Removal of Papal Flag.

To the Editor, Dungarvan Observer

Dear Sir—We would be glad if you would give us an opportunity in your paper of giving the facts regarding the erection of the flag and the burning in the vicarage of the Protestant Church which have caused such comment. Seeing that we alone were responsible for these decorations, and in view of a letter by the Rev. Mr. Bryce which appeared in your paper last week containing incorrect and misleading statements we think a brief explanation from us would be welcome.

In the first place we want to make it quite clear that there was no change whatever in the manner in which the decorations were done in previous years. When we began to decorate this part of the street some nineteen years ago we thought it would help us to hang our banners across the road if we had two poles inside the churchyard wall. We got permission from the Rector to put up these poles and every year since we have put them in exactly the same place. With regard to the pole which was the subject of the article in the public passage that runs through the graveyard and the bunting which held the flag was suspended from this pole to the Rector's house, so, in fact, was not on church property at all. The Papal flag was put up as part of the decorations with other flags and pennants in various colours, with no thought of offending anybody, and certainly with no intention of having the "red rag" effect which the article implies. The article suggests that the flag had been put up through ignorance. Perhaps that is right. We never thought for a moment that we had in this free land of ours anyone so bigoted and narrow-minded to take such offence at the Papal flag as to demand its removal by the police. This emblem, though Catholic, is none the less Christian, and what makes it so undesirable from any point of view is not perhaps the Communist we fail to see.

Apart from having a particular religious significance, the Papal flag is, in our opinion, a symbol of peace and human rights, in fact of everything that is good and decent, and we make no apology to the Rev. Mr. Bryce or to anybody for hanging it anywhere.

PATRICK REGAN,
WILLIAM REGAN.

PASSIVE ACQUISITION.

To the Editor, Dungarvan Observer.

Referring to previous correspondence, I had hoped there would have been no need for me to write again on this subject, but Rev. Mr. Bryce's letter seems to call for a reply.

I agree with Rev. Mr. Bryce in what he writes, that "from 2 P.M. on the night of the placing of the Papal Flag directly over the gateway "was open to objection." But I question his statement that the removal should have come from some responsible person on the decoration committee. The move should rightly have come from Mr. Bryce, but not in the way it did. He mentions trespass, but permission had always been given in previous years and not revoked on this occasion. So accordingly those responsible erected the same decorations in the same way as formerly, even to the Papal Flag over the gateway.

I am reliably informed that at 9 o'clock on the night the decorations were being put up, Rev. Mr. Bryce, accompanied by one of his parishioners, arrived at the gateway, walked under the Papal Flag into his Church, and after a short while departed. Two Sergeants of the local Civic Guards were present as he went away, and if he wished to raise an objection he could have done so immediately. But apparently he was not prepared to act on his own responsibility then. At this stage of the proceedings Reg. Mr. Bryce's legal remedy would probably have been to seek an injunction in the Courts. However, later that night, at about 11 p.m., I think, Mr. Bryce reappeared, having presumably in the meantime consulted some important members of his community. Armed with powers he now approached the Superintendent of the Garda Síochána. It was in bringing the Civic Guards into the case that Mr. Bryce made his big mistake and aroused the just anger of the citizens of Dungarvan.

Rev. Mr. Bryce's own words are: "I went to the Civic Guards and took the responsibility of removing the flag." Is it not strange that the Garda took that responsibility? They don't usually interfere in civil affairs and can only be induced to do so following a threat of a breach of the peace. Was there any threat on this occasion? If so, from whom did it come? If Mr. Bryce had gone peacefully to Very Rev. Canon O'Brien or any of the priests of the parish he would have had a sympathetic hear-

Dial Questions By Deputy Kyne.

The following questions were asked in an Dial by Deputy Kyne on Thursday, 29th June last, and the reply given by the Minister follow the questions:—

Question—To ask the Minister for Lands if he will investigate by the Forestry section of his Department the possibility of securing for planting the vast tract of mountain land which is not capable of cultivation that bounds each side of the road connecting Dungarvan Co. Waterford, and Youghal, Co. Cork, from Killy's Cross to Grange church; and, if the report of his Department officials is to the effect that the land is suitable for planting, whether he will endeavour to acquire the land and thus give much-needed employment in the area as well as help to carry out the reforestation policy of the Government.—Thomas A. Kyne.

