Charges Against Dungarvan Farmer.

ONE MONTH'S IMPRISONMENT IMPOSED.

" MENACE TO THE PUBLIC." Nicholas Beresford, farmer, Glen-dine, Dungarvan, was at Dungarvan Court on last Tuesday convicted of being drunk and disorderly and of damaging the window of a cell in the local Garda Station to the value of

He was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, the sentence to operate as from November 1st. Mr. J. F. Kenny (E. A. Ryan & Co.) pleaded guilty on behalf of the de-

Outlining the fact: of the case, Supt. O'Mahony said that the defend-ant and his two brothers had been in Court in connection with certain charges against them, which had to be dismissed owing to the absence of a witness for the State. Like all Beresford victories, they had to have a celebration. In the evening the dedismissed owing to the absence of a witness for the State. Like all Beresford victories, they had to have a celebration. In the evening the defendant's wife coaxed him away from his two brothers and got him into his car, but he only got as far as Abbeyside when he got out of the car and had a drink there, and then drove back to Dungarvan. He had just crossed the bridge when he met his two brothers, and they started fighting between themselves. He then the property of the committee who met him were afraid of being dragged into a brawl. Nobody the car and they started fighting between themselves. He then the control of the car and the peace for assaulting a Guard, and Mr. Troy would have sent him to jail then only for my appeal. Last year. At the usual meeting of the above Club held at the Town Hall on Tuesday last Mr. T. Tobin, chairman, presided. Also present were all members of the committee. Mr. T. McCarthy, Chairman U.D.C., also attended.

A rather large agenda of general club business was quickly dealt with and was followed by making arrange. The Guards then cameon the scene.

At this stage Mr. Kenny said that his client had to go to Limerick on chase of a lorry, but he had not turned up. He asked for a short admake the Court, and asking him (Mr. assuming that the Justice did convict, Kenny) to carry on. Continuing, Mr. would it meet the Supt. if a suspen-Kenny said that the defendant was a sory sentence of, say, six months was farmer with a wife and children. He thought the State would agree with was certainly one of the hardestately from time to time he took a few drinks; his drinking was a complex. and when he gave way to this com-plex it led him into trouble on more han one occasion. He (Mr. Kenny) pointed out that he was bound to the peace last year as a result of an incident which occurred at Clonea and he was sentenced to six months, which was not to be enforced if he entered Justice-It is the other way round; if he did not enter into recognisance he would get six months; and he did. Continuing, Mr. Kenny said that the defendant had from July last year kept away from drink. Unfortundency came on him again. He and amount of his recognisances and the is brothers had a fair share of drink defendant's wife tried to get him home. One of the Garda Siochana realise his position, not only for his own but for his wife and family; that in the Devonshire Arms Hotel and the he would be more careful about drink in the future, because he (Justice) thought that the defendant realised that he was a danger to himself and to others when he had drink taken. He deliberately fixed defendant's also advised him to go home and he ook the advice and went away to go ome. Having crossed the Causeway he remembered his two brothers in fore that he would bring home in the car with him. He decided to wait for own recognisances at the unusually them at Crotty's Cross, and went into large sum of £200 and the two sure-ties at £100 each; and be (Justice) the public house there. There was no question about it but he was under also deliberately imposed a 6 months' sentence if the recognisances and the he influence of drink. The two sureties were not got. As Supt. O'Ma-hony had pointed out, the delendant others did not turn up and he dehe met them near the bridge. Earlier in the day, in the hotel, the two brothers and the defendant had an did not see fit to enter into the recognisances and spent a few days in prison. But he did then enter into hent and there had been a few between them. They were the impression that he had hopeful that by putting the amount of £200 of his (defendant's) own noney and the £100 each from two olted off. When he came back from their people who had been decent enough to act as sureties for him in the door of the car and asked them if jeopardy that it might make the de-fendant stop. Unfortunately it had they were coming home. There was an affray then and the Guards interot done so. After commenting on ered and did the only thing they he fact that the defendant was rather could, and that was to arrest him and take him along to the Barracks. He ortunate on this occasion that he was not on an additional charge of driving had taken a considerable amount of drink that day, and when he was a car while drunk, the Justice said: "If he had taken the advice of the taken to the Barracks he was put in a cell. While he was there he winted to go to the lavatory, which was a perfectly natural request to make. He kicked up a bit of a row and banged on the door. He could not expect to Replying to a question asked by Mr. J. Duggan, Dr. Casey outlined the Governing Committee's object in August, and at that time the purpose of same was clearly explained. How-The Justice said that the frequent appearance of the defendant in Court ever, he said he would now throw further light on it. "First of all," he said "the Governing Committee's must be extremely tragic to his wife and family. As the Supt. had pointed out, it was the intention of my predesole object is to help the Dungarvan cessor in 1943 to send him to prison when he was convicted of assaulting Handball Club succeed and fully realise all its ambitions." Continuing, he said they would not in a Guard when drunk. He (Justice) had to bind him to the peace arising tinuing, he said they would not in from incidents which occurred in a any way interfere with the Club's evidence he had heard relating to this the Club. They were out to help which it was stated that he had been build the proposed new alley, and then when their work was completed and to other incidents in the charge, he was convinced that the defendant was a most objectionable person when he had drink taken, and he seemed to go out of his way to cause annoyance and trouble to everybody on that occasion bound him to the neares and he deliberately fixed the the absence of a witness), this ten- peace, and he deliberately fixed the is our object in view." All Club Committee members amounts of his sureties at a high figure in the hope that this man would favoured this reply, which was foi-

lowed by a question on the method of raising funds to be used by the Governing Committee.

