The Class will be conducted by Mr. SEAN KELLY, Engineering Instructor, Coiste na nOideachais, Dungarvan.

COUNTY COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE

Mr. P. R. Power, chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above at the Court House, Dungarvan, on Saturday last. Also present—Messrs. M. O'Ryan, J. Quinlan, M. Leahy, M. F. Walsh, D. Coghlan, M. Hart, W. Dower, J. Mansfield, and Mr. D. Heskin T.D. Officials present were: Mr. M. O'Sullivan, agricultural instructor and acting secretary; Mr. P. O'Shea, horticultural instructor; Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, D.O.; Miss M. M. O'Sullivan, poultry instructor; Miss Mary Mullins, D.O.

PREMIUM BULL THAT WAS TRANSFERRED.
Arising from the reading of a letter dealing with the Dairy Cattle Scheme, Mr. M. F. Walsh referred to the granting recently by the committee of the transfer of a premium bull from Mr. John Prendergast, Ballyhans, to his brother, Mr. James Prendergast, Bridane, Lismore. The Secretary said the application was made in the ordinary way and granted by the committee.

Mr. Walsh—The application form was not signed, I understand, by John Prendergast.

Mr. O'Ryan—Did he not see the bull being taken from his place. Was the bull taken without his consent?

Walsh—He says he did not sign this document. He bought this bull for about £70.

Chairman—It is strange that he left the bull to go from his place.

The Secretary produced the original application form for the transfer and Mr. Walsh said he did not think it was Mr. John Prendergast's writing.

Mr. Quinlan—Whatever about the writing, he let the bull go away.

Chairman—The committee cannot interfere between the two. The premium must be paid to the original owner.

KILMACKTHOMAS COURT

At Kilmackthomas monthly Court, held on Wednesday of last week, before Mr. P. J. MacCabe, the Attorney-General charged two brothers named Thomas and James Mansfield, of Parkencloagh, with assaulting Patrick Barron, Kilmackthomas, the latter having declined to prosecute.

In reply to Inspector Rabbett (representing Supt. Lyons, Tramore), Patrick Barron said that on Sunday night, 26th October last, he was chairman of a Lawnmowing which was held in the Square, Kilmackthomas. The meeting commenced at 8 p.m. There was no platform erected. The speakers included Messrs. Gilbert Lynch, Thomas Kyne and witness. The meeting, which was held under a street light, was interrupted immediately by the appearance of the two defendants for about three-quarters of an hour. After Mr. Lynch had requested the interrupters, Guard Barron approached. Thomas Mansfield was on the bridge-booth, and he, with his brother James, came over and attempted to strike me. That terminated the meeting. I declined to issue a summons.

Cross-examined by Mr. M. Keller, Barron (defending) witnesses admitted that there was an amount of heckling at the meeting. Witness did not hear the question who asked the hecklers for the speakers of Kilmackthomas? Barron replied that it was from a particular point of the meeting that the heckling came. He also admitted that a statement of his which was directed to Thomas Mansfield, viz., "Do you want to go back to your own place?" was a truthful one. Concluding, witness said that Thomas Mansfield caught him by the coat.

GARDA'S EVIDENCE.
Guard Barron, Kilmackthomas, said that he was present in uniform at the meeting. He had occasion to approach Thomas Mansfield and cautioned him. He didn't approve of my approach, and witness saw him rushing towards the speakers. Thomas Mansfield barron caught me by the coat. I did not take him to the station.

Cross-examined, witness said that there was no general heckling; it came from one direction, and that was where Thomas Mansfield was. He didn't hear the question about the hecklers being asked who he did hear the remark about the goal. He agreed it was a truthful remark. It was Inspector Barron who caught me by the field never laid a hand on Barron.

Garda Purcell, Kilmackthomas, corroborated the previous witness.

KILMACKTHOMAS NEWS

Have It—That a sheep of the Shropshire strain, the property of a very esteemed member of the Comeragh Valley farming community, has given birth to five lambs, of which are doing well.

Felicitations—Felicitations are cordially extended to estimable Mrs. Mary Corcoran, Kilmackthomas, on her marriage to Serg. J. Mooney (of the National Army Engineering Corps), Drumcondra, Dublin, which took place recently in the metropolis.

Sympathy—Of a verity, the Wares Waterford—Charlie, Jack, Jim and Murry—richly merit a chapter all to themselves in the annals of the purely Celtic code. Their good father passed away to his eternal reward last week, and mid-Waterford Gales join with the rest in sincerely sympathizing with the chubbable quartet and with their amiable sisters in their sad bereavement and loss.

