HANDBALL NOTES

(BY MARKER).

The unexpected death of the above turned up at the barracks for the start oung woman, which took place on of the tournament, which saw some very exciting, closely finished games and many surprises.

The biggest surprise of all came when Liam Giblin defeated James McCarthy in their first round tie of the big tournament. Johnny Duggan provided another big surprise when he defeated J. Norris in the second game of their match, but Norris won the third game, which gave him the right to enter the second round of the tournament. M. Kett, of Leamybrien, caused P. McCarthy some unhappy moments in their match, but the Litter's knowledge of the alley saved him from defeat. J. Sullivan took one step on the road to the final when he beat D. Murray after some good play.

The results of Sunday's matches were as follows:—
J. Sullivan—7 bt. D. Murray—2

21—9, 21—14. J. Veale, scr., bt. T. O'Mahony, scr.—13—21, 21—13, 21—12. L. Giblin, scr., bt. J. McCarthy-7, 21-16, 21-6. J. Dalton-2 bt. M. Hehir, scr.-

21—9, 21—6. J. Norris—5 bt. J. Duggan plus 8-21-13, 18-21, 21-15. P. McCarthy plus 4 bt. M. Kett, scr.-Other games had to be postponed until next Sunday.

threw away several chances of in-creasing their lead. The first half kind, and the defence put up by the egister read: Valley Rovers, 1-4; Kilrossanty back division, particularly the full-back line and goalman The second half with a light breeze favouring the Rovers, saw them on the offensive for the greater part of this molety, except for an occasional break-away by Kilrossanty, whose forwards were always too far outlied to be effective. The Rovers' livan was an impartial referee.

Following a rather prolonged ill ness. Mrs. Co.eman died at her residence on Thursday night, and the sad event has cast a shadow of gloom over her expansive circle of friends on both sides of Tinalira. The deceased, who was in her 87,h year was a charming personality; her kind and gentle nature made everyone like her, and a great wave of sympathy goes out to her grief-stricken sons and grand-children in their affliction. The size and representativeness o the attendance at the removal of the remains on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, testified Mary's Church, Touraneena, testified to her esteemed popularity. The chief mourners were—Jack and Paddy (sons); Mrs. Coffey and Mrs. Hayden, Mick and Willie Coleman, Melleray; Peggie Kath'een, May, Anna, Eileen Coleman (grand-children); Mrs. Coleman, Tom, Richard, Larry and Martin Tohin Mrs. Parker

TALENTED YOUNG YOUGHAL MAN.

Following on his recent successful appearance at the Savoy Cinema, Cork, Mr. John Walsh, Youghal, has just concluded a week's engagement at the Coliseum, Cork, where he rebeen submitted to the Department and that this must be done at a certain date.

To a member, the Acting C.E.O. said that a lady was appointed last year. The Acting C.E.O. added that the committee appointed Mr. Tutty, and he also pointed out that according to the regulation the C.E.O. had the power to make the appointments.

Separater Buttle appointments. ceived a tremendous reception. Mr

Senator Butler said that if the committee on a subsequent election. Senator Butler said that if the names could be submitted to the Department without reference to the committee he was satisfied.

The Acting C.E.O. having read the regulation in the matter, and added that the three names had been submitted to the Department. He gave the names.

Mr. T. Kyne said that these were committee on a subsequent election. He thought that they were all very glad that the occasion had now arisen to congratulate Senator Butler on his re-election to An Seanad. He (An Fear Mor) was quite certain that both Senator Butler and Mr. Kyne would give 100 per cent, service to the town of Dungarvan and to this the names.

Mr. T. Kyne said that these were employed people, and it was against all fair play and fair decency to have employed people when there were unemployed people in the town.

Acting C.E.O.—These are the Department regulations.

Mr. Kyne—I don't care whose regulations they are. The principle is all wrong.

SENATOR BUTLER

CONGRATULATED.

