'Coursing At Its Best' Deise Cup Meeting Makes Memorable Start

The Dungarvan Coursing Club's two-day fixture opened at Clonea on Thursday and will be continued to-day (Friday). Conditions were very favourable and a large crowd enjoyed excellent sport.

The Deise Cup produced some excellent trials, and indications are that the winner will be the one which survives the Knockroe Pine-Mac's Pleasure buckle.

Superb Sport Enjoyed by Large Crowd.

ANOTHER SPLENDID SUCCESS SECURED BY LOCAL CLUB

"Come and see coursing at its best," was the proud boast contained in the invitation issued by the Dungarvan Coursing Club for their two-day meeting, which commenced at Clonea on Thursday. The invitation was eagerly availed of, the host fully justified; for a record crowd of "long-tail" fans came from far and near to see, without a doubt, coursing at its best. It was indeed a memorable meeting in the history of the club, and proved that the success of the initial venture last year was no mere flash in the pan.

All the ingredients of first-class sporting fare were there: strong-running hares, fast working dogs, thrilling buckles, and last, but not least, splendid weather conditions. As usual, the active and energetic committee had all the arrangements in tip-top order, and everything went off with clock-like precision. Those irritating delays that seem to be part and parcel of so many meetings in other districts were, in very pleasing contrast to record, absent, and this was one of the many pleasing features of the fixture.

MILK PRICES.

To the Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." Dear Sir—I feel obliged to reply to the letter published over the names of a number of local milk retailers in your issue of the 29th ult. on the above subject as far as Dungarvan is concerned.

Being a milk producer myself and having read the previous letter, I have come to the conclusion that the reply of the retailers was made surely to try and pull the wool over the eyes of the public and to draw the proverbial red herring across the trail of the points at issue. The whole lot of these replies is a part of it did the retailers state that they would be willing to sell milk at 2/6 per gallon if the registered producers sold it to them at 2/-.

They state that they are selling milk at government controlled price, but for obvious reasons they did not point out as I wish to do now that 2/8 per gallon is the maximum price set by the Government. With them this maximum price has become the minimum, which is a wrong way for them to argue.

To clarify the position as far as registered and unregistered milk producers are concerned for the benefit of the public, I would like to point out that under the Milk and Dairies Act any producer of milk who desires to sell milk for general public consumption must register under the Act to carry out certain regulations, which involve a great deal of expense. Producers or retailers are not entitled, no matter what argument they put up to sell any other, but such registered producer milk as the Milk and Dairies Act was implemented by the Government to safeguard public health, and the regulations of this Act should be enforced to the last by the responsible local authority.

To be brief, I again suggest to the retailers that for the benefit of the public, both from the point of view of health and cost that they sell the milk at 2/8 and purchase from the registered producers at 2/-, and in so doing, not only will they save their retailer and public will gain.

The first annual St. Stephen's Night Dance held at the Desmond Ballroom was extremely well attended despite numerous counter-attractions and proved most enjoyable. Dancing fans were present from all parts of West Waterford and South Tipperary, which proves the popularity of this very modern ballroom, which is becoming ever more popular with each dance. ### LISMORE NOTES

Death of Miss Sheila Stapleton.
Chapel Street.—Sincere regret has been occasioned throughout the entire district by the death of Miss Sheila Stapleton, Chapel Street, Lismore, which sad event took place at Cork on the night of Wednesday, 17th December, after a brief illness and at an early age. Poignancy is added to the occurrence by the fact that this is the third death in the family in a short time, Miss Stapleton being predeceased by two sisters within a space of less than two years. The deepest sympathy of all goes out to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stapleton, and the remaining members of the family in their latest bereavement. Possessing a rare charm of manner, the deceased young lady endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact, and her untimely demise now leaves behind a void in the hearts of her friends in every grade of the social scale to mourn her loss. The remains arrived in Lismore on Thursday evening and were met outside the town by an extremely large concourse and accompanied to St. Catherine's Church. Following Requiem Mass for the departed soul on Friday morning the funeral took place to the County Council Cemetery, where all that was mortal of the late Miss Stapleton was consigned to its last resting place. The chief mourners were—Mr. John Stapleton (father); Mrs. J. Stapleton (mother); Mrs. Fitzgerald (sister); Mr. James Stapleton and Mr. Edward Stapleton (brothers); Mrs. C. Stapleton (sister-in-law). A large number of Mass cards and numerous messages of sympathy were received.

