Mr. Harty asked the County Surveyor what was the present condition of the bridge. The County Surveyor, replying, said that the surface of the bridge was showing signs of wear Mr. Harty—Is it very dangerous? stating that there was no necessity for such as passengers need not leave the buses until the buses at the other end had arrived, when they could be transported across the bridge on the hackney car used for that purpose.

Mr. Mansfield referred to the lighting on the bridge and said that Youghal Urban Council were going to put lights on their side of the bridge and he thought that the Waterford side should be lighted too.

The County Manager said that half-dozen lamps had been sent there. They might not be lighting on moon-bridge. He said the buses did not arrive up to time. He had seen old people and people with young babies waiting in the rain and only for the generosity of the County Council caretaker there they were allowed into the weigh-bridge.

ARAGLIN BRIDGE.

In a report on Araglin bridge, the County Surveyor said it was built in 1894, was repaired extensively in 1891, and two years ago the central piler was undermined and collapsed. The main structure was standing, but was only capable of taking light traffic. Flooding had caused further damage to the abutments. He was of the opinion a new single span bridge could be erected, both Cork and Waterford Counties to pay the cost. The County Surveyor added that the same procedure as in the case of the Youngh bridge should be adopted in this case also.

Mr. Quirke said that the people there were in a desperate way. It was two years now since the middle span was taken away. The gate across the bridge was closed at 5

MOTION TO INCREASE EMPLOYEES' WAGES.

Mr. Kyne moved the following and saying that he was not doing his duty; that he was not looking after their interests. It took them two years to find out that the Bridge Act must be put into operation before anything could be done.

The County Surveyor said it was suggested at first to repair it and the County surgestion.

The County Surveyor said it was suggested at first to repair it and the County Surveyor in Cork undertook to do that, but in the meantime the condition worsened, and following a conference with the Cork County Surveyor they both agreed it would blacksmiths' helpers, 1s. 8d. do.; and fitters' helpers, 1s. 8d. do."

Moving the motion, Mr. Kyne said there was no great necessity to speak on it. He believed that all the members knew that the cost of living had increased. He thought that this was an opportune time to bring this up

Ballyduff, Knockanore and Meorehill News.

The Hunt Race.—The chief topic in racing circles in Ballyduff is the forthcoming hunt cup race, which will be decided at Lismore point-topoint races on Thursday next. This has been an annual event for the past three years, and some very thrilling finishes have been witnessed for the coveted hunt cup, presented by Mr. J. Fitzgerald, Lismore. This race is confined to owners and horses who has been an annual event for the past confined to owners and horses who have hunted with the Ballyduff Club a large attendance. A matinee peron or before Dec. 31st last, and judging by the number of promising aspirants who have been hunting with 3 p.m. As the production is in aid the club, another exciting race is in the offing. All arrangements are in the competent hands of the Ballyduff Hunt Club.

Coursing Success.—At the Fermoy and Grange coursing meeting, held last week, the Blackwater Stake No. 1 (16 two course duffers) was divided between two well-known Ballyduff sportsmen, Mr. J. Quirke (Montana's Glory) and Mr. H. Hickey (Dash of Ping) Ring). This success was a very popular one, and the owners were the relar one, and the owners were the recipients of hearty congratulations.

Another popular victory was that of Mr. W. Beecher, Ballyluskey, Ballynoe, whose dog, Dante's Idol, divided the Blackwater Stake No. 2 with Mrs. P. Cashman's Aghern Bridge. We offer the above sportsmen our hearty congratulations.

Tirct and his demise is now regretted by all his friends.

