WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

without Oil—And you'll jump out of bed in the morning full of vim and vigor

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sore, tired and the world looks dull.

Laxatives help a little, but a more bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmonious, gentle, yet causing no making bile flow freely. 4/6 for anything else. 1/6 and 1/-

REPAIRS TO HOUSE

The Acting Borough writing regarding delay in carrying out repairs to the stone wall, the delay was due to factors over which we had no control. For a fortnight in 1938 about 100 tons of stone were interfered with by the shortage of some materials.

At the moment, the repair work was proceeding as fast as possible.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. T. McCarthy, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council on last Friday.

LOUGHMORE TENANTS' APPLICATION FOR GATE

Arising from the Manager's order relative to the application by T. Lee, Loughmore, for permission to erect a gate, in which it was stated that permission was given to erect it but that the Council would accept no responsibility for it, the Chairman said he could not understand why this man should bear the expense. The railings had been put up by the Council and taken down by someone else. He (Chairman) could not see why Mr. Lee should be at the expense of what, in the Chairman's opinion, was not done by him.

Mr. Veale—I understand the railings were taken down by the Council. Chairman—He is one of the first tenants, and if the railings were taken down by the Council, it is not fair to charge him to put up this gate. I think the Council should bear the expense.

Mr. Kelly—He keeps his house and garden excellently and he should be encouraged.

Mr. Kelly also agreed that it was unfair to Mr. Lee that he should put up the gate at his own expense.

The Chairman said that this man was not asking for anything new; he was only asking for something that had been knocked down by the Council. This man had a very good garden and he should be encouraged. He believed that when the members made recommendation that permission be given to erect the gate they meant that the Council erect it at their own expense.

The Clerk was asked to convey the views of the members on the matter to the Manager.

MEAT INSPECTION

A letter from the County M.O.H. was read, referring the attention of the members to the Veterinary Inspector Order, 1929. The letter stated that this gave complete information as to the procedure to be adopted in the event of destruction of dead carcasses, or part of carcasses. The letter added: "The Veterinary Inspector informs me that he invariably enforces this order."

Mr. Kelly said that reading from the press at the time—he was not a member then—nothing relating to meat inspection had been drafted, passed and submitted to the Department. He knew that they had been set up in type.

The Chairman said that his recollection was that they were adopted.

The Clerk here read the minute of the meeting in question which stated that on a proposition of Mr. M. Clancy, seconded by the late Mr. M. Morrissey, bye-laws in respect of slaughter houses and the descent and conveyance of meat through the town be adopted and that all previous bye-laws be rescinded. The Clerk added that the same had been confirmed by the Minister.

Mr. Kelly said that apparently the bye-laws in respect of slaughter houses had been adopted because he knew that some people had been forced to comply with them.

Replying to Mr. Kelly, the Clerk said that the inspection of meat was carried out under the Veterinary Inspector Order, 1929, in the absence of bye-laws. The Clerk then went on to quote the Order.

Mr. Kelly asked if there were any model bye-laws relating to meat inspection that could be used as a standard.

The Clerk stated that he had got bye-laws from the Ennis U.D.C., which he read.

Following further discussion it was decided to put the matter on the agenda for the next meeting.

LOAN TO CLEAN WATER MAIN

The meeting agreed to make application to the Local Loans Fund for a loan of £1,000 for the purpose of cleaning the water main from Deelish to the Town.

HOUSING SITE BOUGHT

A resolution approving of, and authorising the Manager to purchase a field of 4.5 acres at Gallows Hill from Messrs. Deo Brothers for a building site was passed. The price is £790.

The Manager said that Mr. Deo wanted £850 at the beginning, but then came down to £800 and finally agreed on £790, which was about £170 an acre.

Mr. Kelly thought it very satisfactory that the land was got by agreement with the other way, but he thought that the Council did the same to other ways—grabbing is what I call it.

REMOVAL OF STONE

In reply to the query raised at a previous meeting regarding the delay in replacing stone in Abbeyside sea wall, the Acting Borough Surveyor stated in a letter that the work was carried out when tides, weather conditions and cement supplies, permitted.

Mr. Kelly—I do not know that the tides go out twice a day even if the Urban Council likes it or not. I still think there was considerable delay in replacing the stone.

REPAIRS TO HOUSES

The Acting Borough Surveyor writing regarding complaints of delay in carrying out housing repairs, stated that the delays incurred were due to factors over which they had no control. For a considerable time the abnormal weather conditions interfered with the work and shortage of some material, particularly cement contributed further to the delay.

At the moment, the letter added, repair work was proceeding with all possible despatch.

ABBESIDE HOUSING SCHEME

Mr. Kelly asked if there was any hope that the Abbeyside housing scheme could be got under way this year.

The Manager said that if everything went alright the scheme could go on this year.