Xmas at Lismore.—The festive season passed off very quietly in Lismore, and the wet weather which prevailed over the holidays compelled people to stay indoors. On Xmas Eve large numbers from the town and surrounding districts travelled to Mount Melery and Tallow Churches to attend Midnight Mass. The three Masses in St. Catherine's Church on Xmas Day were also attended by capacity congregations. Huge crowds received Holy Communion at the first and second Masses. On St. Stephen's Day the time-honoured custom of carrying the wren was observed largely by juveniles. There was no dance held in Lismore on the night, and lovers of the light fantastic had to go to the neighbouring towns for their amusement.

Successful Children's Social.—The Children's Fancy Dress Social, which was held at the Town Hall on St. Stephen's evening, was a tremendous success, and almost every family in town was represented in the huge crowd of children that was present. The fancy dress parade proved a great attraction, and there was such a wide variety of costume, original and otherwise, that the adjudicators had a difficult task in awarding prizes and eventually decided in having a draw for the prizes by all who wore fancy dress. There were also numerous prizes for the other children. A tribute must be paid to the organisers for the delightful programme devised for the entertainment of the little ones, which included games of all kinds, dancing, community singing, etc. This was the first social event for children held in the town for many years, and we congratulate Mrs. K. V. O'Connell and her band of helpers on their initiative and look forward to having something similar for the kids in the not too distant future.

Glen Rovers Hurling and Football Club—Annual General Meeting.—At the annual general meeting of the above held on the 19th December the following officers were elected for 1948—President, Cronin O'Gorman; chairman, Pat. Cullinane; vice-chairman, Thom. Meehan; treasurer, Wm. Barry; hon. sec., Matthew Power; captain of hurling team, Sean Clashmore; vice-captain of hurling team, Thom. Meehan; captain of football team, John Fennesse; vice-captain of football team, Joe Malone. Committee—Wm. Barry, Sean Clashmore, Jas. Power, Thom. Meehan, M. Fower, John Fender, and Matthew Power. Those who desire membership of the club are requested to forward the sum of 1/- to the secretary, Very Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P., Clashmore, and Rev. Fr. D. Slattery, C.C., do, officiated. R.I.P.

West Waterford Hunt Ball.—The West Waterford Hunt Ball held at Lismore Castle on Tuesday night was an outstanding social event and was attended by parties from all parts of the county. Despite the fact that the spacious rooms in which it was held were filled to capacity, the dance proved very enjoyable and a festive atmosphere prevailed throughout the night. Music was supplied by Pat Crowley's Band from Cork.

CHRISTMAS IN DUNGARVAN

Ushered in with the celebration of Midnight Masses in St. Mary's Parish Church, St. Augustine's and Abbey-side Parish Church, the great feast of the Nativity was observed in the town and Abbeyside with its customary reverence and respect. In all the churches large crowds of the faithful approached the altar rails to receive Holy Communion, thereby rendering to the great feast its due honour and veneration.

XMAS EVE.
Xmas Eve and the days preceding it were busy ones in the town. Crowds of people from the rural areas, bringing with them the townpeople, thronged the shops seeking and buying Christmas presents and laying in large orders to tide over the holidays. Xmas Eve evening saw the usual "celebrations" but these appeared not to be so numerous as in former years. Perhaps the recent impositions on beer and spirits might have accounted for this. There were some, however, who, it was alleged, had some semi-civilized parties.

CHURCHES CROWDED.
Long before the appointed hour large numbers were seen heading their way to the churches for Midnight Mass, and when the Masses began crowds of worshippers gathered in St. Mary's Parish Church, the choir, under Miss H. Boyle, organist, sang a selection of Xmas carols and the ever-popular "Nazarath" before Mass. The singing was of a very high standard and special tribute must be given for the faultless and excellent manner in which "Nazarath," "Silent Night" and "Adeste Fideles," were rendered. Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.P. On Xmas Day there was Solemn High Mass at 11.30 a.m., of which Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien was celebrant; Rev. Canon O'Brien, sub-deacon, and Rev. J. Corbett, C.C., sub-deacon. Rev. F. Farnell, C.C., was master of ceremonies.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S.
At St. Augustine's there was Solemn High Mass at Midnight. The celebrant was Very Rev. Dr. Curran, O.S.A., Prior; sub-deacon, Rev. Fr. Magee, O.S.A.; deacon, Rev. Fr. Crowe, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Carolan, O.S.A. was master of ceremonies. Prior to the celebration of the Mass the church choir, under Mr. K. O'Hara, organist, sang a selection of carols, with Mr. Keenan (tenor) as soloist in some of the numbers. The singing was well up to the standard associated with the choir.