Reply—Efforts to acquire this land for forestry purposes will be made as soon as circumstances permit. Perhaps the Deputy would be good enough to prevail on landowners who are willing to sell to send particulars of their respective holdings to the Forestry Division.

(Arising from the above, Deputy Kyne wanted to get to hear from any landowner in or around this area who wishes to sell land to the Forestry Section, Department of Lands).

Question—To ask the Minister for Social Welfare if he will state the number of persons on the list registered as unemployed in the first week in June, 1949, and 1948, respectively.—Thomas A. Kyne.

Reply—The total number of persons registered at the local office of my Department on the last Saturday of June, 1949, was 93,737 and on the same day in 1948, 81,425.

Question—To ask the Minister for Defence if a position is being considered for legislation with a view to having pension claims of Old I.R.A. men and Cumann na nGaedheal reviewed.—T. A. Kyne.

Reply—The matter referred to by the Deputy is still the subject of consideration, but I hope to introduce legislation on this subject in this session.—Thomas F. O'Higgins, Minister for Defence.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor, "Dungarvan Observer."

Dear Sir—I would feel grateful for a space in your paper. I have often noticed the hardship caused to old age pensioners, widows and others in receipt of free fuel in having to climb the stairs in the Town Hall, first to one storey and some time back we're shifted to the second floor. Is it because it's free turf they have to pay in kind energy or a bright idea to finish them off so as to be no longer a burden to the State? I wonder if the members of the Council approached the Manager, who, I think, is a human man. He may be able to grant them a small room in one of the public offices, for after all they are God's creatures to be BREATHELESS.

Popular Priest Bereaved.—Mrs. T. Draper, late of Church Street, Dungarvan, who remains were interred in the Parish Church cemetery on Thursday, following the celebration of Requiem Mass and High Mass, was mother of Rev. T. Draper, C.C., Stradbally. A full report of the obsequies will appear in our next issue.

ing, and have had the flag removed. He must not have made very many inquiries as to whom he should approach, as Dungarvan is not a very large town. Had he gone to the Canon on that occasion this "affair" would never have attained the status of an "incident." The Select Vestry can scarcely hope to escape censure, even if they were not consulted at a special meeting. No statement was issued by the Canon, and no action was taken all through the succeeding week, until my letter appeared in print on Friday. Then two members called on V. Rev. Canon O'Brien and also on the houses of two members of the U.D.C. If Rev. Mr. Bryce had acted against their orders or without their knowledge, would it not have been the logical thing to expect that they would have conveyed their regrets to Rev. Canon O'Brien on Sunday or dissociated themselves from Rev. Mr. Bryce's action in a letter to the local Press? In conclusion, I refer to Mr. Bryce's hypothetical case where he supposes a distinctive Protestant emblem being over the gates of the Catholic Parish Church. All I can say is that if the emblem hung there on one day annually for 19 years there would be no good reason why the Civic Guards should be called to have it removed in the twentieth.—Yours faithfully, H. O'NEILL.

Racing at Youghal

TO-NIGHT'S (FRIDAY) CARD.

THE remaining two heats of the Shagreen Cup (second round) should draw a good crowd to-night and the six in Heat 3 are very well matched. As there is not much between them the draw here could decide the issue. An inside birth would suit Tiny Tim and Brilliant Conquest. The latter was a good second to artistic in the first round heat and the performance put up by Artistic when beating Playboy of the Western World is a pointer in favour of the bitch to-night. However, going strictly on form it is a very open affair and as I have already stated the favoured inside trap will probably play a big part in finding the winner. I am hoping for the best and make Tiny Tim my selection. The remaining heat looks good for the Cappoquin bitch, "Black Dolores" who should have most to fear from The Docker. In a good supporting programme the task of finding winners before the draw is not easy but the following selections should show a profit.