To a further question by Mr. Kelly regarding the appointment of a Bill of Quantities Surveyor, the Manager said that Mr. O'Rourke was to take out the Bill of Quantities, but the Local Loans Fund wanted a qualified quantities surveyor. These men had their own organisation.

HOUSING COMPLAINTS

Mr. Veale referred to the complaint regarding four houses in South Terrace and asked if anything had been done about it. The houses were in a terrible condition due to the alleged negligence of the landlords. The rain poured down through the roofs. There were other houses in the town in a similar condition.

The Chairman said that the same complaint was made against the Council as regards the condition of some of their houses. There was a complaint made to him by a tenant of the roof of whose house was leaking. This week he (Chairman) did not know if the complaint had been brought before the Council.

Mr. Kelly said that the tenant in question had asked him to bring it up but he was not sure if he had brought it up or not.

Chairman—The roof of this house is leaking and the paper on the walls is damp and he has to shift the bed in the bedroom from time to time. I think something should be done. We should do something to make other landlords do repairs to their houses while we, ourselves, are not doing them to ours. The Manager pointed out that his provision for repair work is limited this year.

Chairman—It is hard to ask these people to pay rent. Clerk—The difficulty is, I think, the getting of cement. Chairman—I agree with Mr. Veale that these houses want repairs for a number of years but nothing has been done. I think the landlords should do something about them. Mr. Kelly said he would look into the matter.

CONCRETE BOUNDARY WALL WOULD HAVE BEEN CHEAPER IN THE LONG RUN.

Mr. Kelly said his information was that a relief scheme grant to be spent on the sea-wall at Abbeyside had been turned down. If that was going to happen then the whole road there would be endangered and the Council would have to do something to protect the road. It would cost much less to do something about the wall now.

The Clerk said that repairs to the wall were included in the proposals. Manager—There will be work done on it this year.

Arising from the above, the Chairman said that these grants should not be given in the winter. Last winter, the men had to work in the cold and frost. He held that the men could do more work and give better results, if the work were done in the summer.

Mr. Veale agreed and said it struck him that the grants were given in the winter so that the men could earn less. If the work were done in the summer, the Council would get better value and the work would be done sooner.

CARTERS' WAGES

Among the orders made by the Manager since the last meeting was one by which wages of carters employed by the Council are to be increased from £3 15/- to the Co. Council rate of £4 7/-, subject to sanction.

WAGES OF CASUAL WORKERS

The Clerk informed Mr. Kelly that no reply had been received from the Department regarding the Manager's Order increasing the wages of the gundam and the higher paid officials of the Council.

To a further question by Mr. Kelly the Clerk stated that a casual worker got £3 a week.

Chairman—The casual should get more than the permanent man. I always paid them in Dungarvan. Mr. Kelly said that he meant temporary men. He added that his information might be a misunderstanding on his part.

ABBESIDE AWARD FOR

Mr. T. C. Williams, Solicitor to the Council, writing in reference to a letter from Mrs. Nugent, Abbeyside, which stated that she was not satisfied with the award made by the arbitrator in 1946. He stated that in his opinion the arbitrator's award was final and that if a further allowance was made by the Council it might lead to a surcharge.

TURF SAVING CAMPAIGN

Mr. Kelly referred to the stress that had been laid on the importance of getting in the harvest last year and said that this year was another harvest of equal importance. It was the saving of the turf for the coming winter.

In Dungarvan, which was a non-turf area, if conditions continued there would be no hope of getting a ration of turf for the winter. Mr. Kelly then went on to say that in a private conversation with Mr. Kelliher (Fuel Inspector) he suggested that the Urban Council call a meeting at which an organisation could be formed of private individuals to cut turf in the area and to make arrangements to provide turf for next winter. Mr. Kelliher also stated (Mr. Kelly continued) that he would do his best to help him as regards permits and that he would actually go with any people to Comeragh to select suitable places. He (Mr. Kelly) was sure that if this meeting were called in the immediate future to get an organisation going to cut turf to cut turf that the fuel merchants too, would help in every way. The more turf that was produced, the less drain would be put in hands. Regarding the recommendation that a warning signal be erected in Mary Street, he stated the regulations demanded that the signal should have been erected 150 yards from the danger point indicated and that would be too near the top of the street, which, in his opinion, would be waste of money.

Mr. Kelly—He has no suggestion to make, only to turn down ours.

Mr. Veale was of the opinion that white lines to keep traffic on its own side, would be better.

The Chairman agreed with Mr. Veale's suggestion.

Manager—The Co. Surveyor was going to put them on the roads last year but owing to the bad weather he could not do it. I will speak to him about it.

TRESSASS COMPLAINT

Miss B. Christopher, "Stella Maria," Trough Road, wrote complaining that the boundary fence between the Council's property at Loughmore and her land had been broken down, resulting in trespass by tenants of the Council's houses, and animals, causing damage to her crops. She offered to repair her side of the boundary fence if the Council did the same to their side.