Dr. Casey again replied and pointed out that when the time was ripe a general collection would be held, and promised that subscriptions would be most pleasing. He also added that other methods would be used as the collection to the summons. Said that it was stated that the timber was the property of Messrs. John Hearne.

The Chairman said that he felt sure all would respond generously and promised his assistance in every way possible.

nemselves and promised every assistance in every way also. At this point it was decided to elect a Secretary of the Governing Committee and Dr. Casey proposed and Mr. Spratt seconded, that Mr. T. Tobin be elected.

Mr. Tobin accepted the position. Joint treasurers were also elected as follows:-Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C.. and J. J. Morrissey.

Mr. Tobin reported to the meeting | you would not be seen? his interview with the Acting Guard on this occasion and the advice of his wife, he would not be here to-day. District Justice Issues Final Warning.

Jail for Future Offenders.

"I have given warning after warning and it has now come to the stage when I am going to impose a sentence of imprisonment," stated District Justice O Riain at Dungarvan District Court, sentencing Patrick Street, Cathal Brugha Place, for the larceny of timber value £2 from Carriglea Convent grounds. Later, following a plea from Mr. P. J. Morrissey, soir. Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solr., appeared for these three defendants also. Outlining the facts of the cases.
Supt. O'Mahony said that defendants small hours of the morning. The people there were afraid of these people as they had to pass from Carriglea near where these people lived. The result was, said the Superintendent, that the nuns had to be up the morning early and to parade the woods and they saw these people there and informed the steward. Street had a spruce tree, which was at least 40ft. high and 3ff. in diameter, which, according to Messrs.

Hearne cost at least £3.

Mr. Morrissey said his clients admitted the offences. Lynch was only man, presided in the unavoidable absence of Very Rev. ST. ANNES DEFEAT

EIRE OG MADE BID FOR VICTORY

St. Annes, 5-6; Eire Og, 1-6; At the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening last, St. Annes (Kil-nacthomas) defeated Eire Og by 4 goals in a game in which anything but stylish hurling was seen. From beginning to end St. Annes was the superior team, and although the Eire superior team, and although the Eire Og players put up a good show, their defence lines could not stand up to the continuous pressure kept up by the opposing team. A number of scenes were witnessed during the game which resulted in two of the St. Annes players being ordered off the field. Although the scores differed greatly, the game was not so one-sided, as Eire Og made a desperate attempt to win, and although fighting a losing battle they continued to display a sporting spirit, and at the final whistle the scores stood as above.

Immediately after the throw-in St. Annes attacked and succeeded in breaking through the back line, but the ball went wide. However, shortly after the puck out the ball again reached he Eire Og goalmouth and this time went over the bar for St. to England. He (Mr. Morrissey) was fully aware that Street had made arrangements about a job there.

Supt. O'Mahony—The position in Carriglea is becoming intolerable.

Justice—The only way to stop it is, it seems a prison sentence,

Supt. O'Mahony—I regard him as the ring-leader. It may be his first time in court, but it certainly is not his first time being in Carriglea.

The Superintendent agreed with Mr. Morrissey that a man with a prison sentence would not get a visa.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT

Before Mr. D. P. Donovan, B.L., Guard O Reilly, Yougha, charged T. Kiely, Gortnadiha Upper, Dungarvan, and Patk. Nugent, Claddagh, Clashmore, that on the 18th August (Youghal fair day) defendants, being the owners or in charge of a number of sheep, did allow same to stand in a position on the footpath at North Main Street, Youghal, whereby the free passage of traffic through the said public place was obstructed. Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., ap-having been instructed by the Youghal U.D.C. The case was brought under Section 154 of the Road Traffic Act, 1933. Guard O'Reilly stated that on the 18th August (fair day) he found defendant in charge of 10 sheep at the junction of Tallow Street and North Main Street. They were on the foot-Mr. Macnamara (to D.J.)-We admit the facts. I have been instructed by the Youghal U.D.C. to appear on behalf of defendants. The sheep and lambs cannot be put into the Fair Field with cattle, and this has been going on from time immemorial. Fairs have been going down in Youghal, due to the condition of Youghal Bridge and the recent landslide and representations have been made by shopkeepers and traders that they have no objection to sheep being on the footpaths fronting their pre-

District Justice-Why do not the U.D.C. provide proper accommodation for sheep and lambs. Mr. Macnamara-Sheep and lambs do not cause obstruction and the public do not object.