SELECTIONS FOR TO-NIGHT

First Race—Din the Farmer, Second Race, Harristown Luck, Third Race, Shournagh Rum (danger Wild Dick), Fourth Race, Tiny Tim, Fifth Race, Black Dolores, Sixth Race, Merry Glen, Seventh Race, Kate the Tinker, Double—Din the Farmer, Black Dolores, Treble—Harristown Luck, Black Dolores, Kate the Tinker.

TO-NIGHT'S CARD.

First Race (525), Barnabrow Rambler, Din the Farmer, Roecker, Coganour Glory, Old Parish, Best, Hackle Sprig, Second Race (310), Xmas Tour, Bowland Arrow, Molotov, Monas Pet, Prince Nikis, Harristown Luck, Third Race (525), Knockaboy Cl, Mah a Buncall, Another Idol, Wild Dick, O'Gorman's Fancy, Shournagh Rum, Fourth Race, Heat 2, Shagreen Cup (525), Pluckane's Trickster, Brilliant Conquest, Favourite Biddy, June's Girlie, Tiny Tim, Carmel de Luxe, Fifth Race, Heat 4, do, Black Dolores, The Docker, Old Blarney Street, Bookard Cross, Teddy's Spook, Another Chase, Sixth Race (500), Sheepwalk Pilot, Classic Junior, Red Mad, Merry Glen, Village Rake, Cherokees' Gift, Seventh Race, (310) Tiro's Pal, Lenient Barney, Bet the Limit, Kate the Tinker, Ballygambon Girl, Carsons Rock.

FRIDAY, JULY 1st.

THE racing on above night although not up to the usual standard was interesting and provided some exciting finishes and keen betting. Bernice Black Puss must be considered unlikely and will recover the losses very shortly. The second race brought together a very moderate lot and was won easily by Joyful Floss. My selection, Three Bullets made no mistake in the third and will win in better class. Another of my selections, Youghal Bay won a great race and could be backed at the nice odds of 5 to 1. In fact it was first class.

Results.—First Race, 1, Rucker (4), 2, Owens Lace (3), 3, 31.90. Second Race, 1, Forty Eight Model (1), 2, Tallow Prince (6), 18.20. Third Race, 1, Harristown Luck (2), 2, Carpenter's Oak (3), 30.30. Fourth Race, 1, Artistic (3), 2, Playboy of the Western World (2), 30.60. Fifth Race, 1, Tullyglass Idol (6), 2, Bucktowns Checker (6), 30.98. Sixth Race, 1, De Balo (3), 2, Driahane Beg (1), 17.50. Seventh Race, 1, Tarmont Style (1), 2, Hasty Empress (3), 17.91.

PEDESTAL TABLE CLOCK c. 16th CENTURY

It told the time, the day of the month, the month, the date of the month—and it was made about 300 years ago! A silver and enamel dial, set above the dial, showed the days of the week. The dial registered the time of day and date of month, and underneath the fire-gilt metal base of this remarkable clock were religious scenes fused in enamel.

TIME

Ever since man first learned how to use tools he has striven to measure the passing of Time. On the thing called Time his achievements always depended—even to the perfection of a good whisky. Such a whisky is PADDY which spends forty Seasons of Time maturing in casks before it is sold.

PADDY
TEN years in the wood
TEN years well spent
CORK DISTILLERS CO. LTD., CORK

Surprising that most of the punters ignored his chances as on his running in previous outings he looked to me as a good bet.

Village Rake won the fifth but Tarmont Style was very unlucky in the running and will pay to follow. Rebel's Win landed the odds in the sixth. The last race was again spoiled by interference and while not taking any credit from the winner his task was made easier by the hit and run tactics of at least two of the opposition.

Results.—First Race, 1, Wild Dick (5), 2, Bernice Black Puss (3), 31.40. Second Race, 1, Joyful Floss (1), 2, Blue Bird of Dover (5), 32.40. Third Race, 1, Three Bullets (4), 2, Deal Ruah Aris (1), 18.05. Fourth Race, 1, Youghal Bay (3), 2, Another Idol (2) 30.23. Fifth Race, 1, Village Rake (1), 2, Acrolux (4), 18.22. Sixth Race, 1, Rebel's Win (2), 2, Penang (3), 31.65. Seventh Race, 1, Cherokees' Gift (1), 2, Monaloo Guide (4), 31.36.