Mr. Veale said it was disgraceful that food should be destroyed like this and it so scarce. He suggested that the Council should do something there. She had made a very fair offer.

Mr. Kelly said he had looked at the fence and saw the damage that had been done. This lady had done her best to grow wheat and other crops and some protection should be given to her.

Chairman—I don't like statements to be made if there is no proof for them. Did she say anyone did it?

Chairman—I agree about damaging crops, but I told they could catch these people if they wanted. These complaints have been made from time to time, but we don't know who is doing it. I think that they do know but are not saying so. I do agree that we should carry out our part of the work. It's too bad to have her crops damaged like that. I suggest that we carry out our part of the work.

Manager—I will get an estimate for it, but I suppose it will be turned down again.

Mr. Kelly said that was what would happen. It happened before. A

KILMACKTHOMAS NOTES

Hymenaeal Chimes.—The wedding took place on a recent date at University Church, Dublin, of Mr. Jack O'Donoghue, son of Mr. W. J. O'Donoghue, C.C.V.S., and Miss Margaret Lamb, daughter of Mr. J. G. Lamb, of B.S. Subsequent to Mr. Lamb's Cupar, Fife, Scotland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John O'Donoghue, C.C., Dundrum. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss Mary Lillian O'Donoghue, as bridesmaid. Dr. Robert F. O'Connell was best man.

Happy Event.—Congratulations are cordially extended to deservingly popular Comdt. W. J. and Mrs. B. C. Dundrum. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss Mary Lillian O'Donoghue, as bridesmaid. Dr. Robert F. O'Connell was best man.

longings and beat a hasty retreat, many of them being severely stung as they ran. The wags then transferred their attentions to a number of the tinkers' donkeys. They swarmed upon them and inflicted such severe stings that the irritated animals stampeded. They upset the tent, knocked over drays, and plunged the whole camp into chaos. It was over an hour before the wags withdrew from the scene and returned to their nesting place. The tinkers then returned to their camp and proceeded to re-arrange their camp before they could.

Entertainment.—On the nights of Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday last, Mrs. Ann Dwyer's Productions presented the Metropolitan Players in a repertoire of Irish and English dramas and comedies to large and appreciative audiences at the Rainbow Hall, Kilmackthomas. From the Mahon-veined play the talented troupe of performers were on Wednesday to Stradally, where they are also attracting bumper houses nightly.

Gaelic Games.—Most wireless receiving sets in use in these parts were turned on to the running commentary on the Lincaster Senior hurling Championship on Sunday last. On the same day, two friendly challenges fixed for Newtown did not materialise, as Fenor failed to fulfil their football engagement with Newry, and Portlaw failed to show up against St. Anne's (Kilmac) in hurling. However, a camera clash between young Gael in Jimmie Duggan (of Whitecourt, Kilmac), and his legion of friends and well-wishers will be pleased to know that the loss of the match was completely recovered from the effect of the injury he recently met with in the course of his work at Portlaw. On the next day, the young Gael in Jimmie Duggan (of Whitecourt, Kilmac), and his legion of friends and well-wishers will be pleased to know that the loss of the match was completely recovered from the effect of the injury he recently met with in the course of his work at Portlaw. Deaths.—Miss Mary Tobin, Kill, and Mrs. Margaret Power, Ballinlough, died on Wednesday last. Mrs. Tobin was a most respected resident of Kill village, and passed away to her eternal reward on Wednesday week (8th inst.). He was Mr. Patrick Tobin, a man of many charming traits, early character, who had gained the allotted span, and was beloved of all who knew him. He was a close friend of the late Mr. Power, C.C., who also said the prayers for the soul of the deceased. The funeral took place in the adjoining cemetery amid every manifestation of profound sorrow. Father Power again officiated at the graveside.—Peace to the gentle soul departed.

Sympathy.—Widespread sympathy is extended to estimable Mrs. N. McGrath, widow (Armer), Ballyvaden Cross, Kill, in her bereavement occasioned by the death of her brother, Mr. Patrick Meene, which sad event occurred at his residence, Sunnyside, Newport, Co. Mayo, on Monday last, after a comparatively short illness and in the fullness of his years. The deceased was an ex-Sergeant of the R.I.C., and his circle of friends was exceedingly extensive.—R.I.P.

Engagement.—The marriage has been arranged and will take place on the 28th July, between David, eldest son of Patrick and Mrs. Kieran, Kilmackthomas, Co. Waterford, and Maureen, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Foley, Barn Quay, and the late John Foley.

Wages.—A large band of tinkers encamped in a narrow lane in the vicinity of Ballyvaden Cross, Kill, on Wednesday last, and attacked the carriage of the younger children was dispatched to gather wood to make a fire. While thus occupied, the child disturbed a nest of wasps.

