibly less with the present headquarters. He would ask the council to adjourn the question until they got expert opinion on it. He thought that the Lismore building could be improved. Lismore was the first town in the county in which a free library was established and it was entitled to have the headquarters of the county library. It was along (To Mr. Murphy)—Supposing the headquarters were changed to Dungarvan, would you be in a position to carry on with the same staff or would you have to add to it?

Question of Staff. Mr. Murphy—We would have to get an all-time staff in Dungarvan which is entitled to it. It means, namely, that we would have efficient administration of the whole library service, in so far as the whole county and not a specific locality would be effected. If the building were erected in Dungarvan, a whole-time service to Dungarvan which the people in Dungarvan are entitled to.

Mr. Ormonde expressed the opinion that £8,000 was a large amount. Mr. Murphy said they were only looking for a rate of 4d. in the £. There was a reasonable demand from every County Councillor's constituents for an extension of the library service.

Mr. Ormonde said that an efficient service could be kept going with the same staff as at present if they were improved. Mr. O'Ryan asked Mr. Murphy would there be a more efficient service if the building were transferred to Dungarvan. Mr. Murphy—Most decidedly.

"Expert Opinion Should Be Got." Mr. Ormonde said he thought that there would not be any saving in expenditure by transferring the headquarters to Dungarvan. There might be saving of a few pounds in transport. He would not like anything to be done about the whole question until they get expert opinion on the whole question. If a new library was wanted in Dungarvan it should be built; but the headquarters should be in Lismore.

Mr. Quirk said that Lismore got a free library free gratis from Carnegie funds and he understood that the same offer was made to Dungarvan but they refused it. He thought it rather high-handed of Dungarvan to come in now looking for this. Chairman—Dungarvan is asking nothing. This is a request from the County Libraries Committee.

Continuing, Mr. Quirk said that the point in the council was being asked to have the library in Dungarvan anyway. As far as he was concerned, every day people were coming along and asking for a 4d. for this and a 4d. for that; and all these farthings would become halfpennies and then shillings. He thought that if they wanted to spend money there was no sense in doing it and that was to save their workmen's time. That would be better than spending thousands of pounds in the building of a library and other things.

The Main Point. Mr. Kyne said that he felt that the main point was: Were they going to have an efficient library service or not. He was not competent to say whether the building, which would cost £8,000, would be whether it should be in Lismore or Dungarvan. He thought that there should be a Select Committee set up to save where it should be. They could pass the money and then it could be decided where it was going to be. He was a borrower at the Dungarvan Library and he gave it up because he did not get a good service there. He gave up going there because it was totally inadequate and the staff which was also inadequate, worked under great difficulties. He would say that the people of Dungarvan were entitled to a full-time service. He proposed that the council give the £8,000 and he would suggest that they would be getting it cheap at that. The big thing was to give the money—which was only 4d. in the £—and let the question of where it would be solved itself.

Mr. O'Ryan recalled the fact that it was he who proposed 17 years ago to start a library service in the county and which, after he had handed in a number of motions in the matter, the County Council reluctantly consented to do it. There was an efficient county library service was needed. In the country and towns it was the only way of educating themselves. The demand for books was getting greater every day, and if they wanted to have an efficient library service must stand up to the needs of the present age. Dungarvan was the "natural" centre of the county and he believed there would be a lot of money saved, if the headquarters were transferred to Dungarvan. He would strongly recommend to the council to pass this sum; it was only a question of 4d. in the £. The poorer people in the country had very little recreation and a library service in rural areas would be a recreation and also a means of educating themselves for these people. He thought that it was the least they could do for them.

"Must Provide for Dungarvan." Mr. Mac Murchada said that the headquarters were built in Dun- garvan it would serve a double purpose. He had to give an opinion on this question to the County Council and was his considered opinion that the building should be erected in Dungarvan.

Efficient Service Needed. Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., said that in Dungarvan they had not an efficient service. He was entitled to leave it to any fair-minded man to go and look at the building in Dungarvan and then say it was suitable. He would suggest that the only way to remedy the position in Dungarvan was to do as the County Librarian had pointed out. There was no doubt that Dungarvan needed a new service. The County Council must face the fact that they must provide a good and efficient service there some time. Dungarvan had been agitating for an adequate service from year to year. The position was going from bad to worse. They must provide an adequate library service for the town. Let them do that. Let them provide an efficient service with recreation rooms where unemployed people could come in and read the daily papers and magazines. As regards the location of the headquarters, Mr. Morrissey said he believed there would be more efficient service if it was in Dungarvan. He appreciated Mr. Ormonde's point of view, but there was no getting away from the fact that there was a building here in Dungarvan. He thought that Dungarvan was the ideal centre for the headquarters. The figure £8,000 might be more or less than the fact, but he would not like to see it be only 4d. in the £. They were all aware of the inadequacy of the service at present and some of them—those who were on the Libraries Committee—were well aware of the difficulties that were encountered. The people of the town were entitled to have an efficient library service and their views must be considered.