TUESDAY, JULY 5th.

THE racing at Youghal on above night was the best seen there for some time, and a big crowd witnessed some thrilling finishes with the further satisfaction of five good favourites scoring. I was prepared for the defeat of Playboy of the Western World in his second round of the Cup as his owner is expecting too much of him—this dog is competing in two events at the same time. He ran in Waterford last Saturday night having run here a few nights previous in the first round. I thought he looked a tired dog on the parade and I can assure my readers that if in his old form he would have won easily but he just could not get going. Owners should remember that dogs are not machines and even a machine, if overworked, will eventually break down. The remainder of the racing was also good and De Balo put up a great performance in the challenge as he had to race on the outside and showed great pace and gameness in just getting there in a photo finish. The local dog, Forty-Eight Model made no mistake in the second race and won from trap to line. This is a promising young dog as he is a January, 1948, whelp, and Mr. Gould had him in great form. This youngster will be heard of again and as he seems to stay on well should do well over the 500 yards distance.

Tarmont's Style proved how good he is in the last and how unlucky he was on Friday night last (he was my selection for the fifth race that night). He broke here like a bullet and the issue was never in doubt. The time, 17.91 for the 310 yards was first class.

Results.—First Race, 1, Rucker (4), 2, Owens Lace (3), 31.90. Second Race, 1, Forty Eight Model (1), 2, Tallow Prince (6), 18.20. Third Race, 1, Harristown Luck (2), 2, Carpenter's Oak (3), 30.30. Fourth Race, 1, Artistic (3), 2, Playboy of the Western World (2), 30.60. Fifth Race, 1, Tullyglass Idol (6), 2, Bucktowns Checker (6), 30.98. Sixth Race, 1, De Balo (3), 2, Driahane Beg (1), 17.50. Seventh Race, 1, Tarmont Style (1), 2, Hasty Empress (3), 17.91.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. WALSH—Mrs. Bridget Walsh and family, Knockboy, Ballinacully, desire to thank sincerely all those who sympathized with them in their recent bereavement, all who sent Mass cards, letters and messages of sympathy, those who called personally, especially the members of the 7th Batt., Old I.R.A., and all who attended the funeral, Masses and interment. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

SHALLOE—The husband, family and relatives of the late Mrs. Shalloe, St. Garvan's Terrace, wish to thank very sincerely all those who sympathized with them in their recent sad bereavement, all who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy, and all who attended the funeral, Masses and interment. They trust all will accept this as an expression of their deepest gratitude.

Madge, daughter of the late Margaret Meehan, 22 Keating Street, Dungarvan, wishes to thank most sincerely all those who sympathized with her in her sad bereavement; also all who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy. My most grateful thanks to the sisters and staff of the County Hospital who attended her during her long illness. Trusting this will be accepted by all.

WALSH—The brothers of the late Roger Walsh, Knockboy, wish to return their sincere thanks to all who sympathized with them in their recent sad bereavement, all who sent Mass cards and attended the funeral. They trust all will accept this acknowledgment as an expression of their deep gratitude.

SLATTERY (Second Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of our only child, Maureen (E. de M.), who died on the 7th July, 1947 (R.I.P.), late of Glendine Mount Pleasant Avenue, Cork. Sadly missed by her loving dad and mam.

CURRAN (Third Anniversary)—In loving memory of Edmond Curran, who died on the 5th July, 1946. R.I.P. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on him. Masses offered. Inserted by his loving wife and family.

Holiday Break at Technical School.—Addressing the students of the Dungarvan Technical School on closing day, the C.E.O., Mr. D. Cullinan, reminded them that the school was not the property of the teachers and staff, but belonged to them and to their parents. He asked them to remember that the experience and ability of the teaching staff could not be fully availed of if they and their parents did not make clearly known their plans and ambitions for the future. He told them that his office was open at all times to students and parents and he hoped that they would assist him to assist them by bringing their educational problems to his office.

LISMORE NOTES

Death of Mrs. H. O'Gorman, Glenahank.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Hanora O'Gorman, which sad event occurred at her residence on Tuesday, June 28th. During her long life the deceased endeared herself to all, and her passing has caused deep regret. The remains were taken to St. Carthage's Church on Tuesday evening, and following Requiem Mass the next morning, the late Mrs. O'Gorman was laid to rest in the cemetery. A large number of mourners attended the obsequies, which were conducted by Rev. Fr. McGrath, C.C.