Opportunities in Vocational Education

The present system of Vocational Education present many valuable opportunities to boys and girls over fourteen years of age who wish to secure their future means of livelihood. An ever-increasing interest in education by industrial bodies and employers, for the recruitment of their future technicians and skilled workers. Many important industrial organisations, such as the Society of Irish Motor Traders, Ltd., the E.S.B., the C.I.E., and Irish Shipping Ltd., recruit their entire technical staffs from the ranks of Vocational School students in this country, and a number of valuable scholarships and other opportunities are open to boys who have the ambition to succeed in life, such as— Society of Irish Motor Traders, Ltd.—Apprentice Motor Mechanics; This Society's scheme for the training of boys who intend to seek employment as garage mechanics, prescribes that such boys must be vocational school students who have attended regularly at a Day Technical Course and who have passed a qualifying examination. Boys who are successful in this examination are entitled to have their names entered on the Society's register of candidates for positions as apprentice mechanics in garages, and only such boys may be employed in that capacity. Boys so qualified must take up positions before they reach the age of eighteen years. Following attendance at a vocational school boys must pass in the following subjects of the manual training group of the Department of Education's annual certificate examination, (a), mechanical drawing, (b), woodwork and metalwork, (c), Irish and English, (d), mathematics or mechanics and heat, or magnetism and electricity. Irish Shipping Ltd.—Deck or Navigational Officers, Engineer Officers: Boys are selected as a result of the Department of Education's examination mentioned above. E.S.B. Apprentice Electricians: As a result of competitive examination those boys must have attended a vocational school for at least two years. Corpus Iompair Eiríam: Mechanics and fitters, etc. Irish Air Force: Various engineering and aero-traffic apprentices. Building Trades: From time to time boys who have attended vocational schools are placed in positions in various branches of the building trades as apprentices.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GIRLS

Many opportunities are also offered to girls who have attended vocational schools, such as— Domestic Economy Scholarships: Through which girls are given on-the-job training in an approved school of Domestic Economy. This training may lead to many excellent positions. Irish Tourist Board: Girls are selected from the ranks of vocational students for training as hotel personnel, etc. It is now generally recognised that it is girls who have a sound vocational training are more in demand for various positions than those who have not had the advantage of this kind of training. Parents who are interested in the welfare of their children would do well to consider the F.P.O. of their local vocational school if they require any further information regarding the above scholarships or about the general facilities provided in the schools. It should be mentioned that the scholarships mentioned are only obtainable through the Day Vocational School.

Concert at Youghal

The Strand Palace was filled again on Monday night when Jack Brookes Chairman of the Industrial and Development Association personally presented a first-class concert. This consisted of an all-artist programme, the majority of the artists coming from Cork and Waterford. Mr. Brookes, who compered the entertainment opened the programme with a lively selection of popular melodies on his piano accordion which quickly put the audience in good humour. Alwyn Harris (Waterford) opened the vocal items with a delightful rendering of "She is Far from the Land," accompanied by his brother, William. His nicely modulated light baritone voice being more than capable of dealing with the number. He was followed by Molly Mulcahy and the People Will Say "We're in Love" and by request, for encore, "My Heart Tells Me." Crooning both numbers, accompanied by her sister Dulcie on the piano, she repeated her previous success. Ellen Parfry (Cork) then gave a delightful interpretation of Brahms' Hungarian Rhapsody No. 5 on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Charles Herbert (Cork). Her playing and fingering were a delight and she treated the work with intelligent sympathy. For encore she gave an appealing interpretation of the intermezzo from "Cavaleria Rusticana" for which she received an ovation. Ivor Jermyn (Cork) captivated the audience with his rendering of "The Gay Highway" and for the inevitable encore "The Pride of Petravore." Possessing a rich baritone voice he invested each number with sympathetic feeling. Barry O'Neill, of Waterford accompanied on the piano by Wm. Harris, kept the audience entertained with a number of amusing stories ending with very good monologues. "The Roads Around Rathbe" in which he displayed considerable histrionic talent. For encore he delivered the monologue "Christmas Night of Snow" with equally good effect. Marie McLoughlin (Cork) followed with a "Brahm's Lullaby" accompanied by C. Herbert. For encore she sang Mozart's "Lullaby." Possessing a sweet soprano voice which earned her a silver medal at the recent Fr. Matthew Feis, this youngster should be a feature on the concert platform.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

O'CONNELL (Clashmore).—Thomas O'Connell was newly, Clashmore, desire to express their most sincere gratitude to all who sympathised with them in their bereavement; also those who attended the funeral and interment and trust this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

IN MEMORIAM

HANRAHAN.—First Anniversary.—In loving memory of our dear father, Michael Hanrahan, Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, who died on July 19th, 1946. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul.—Masses offered.—R.I.P.