An Fear Mor said that on the last occasion the committee had the pleasure of congratulating one of their members on his election to the Dail and it was mentioned on that occasion that another occasion might arise that they would be able to conmittee for their good wishes.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Nursing Association,—The annual ollection in aid of the District Nursing Association will be held on Sun-day next, April 25th. By kind per-mission of Very Rev, Fr, Shine, Adm., the collections will be held at all Masses at Cappoquin; Mount Mei-lersy, Affane and Modeligo Churches. This very worthy object deserves unstinted support, and we make a strong appear to all to subscribe generously, particularly as this will be the only collection held during the Wedding Bells.—A very pretty and interesting wedding took place at Affane chapel quite recently when two well-known Waterford families and Miss Margaret Coss, only child of James and Mrs. Coss, Fermoy. The groom, a popular young man, is mem-ber of a well-known local family, whils: his bride, equally esteemed, is also a member of an old and respected Cappoquin family, her father being a native of Belleville. She is also a niece of Mr. Patk. Coss. Belleville, and Sr. M. Magdale, Loreto Convent, Fermoy. The ceremony was per-formed by Rev. Fr. Shine, Adm., Modeligo and Affane. The bride Under the auspices of the Youghal District Nursing Association, a Radio Eireann broadcast of "Question Time" will be held in the Town Hall on Sunday. 2nd May next. The "Question Time" will be followed by a variety concert which the committee of the association have decided to make as interesting as possible. Persons anxious to compete in the "Question Time" will enter an elimination test at the Town Hall at 12 noon on the 2nd May and the 12 successful Under the auspices of the Youghal District Nursing Association, a Radio Eireann broadcast of "Question Time" will be held in the Town Hall and Mrs. Purcell left for Tramore on their honeymoon, carrying with them the best wishes of all their friends for future happiness and prosperity.

Late Mr. John McCabe.—The news of the death of Mr. Johnny McCabe, which occurred quite recently at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after a brief illness, was received in Cappoquin and all the surrounding districts with the very deepest regret and sympathy. A son of Mrs. McCabe and the late George McCabe. Dromana, deceased was well and Dromana, deceased was well and popularly known throughout West Waterford and was a genuine favourite with all classes. A keen sportsman and a fearless rider, he was for many years connected with the West Waterford Hunt, in which he always figured as one of its most prominent members. Prior to his departure to England some years ago, he had been employed as chauffeur to the late Mrs. Stuan, Dromana, to the late Mrs. Stuan, Dromana, which he held for nearly 20 years. His death at such an early age has been a great tragedy. To his becaved mother, brothers and sisters our very deepest sympathy is extended in their great sorrow. The remains were removed to Villierstown Church on Monday evening, 12th inst., and the burial took place in the family burying ground on Tuesday morning. Rev. Canon O'Lough-

The former is very useful, and after a bad break went through his field at the first bend to win easily. This fellow will do good time, as he has plenty of pace, and is a clever railer. His time on Saturday—31.05—was the best of the night, and under the

the best of the night, and under the circumstances stamped him first class. Mr. W. Beecher's (Fermoy) "Dante's Idol" showed a clean pair of heels to the opposition in the Suir Stakes and compensated her connections for a previous failure. Mr. D. McGrath's (Cappoquin) nicely bred "Prince Moon" ran a very good race despite interference to notch the spoils in the Clodiagh Stakes. Another to note is "Bad Rum." This dog led almost to the line and was only beaten in a very near thing by the strong finishing "Pretorian" in 31.15.

The Easter Cup at Shelbourne Park is now in full swing and closed with an entry of 90, and considering that the Home-bred Produce Stakes are being run at Celtic Park, Belfast, and the National Puppy Cup at Clonmel, this is a record entry, and goes to prove the big number of dogs that are racing in this country, so that there is plenty of room for a few more good-class tracks. The winner of the Easter Cup gets £500 and the Cup, uplue £50 rether a nice prize to plet. class tracks. The winner of the Easter Cup gets £500 and the Cup, value £50—rather a nice prize to pick up. I am sorry to see that there is no money for the breeder of the winner, as I think in all big events a sum should be set aside for the breeder of winner and second. It would encour-age good breeding, and above all, good rearing. So I am hoping in the near future to see a move in this direction. As it may interest readers I am glving winners on the nights mentioned at Waterford, with trap
