per week.

Blackberries.—Large numbers of people are at present engaged picking blackberries. They are being sold at remunerative prices to the local dea ers.

The All-Ireland Football Final.—

A record number of Clashmore people "istened-in" to the All-Ireand S.F. Final on Sunday night last, It is safe to say that never did so many people "listen-in" to any event as the historic game aroused more than usual interest. The reception in this area was reasonably good. We learn that several people from Ardmore, Aglish, Clashmore etc., who are resident in the U.S.A., saw the great contest and were delighted at the wonderful display given.

On Holidays.—For the past couple of weeks Sergt. J. Barry, of the Defence Forces, has been on holidays in his native Clashmore. He is a well foncum G.A.A. enthusiast, and his many friends were pleased to see him in excellent health. Clashmore F.C.A.—The weekly parades have been resumed and will be held each Friday night at 21.00 hours (9 p.m., S.T.). All members are instructed to attend regularly. The annual range practice will be held on Kilworth Open Range in the course of a few weeks.

G.A.A.—The J.F. challenge match,

Clashmore v. Youghal, arranged for the latter team's venue on Sunday last did not take place. It will now be held on the first available Sunday. Clashmore Man Home.—Mr. Declar Barron, who holds a responsible position in the Department of Posts and Telegraps, is at present spending a holiday in his native Clashmore. A member of a well-known family for a number of years he vas a leading member of Clashmore football team member of Clashmore football team spending the control of and also played for his native county. He is cousin of Colonel the Very Rev. Fr. Barron of the U.S.A.

The J.F. Championships.—Due to o-operation between the competing teams, the Clashmore Group J.F. has been completed. Actually the Group Final was played off a fortnight sooner than the date originally fixed by the Board. This was made possible by agreement between the two teams interested. Now it seems that the winners will have to wait for weeks or maybe months before they can play the next round. This has been caused by a series of de ays, objections, replays, etc., in other areas and is most unfair to teams that have won out their groups. It that have won out their groups. It is to the credit of the Clashmore Group that all matches were played in a clean, sporting manner and with out a single objection. This should serve as a headline to others. F.C.A. Parade.—A general parade of Clashmore F.C.A. will be held on Friday night next, 26th September, at 21.000 hours (9 p.m., S.T.) The Battalion O./C. and officers of the Battalion Staff will attend for the Company are instructed to attend
will be he d in Clashmore on Sunday night, 28th September. This will be the first dance of the season and promises to be a huge success.

Home From England.—On a holiday from England for the past few weeks has been Miss Maura Curran, Clashmore. For the past two years Miss Curran was captain of the Clashmore cannagie team and was one of its leading players. She also played on the Waterford county team as full back. Her many friends are pleased to see her in excellent health.

Tournament.—Owing to the bad weather on Sunday last al tournament games were postponed. J. Norris beat J. Calton in the third round of over 18 on Monday night and J. Sullivan beat J. Randles on Tuesday night, both qualifying for the semi-finals. The remaining rounds will be played on Sunday next starting at 10.20 a.m. A.l players are expected to be at the barracks at 10 o'clock. The public will be admitted to see these games. W. Wade will meet N. Power in the semi-final of the under 18 and T. supported and a good night was the order. Another dance will be he'd on Sunday, 12th October. The Portlairge band are again engaged. Raffle.-A raffle will be held between the members of the Club

It is with sincere regret we record dalligan, which sad event occurred at the Hospital, Dungarvan, on Sunday evening last after a prolonged il ness. Son of John and the late Mrs. Flynn, Glendalligan, deceased, who was yet in his thirties, was invariably of a most generous and cheerful disposition, having always a good yarn to tell or a good joke to crack. He was a member of the Pike Rovers' Football Club during its existence and took part in all that club's matches and proved himself a very keen and much appreciated exponent of the game Being the owner. ponent of the game. Being the owner of a large number of mountain sheep. he took great pleasure in training sheep dogs and the degree of per-fection to which he brought these dogs was almost unconceivable.

A very large and representative cortege attended at the removal of the remains on Monday evening to Et. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilrosanty, where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. M. Hackett P.P., do., who also recited the prayers for the dead. Office and High Mass of Requiem for the departed soul were celebrated in the sacred edifice on Tuesday morning. Rev. M. O'Doherty, C.C., Kilrossanty, sung the Mass, and the clergy assisting in the choir were-Very Rev. J Hackett. P.P., do.; Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally; Rev. J. Grace, C.C., do., and Rve. T. Draper, C.C.,

Interment was made afterwards in the adjoining cemetery in the prefriends and sympathisers, and amid every manifestation of profound sorrow. All of the priests already named again officiated at the grave-side. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave. Mass cards were received were from—Father and Maggie; Mrs. Fennell and family; Willie and Mary Fennell; John Minnie and family; Mrs. B. Cavan Win Historic Final in New York.

Cavan, 2-11; Kerry, 2-7.

Cavan are 1947 All-Ireland Senior Football Champions. They achieved the "seemingly impossible" at the Polo Grounds, New York, as during the first half Kerry, the reigning champions, had gained an eight points' lead and were playing with such dash and cleverness that it certainly looked as if Cavan were doomed to defeat.

But Cavan were apparently just warming to their work. They launched attack after attack and with sparkling scores wiped out Kerry's commanding lead and were in front by a point at the interval. Kerry were by no means out of it. They levelled soon after the restart, but there was no holding this Cavan team, who regained the lead in a twinkling and eventually made certain of victory.

This amazing game had in it the combined thrills of a dozen finals. with its wonder Kerry start, Catan's grand, glorious fighting come-back, and again Kerry's last-minute effort to pull the game out of the fire.

A pitiless burning, broiling sun made the Polo Grounds a melting pot,