EXHIBITION OF WORK BY BLIND AT DUNGARVAN SHOW

Among the many interesting exhibits at the Dungarvan Show held on July 3rd, was a small exhibit of work done by the blind, shown by Waterford Branch of the Council for the Blind. The exhibit consisted of work included beautifully made baskets, and woollen knitted garments. On show, also, was a specimen of the splendid workmanship and skill with which the various articles were made.

NOTICE TO SHOW PRIZE-WINNERS

Prize-winners at the recent Show are requested to call at the Show Offices for their prize money. We are asked to state that the Dunngarvan Ring for a number of years and who recently was notified of his transfer to Waterford City, left on last Friday for his new sphere of activity, which is his office in the Waterford Gaeltacht, he proved a popular, capable and highly-esteemed member of the Garda Force, and his knowledge of the Mother Tongue—he is a native speaker, hailing from Glensarriff—was an invaluable asset to the Garda Station in Ring. He was married some weeks ago to the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Healy, R.P., of Ring, and both he and his wife carry with them "all the best" from their many friends.

LOCAL OFFICIALS' BEREAVE-

We join with their numerous friends throughout the County in tendering our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Harris, Kintraheen, Feis on Sunday 13th inst. Teresa Roche and Margaret Corbett, Stradally were awarded silver medals and certificates and were highly commended by the judges. Certificates were also awarded to Joseph Nannon and Dorcas Broderick (Dungarvan). All pupils were tutored in the past twelve months and the results were of great credit.

OUR MINOR HURLERS

The thousands of admirers of our 15 youthful caman wielders will wish them all the best in their effort to capture the Munster Hurling crown at Thurles on Sunday next. EXHIBITION OF WORK BY BLIND AT DUNGARVAN SHOW

Among the many interesting exhibits at the Dungarvan Show held on July 3rd, was a small exhibit of work done by the blind, shown by Waterford Branch of the Council for the Blind. The exhibit consisted of work included beautifully made baskets, and woollen knitted garments. On show, also, was a specimen of the splendid workmanship and skill with which the various articles were made.

NOTICE TO SHOW PRIZE-WINNERS

Prize-winners at the recent Show are requested to call at the Show Offices for their prize money. We are asked to state that the Dunngarvan Ring for a number of years and who recently was notified of his transfer to Waterford City, left on last Friday for his new sphere of activity, which is his office in the Waterford Gaeltacht, he proved a popular, capable and highly-esteemed member of the Garda Force, and his knowledge of the Mother Tongue—he is a native speaker, hailing from Glensarriff—was an invaluable asset to the Garda Station in Ring. He was married some weeks ago to the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Healy, R.P., of Ring, and both he and his wife carry with them "all the best" from their many friends.

LOCAL OFFICIALS' BEREAVE-

We join with their numerous friends throughout the County in tendering our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Harris, Kintraheen, Feis on Sunday 13th inst. Teresa Roche and Margaret Corbett, Stradally were awarded silver medals and certificates and were highly commended by the judges. Certificates were also awarded to Joseph Nannon and Dorcas Broderick (Dungarvan). All pupils were tutored in the past twelve months and the results were of great credit.

Brickies Win J.F. Replay.

In the replay of the Junior football championship which was played between the Brickies Rangers and Ballycove, at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening, the former emerged victorious. The final result does not give a true indication of what the game was like. In the first half there was little between the sides and were it not for two much-dilly-dallying by the ball by some of the Ballycove players, the result would be on level terms. At least with the Brickies instead of being led by three points to one. The Brickies towards the end of the second half, from which they were never recovered. No doubt a number of the Ballycove players who played in Sunday evening's game will be given places on the side's senior strings when it takes the field against Newtown in the senior football semi-final. Most noticeable on the side on Sunday were: D. Whelan, T. Foley, M. Joyce, P. P. Foley, Patsy Donnelly, Paddy McGearty, Cunningham, T. Broderick, the Barry brothers and M. Power. Two promising young players of tender years, who were on the Brickie side were T. Spratt and T. Foley, sons of two former well-known Brickie players in the persons of Paddy Spratt, of Coolcormack and Jimmy Foley, of Ballygurry. Rest for Ballycove were: St. Michael's, L. Healy, S. Moylan, T. Coughlan, T. Dee and the Navin brothers.

HOW THE SCORES CAME

Ballycove attacked from the start. From a well placed free by M. Veale, K. Barry made a great clearance. Following some midfield exchanges the Brickies got a free which Donnelly sent to Broderick to open the scoring. Broderick's goal had a point. Keeping the score level, the Brickies were not to be out of the contest. From the kick-off, the game was a close-run affair. The Brickies returned to the field when Paddy Power put the side ahead when he pointed from a close-in free. Whelan and Foley shared well from a Ballycove attack. Cunningham was prominent in the defence and before Donnelly sent to Cunningham who transferred to Broderick to add a third point, leaving the interval score: Brickies, 1-1; Ballycove, 1-1.