Spring Valley Hall, Bonmahon.—As advertised, a gala dance will be held at the above admirably appointed and popularly established hall on New Year's Night, and devotees will please note that spot prizes and carnival novelties will be features of the function. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock and will continue up to 3 a.m. The music will be rendered by Tony Power and his band—a capital Carrick-on-Suir combination of instrumentalists. Admission 5s. (supper extra). The eagerly looked forward to affair promises to be an unforgettable, colourful and enjoyable social.

Arrivals—Recent arrivals in our midst from the land of the Rock include the Misses Joan, Rita and Maisie Walsh, daughters of Mrs. and the late Mr. Walter Walsh, Ballygarry, Kilmackthomas. The charmingly-mannered trio, who are pursuing the noble profession of nursing, are spending the holidays with their nearest relatives, Miss Nellie Fitzgerald, who is also home for Christmas, is only daughter of very esteemed Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Carrigrohane, Bonmahon, and the attractive and unassuming young lady is well-positioned in Albion's clime.

Happy Event—Exceedingly well-wished residents of the parish of Kilmackthomas are Mr. and Mrs. John Foley, whom we warmly congratulate on the birth of twins (sons). Mr. Foley is son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley (Chookespeer), Ballylinch, Kilmackthomas, and his life-partner is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCarthy, Old Road, Kilmackthomas.

Recessant—At both the 8.30 and 11 o'clock Masses in St. Anne's Church, Ballyhans, on Sunday last, prayers were requested for the eternal welfare of the souls of Mrs. Catherine Wall, Ballynaird, Bonmahon, and Mrs. Hannah McKeon, Ballydown, D.O., parishioners, the anniversary of whose respective deaths transpire about this time, and for each of whom Mass was offered in the sacred edifice during the week.

Transfers—Sergt. O'Reilly, who was in charge of the Gardai unit at Stradbally for the past six years, was given a great send-off by the villagers on his departure last week on transfer to Kilmore, Co. Wexford. He is succeeded in Stradbally by Sergt. O'Connor.

Rainbow Hall, Kilmackthomas.—All lines lead to this splendidly laid out centre of amusement, on St. Stephen's Night, the attraction being a grand concert (9 to 1) for which the renowned Waterford Swing Aces Band (under the baton of "Busty" O'Connell) will provide the music. No effort is being spared toward making the event a memorably bright and merry social, and a record attendance cordially anticipated. Admission 5s. (supper extra). All are welcome so—be there with your friends!

The Fre-Yule Bush.—The Christmas shopping rush in Kilmackthomas is a scene reminiscent of pre-war days in so far as the amount of business being done and the numbers of people conducting it are concerned. Shops, business premises, warehouses, are all experiencing an unprecedented rush of trade, and this year, for the first time in many years, the commercial community is in the happy position of having ample stocks on hand from which to meet the heavy demand. This year, for instance, there is an abundance of culinary ingredients and luxuries such as dried fruit and preserved fruit with which the happy housewife can exert her ingenuity to the full in her art to the delectation of the table on Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Twelfth Day ("Little Christmas"). The poultry-keepers of these parts raised more turkeys this year than they did in 1946. The many among us who have relatives across Channel to whom they were anxious to send gifts of turkeys for the great festival of the passing year felt very disappointed on being unable to do so—due to the restrictions governing the export to Britain. Since the beginning of last month there has been a definite shortage of turkeys in the local shops, and as we write (Monday) this shortage continues. Judging by the remarkable range of toys and other amusements on display, the next day but one will be a happy Christmas for children. There is, as is customary, a big influx of our kith and kin from the far and near, and transport services are being heavily taxed to cope with the demands made upon their facilities. Another centre of rush and bustle here in the Mohon-voiced village is the post office, where our unforgoingly courteous and painstaking postmaster, Mr. George J. Brown, and his indoor and outdoor staffs are being inundated by the extremely heavy demand. Moving through the prosperous little town into sees of glades quantities of the traditional holly and ivy on view.

Anna Fall—Mr. Sean Ormond, K.M. T.D., addressed large and enthusiastic meetings at Killy's Cross (on Thursday night last), Carrickbeg (Friday night), and Ballyhans (Saturday night), respectively. The popular Deputy got a great reception at each of these centres.