Lismore Member's Views. Mr. Ormonde—Will it make it any cheaper or better by transferring the headquarters to Dungarvan? I still hold that with the exception of transport, which might cost a few extra pounds, that it will not hold that Lismore building can be used for anything but a few thousand pounds on it or at least one-third of the cost of a new building in Dungarvan. I propose that we get expert opinion before we do anything in the matter. If it costs £8,000 for anything like it. You would have to get a site and pay an architect and then you would have to add to the present staff. It would not stop at a 4d. at all.

Mr. O'Ryan—That means leaving a library and other things. Mr. Kyne suggested that a Select Committee be appointed to go into the matter of the headquarters. They were agreed, apparently, on having the Libraries Committee in their request.

Mr. O'Ryan—What committee could be more select than the County Libraries Committee? Ratepayers Must Be Considered. Mr. Norris said it was a very essential thing to have a library service, but there were other things to be considered. They must consider the ratepayers. If the people had not bread and butter on their tables they could not have books to read. Put the bread and butter on their tables first and then do the rest after that.

Mr. Harty agreed with Mr. Ormonde that expert opinion should be got on the question of having the headquarters at Dungarvan or Lismore. It was a serious question and would reflect on those whose incomes were decreasing from past few years and on the question of putting the Lismore building into proper condition for the library headquarters. He would be in favour of that and also that a new building be erected in Dungarvan for a library there.

Mr. Kyne—Are we going to provide an efficient service? Can't we pass the money to O'Ryan? Chairman—You can decide to-day if you are prepared to provide a headquarters, but that more definite information should be got as to where it should be.

Resolution Passed. The following resolution was then proposed by Mr. O'Ryan and seconded by Mr. Kyne—"That we accede to the request of the County Librarian Committee to provide an adequate and efficient library service for the county and that the County Manager consider the in the most economically carried out, taking into account the question of keeping the Ballymacarby and Nire Valley Musings.

The Late Mrs. Ellen Prendergast—It is with feelings of deep regret we chronicle the death of Mrs. Ellen Prendergast, Knocknaree, Ballymacarby, which occurred on Monday, February 3rd, after a somewhat protracted illness and in the fullness of years. The deceased lady belonged to one of the oldest and most respected families in the district—the Heanays of Knocknaree. A keen business woman endowed with many excellent traits of character, her passing is keenly felt by a large circle of friends and relatives. To her bereaved sons, daughters and other relatives deep and sincere sympathy is extended in their sorrow. The removal of the remains to the Nire Church on Tuesday, where they rested overnight, was accompanied, despite the very inclement weather, by a large number of mourners and sympathisers. On Wednesday morning Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of her soul, after which the remains were placed in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a number of ladies and gentlemen. The funeral took place on Thursday, February 6th, at 10.30 a.m. The deceased lady was the widow of the late Mr. James Wall, also of Knocknaree, Ballymacarby, whose death took place at his residence at an advanced age, on Thursday, February 6th. The deceased belonged to a highly-respected and widely-connected County Waterford family. A brilliant conversationalist and a most accomplished pianist, his imperturbable good humour had made him a firm favourite with everybody who had the pleasure of knowing him. To his bereaved sister, brother and other relatives deep and sincere sympathy is tendered with the best wishes for their recovery. On Saturday morning Requiem Masses were celebrated by Rev. Fr. McDonald, C.C., Touraneena and Nire, for the welfare of his soul. The funeral, which took place later in the day to the cemetery adjoining the Nire Church, was attended by a large and representative gathering of mourners and sympathisers, including many friends and esteem in which deceased and his family are held. The light of Heaven to his soul.