CLASHMORE SPORTS

A meeting of Clashmore Sports Committee will be held on Monday night next. All members are earnestly requested to attend. On Tuesday evening next at Clashmore, Glen Rovers will play the local team in a practice match. A great game is expected.

Feis Eochaille Scholarship Winner.

The results of the Wexford Competition (held in connection with Feis Eochaille) for a scholarship tenable in a Gaelic school (or a sum of money) having come to hand we are pleased to learn that the successful competitor is Miss Mary Power of the Presentation Convent School, Clonahill, who intends to take full advantage of her opportunity to better her knowledge of the Irish language by accepting the scholarship which is tenable at King College, Co. Waterford. Miss Power, who is only 15 years of age, is to be highly congratulated on her success in winning to herself such a valuable prize. Her success also reflects credit on the high standards of the teaching of the Irish language in the Presentation Convent School and the Rev. Mother and Community are to be highly complimented on the outstanding success achieved by her.

MUNSTER HURLING FINAL

Parking of motor cars will not be allowed in the streets of Thurles next Sunday. The Garda authorities have drawn-up plans providing for official car parks on all roads leading into the town at convenient intervals from the sportsfield. Guards will be on duty at all banks.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Mr. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman, Misses M. Daly, Sean P. Daly, B.E., and E. P. Lynch, V.C. Mr. Daly, B.E.—I notice lately that quite a lot of children have a habit of playing on the quays and I think the Guards should keep a look out for them lest anything should happen and if anything did happen they would be held responsible.

Mr. L. Daly—Our responsibility is ended. Town Clerk—The lifebuoy and life line at the men's bathing place was stolen last night. Chairman—I would suggest we take adequate precautions to see that our quays are properly chained and if you do take these precautions, as you have been doing, well then is the way you can do it quite agree that the Guards should be asked to take a walk around there sometimes.

Mr. Lynch, V.C.—I think we should give this matter—the stealing of the lifebuoy plenty publicity. Chairman—This is a hardy annual, I often wonder how people do such dastardly acts; do they know that such an act may be the means of someone losing his life? I would gladly give £10 to find out who the guilty parties are. Some of our people are lacking very much in moral courage. We see damage being done all over the town. We recently saw where a lovely row of trees on the Upper Strand were deliberately broken.

Mr. Daly, B.E.—This sort of conduct has been going on for a considerable time. Mr. L. Daly—Would it be any use in order to encourage civic spirit, to put a side in the cinemas. Mr. Lynch—We know how valuable these lifebuoys are if they had not been there many lives would have been lost. Chairman—We have discussed this matter for a long time and I think if civic sense was made a school subject and a ten minutes lecture given every day it might have the desired effect. Across the water they take pleasure in keeping their cities and towns as they should be kept and I think it is in the educational system of the country we will find a remedy, and I think we should appeal to the people to take a pride in their town and refrain from doing these things. It was finally decided to refer the matters complained of to the Garda and also to communicate with the Department of Education and ask that lectures in civic spirit should be given regularly in the schools.

Town Clerk—The plans, etc. for the first of our new housing schemes are ready; also the quantities and it is for you to decide when you wish to take tenders in. The first scheme will be the Cork Hill one. The 2nd low street scheme must wait until the proposed drainage of this area will have been decided with. Mr. Daly—I think we should proceed at once with the Cork Hill scheme. Mr. Daly proposed and Mr. Lynch seconded that the Council proceed with the Cork Hill scheme and invite tenders for the 28th August. With regard to the drainage of Talow Street, on the suggestion of Mr. Daly, B.E., it was decided to ask the Department to include the cost of the drainage, i.e., £3,300 in the general cost of the scheme of houses for this area and then ask the Department for an appropriate grant; the drainage is for immediate housing and potential housing schemes. Chairman—I agree with Mr. Daly and I think the idea is a good one as if we can get a grant and I think we are entitled to it, it would be a great relief. Mr. Daly's suggestion was unanimously agreed to.