Labour—Mr. T. A. Kyne has held successful meetings at a number of places in the mid-Waterford area, where his supporters consistently count on his being returned for the Waterford constituency at the forthcoming general election.

Deaths—Thomas Walsh, 60 years of age can be observed in the mid-Waterford territory these nights.

Deservedly Popular Teacher Retiring—We learn that Mr. Thos. Walsh, B.A., N.T. (Principia), Kill Boys' National School, is retiring, having completed the full term of service prescribed by the Board of Education. For upwards of 40 years he has devoted his great talents and energy to the work of training boys in sound religious and civic principles, so that they might leave school well equipped with the knowledge and practice of their religious duties, and so of those secular subjects which enabled them to face the battle of life with confidence and prove themselves worthy citizens.

Mr. Walsh followed their course with fatherly interest and not infrequently used his well-known influence to obtain for many of his pupils positions and all no matter where their lot is cast, will, on learning of his retirement, fervently wish him many years of health, happiness and prosperity. In passing, we might mention that Mr. Walsh was appointed a Peace Commissioner a Divisional Officer of the L.S.F. throughout the period of the emergency.

By the Way—In the note which accompanied the Christmas greeting card to "mise hocht fein," Annetstown Anne wrote: "I hope you will enjoy your roast turkey, your cold turkey, your turkey haggis, your turkey hash, and our turkey soup. And that the dog will enjoy the bones."

P.S.—To the Editor and literary and works staff of the "Observer" and to all readers of the paper at home and abroad the compiler of these notes hereby heartily wishes a truly holy and joyous Christmas, and many happy returns of the day. Good luck and God bless you all.

STOLE MARE AND SOLD IT FOR £14.
A young man named Martin Power, with an address at Whites town, Kilmackthomas, was at the monthly court in Kilmackthomas convicted of stealing a mare and was sent to jail for four months.

In sentencing the defendant, Justice McCabe said that this kind of offence was very serious, particularly in an agricultural country like ours, where such agricultural work depended a great deal on live stock.

Defendant, who was not professionally represented, pleaded guilty.

Inspector Rabbett, Kilkenny, testifying for Supt. Lyons, Tramore, said that the animal which belonged to a man named Butler, was taken from his field near Kilmackthomas and was subsequently traced to Piltown. The mare was valued for £20. It was stolen on the 28th of November and shortly afterwards an advertisement appeared in a Waterford newspaper which gave a description of the missing animal, after which a man called at Piltown Garda Station stating he believed that a mare purchased—him was the one that was advertised as missing. That was so. When the mare was stolen it was found to be shod and its mane and tail were cut.

Defendant was arrested by Sergt. Hervey and admitted having sold the mare on the 28th November for £14 to a man in Piltown.

Asked by the Justice why he took the animal, defendant simply stated that he was out of work at the time.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Death of Most Rev. Dr. J. Coleman, Bishop of Armidale, Australia.—It is with feelings of deep and profound regret that the sad and tragic news of the death of Most Rev. John Coleman, D.P., Ph.D., and Bishop of Armidale, N.S.W., Australia, was received in Mount Mellary, Cappoquin, and surrounding districts. The sad event occurred at Armidale on Saturday, the 20th, and news of his untimely and unexpected passing at such an early age was received by cablegram on Monday. The Church now mourns the loss of a great and saintly man, who was loved by all not only for his kindness but for his zeal and work. He never ceased his labours and zeal for the salvation of souls consumed him. A native of Foddan, Cappoquin, the late Most Rev. Dr. Coleman was son of the late William and Mrs. Coleman and brother of Mrs. A. Hayden, Foddan, and Mrs. Bridget Coffey, G.enatolla. He was also uncle of Rev. Patrick Coffey, Braneau, Australia; Rev. Mother Teresa, Vicar-General, Dominican Order, South Africa; also Mrs. Sheehan in America. He received his primary and secondary education at Mount Mellary, entering the seminary at an early age where his zeal for work, gentleness of manner and nobility of character, marked him out as an exemplary student. In those days the Irish language was neither popular nor fashionable, but imbued with pioneer enthusiasm the youthful student applied himself to the work of arousing in his companions a deep and abiding love for the language and Irish ideals and the passing of time did not cool the fervour of his love nor robbed his "bas" of its rich music. At the completion of his secondary education Dr. Coleman entered on his studies at Proprietary College, Rome. There he set the seal of distinction on his brilliant talents by gaining the coveted degrees of Doctor of Divinity and Doctor of Philosophy. Since his ordination in 1912 the Diocese of Armidale has been the scene of his missionary work, and while on holidays he visited many parts of Ireland, particularly the beauty spots and places of note in the south-west and west, when to road was too rough nor distance too long to deter him from seeing some ruin or monument of the past. Certainly many distinguished and zealous priests have come from Mount Mellary, but perhaps the most distinguished and most lovable of all was the late Most Rev. Dr. Coleman, and his passing has indeed created a void which can never be filled. To his bereaved sisters, brothers and other relatives the sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Successful Whist Drive.—The Most Rev. Dr. Coleman was the guest of honor at the Bachelors' Hall on Monday, 21st inst., was a wonderful success from every point of view. Huge crowds were present from all parts of West, Waterford, and a most enjoyable and sociable night was spent by all present. The master of ceremonies, Mr. F. X. O'Leary, and his efficient and capable helpers had the function run off smoothly and exceptionally.