ABBESIDE.
At Abbeyside Parish Church, Missa Cantata was celebrated at midnight by the Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., to a crowded and devout congregation, practically all of whom received Holy Communion. The sacred music of the Mass was beautifully rendered by the choir under the direction of Miss Mary O'Gorman, L.L.C.M. Masses on Christmas Day were at 8 a.m. and 10.30 a.m., and at the conclusion of Mass at 10.30 Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given.

BAND PARADE.
Prior to last Mass at St. Mary's the local brass and reed band paraded to the church. A selection of appropriate carols were to be played afterwards, but unfortunately, the weather took a turn for the worst, to the great disappointment of those who were looking forward to this treat, and the band were reluctantly forced to abandon their recital.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY.
On St. Stephen's Day the wren boys were out early, soiling subscriptions for the "King of the Birds." Their monotonous chant extolling the virtues of the "wren bird" and the sharp rat-tat at hall-doors were not very pleasant sounds to many householders, particularly the male members, who were recuperating from the Xmas-side malady, popularly known as the "morning after." However, custom had to be observed and the donations for the "wren" were given generously and frequently. Later in the morning the younger members of the town, emulating their elders, paraded the streets with discarded wren-bushes and rendered in most excellent discord their interpretation of the song in praise of the wren. Their efforts, however, did not find much favour with the townspeople, and they soon got tired of having the "wren wren" around and retired to a room of musical appreciation (and the shortage of pennies too) among a heartless public.

WATERFORD CLAIM IN LABOUR COURT.

The Labour Court has investigated an application by the Amalgamated Transport and General Workers' Union of a Wages Variation Order for workers employed by the Knockmeal Co-operative Creamery, Ltd., Waterford. The court makes the following recommendation:—

That the present weekly rates of pay should be increased to the following amounts: Engineer-in-charge, 110/-; engine man in central creamery, 70/-; engine man at branch creameries, 65/-; butcher No. 1, 82/-; do. No. 2, 80/-; lorry drivers, 80/-; quarry workers, mill workers, dairy workers, store assistants and general workers, 58/6.

The above are standard rates for the class of workers indicated; workers above or below the standard rate for certain workers with greater or less responsibility than the others in the class (as for foreman, senior or chief hand lorry driver and junior lorry driver) should be settled by the employer on the basis of the standard rates, after consultation with the workers' organisation.

SHOP ASSISTANTS AND CLERKS. In the case of shop assistants and clerks, the court is unable, on the information before it, to recommend appropriate rates of pay for all the workers in these classes. The court, therefore, recommends that as an interim arrangement, the present wages of the workers in these classes should be increased by 7/6 per week for male workers, and 5/- per week for female workers, the resultant increase to be without prejudice to subsequent alteration either way, when the position of the workers in these classes has been examined in detail.

Dressmaking Hint.—Where an old dress has to be taken in to make it greater, take the seams and try on. If the fit is correct, stitch the seams and unpick the old stitching afterwards. This is much simpler than taking the garment to pieces first.

Sweeping Brooms. Sweeping brooms and brushes should be washed at least once a month. Hair brooms should be washed in soft suds and rinsed in cold water. Soak brooms in soapy water, but rinse in cold water with a strong salt solution. Don't forget to scrub the handles.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE without pain—and you'll feel out of the mud in the morning! The liver should filter out the waste matter from the blood. If it does not, the waste matter stays in the blood. This causes all sorts of ailments.

Ex-Friary Boy's Success in London.—His many friends will be glad to hear of the brilliant success achieved by Mr. Thomas Conway in the recent Civil Service Examinations in London. Tom, who is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Conway, of Conway's Hotel, Cappagh, completed his secondary education at St. Augustin's College, Dungarvan, and had a brilliant course during his short term there, securing 9th Intermediate and Leaving Certificates with much credit. He is now a member of the staff of the excellent achievement.

We feel sure his many friends will join with us in congratulating him and offering him our sincere good wishes for success in his future career.

Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New.—The time-honoured custom of ringing in by young and old from time immemorial was indulged in on a very minor scale on Wednesday night as a deluge of rain accompanied by a high wind prevented all but a few hardy individuals from publicly weeding.

