WATCH AND WAIT FOR THE-JOHN DUFFY AND SONS' COAST TO COMERAGH CHIPS

Death of Mr. J. Brown.-Following a protracted illness and at an advanced age, Mr. John Brown, Stradbally, died last week-end at Infirmary Hospital, Waterford, and the sad event has occasioned the deepest regret in his native parish. His geniality, coupled with marked integrity in all his dealings with his fellow-men. raised him in the esteem and popularity of all sections of the community. Many expressions of sincere sympathy have been tendered to his amiable widow (nee Kiely) in her bereavement. There was a big concourse of neighbours at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Stradbally, and again at the burial which took place in the adjoining cemetery after the celebration of Requiem Mass for the happy repose of his soul on Monday. The respected local pastor, Very Rev. E. English, P.P., said the prayers at the graveside. R.I.P. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. Patrick O'Reilly, Undertaker.

Another Demise.—Mr. Patrick Quinlan, Rathgormack, who died (at a ripe old age) at St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford, on Monday, was a most respectable and respected member of the farming community. A man of dynamic energy and a fine mixer, his affable and kindly person will be missed in his natal Barony of Upper Third. With his nearest and earest sympathy is universal. Office and High Mass for his soul were celebrated on Wednesday morning in Rathgormack Church (where the remains had been overnight), and interment was made afterwards in the adjoining cemetery amid every mani- | festation of profound sorrow. May he rest in peace. The funeral arrangements were by Mr. Patrick O'Reilly, Undertaker, Kilmacthomas. Coastal Lifesaving Service.—No. 1 Man, Timothy O'Leary, and his colleagues of the Bonmahon Unit, Irish Coastal Lifesaving Service, were, on Wednesday last, inspected and put through their periodical drill by Capt. Hamilton, Divisional Superintendent, Cobh, Co. Cork, who was accompanied by one of the principal officers of the Marine Department. ### CUSTOMS "SWEEP" IN WATERFORD

RAID ON "GREAT WESTERN"

BUTTER, BACON, CIGARETTES AND CHOCOLATES, TOO.

Bacon, butter, cigarettes and chocolate are stated to have been amongst the commodities seized when customs officials at Waterford carried out what is described as "the biggest swoop for quite some time," prior to the departure of the s.s. "Great Western" from the Adelphi harf to Fishguard on Tuesday evening last. The passengers' luggage was minutely scrutinised and large quantities of butter, bacon, cigarettes and Official circles were not inclined to divulge any information about the nature and quantity of the goods

The seizure, which is stated to be part of a "tightening-up" of the re-gulations process, caused no little disappointment to the travellers who were obviously confused by the relaxation in certain customs regulations, recently announced.

GAELIC NOTES

(By "TAOBHLINE.") Our Junior hurlers went down the field on Sunday last, but I expected feat would be so humiliating and the least said about it the better. But I cannot refrain from stating the just now are in full swing. Football enthusiasts are eagerly looking forward to the Senior Football Semi-final replay between the Brickeys and final replay between the Brickeys and fin Newtown, which takes place at Dungarvan on Sunday next. The drawn game of last Sunday week is still fresh in my mind and both teams would want to improve on their initial showing if the spectators are to get value for their money. I was disappointed in the display shown by the Brickeys, and to win on Sunday

This week it gives me great pleasure to heartily congratulate Rev. Bro. Murray. Superior, C.B.S., Dungarvan, along with the teachers attached to the Schools on the out-

To the Editor "Dungarvan Observer."

Dear Sir—I have instructions from tages done by contract would be much the above Junior Hurling Club with a small selection to issue a challenge to the exact Waterford Junior Munster Hurling team that failed so badly against Cork at Lismore last Sunday. The object is to prove to the County Board and the Selection Committee a better pick could be tages done by contract would be much cheaper. It would be well for the Council to drop the idea of direct labour, as he thought it would not be possible to have them done by that method.

Mr. Meade referred to the notices sent by a rate collector demanding payment in advance otherwise pro-Committee a better pick could be found even in mid-Waterford. If challenge is accepted St. Anne's are by a rate confector demanding payment in advance, otherwise proceedings for vacant possession would be taken and said they were still from this date, the County Board to appoint referee and umpires and expenses to be deducted from gate proceeds covering both teams. Same day and venue perhaps Kilroossanty Senior footballers would oblige by playing the Brickey Rangers or Dungarvan in order to make a full programme, Mr. M. Fraher to get his usual fee for use of field. Failing good thing to have him here. this arrangement Waterford or Kilmacthomas to be considered as suitable venue. Awaiting reply and thanking you for space. Faithfully