General Meeting of the A.T. & G.W. Union.—A general meeting of the branch of the above was held at the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, on Sunday, 21st inst. There was a good attendance of members present. The meeting was addressed by Mr. T. A. Kyme, County Organizer, and Mr. D. McGrath, Dungarvan. Both speakers stressed the necessity of organisation of the workers and quoted some of the advantages enjoyed by the members since the formation of the branch. The outgoing chairman, Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald, having addressed the members, the election of officers took place. It was decided that all grades of workers would have a representative on the committee, thereby assuring that no interest would be neglected. Chairman, Wm. Fitzgerald; Sec., J. Crowe; committee, J. Lenane, P. Daly, J. Singleton, J. Driscoll, P. Kiraly, J. Lennon, P. Morrissey, T. Kirby, A. Walsh, J. O'Shea, P. English, J. Sullivan, M. Morrissey, P. McCarthy, Mrs. O'Donnell. A vote of sympathy was passed to the relatives of members deceased since last meeting. A vote of thanks to speakers concluded the meeting.

St. Stephen's Night Dance.—Preparations are still going ahead for St. Stephen's Night Dance at the Desmond Ballroom when a really successful and enjoyable dance is assured. The whist which took top form and the services of the popular Brideside Serenaders' Band has been specially engaged for the occasion, also refreshments of all kinds at very moderate prices may be had. Full particulars may be seen in advt.

Religious Visit Cappoquin.—Rev. Mother Columella Colbert, of Texas, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ryan, of Brooklyn, visited at Cappoquin last week on her way from the Oxford University. This brilliant scholar, who was the first female Doctor of Divinity in the New World, is a sister of Mrs. Bateman and Mrs. McGrath, also Mrs. Galvin, of Youghal. Not many of her townsmen know that America placed her name on "Who Who" two years ago. Since then she has gone up the ladder of fame, being now Superior of colleges and hospitals. All her old schoolmates eagerly embrace the opportunity of offering congratulations to the most lovable character they can remember of their young days. May we extend felicitations to her three brothers—Daniel Colbert, of Long Island, and James Colbert, of Washington.

Day Engineering Classes at Cappoquin Vocational School.—As will be seen from an advertisement appearing in this issue, County Waterford Vocational Education Committee has arranged to include Midwife for Engineering Classes in the Cappoquin Vocational School programme as from 7th January, 1948. The class will be conducted by Mr. Sean Kelly, Engineering Instructor of Scoll na Geard, Dungarvan, and the necessary equipment has now been installed at Cappoquin School. When

TALLOW NEWS

Outbreak of Fire at Tallow.—A fire which occurred in the residence of Mr. G. Sheehan, Chape Street, Tallow, was fortunately observed in its early stages and was soon got under control by the active participation in fire fighting by the owners of adjoining properties. The local fire fighting unit, which was also early on the scene, rendered valuable assistance. Fortunately the wind was blowing from the south-east, as adjoining Mr. Sheehan's premises were two dairy yards in which large quantities of hay and straw were stored.

Outbreak of Fire in Co. Cork.—A fire which occurred recently in the residence of Mrs. H. Higgins, Frankfort, Co. Cork, in the absence of the owner, was early observed by her daughter, who with the aid of her employers sought the assistance from the neighbouring villages and farmsteads, and due to the prompt assistance which was rendered, the outbreak was got under control without much damage being done. Considerable damage, however, resulted to carpets and other floor coverings from the amount of water used in quenching the outbreak.