The Passing of Mr. James Wall—It is also our sad duty this week to record the passing of yet another of the older residents of the district in the person of Mr. James Wall, also of Knocknaree, Ballymacarby, whose death took place at his residence at an advanced age, on Thursday, February 6th. The deceased belonged to a highly-respected and widely-connected County Waterford family. A brilliant conversationalist and a most accomplished pianist, his imperturbable good humour had made him a firm favourite with everybody who had the pleasure of knowing him. To his bereaved sister, brother and other relatives deep and sincere sympathy is tendered with the best wishes for their recovery. On Saturday morning Requiem Masses were celebrated by Rev. Fr. McDonald, C.C., Touraneena and Nire, for the welfare of his soul. The funeral, which took place later in the day to the cemetery adjoining the Nire Church, was attended by a large and representative gathering of mourners and sympathisers, including many friends and esteem in which deceased and his family are held. The light of Heaven to his soul.

Sympathy.—The sympathy of the entire group at the district goes out in fullest measure to the sisters and relatives of Mr. Park Lynch, Bohadon, whose death took place recently. The late Mr. Lynch was a man of sterling character, a devout Catholic, a true Irishman. His passing at an advanced age, in his native district which cannot be filled. To those left to mourn his passing we tender our sincerest sympathy in their bereavement.

Bereavement in 35 Years.—The older residents of the district have proclaimed this winter to be the severest from every point of view experienced in the past 35 years. The fuel shortage is being acutely felt, especially in the poorer homes. Although timber is available in a plentiful supply, the Arctic nature of climatic conditions has rendered the replacement of dwindling fuel supplies impossible. The paraffin oil available is being keenly felt. Departs.—His many friends and well-wishers in his native Ballymacarby and Nire Valley, and elsewhere, are good luck and God-speed to Mr. Eamon Ryan, who left our midst last week to take up a responsible and lucrative position across Channel. Third son of Mrs. Ryan and the late Mr. James Ryan, Knocknashane, Ballymacarby, and twin-brother of Mrs. Eileen Ryan, his merry and young man of many lovable qualities, always ready to help along the rugged pathway of his mother in need of his assistance, a firm favourite with young and old. Ever cheerful and generous, his merry laugh and gay repartee will be greatly missed from social gatherings, of which parties he was the life and soul. To him we say many good fortune smile on all his days.

HARP BROTHERS WATERFORD

TALLOW NOTES West Waterford News.

Recent Death.—Expressions of deep regret were occasioned over the death of East Cork and West Waterford when it was learned that the death of Mrs. Gallagher had taken place rather suddenly at her residence, Shanakkil, Curraglass, Co. Cork. Relict of the late James Gallagher, she was a member of an old and highly-respected family, who farmed extensively in East Cork and who rather untimely passing is deeply deplored. Deceased's remains were removed to Conna Parish Church, the accompanying cortège being representative of almost every household in the parish. Requiem Masses having been offered for the repose of her soul, the funeral took place to the Churchtown South Cemetery, where the interment was made. Very Rev. Canon Aherne, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Roche, C.C. and Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, C.C., Ballynoe, officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners were: Mrs. J. Mulcahy, Kilmoran (sister); Messrs. E. Mulcahy, do.; J. Mulcahy, Shanakkil; J. J. and James Cuddigan (nephews); Mrs. C. O'Keefe, Ballynoe, and Mrs. M. Flynn, Conna (nieces). R.I.P.

Rural Electrification.—It is hoped that the efforts of the Clashmore Parish Council to have the Rural Electrification Scheme introduced in that area will meet with success. The area suggested is Ardmore, Kinsalebeg, Clashmore, G. R. A. and Clashmore. It is the general opinion that this is the most suitable area in Co. Waterford for the scheme. The area is thickly populated but it includes four villages and the well-known seaside resort, Ardmore. It has been suggested that a representative committee be formed from the interested districts. Before making further moves, however, the Clashmore Parish Council have written to the E.S.B. seeking further information and a list of the members of the Board of area for consultation.

Clashmore Parish Council.—An important meeting will be held on Monday night next and all members are asked to attend. A general meeting of the Clashmore Football Club will be held on Saturday night, February 22nd, at 8 o'clock. All members are asked to be present. THE BEET GROWERS.—The action of the Ardmore Beet Growers in organising and demanding their rights will meet with general approval. The general belief is that the agricultural produce has for years been the victim of exploitation and that the beet growers are being treated as the "middleman". Only by organisation will the producer get a fair return for his labours.

Old Age Pensions.—A meeting of the Voughal No. 2 (Rural) Old Age Pensions Committee was held in Clashmore during the past week. A full report will appear in our columns next week. G.A.A.—The meeting of the G.A.A. Club on Saturday and in some places it was about two feet high. A thaw set in about 7 p.m. and the roads were covered with slush and it was decidedly uncomfortable to travel. Snow fell again on Sunday morning for about an hour and the afternoon was bitterly cold.