Lismore Handball Club.—A dance in aid of the above newly formed club was held in the Town Hall on Wednesday night, June 29th. The music was provided by the Dungarvan Orchestra, and a very enjoyable night was passed by the patrons. A prize of 50 cigarettes, raffled for during the dance, was won by Miss Peat Behegan of Lismore. The committee announced that they would hold a dance at the Hallway House some time in the near future. It is expected that this dance, details of which will be given later, will be a huge success.

Motor Accidents in Lismore.—On Tuesday evening, 28th June, Mr. J. Nugent, Ballyin, was thrown from his horse, which was being driven by Mr. S. Walsh, Ballysaggart. Mr. Nugent, who sustained head injuries, was taken to his home, where, we are glad to say, he is progressing favourably.

At the junction of the Mall and the Main Street here, on Wednesday last week, Mr. Scallan, Ballynelligan, was involved in an accident when his car collided with another owned by tourists. Fortunately nobody was injured, but the tourists' car was badly damaged.

Church News.—The monthly meeting of the Men's Branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity will be held tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m.

Investiture of Scouts.—For the first time since the re-organization of the Lismore Troop of Boy Scouts, the 9th Waterford Division, new recruits who had passed the Rawley tests were invested at St. Carthage's Church on Wednesday evening, 28th ult. The boys paraded from the Manual School to the Church, where Rev. D. McGrath, Chaplain, blessed the colours, after which the whole troop repeated the Scout's promise, and Fr. McGrath put on each boy his hat and neckerchief. Benediction was then given, and at the blessing the boys saluted, and Wm. Hogan, Asst. Scout Master, gave the General Salute on the bugle. Also present were the English (Chairman, Scout Committee), Mr. Cullinan (Sec.), and K. Fenton (Scout Master). The Scouts then paraded through the town and were dismissed to their homes.

Dungarvan Golf Club.—Captain's Day.—On last Sunday was held one of the most successful days in the history of the Dungarvan Golf Club. The weather was perfect and there was a large entry to play for the magnificent prizes presented by the Captain, Mr. W. M. Cusack. The winner was Comdt. P. Dempsey with the excellent score of 85 (18 67); second prize to J. Lynch, 88 (17 69); third prize, E. Fitzgerald 79 (10 69). Best gross, C. J. Murphy, 84; fourth, J. K. Dempsey, 87 (16 71). Handicaps, 18 and over, S. M. O'Connell (20). Secret score, Michael Murphy. The prizes along with the Lady Captain's (Mrs. M. K. Cusack) were presented at the supper at which there was a large attendance. Afterwards a most enjoyable dance was held.

Dungarvan Show.—The entries for the Horses, Cattle and Industrial Sections of the Dungarvan Show, to be held on Wednesday, July 13th. Exhibitors are asked to have entries (with fees) sent in to the Hon. Secretary in good time.

Acquitted of Larceny Charge.—If people could not lock up their houses in the night time and go about their lawful business without somebody breaking into their houses and stealing money, it was a bad state of affairs for County Waterford, said Mr. J. A. D'Arcy, instructed by Dr. D. R. Connamhan for the prosecution, when he was addressing the jury in the case in which Patrick Morrissey, a young farm labourer, working in the Ballyshunna district, was charged at Waterford Circuit Court on Tuesday, before Judge P. J. Roe, with the alleged larceny on February 28th last at Ballyshunna, Kilmactomas, of £3.10 in money and a box, the property of Patrick Cummins and from the Dungarvan dwellinghouse. The accused, who was represented by Mr. Niall MacCabe (instructed by Mr. L. P. Lanigan, solicitor, Dungarvan), pleaded not guilty. After the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty on each of the two counts, and the accused was discharged.