Lovers of the light fantastic should keep in mind that during the holidays they will be specially catered for at the Regal Ballroom, Tallow, where on St. Stephen's Night Jimmy Cawley and his band (Cashel) will be supplying the music for the occasion, the time being 10 to 4 a.m. and on New Year's Night the Committee of the Tennis Club will be at home to all their friends and patrons at the same rendezvous, with a specially prepared and selected programme of dance numbers. Dancing 10 to 4 a.m. Then on Tuesday, 6th January, the Committee of the Tallow Athletic Club will be staging for the first time in Tallow at the Regal Ballroom a special Christmas Eve dance, 7.30 to 10.4 p.m. The music will be supplied by the popular and widely known Brideside Serenaders' Band. So many plans, please carefully note the dates and come and share in the enjoyment of the happy throngs that are already looking for their tickets for the period of the Christmas Eve dance.

Obituary.—Expressions of deep regret were heard on all sides when announcements of the death of Miss Josephine D. Ryan, nee Sheehan, of her lovely residence at Ballynole, and to her bereaved relatives deepest sympathy is extended. An exceedingly large and representative cortege of mourners and the general public accompanied deceased's remains to St. Catherine's Church, Ballynole. Following the celebration of Requiem Masses for the repose of deceased's soul the funeral took place subsequently to Ballynole, where the interment was made in the family burial plot in the presence of an equally large and representative gathering. Chief mourners were: Mr. Wm. McAuliffe, Ballynole; Rev. Fr. McAuliffe, C.C., Dublin (brother); Mrs. D. Ryan (sister); Mrs. D. McCarthy, Youghal (sister); Messrs. Phil. John and William McAuliffe, Dublin (nephews); Mr. Youghal (nephew); Mrs. McAuliffe, Fermoy; Mr. and Mrs. J. Brennan, do.; Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Record Entries for Deise Cup Meeting.—Last year the Dungarvan Coursing Club initiated a two-day meeting. Many there who viewed the undertaking with some misgiving and not a little pessimism. Thanks, however, to a very active, energetic and virile committee, the venture was a tremendous success and brought forth many laudatory comments from long-time fans far and near. Encouraged by last year's success, the club decided to continue the two-day fixture, and the usual advertising and publicity work was begun a short while ago. The result was that with the closing of entries on Monday it was found that when the stakes were filled there were enough surplus entries to fill them again.

She was married last year to Mr. Den Randall, who survives her. A young lady of many pleasing and attractive characteristics, she was a very sympathetic and kindly person, and her relatives' sympathy is being extended in their severe loss. The interment took place in Hill on December 17th.

the best of attention. Mr. Clancy's point would be all right if they could get a number of these young fellows.

Mr. Fear Mor said to get boys like that they would have to make scholarships.

Senator Butler said that the only thing he wanted was that more attention was not given to the other people. He would like, if it was the opinion of the committee, to say that to the teachers.

Mr. Kyne asked if housewives had got a special class of their own to make cakes and the domestic servants put in another class.

Acting C.E.O.—They asked for it. Mr. Kyne said that a vocational school was what its name implied and not a place where people could make Xmas cakes or furniture.

Mr. O'Hara—They have a right to come as ratepayers. Mr. Kyne—I suggest as a ratepayer that they have not.

Mr. O'Hara again asserted that as ratepayers they were entitled to attend the classes. If he as a ratepayer wanted to go to them to make furniture or anything else he was quite entitled to go to them.

Mr. Clancy retorted by saying that he was surprised that a man, a professor, with Mr. O'Hara's education, should say that. Mr. O'Hara could well afford to buy furniture without going to the school to make it.

Mr. O'Hara said he was not saying that he would go there for that purpose, but he would say that a ratepayer was entitled to go to the classes.

An Fear Mor—I is suggested here that old people attend the classes. Mr. O'Hara—How many of them? Mr. Kyne—I don't know.

The Acting C.E.O. said that they had boys from 15 to 20 years of age at them. Any ratepayer was entitled to attend the classes.

Replying to Mr. Hartly, the Acting C.E.O. said that the woodwork classes were not overcrowded. He went on to explain that if students came to be enrolled in the classes after they had started they would have to wait.

Mr. Sheedy said that there were three types of people attending the evening woodwork classes. There were first, farmers and farm workers in rural areas. These had to do a certain amount of work in the morning and then come to the classes in the evening.

the Department, but they would not increase it. On the proposition of Mr. Kyne, it was agreed that the Department should sanction an increase of 6s. a week in this caretaker's wages.
