TALLOW NEWS

By the death of Mrs. B. Holland, which occurred recently at her residence, Convent St., Tallow, the town and district mourns the passing of

of his lifetime, the deceased's pa severs a link in the chain of the days of faithful service between employer and employee. The attendance of the general public present at the removal of deceased's remains to the Parish Church illustrated fully the regret felt at her passing and the sympathy extended to her immediate family circle. Requiem Mass having been offered for the repose of deceased's

Congratulations to Mr. B. Whelan on having ridden four winners at Kildorrery Point-to-Point meeting. Local stables and jockeys while not figuring on the winning list gave a good account of themselves. Mr. George Heskin's Head Star, ridden by Mr. S. Hyde, filled 3rd place in the Open Lightweight Race in which Mr. W. Henley's Gondoli also ran. Mr. S. Hyde on Mr. D. Horgan's Sandy's Way filled the third berth in the Kildorrery Plate won by Mr. D. Dwyer's Waterloo Bridge. Mr. D. Horgan's Squirrell III with Mr. S. Hyde up was fourth in the John Peel Steeplechase at Thurles on Thursday week.

Cottage Rake was well backed in Tallow at 10/1 when he won the Chelenham Gold Cup last week.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Preparations are now completed for the grand all-night dance in aid of the Cappoquin and District Coursing Talk by Eminent Agri-C'ub to be held at the Boathouse Hall on St. Patrick's Night. Arrangements for this dance have been in the hands of a special Dance Committee, who have left nothing undone to ensure a most enjoyable night for all patrons. It has been eagerly looked forward to for some time, and is at the moment the main topic of all dancing fans. It certainly promises to be the dance of the season. As we have stated before, the very popular and celebrated Mick Fogarty's Dance Band has been specially engaged for the occasion, and excellent catering arangements will be carried out by Mrs. Reynolds, Kereen. A bar will Mr. N. McGrath (Brickey Rangers) be run by Mr. James Foley, Cappoquin. The floor of the hall has also
