Breach of Licensing Laws.

TWO LOCAL CLUBS WARNED

The Dungarvan District Court was held on last Tuesday, before District Justice E. O Riain. Breach of Licensing Laws.—Supt.

P. O'Mahony charged the Committee of the Dungarvan Literary Club, Church Street, with a breach of the Licensing Laws on Saturday night, April 3rd last. Mr. T. C. Williams (J. F. Williams and Son), who appeared for the Club and the members found consuming liquor on the occasion in question, pleaded guilty.

Supt. O'Mahony said that the offence occurred at 11.50 p.m. and 24 members of the Club were found con-

Mr. T. C. Williams said that the Club was an unique one. It was founded in 1879, moved to the present building in a main residential part of the town in 1910, and the licence was granted in 1912. During that period up to the present the Club had only been twice in court; and during that time also it did not cause any annoyance to the people in the area and gave the Guards little or no trouble. Three or four years ago intendent had said, it was not a question of doing away with a week's wages. The members could have then the said of solders in the town to endice for there are allowed further away and obtained all the drink they wanted. Mr. Kenny then went on to describe what a lot of solders in the town the endices and men were made honorary members, and the Commanding Office and the Commanding Office and the Commanding Office and the Wast stakings were all hard-working end in the Club was not a question, and also the procedure following the solder that the Comment were made honorary members, and the Comment were the solders in the town the endices the went to be level at the Gaelian of the water supply in the area of the water supply in that area of $5.00 the building licence yet.

Mr. Williams added that the bar was closed on this night and there was no riotousness or drunkenness and he no riotousness or drunkenness and he Charles would agree with him on that.

Supt. O'Mahony said that a good deal of what Mr. Williams said was true. Continuing, the Superintendent said: "We are held, worried."

The result was that they were drinking up to a late hour in the night. "Things don't seem to be so well there lately," said the Superintendent, "and the Guards can see the members going down to the Club after the licensed houses in the town have been closed. The Club is composed of the working class people and I mons. of the working class people and I don't want to be unduly hard on them. Unless things are changed, however, in the Club I may have to take them before another court—the Circuit Court."

Justice—That may be, but it is not looked for on that night.

Continuing, the Justice said that he hoped that the members of the committee would realise that they must comply with the rules concerning the licences of Clubs. This was the Club's second appearance in court, although admittedly it was in existence for 36 years and that was not a bad record. The Superintendent," continued the Justice "seems to be getting rather worried at the manner in which the Club is being conducted in recent years. I hope this prosecution will serve as a warning to the committee that they will conduct it properly in future if they conduct it properly in future if they wish to keep their licence in respect of the selling of liquor." He imposed a fine of £5 for allowing liquor to be rejected by witness before. It was med after hours and 5/- on the two ounces unjust.

May Procession.—Under glorious weather the second of the May processions took place around the grounds of St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Sunday night last. Large numbers of local school children, Children of Mary, St. Mary's Troop, C.B.S.I., and the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band participated, as well as the Parish Choir. The band, under the baton of Mr. Ml. Clancy, U.D.C., rendered the sacred music, and the hymns were sung by the choir, under the leadership of Miss H. Boyle. The procession, under the capable guidance of Rev. P. JUNIOR HURLING Lack of training was the principal factor in the defeat of Four-Mile-Water by a big margin at the hands of the Cornerstone boys, who were trained to the ounce. Despite the lifference in scores, the play was throughout most interesting. With more speed and accuracy the Fourthe margin against them, but it is a tribute to the Cappoquin defence that once only during the hour were that once only during the hour were Mile-Water boys could have reduced and again outmanoeuvred by the speed and dash of the opposing forwards, while Curran, Browne and Co. turned every ball to advantage.
