Passing of Popular and Esteemed Figure

Mr. Morrissey was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. Morricultural life of the county. He received his early education at Ballinroad N.S. and later at the Christian Brothers, Dungarvan. His first appearance in public life was when he was elected a member of the Dungarvan Urban Council. In all he was successful. In 1937 he wen and subsequently Cathaoirleach Seanad. In the 1938 election he headed the poll. He retained his seat ever since. He was also a mem-ber of the following public bodies: The County Council of Waterford; Waterford Board of Assistance (Chairman); Waterford Mental Hospital Committee; Co. Waterford Vofional Committee, Co. Waterford

He was at all times deeply interested in the interest of the project very touching scenes were witnessed at the Suir Bridge when the remains arrived at 7.30 p.m. Large groups of sympathisers who awaited their arrival from late afternoom swimming pool, considered one of the finest of its kind in the country. for charitable purposes in which he did not take an active and pro-

the raising of funds for the Child-ren's Health Committee.

The remains of Mr. Morrissey were on Sunday removed from the nursing home at Dun Laoghaire to his native Dungarvan. An Taoiseach, Mr. de Valera, who was accompanied by his A.D.C., Comdt. Breanan; Mr. T. Derrig. Minister for Education and Mr. O. Traynor, Minister for Defence; the Lord Mayor of Dublin and the Mayor of Waterford, were amongst the mourners who escorted the remains from the nursing home and saw them leave on their 130 mile journey to the south.

The prayers at the mortuary were recited by Right Rev. Monsignor R. Casey, Senior Chaplain to the Forces, assisted by Rev. D. Howett, Chaplain at the Home. The coffin was draped with the Tricolour in tribute to the late Mr. Morrissey's membership of the West Waterford Brigade Flying Column in the Black-and-Tan days.

Amongst those attending were:—

under Mr. M. Clancy, U.D.C., and as the procession left the parochial residence the band played "Faith of Our" Fathers" in martial form. Along the route the people of the town gathered, and as His Lordship passed he imparted his blessing to them. Addressing the congregation, His Lordship said that everywhere he went in the diocese he felt com-pletely at home, but here in Dungarvan he felt specially at home. He was always glad to come to Dungar-van because there he could see that the people were very earnest about their faith. The welcome he had received that day was a very warm one and it was a great joy to him to see the loyalty and sincerity of the people of Dungarvan to the Catholic Church. He had got an excellent re-port from the Canon of the condition of religion in the parish, among the children and the people. It was most important that they should be sincere and deep in their religion.

Sufficiently forwards on his own. Mount Sion could have done without him, considering the result, and his services to Stradbally might sincere and deep in their religion. Nowadays they were inclined to take everything for granted about their great Catholic faith, but more than hat was wanted. These were difficult times they were passing through and it was necessary that they should have a firm conviction in their minds of the truths God had taught them. They should love God at all times. Did the Parliament or the councils or any of the public bodies tell you to love God? No, they would not

He commented on the nice and neat manner in which the children hand the one and only Cheasty is were attired and praised the parents for it. He expressed his thanks to the band and the Boy Scouts for the the band and the Boy Scouts for the fine way in which they had honoured him, and he also praised the choir for their singing. he would apply for a bench warrant for his arrest after the court.

The defence int's father said that his wife was in a mental home for the past 11 years. His son (defendant) was 19 years and had no sense. He had never been before that court before. Witness took him to a doctor, who told witness that he was absent minded and was not fit for the local hospital but should be sent to a mental hospital.

The Justice said it was obvious that the defendant was not normal and applied the P.O.A.