Commercial Club 45 Drives.—The 45 Drives run weekly by the Dungarvan Commercial Club are discontinued until further notice.

Festivities at the Club.—The 45 Drives will be held at the Club on Sunday next, January 4th, at 3 p.m. All members and intending members are asked to attend.

The draw for 500 cigarettes in aid of the Dungarvan Hurling and Football Clubs has been postponed until further notice as counterfoils have not yet been returned.

Whisk Drives.—There was a large attendance at the special New Year's Whisk Drive at the 500 Cigarettes Club, which was most unexpected, was presumably caused by a heart attack.

He was son of the late Mr. P. English, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, and received his early education at the C.B.S., Dungarvan, where he pursued a brilliant course of studies. He studied for the priesthood at Mount St. Mary's College, Emmittsburg, Maryland, U.S.A. Following his ordination he spent 22 years in the diocese of Idaho, in the parishes of Mulvan, Wendall, Kellog and Weiser.

It will be recalled that in the summer of '46 he visited his native town and spent a considerable time with his relatives and friends. He then left news of his death reached Dungarvan a widespread grief was cast over the entire district as Fr. English was to all his home townfolk a close friend, and his sudden departure is indeed greatly lamented.

He was brother of Miss Josephine English, Mrs. A. Crowe, Mrs. A. Whelan, Mrs. B. Keane and Mrs. M. Wallar; to whom our sincere sympathies be extended.

LATE MRS. RYAN, THE GLEN.—The death occurred on Monday last of Mrs. Ryan, The Glen, Kinsalebeg. The deceased was a general favourite and her demise has occasioned deep regret in her native district, while much sympathy is extended to her bereaved husband, son, daughter and other relatives. R.I.P.

Washing Patterned Silks.—Patterned silks need washing in water that is only just warm if they are to retain their colours. They should be ironed on the wrong side as this brings up the design.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS

The Feast of the Nativity.—The religious and traditional observance of Christmas was strikingly apparent here in the heart of the fair and fertile Deise country this season.

Mid-Waterforders were never people to neglect the spiritual implications of Christmas and further proof of their deep devotion to their religious duties was evinced on the morning of the festival when, from an early hour, there were many people out-of-doors to be seen coming from the churches.

Christmas Day dawned bright and clear, but with a sharp chill in the air. Approaching the noon hour, the skies became clouded and the evening was windy, showery and cold.

St. Stephen's Day.—On St. Stephen's Day we opened our eyes to behold the Comeraghs covered with a thick mantle of snow.

Home for Christmas.—As well known and liked at the Stranally side of the "Irish Rhine" as he is in his natal region is Jimmy Power, a remunerative post on the Smith estate at Headboro' hard by the trim and tidy town of Tallow.

Requiescant.—At the Masses in St. Anne's Church, Ballynabogue, on Christmas Day prayers were requested for the repose of the souls of Eddie McGrath, Ballynabogue; Maurice Lennane, Kilmacshogue; Power, Carrigeady, and Wm. O'Connell, Ballygarron, the anniversary of whose respected deaths transpire about this time and for the souls of those who have been offered in the said sacred edifice.

playing of the National Anthem. Mr. P. Barron discharged the duties of M.C. with wonted ability. An excellent supper was provided by Mrs. Casey.

A Topping Treat.—The Tramore Dramatic Class, supported by local talent, presented a highly entertaining Variety programme to a capacity house at Fews National School on Sunday night last.

Incidentally.—We learn that the Ring (Dungarvan) Dramatic Class will be presenting an Irish-Ireland programme of entertainment at Bonmahon, Kill and Portlaw, respectively, before the opening of the season of "sackcloth and ashes."

Thanks.—To the sterling manager of the "Irish Press" Office, Waterford—Mr. Sean Murphy, "mis bocht feil" is indebted for the gift of a calendar, and I am very thankful to him for same, and trust he will enjoy a lion's share of the same.

Spring Valley, Ball. Bonmahon.—Spot prizes and carnival novelties were crowning features of the gala dance at the above sporting and comfortable hall last night (New Year's Night). Patronised by well-nigh 300 couples, the affair was a sparkling social dancing commencing at 9 o'clock and continued up to 3 o'clock this morning, gaiety being the keynote all the way.

Condolence.—The members of the Clonesta-Power Parochial Committee, at a specially convened meeting, passed a vote of condolence with Mr. Michael O'Connell, U.S.A. (native of Clonesta, Clonesta-Power), in his recent sad bereavement and loss occasioned by the death of his father.