Arising out of the reading of a letter from Mr. Wm. Dwyer, Seafield Factory Ltd., complaining of the manner in which the road opposite the Factory has been left open, the footpath blocked with bar drums and the Seafield road partly blocked with clay from the road trenches, the Chairman asked who is responsible. Mr. L. Daly, B.E.—The contractors, they are proceeding too slowly with the work, although a Dublin firm quoted a lower price and now the Local Authority will be saddled with the extra cost of the increased wages. Mr. L. Daly—We should ask the contractors how long more do they intend to be at this work. Mr. Lynch—We should ask our engineers to give this information; but by the way what did engineers cost us for the past 12 months. Town Clerk—£282 6s. 11d. Mr. Lynch—It is up to us to see what is being done. Mr. L. Daly—When contracts first came up we thought it right to protect the interests of the ratepayers, and I think we should get an explanation for the delay from someone in. Mr. Lynch—Those responsible should be censured and cut down in their pay. Mr. Daly, B.E.—Why should the Council be held liable for the increase in wages when according to the Consulting Engineer the work is proceeding slowly. Mr. L. Daly—Shouldn't they refer this matter to the Minister in order to protect our interests and proposals. Mr. Daly, B.E. seconded and added that all trenches that are still opened should be covered immediately. Mr. Lynch proposed and Mr. L. Daly seconded that the Consulting Engineer should be requested to furnish his observations on the matter. With regard to houses for factory executives, referred to in Mr. Dwyer's letter, the Chairman remarked that the Council are not to blame as they referred the matter to the Department but there was nothing very final so far from the Department. After further discussion the Town Clerk was instructed to ask the Department if they (the Council) could erect houses for the Factory executives as, after all, Mr. Dwyer has done a great deal of good for Youghal. He has erected a magnificent factory which when completed will give considerable employment. The Chairman's suggestion was unanimously agreed to. Mr. Daly, B.E. with regard to houses for factory workers, this matter was discussed here before and we were told that they were supposed to be an amendment in the proposed new Housing Act. Mr. L. Daly—I would suggest that we try and erect say six houses of U.I.C.A. Feis Fordham University.

The 15th annual Feis, under the chairmanship of Counsellor Paul O'Dwyer and sponsored by the United Irish Counties' Association at Fordham University on Sunday, June 15th, 1947, proved the best planned, the most pleasingly varied, the best attended and generally most successful Feis ever conducted in America. Over 28,000 persons saw almost 2,000 entrants compete in 97 contests. In every phase of the Feis there was an improvement over the best efforts of previous years. The singing, dancing and band competitions were of high standard. The very Rev. Robert J. Gannon, S.J., President of Fordham University; General William O'Dwyer, Mayor of the City of New York; Hon. Gen. Heston, Irish Consul-General at New York; Chief of Clan na nGael, Scotland; Dr. Cyril Jenkins, Welsh-born Australian composer, and President James Comerford of the U.I.C.A. were seated on the dais. Counsellor Paul O'Dwyer invited the Cymric, Breton and Gaelic Choirs to sing for the first time this year. Through his co-chairman, Prof. Collins Healy of Fordham Irish department, the Dublin poet, John B. Byrne, Mr. O'Dwyer presented in costume recitals of Welsh, Breton and Anglo-Scottish songs by the Cymric Chorus of N.Y. (25 voices) and the St. Margaret of Scotland Guild (46 voices). Their artists evoked very favourable reactions. The Irish cultural peak of the Feis was an exhibit of paintings by Irish-born artists. The art exhibit chairman, Sean MacCarthy of Dungarvan, Co. Waterford, disuser of the Irish Cultural Forum of America and well-known at the prominent galleries of New York, secured their co-operation and hung an exhibit of the most worthy of available paintings by Irish-born artists. He was assisted by Mae Sweeney, Bernard L. Dalton, Seamus MacDermott, editor of the Gaelic American and the following members of the Irish Cultural Forum: Mrs. George B. Miles, Rosemary Miles, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. John B. Byrne, Mrs. Mary O'Connor, Mrs. Martin MacNamara, Martin O'Carroll, Anna Russell, Elizabeth Russell, Dorothy Shea, Nora Glynn, and Regina Foy Delan.

Through the courtesy of the following galleries the succeeding paintings were exhibited: Through the Fenagh Galleries, 63 East 57 St., N.Y.C., the work of the Ulster artist R. Taylor Carson; The Harpist, Road to Carrigart, by Michael, Mount from Murder Hole, Achill, and Coolrahey; through the Associated American Artists Gallery, 711—5th Avenue, N.Y.C., the work of Jack B. Yeats—A Jar of Scent, Men of Snow, A Place of Island, Rolling to Sea, and Transport; and the work of Daniel O'Neill, Redflowers in the Morning and Suite of Gaston Debureau, and City Tennis Court by Thurlow Connolly, and Devellits by George Campbell, Landscape by Nora McGuinness, Clogher and Mountain Lake by Pat Reid, and Thinkers in a Wood and Thinkers at Sunset by Louis LeBrocq; through the James St. Laurence O'Toole Galleries, 24 East 64 St., N.Y.C., the Beach at Bray by "A.P." George William Russell; and Returning from Market (1887) by S. Black; through the O'Connor Studios, 180 Bleecker St., N.Y.C., Adam and Eve and The Portrait of Sportro by Patric O'Connor; and through the McLoughlin Studios, 148 West 18 St., N.Y.C., Old Church at Belleville, Belleville, N.J. (unfinished) and St. Elizabeth (stained glass panel) by Michael McLoughlin and Joseph McLoughlin.

