The Senior Hurling Championship match (1st Round) between Dungaran easy victory over their opponents, who incidentally lacked some of their most prominent players. The game commenced sharp on time with Dungarvan immediately going into the attack to send wide. Brickeys transferred and getting a free 21 yards out tried for a goal with a rasping shot, which was deflected over the bar for a point to open the scoring. After some brisk midfield exchanges Dungarvan again pressed and were re-warded by their first score, a point, and quickly followed with a major which was followed in quick succession by two more points. With this substantial lead the Brickeys fought fences. Even exchanges marked the ensuing play, but Dungarvan added another point to their already high score sheet before the close of the first half, thus leaving the half-time score: Dungarvan, 1 goal 4 points;

Brickey Rangers, 1 point. Lively exchanges marked the opening of the second half, both teams ing all out for scores. Dungary was sent to the attack, but the ball members of the comm

Fixtures Meeting.—All outstanding fixtures of the Western Divisional neeting in C.Y.M.S., Cappoquin, on Sunday last. As a full report of the meeting appears in this paper, I will not give any further particulars.

At Cappoquin on Sunday.—The neeting of Lismore and Cappoquin on Sunday next in junior hurling at Cappoquin promises a special display of hurling. Both teams expect to go far this year. Lismore were very unlucky last season to be put out of the championships. They believe they have secured an improved selection for Sunday on which, if all I hear is true, may be seen some prominent Tallow players. Sunday will tell whether this is correct or not. DEATH OF MRS. McGRATH.

The death of Mrs. McGrath, relict of the late Mr. Richard McGrath, Kilnagrange, Kilmacthomas, which occurred in her 88th year after a protracted illness (borne with true Christian fortitude and resignation), is very much regretted, not only by her numerous friends but by all who knew her. The deceased lady's gentle, amiable and kindly disposition, ever cheery and generous, won the respect and esteem of the people of the town and district. To her popular daughters (Nora and Maggie) and sons-inlaw and grandchildren many expressions of sincere sympathy have been tendered. Mrs. McGrath's funeral on Sunday evening last to the family burial place at Fews Cometery was a marked tribute of respect to the dead; it was representative of all classes and sections over a wide area, and was indeed but the just tribute of the neighbours to one who was known to be a loving wife and a devoted mother, whose mind was fil'ed with an intense unotitusive religious feeling ard wito wished to read a comparisor of the Lasmore Accordion Band. ANOTHER OCTOGENERIAN'S A mantle of mourning enveloped Bonmahon on Saturday night last, when it became known that that fair village's fine, old inhabitant, Mrs. Ellen Carey, widow, had been called away to her eternal reward. Mrs. Carey was born about 85 years ago, being one of a very popular and greatly respected local family. Her personality made her a favourite more of the second state of the second personality made her a favourite it was apparent that her time in this world was coming to a close. It was a sorrowful blow to her children and grandchildren, but, hoping against hope, they prepared themselves for the inevitable, so that when the end came the was reconciled to meet her Maker, and surrounded by her grief-stricken nearest. rounded by her grief-stricken nearest and dearest having been fortified with the last Sacred Rites of Holy with the last Sacred Rites of Holy Church (to which she was ever devotedly attached), she peacefully breathed her last. The rich and poor alike deplore her loss. In short, she shall be missed by everyone who valued a genuine, sincere, untelfish and kind-hearted friend and neighbour. Widespread sympathy is extended to the beregived ones. The tended to the beregived were from—Mass cards received were from—Her loving son. Paddy and family:
