Of course with the change in the weather and the ground in softer condition "Proud Duke" will and those in want and the respection. run better, as in his last outings he seemed not to be able to get going in his usual style. However, I think "Metternick" will credit his owner with the prize. This dog is very nicely bred and shows the pace of his sire. "Kusa Bok." I saw him run all his races in Dublin, and he was in the final of most of the classics. Readers will remember him in the Coursing Derby at Clonmel, where he was very unlucky to lose the flag in was very unlucky to lose the flag in the final. Mr. P.