Without Liver-lead you'll keep out of bed in the morning half the time and sleep the rest of the night.

Kilmacthomas Notes.

Baldwin's Hall Kill.—Baldwin's Hall, the noted centre of amusement on Sunday night last was under the auspices of the Dunhill Social Club and was attended by a large number of devotees. The dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and continued up to 3 a.m., with not a dull moment all the way, the music being delightfully rendered by the Waterford City Band (with amplification). Patrons did full justice to the refreshments catered for by the Ladies' Committee. The highly enjoyable function was wound up with the playing of the National Anthem. BIRTHDAY.—At both the 8.30 and 11 o'clock Masses in St. Anne's Church, Ballylance, on Sunday last, prayers were requested for the repose of the soul of Patrick Dunphy, "Rock View", Ballylance, a parishioner, the anniversary of whose demise transpired about this time and for whom Masses were said during the week. And prayers were also requested for the repose of the soul of Miss Mary Bradley, Clondrahit, Co. Cork, who died last week. Incidentally, the late Miss Bradley was a first cousin of estimable Mr. James O'Sullivan, Seafield, Bonmahon (where he is employed by Mr. R. Russell, R.I.P.).

Gaelic Garnerings.—The deservedly popular chairman of the fourteenth New Year Football Club has received from the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs (Mr. P. J. Little) a letter of congratulation on the Newtown team's taking County Championship honours for the first time. Applications for upgrading from senior to junior grade in hurling, made by Irish Tanners (Portlaoise) and De La Salle (Waterford), respectively, of the line, they ran on by the East Waterford Divisional Board and were both refused by 19 votes to 2 that body, but it is understood that the clubs concerned are appealing to the County Board against the decision. The County Board fixed Sunday, April 13th next, for the opening of the Divisional Championship Competitions, and made the following draws: Junior Hurling—Mount Sion v. Dunhill; Gaedheal Og v. R. H. Pearse; St. Michael's v. Ballyduff; Ballyduff v. De La Salle; Mental Hospital v. Ballyduff; Tramore v. Ballyduff. Junior Football—Butlerstown v. Fenor; Gaedheal Og v. Rathgnamack; Gaultier v. Portlaoise; Newtown v. Ballyduff; Ballyduff v. Ballyduff; De La Salle v. Ballyduff. Junior Football—Butlerstown v. Fenor; Gaedheal Og v. Rathgnamack; Gaultier v. Portlaoise; Newtown v. Ballyduff; Ballyduff v. Ballyduff; De La Salle v. Ballyduff.

Minor Football—Na Risik v. Clodiagh; Kill v. De La Salle; Newtown v. Fenor; Sarsfield v. Tramore. N.B.—The Western Divisional Board's draws for the 1st round of this year's championships in their area appeared in the previous issue of "The Observer". FIANNA FAIL.—Mr. Wm. Lenihan, Hon. Secretary, Kilmacthomas Comhairle Ceannair, has accepted the invitation to attend the meeting of Mr. J. G. Dowling, Secretary, Waterford County Council—"A Letter of January 21st last relative to a resolution passed at the annual meeting of the Kilmacthomas and Fenor Branch of the Fianna Fail, requesting the Waterford County Council to reconsider its decision regarding the proposed site for a Vocational Education Centre for a grant to meet the cost of professional charges, acknowledged your receipt of your letter dated January 21st last, on behalf of the Kilmacthomas Comhairle Ceannair, regarding their desire to have the electrification scheme extended to the town of Kilmacthomas. I am sorry to say that the matter is being examined and a further letter will follow in due course." From Mr. Sean Lemass, Minister for Industry and Commerce, Kilmacthomas Comhairle Ceannair, regarding their desire to have the electrification scheme extended to the town of Kilmacthomas. I am sorry to say that the matter is being examined and a further letter will follow in due course.