Edifying Scenes on Pattern Day at Mothel

At this year's celebration of the Patron Saint of Rathormack and Mothel, there were inspiring and edifying scenes at Mothel on Sunday, O.P. Carrickbeg Friary (who was introduced to the very large audience participating) preached an eloquent and touching sermon on the life of the patron saint and his association with the parish of Rathormack and Mothel. Following the sermon, the Rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Virgin were recited in Irish by Rev. Fr. Dominic assisted by Very Rev. D. Power, Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Denis Power, C.C., nephew of the P.P., who was ordained at Maynooth a few weeks ago.

DUNGARVAN SHOW.

In reporting the prize-winners in the Industrial Section of the above Show in our previous issue, we omitted the name of Miss Marion Moloney, Duckspool, who secured second prize in the class for Lady's Handmade Underwear. The prize of £1 (presented by Miss Nugent) for the best knitted article in the Show was won by Mrs. K. Tobin, Shanahilly, Kilsenny, and the special prize of 4/- (presented by Mrs. Dennis) for the best second sock was won by Miss Kitty Power, Coolnaman.

BALLYNOE NOTES

Camogie.—On Wednesday evening of last week St. Catherine's Club were at home to Youghal in their first round of the East Cork League and quite a large crowd witnessed a hard fought and at times a most exciting game. Youghal winning the toss played with a slight breeze in their favour and from the first ten minutes. During this period Youghal the visitors took the initiative and time and again stormed the St. Catherine's citadel but failed each time to register for the first ten minutes. Youghal were awarded a free which was nullified by St. Catherine's backs. From the puck-out St. Catherine's forced the pace and kept the ball all the way by goal per Mary Higgins. From the puck-out Youghal took the play to the other end where St. Catherine's scored. Youghal on to score another goal. St. Catherine's attacked and Nell O'Shea had a fine goal. For the remainder of this moiety play was a give and take affair and at half-time the score was—St. Catherine's, 2-0; Youghal, 1-0. A few minutes from the restart Youghal had a point from a free, and after another bout of attacking had a goal. For the remainder of the second half St. Catherine's had the better of the exchanges and a final effort by the same side resulted in a goal by Mary Higgins. The final score was:—St. Catherine's, 3-0; Youghal, 2-1. Mr. Moss Sullivan was referee.

On Sunday last a huge crowd witnessed a very keen tussle when St. Catherine's and Youghal had their final clash for League honours. From the throw-in Youghal took possession and in the first ten minutes of play piled up two goals while St. Catherine's failed to score. In the next half Youghal had the better of matters except for a few drives by the homesters. In the second half St. Catherine's set their stride and in the last quarter were definitely on top, but lost some golden opportunities due to faulty forward work. The game was played in a good sporting spirit and Youghal fully deserved their win. It was hard luck for St. Catherine's, in having to line-out on the home pitch with a depleted team, the team having cried off at the last minute. The final score was—Youghal, 2-0; St. Catherine's, 1-1. The Sean Coyne, Youghal was the referee.

Obituary.—On Friday last the death took place, of Mrs. Margaret O'Sullivan, wife of Mr. John O'Sullivan, of the local Cemetery, Ballynoe. The deceased lady was in rather indifferent health for some time, nevertheless, her death came rather suddenly. The large concourse of people which followed the remains to St. Catherine's Church on Saturday evening and to the local Cemetery, Ballynoe, gave ample proof of the esteem in which the deceased and her family are held by all sections, not alone in the parish but in all the adjoining districts. The deceased was mother of Mr. Moss O'Sullivan, who is well known in G.A.A. and dramatic circles in the County of East and West Waterford. The chief mourners were: Mr. John O'Sullivan (husband); Miss Nellie O'Sullivan (daughter); Messrs. John, Patrick, Michael and Moss O'Sullivan (sons); Messrs. Michael, Thomas and Patrick Cotter, Ballycullane, and Michael Cotter, (brother); Mrs. M. Hennessy and Mrs. P. Flynn (nieces); Mr. E. O'Sullivan, Ballyvolane (brother-in-law); Mrs. J. Moloney (niece). Rev. J. O'Donnell, C.C., officiated.

Archdeacon Bessell—Professor M. J. O'Kelly, University College, Cork will start excavation work at Garraduff Fort on Thursday of this week with three men working under his direction. It is understood that large scale operations will be carried out on the site during the coming two months.

Condolence.—At a specially convened meeting of the Ballynoe Dramatic Society the following resolution was proposed by Sean Hennessy and seconded by J. J. Hogan and passed in silence—"That, we, the members, tender our most sincere sympathy to Mr. Moss O'Sullivan and family on the death of their mother."

Edward Tudor sold for £25,000. Mrs. R. N. MacDonald-Buchanan's five-year-old colt, Edward Tudor, by Hyperion out of Mary Tudor II, has been sold for over £25,000 for export to the Argentine as a stallion.
