When coursing was resumed on the second and final day of the Deise coursing meeting last week the lovely weather conditions that had favoured the opening day gave way to continuous rain and made things very unpeasant. As the trials proceeded the weather took a turn for the better and a fine afternoon made a we come appearance. Despite the bad weather handicap of the morning excellent coursing was again the order, with coursing was again the order, with hares in splendid form and surpass-coursing was again the order, with hares in splendid form and surpassing those of the previous day. On the day's coursing an exceptionall small number of kilis were registered, only seven falling to the dogs.

The card opened with the resumption of the Derby Trial in which Viper Robert and Brigadier Fergus went into the final. Brigadier Fergus lead from s.ips, but Viper Robert was just up to take the turn and chase puss to the escape. The Deise Cup final saw puss beat the dogs to the escape again, with Ligths of Ballyclough leading by a length to the turn. A kill was registered in the Oaks trials, which proved a rather easy victory for Cleolina, who lead by four lengths, and after a short course killed. Details:

LOCAL CLUB SCORES FURTHER TRIUMPH.

Weather conditions were anything but p.easant when the second and final day's coursing of the Deise Cup meeting was resumed at Clonea on ast Friday. Despite this handicap, however, excellent coursing was again witnessed.

The principal event of the meeting. The Deise Cup, was won by the Fermoy dog, Lights of Ballyclough, owned by Mr. C. Spillane, Fermoy, from Mr. P. Lonergan's bitch, Dublin Light. The Derby Trial Stake went to the Kilkenny dog, Viper Robert, owned by Mr. P. Mahoney while Miss N. Kelleher (Ballymacarbery) Cleolina, took the Oaks Trial Stake. The only local success registered was that the cause of death was septic meningitis, the causative infection having entered through the wound at the time it was inflicted, was stated in a report of a post mortem by Dr. J. McGrath, State Pathologist, at an inquest at Dungarvan on last Friday on Thomas While (52), widower, retired postman, Ballyhane, Cappoquin, who died in Diingarvan Hospital on last, Thursday. The report was read by Dr. P. J. Ryan, Dungarvan, who assisted the State Pathologist at the post mortem. The inquest was held by Dr. D. T. McCarthy, Coroner, with the following jury—Messrs. James Donovan (foreman); C. Quigley, N. Casey, M. J. Keane, D. McGrath and J. Ducey.

"A Happy New Year." The phrase trips lightly off our tongues when we meet a friend or acquaintance at the season when the old year fades into the new. Sometimes we mean no With the organisers leaving nothing more than the conventional greeting, undone to provide suitable costumes, a general well-wishing. But it may etc., for the various representations, be that we are aware of the many the event should be a huge success, troubles which have clouded the past year for our friend, and, if such be the case, our greeting is in some degree a prayer, a heartfelt hope that Miss Margaret McCarthy, West St., the next year may bring brighter days. Between real friends, such > carbery and Nire Valley districts Christmas had a warm and happy afterglow. There followed in quick succession those scores of New Year resolutions which are made with the same regularity as putting up the new calendar. I wonder how many, even now, still remain unblemished? Dances and socials rode the crest of the wave well into January, and we all seemed to assure one another, despite the rather inclement weather, that they came well up to expectaions. There were the usual rounds of racing, coursing and visits to the inemas of the nearby towns of Clonmel and Dungarvan. The local hackney-car owners had a consider-ably larger number of engagements than for some years past, and even if petrol resources showed signs of drying up, nobody was left at home. Card drives figured prominently, and with them came the revival of houseparties. It was a sign of old times to see them celebrated amid the peace

Deceased, who had enjoyed perfect health until comparatively recently, was a general favourite with young and old, and his passing at such an early age is very deeply deplored by one and all. To his bereaved relatives we extend our heartfelt sympathy. The funeral took place on Sunday from his residence to Killcraggane cemetery, where interment took place in the family plot, in the presence of a large gathering of mourners and sympathisers. Western Convention.—All arrangements are now completed for the holding of the Western Convention at St. Michael's Hall, Ballyduff, and from reports a record a tendance is cipated. It is the first time a G.A.A. Convention was held in the Blackwater village and delegates can be assured of a hearty cead mile failthe from the Ballyduff Gaels. Convention day is the annual re-union of the various clubs throughout the West, when officials are appointed and various motions discussed (and if deemed advisable) put into operation for the coming year. Delegates will find everything in readiness on Sunday, and on behalf of the Blackwater Gaels we extend a hearty wel-come to the various Western Gaels.

Ceilidhe Mori—On Sunday night next a grand Ceilidhe Mor will be he'd at Ballyduss Parish Hall, and all indications point to a capacity house. All arrangements are in the hands of a very capable committee, so patros can be assured of an enjoyable able of forming a Government. The only alternative would be a Government.

Hurling Club Annual.—The annual meeting of the Ballyduff Hurling Club was held recently and was attended by a large number of members. The report of the secretary was considered very satisfactory, while equally satisfactory was the financial statement submitted by the treasurer. The 1947 season did not prove a good one for the burling team, for after defeating instrumental in giving to the parish the hurling team, for after defeating Tallow in the first round they went down before a fast Tourin fifteen in the second round, but once down is no battle, and the wearers of the red and white hope to bring the elusive championship to the "little village" in 1948. The meetting closed with a vote of thanks to the secretary and treasurer for their excellent handling the had that day been instrumental in giving to the parish the night air, recalling with pleasure the happiness and pleasure of their youthful days when they themselves shared the pleasures of contributing the church. BEET GROWERS

SHOULD SIGN CONTRACTS NOW and

SAVE MONEY

Comhlucht Sinicre Eireann, Teo., wishes to inform beet growers that supplies of Nitrate of Sodas 16% N and Muriate of Potash 60% K. O for the 1948 crop will shortly be imported. In order to facilitate distribution and save unnecessary freight charges, supplies will be sent directly by rail from the ports to the grower's nearest railway station, for all growers who have signed their 1948 contracts not later than the 17th January, 1948.

These contractors will, therefore, obtain Nitrate of Soda and Muriate of Potash, free on rail, at their nearest station in accordance with Clause 4 of the terms of contract, Imported Manures not so disposed of will be sent to the Sugar Factories and growers who sign contracts after the 17th January, 1948, may be required to take delivery of these manures at their factory or to pay the freight charges from the factory.

Farmers who intend to grow beet in 1948 should, therefore, see the local Loading Agent of Comhlucht Siuicre Eireann, Teo., without delay and complete their 1948 Sugar Beet Contracts. If they have any difficulty in seeing the Loading Agent before the 17th January, they should write to the Manager at Carlow, Mallow, Thurles or Tuam.

The guaranteed price per ton for the 1948 beet crop is as follows:

If the total tonnage of beet delivered exceeds 650,000 tons a bonus of 2/- per ton will be added to the foregoing prices, and if the total tonnage exceeds 700,000 tons the additional bonus will be increased to 4/- per ton.

This would bring the price to-

92/. for beet with 15½% sugar content 109/6 ,, ,, 181%

In addition a uniform freight subsidy will be paid to all growers whose beet is grown more than 15 miles from a factory. This subsidy increases from 9d. per ton to 7/- per ton according to the distance involved.