Death of an Esteemed Nun.—The Mercy Convent, Kilmacthomas, on Thursday last week, occurred the death of Sister Mary Gabriel (Mooney), and the sad event has left the world a poorer place, not only for her cloistered confidantes, but to the many who privilege it was to know her. Worthy member of a fine old family stock, Kilmacthomas, Co. Tipperary, the late Sr. M. Gabriel was truly a saintly nun and a lady of sterling worth; her winning smile and her strong encouragement being a constant source of help to all. She had spent more than fifty years in the Master's service, and the news of her passing was received with feelings of dismay and intense regret by the people of Kilmacthomas and district, and a wide area of the Premier County. The light of Heaven to her gentle soul. After Office and High Mass in the Convent Chapel, interment took place in the Convent cemetery amidst many manifestations of profound sorrow. Very Rev. Fr. E. A. P.P. Newry, officiated at the graveside assisted by Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Clodiagh; Very Rev. M. Fackett, P.P., Kilmacthomas; Rev. Fr. O'Doherty, C.C., do.; Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmacthomas; Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill; Rev. J. McGrath, C.C., Portlaoise; Rev. L. Vereker, C.C., do., and Rev. T. Draper, C.C., Stradbally. Shrouds, spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received.

Waterford Hounds.—Above met at Ballyduff on Tuesday, 4th inst. The creamery gorse was drawn first and a fox was about half a mile and then turned left beyond Ballyduff Cross and entered Ballyduff covert. Hounds spent some time in getting him away from there, and then got a good start. Leaving Carrigeon on the left they crossed the Carrigeon road at Kilmacree, pointing for the mountain, but turning right-handed at Crough, they skirted the creamery gorse and on by Whitestown to Duckett's corner. Hounds were stopped about a mile further on, as they were heading for the wood at Salheen. The next find was at Ballyduff Bog. The fox crossed the main road near Newtown Cross, and on to Graigue, where hounds checked for some time. Hitting off the line, they ran on by Mr. Cummins' farm at Carrigeon and over the Ballyduff road to Ballyhugh. Hounds were stopped where he used by Mr. Vesley's, and still driving on, hounds crossed the bog and railway near Carrigeon Cross and were stopped by Grenan Knock, as it was getting late. This was a fine found hunt of more than an hour. Those out included: Mr. Wm. Lenihan, Mr. St. Ernest, Lady Goff, Mr. L. Richardson, Mr. Gallwey, Lady P. Miller, Lt.-Col. J. Ashby, Miss Lindsay, Miss Walker, Mr. C. Blaque, Mr. E. de Vere Hunt, Mr. Shanks, Mr. D. J. Coghlan.

Galvanised Wire Netting is indispensable where protection is needed. Whether it be to save widow glass from being broken or as a protection against the ravages of ants, birds or rabbits, no safer or cheaper method of protection can be adopted. It is also invaluable for enclosing Dog Kennels and Fowl Runs and indeed for a thousand and one other uses. During the war years it was impossible to obtain supplies of this much-needed article, but now we are happy to be in a position to offer the public unlimited quantities of Highest Quality Galvanised Wire Netting in every size, gauge and width. No matter what you require from 12 inches to 6 feet wide, or from half inch to 3 inches mesh we can supply you with bright, new, clean netting that will withstand the weather for years. Fabulous prices were paid for wire netting during the late war and only the well-to-do could afford to purchase it, but to-day prices are so much reduced that it is within the means of everyone to procure their requirements. To further reduce cost we will pay carriage on all orders of 2 Roll lots and upwards.—Harpus Brothers, 48 Quay, Waterford.

Late Mr. M. J. Walsh, KILCANNON.

The death occurred at his residence, Kilkannon, Cappagh, on last Monday of Mr. Michael J. Walsh at an advanced age. Prior to his death Mr. Walsh enjoyed relatively good health and his passing, which was unexpected, came as a shock to his family and large number of friends.

KILMACTHOMAS FIRE.

Damage estimated to run into thousands of pounds was caused by a disastrous fire which occurred at the premises of Messrs. Flahavan & Sons, Ltd., Kilmacthomas Mills, Kilmacthomas, Co. Waterford, in the early hours of Wednesday morning. Upwards of 50,000 barrels of seed wheat and oats were destroyed, as well as the three-storey stone structure. It was formerly the home of Messrs. Stephenson's woollen mills.

NEW BUILDING SAVED.

Only a brick wall separated the involved building from a new addition to the premises, which housed another large quantity of up-to-date plant and machinery. The precautionary measure was taken of removing the furniture and other effects of the occupiers of the adjoining houses.

BALLYBRICKEN, AND REV. P. FARRELL, C.C. ST. MARY'S, DUNGARVAN.

The immediate chief mourners were: Mrs. Walsh (widow); Eddie, Jim, Michael John, Rev. Fr. L. Dan, and Bernard (son); Mrs. Joan O'Connell, Malaga, Spain; Mrs. Evelyn Fynn, Mrs. A. Byrne, and Miss (daughters); Rev. Fr. D. Canon Walsh and Dr. Jas. Walsh (brothers).