Obituary.—It is with very deep regret we record the death of Mr Edmd. Noonan, which occurred with tragic suddenness at his residence, Newport, Knockanore, on Monday of last week. sions of such deep regret been everya model to all, while the upliftment and advancement of his native parish and country found in deceased a good and worthy supporter. To his beseaved widow, sons, daughters and other relatives deep sympathy is ex-tended in their sorrow and loss. On Tuesday evening the remains were removed from his late residence to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore, where they were re-ceived by Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., who blessed the remains and recited the prayers for the dead. A practical tribute to the esteem and respect in which deceased was held was amply forthcoming by the large and repre-sentative cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains to the church, and again on the following morning when the interment took place in the adjacent cemetery, fol-lowing the celebration of Requiem Masses. Very Rev. Fr. Power, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C. officiated. The chief mourners were Mrs. M. Noonan (widow); Messrs Edmd. Michael, Patrick and William (sons); Miss Kate Noonan, Mrs. M. Opening of Fishing Season.—The net fishermen from Knockanore and surrounding districts have been hard at work during the past few weeks repairing nets, cots, etc., in preparation for the opening of the salmon season, which starts on Sunday next, Feb. 1st., and it is hoped that it will prove a more successful season than 1947, which was a very disappointing year. The fisherman's lot is a tough one, and his way of living precarious and so it is hoped that 1948 will prove a record season and help to lighten the fisherman's lot.

Meet of the Hounds.—On Monday last a meet of the West Waterford Hunt was held at Headborough and attracted a large number of followers, both on horseback and on foot, amongst them being many prospec-tive point-to-point horses. The day held up well, but following the torrential rain of Sunday night the ground was waterlogged, but nevertheless some fast runs were recorded over grand hunting country, and were much enjoyed by followers. The hounds were in charge of Major Scott. Record Your Vote.—On Wednesday counties, and an appeal is made to voters to record their votes for the candidates of their choice. Of late a kind of apathy is apparent amongst kind of apathy is apparent amongst coming season.

Popular Young Man Departs.—
During the past week Mr. Denis (Chris) Murphy, Ballyhamlet, Tallow, left to take up a remunerative low, left to take up a remunerative coming season.

Moorehill stables comes the news of horses being prepared and schooled for the forthcoming point-to-point season, which opens at Lismore on Thursday next, and it is learned that everything points to a record season this adoption.

LISMORE NOTES

Next Sunday's Entertainment.—On Sunday night next at the happy drome, Lismore Collegiate _____o.s will present a comic opera chilled "Columbus in a Merry Key," supported by a one-act play in Irish, "Sean Ar An Asmach," and a variety a large attendance. A matinee performance on Saturday afternoon at of a very wor by object, we sin-cerely hope it will be accorded the OPENING SHORTLY 63, Main Street, Dungarvan DEATH OF MR. ML. GLEESON.

It is with very deep regret we record the death of Mr. Michael Gleeson; Coolaneen, Cappoquin, which sad event occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, en Saturday, 24th inst., after a brief illness and at a comparatively early age. Of a quiet and retiring disposition, and strictly honest nature, he posses ed many ad-mirable traits of character which mirable traits of character which made him a firm favourite with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and he was popularly known and respected throughout the whole area. The sad event of his death, after such a brief illness, has caused sincere sympathy and regret, and to his bereaved relatives the deepest sympathy of all is extended. The remains were removed from the District Hospital, Dungarvan, to the trict Hospital, Dangarvan, to the Parish Church on Friday evening, and was followed by a large and representative cortege. The remains were received at the Parish Church by Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F. The funeral took place to Knockbride cemetery on Sunday, following Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul. Rev. Fr. McDonald, P.P., officiated at the graveside. GRIEVANCES REGARDING ROADS AND FLOODING

COUNTY COUNCIL MEETING

The bad condition of some roads in the Dungarvan rural area was the subject of complaints by deputations which came before a meeting of the Waterford County Council at Dungarvan on Monday, Mr. D. Heskin, T.D., Chairman, presiding.

A deputation representing a number of farmers from Inchindris a area was introduced by Senator But.er, who said the deputation had come in connection with a road there. Three members of the County Council—Messrs. Ke.ly, Kyne and himself—went out to see this particular road. "I never in all my life," said Senator Butler, "saw anything like it. There are a number of houses there and children who are going to school as the gradient was very small. The and children who are going to school must stay at home. It is the most awful road I ever saw in this county.

Something must be done about it."