District Justice—This is the first prosecution of this kind.

Mr. Macnamara-Yes, in fact the U.D.C. cou'd themselves prosecute but they refrained lest any action of theirs may injure the fairs. District Justice-Does not the buying of sheep on the streets cause a crowd to collect? Mr. Macnamara-Perhaps so, but as I have already said, we admit the Thomas Kiely was fined 8s. and the Secretary, Department of Indusquin Bacon Factory, that being the driver of a motor car, did allow same to remain stationery on the public street without taking reasonable precautions for preventing unauthorised driving by failing to lock the doors and remove the key from the vehicle Supt. Hughes charged Thomas O'Connell, Thomas Mangan and Mangan, all of Tallow Street, Youghal, that on the 24th and 31st July the defendant did cut and steal growing trees, the property of John O'Keeffe, Brooklodge, Youghal, Fined 5s. each and ordered to pay 7s. each compensation to J. O'Keeffe The Attorney-General charged The Automey-General charged Thos. O'Connell and Thos. Mangan, of Taliow Street, Youghal, that on the 8th August at Ballynatray the defendants did steal seven growing trees, the property of Capt. Rowland Holroyd Smyth, Ballynatray, Co. Waterford, and value for £1, contrary to Section 4 Summary Jurisdictrary to Section 4 Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1862. Both defendants were fined 5s. Captain Holroyd Smyth, addressing the District Justice, said he would like to pay a tribute to the Sergeant and Gardai at Killenagh Station They were most active at all times in the discharge of their many duties whether by day or night. Continuing, he said that his solicitor (Mr. T. K. Keane) fully endorsed these remarks. Inspector Counihan stated that he would have these complimentary remarks, which he appreciated, conveyed to the proper quarter.

Sergt. Lupton, Youghal, charged Bernard Roe, Assumption Road,
Cork, as follows—That being in control of a motor car he did allow it to stand in a position whereby the free passage of traffic through said public place was obstructed.

The District Justice applied the Guards Carroll and Fottrell, of Youghal, charged D. Kelleher, Main Street, Midleton, and W. Galvin, Ballymadog, Youghal, respective y similarly as above, and fines of 5s.

and 4s. were imposed. CORRESPONDENCE

To "Taobhline," Observer Office. Dungarvan.
A Chara,—After almost every match played in this county there seems to follow a series of objections. As a constant reader of your G.A.A. Notes I have been highly amused at some of the trivial points brought forward by beaten clubs. Objections only enkindle in teams a bad spirit of to develop into a free fight and consequently harms the Association. Comparing the number of objections in a county like Kenry with the number we have had already in this county we are inclined to see the reason why the Kingdom representatives so frequently take their place in Croke Park. For the sake of all that is Gaelic let us hear less of these objec-tions and then Gaelic games in this good old county will advance on the road of success.—Mise le meas, "CASSINO." Cappoquin, Co. Waterford. A SPRAY THAT DOGS AND KILMURRAY, DUNGARVAN.

It is with much regret we record the death of Mr. Willie Power, Kilmurray, which took place at his residence on Saturday last, September 5th. Possessed of a quiet and inoffensive disposition and ever hardworking and industrious, the deceased was held in very high esteem. Employed for a long number of years by the Shandon Dairy, Dungarvan, and by Messrs. A. Moloney and Sons, do., as a carter, he was known and respected throughout the county as we'l as by his employers. Of late years he was employed at Carriglea Convent, where he was equally well esteemed. To his bereaved widow, sons and daughters we join in tendering sincere sympathy.

For the Religious Life .- Miss Eileen Power (in religion Sr. M. Aquin) who made her final profession at the Presentation Convent, Clonmel, is daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Edmond Power (farmer), mack; sister of the Rev. D. Power, C.C., and niece of Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., Rathgormack; Very Rev. N. Power, P.P., Powerstown, and the Rev. D. Power, S.T.L., C.C., Dun-garvan. Highly talented and of a quiet and most unassuming disposi-tion, the newly-professed nun has won for herself the universal esteem of all who have the privilege of knowing her, and with all of whom we now respectfully join in un-feignedly wishing Sr. M. Aquin length of fruitful years in the service of God in the cloister.

For Whom the Call-Boy Will Call No more!-Death has just rung down the curtain on the career of an Irish actor of credit and renown in the person of Mr. Charles L. Keogh. A native of Dublin, he answered the Great Call in London, where he was fulfilling an engagement in "Pygma-lion," in which Mervyn Jones played the lead. An intimate friend of Mr. George Bernard Shaw, the deceased was associated with the O'Dea-O'Donovan Company for a long period; he later played with the old Vic Company, and also acted in the Dublin production of Paul Vincent Carroll's "The Strings Are False." The late Mr. Keogh will be remembered in Kilmacthomas for his performances with his own company here about a score of years since, when they presented Irish dramas, comedies and sketches to capacity houses nightly during their stay. Some few months before the outbreak of the late war "mise bocht fein" again contacted this gifted Dubliner, whose manner was as pleasantly engaging as his winning