CLASHMORE WINNERS.—On Sunday week no less than four Clashmore persons won prizes at the 45 Drive in aid of Parochial Funds. All are to be congratulated on their success.

KINSALEBEG 45 DRIVE.—A successful 45 Drive in aid of Parochial Funds was held at Kinsalebeg on Sunday night week. All arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of Rev. Fr. D. Slattery, C.C., and an active committee, while Mr. E. O'Brien, N.T., was an efficient M.C.

By the Way.—The mild spell of weather which held sway during the greater part of the month just ended caused roses and primroses to bloom in many sheltered places on both sides of the Mahon. Weather wise acres among us are inclined to look on this unusual happening as an omen of a continuance into April of the harsh conditions climatical experienced since Christmas Day.

BEET GROWERS SHOULD SIGN CONTRACTS NOW and SAVE MONEY

Comhlucht Siuicre Eireann, Teo., wishes to inform beet growers that supplies of Nitrate of Soda 16% N and Muriate of Potash 60% K O for the 1948 crop will shortly be imported.

These contractors will, therefore, obtain Nitrate of Soda and Muriate of Potash, free on rail, at their nearest station in accordance with Clause 4 of the terms of contract, 1948/49.

Imported Manures not so disposed of will be sent to the Sugar Factories and growers who sign contracts after the 17th January, 1948, may be required to take delivery of these manures at their factory or to pay the freight charges from the factory.

Farmers who intend to grow beet in 1948 should, therefore, see the local Loading Agent of Comhlucht Siuicre Eireann, Teo., without delay and complete their 1948 Sugar Beet Contracts. If they have any difficulty in seeing the Loading Agent before the 17th January, they should write to the Manager at Garrow, Mallow, Thurles or Tuam.

Ballyduff, Knockanore and Moorehill News.

Feast of the Nativity.—The religious and traditional observance of Christmas was strikingly apparent at the Ballyduff Parish Church, and the immense numbers who received Holy Communion at the Masses there were also very large congregations.

St. Stephen's Day.—Boxing Day dawned rather stormy, but this did not deter the wren boys, who were very abundant, much to the annoyance of housewives and late sleepers.

Religious Reception.—The reception took place recently at the home of the Poor Servants of the Mother of God, Maryfield, Rockhampton, England, of Miss Catherine (Kitty) Daly, spinster, daughter of Mercedes. Miss Daly is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Daly, Dalymount, Ballyduff, and for some years was engaged on a commercial career before being called for a higher vocation.

Meeting at Ballyduff.—On Sunday last a Plannas Fall meeting was held at the home of the late Mr. Daniel Leary, Knockanore (one of the candidates). At the opening he stressed the importance of every voter coming to the polling booth and recording their vote for some particular party or candidate.

45 Drive.—The annual Christmas 45 Drive under the auspices of the Parochial Fund was held at Kilmacshogue on Sunday night, December 21st, and despite many counter attractions was an outstanding success. The very competent committee in charge are to be complimented for the able manner in which the entire proceedings were carried out under the capable supervision of Mr. D. Montague as hon. secretary.

DANCING.—Despite most unfavourable weather conditions on St. Stephen's night, the Regal Ballroom, Tallow, was far in excess of numberless dance fairs, including many from very long distances, all desiring to dance to the delightful programme of music provided by the ever-popular dance orchestra all the way from Cashel of the Kings under the baton of Mr. James Carvery, which was making its debut in Tallow on this occasion.

Waterford Hunt Ball.—To be held in Olympia Ballroom, Waterford, Wednesday, January 7th, 1948. Music by Mick Delahunty and his band. Dancing 8.30 p.m.—4 a.m.

TALLOW NEWS

The Feast of the Nativity was observed in Tallow with the customary religious fervour and solemnity by the parishioners. Long before midnight the special Chapter of the immaculate Conception was packed with the largest congregation ever seen for the festival of Christmas.

West Waterford News.

Christmas.—The Christmas passed off with unusual quietude. Big members came home on holidays and there were several family reunions. Post office staffs handled the usual big mail and discharged their onerous duties courteously and efficiently.

St. Stephen's Day.—The usual big meet of the West Waterford Hunt took place at Clashmore on St. Stephen's Day and a record crowd turned out. Prior to the move off the village streets and surrounding roads presented a very animated sight, being thronged with horsemen and horsewomen, scores of motor cars and hundreds of interested spectators.