Put Back For Sentence.—At Waterford Circuit Court on Tuesday, before Judge P. J. Roe, Patrick Halley, of 8, Garraun, Tramore, pleaded guilty to four charges of larceny on February 28th against a girl over the age of 15 and under 17. Bernard Coffey, same place, also pleaded guilty to three charges alleging similar offences. They were represented by Mr. Niall MacCabe, who was instructed by Mr. Maurice Keller, solicitor, and were put back for sentence.

Clark Park.—The thousands of visitors to Clonca Hotel and Stranorlar Sunday recently, but particularly the drivers of the hundreds of cars, buses and lorries, will be glad to learn that from Sunday next a car park will be available in a field adjoining the hotel. This amenity is long overdue, as owing to the narrow road leading to the hotel, endless trouble and worry is caused to drivers.

Dungarvan Young Farmers' Club.—The July meeting of the above club will be held on Tuesday next, 12th inst., in Lawlor's Hotel at 8.30 p.m.—(Advt.)

Fianna Fall. Kilmactomas.—At a special meeting of the above Cumann the following resolution was passed:—"That we, the members of the above cumann, tender our deepest sympathy to the Flower family, Ballyshunna, Dungarvan, on the death of their uncle, the late Michael Navin, Ballycoe. The meeting adjourned as a mark of respect."

At a meeting of Old Age Pensions Sub-Committee held at the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Saturday, 4th July, the following members were present—M. J. Keane, chairman; Senator J. Butler, L. Veale, vice-chairman; D. C. C. Cuttigan and Mr. McDonald (officials).

Mr. Veale proposed the following resolution:—"That we desire to record our very deep sense of loss occasioned by the death of Mr. James Hayes, for many years secretary of this committee, and we wish to convey to the members of his family our very deep sympathy on the great loss they have sustained."

Mr. Butler seconded. Mr. Veale, speaking to the resolution, said he was acquainted with Mr. Hayes for many years; and he found him a very efficient officer to this committee and courteous to the members.

Dungarvan Aeridheacht Proves Outstanding Success.

IMPRESSIVE OPENING ADDRESS BY REV. FR. J. CORBETT, C.C.

As the Tricolour floated proudly in the light breeze of a glorious summer evening, the Dungarvan Aeridheacht and band played 'Ain na nOg' and 'Ain na nOg' just before Rev. Fr. J. Corbett, C.C., opened the Dungarvan Aeridheacht at the C.B.S. grounds on Sunday last.

In his opening address Rev. Fr. Corbett said: "The aeridheacht which I have been requested to open affords an opportunity to address you a few remarks on the occasion of this evening. It is a privilege to stand on this platform on which the banner of the Christian Brothers' Schools. One is the Charter of a Nation's liberty, the other is a symbol of a people's culture. There they float in close embrace twin sisters in the cause of Erin's Faith and Fatherland. In these two dearest of our hearts, the Christian Brothers have reaped the fullness of their labours, even a harvest super-abounding. From the classrooms of education, the young men have emerged as leaders in Church and State. Leaders not only in the homeland but frontier pioneers of religion and culture in many a remote far-flung frontier far beyond the Irish Sea. Such has been the historic background of the Christian Brothers' Schools, and ever may it remain so as a heritage of fidelity to God and an inspiration to the Irish youth, who will be the future custodians of a Nation's soul."

Fr. Corbett pointed out that the purpose of the aeridheacht was to promote the Irish language, Irish drama and Irish music. In sponsoring this movement, he said, the Brothers have willing co-operators in the pupils of the local convent schools. Their standard of education ranks high. The Sisters, he added, teach not only as professionals but have made it a life's work. Results of public examinations testify that the Sisters have been faithful to their trust in the development of the intellectual and moral character of those committed to their care. The same applied to the country schools and their teachers.

"It is I think," said Fr. Corbett, "that one feature which makes a Catholic school so different from others, especially those schools where the rights of the Church and the natural rights of the parents. We Irish Catholics know that in our system of education there is a great emphasis on the intellectual and more spiritualising than the fantasy of mere State ideology." Continuing, he said, I welcome to the venue of teachers and parents. Scouts Pipe Band; also the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band, whose services are at our disposal on all public occasions. We are indebted here in tabloid form all the elements of a typical Irish pleasurable. Occasions like this 'Bring the light of other people's lamps into your own home' is a great happiness and progress. To-day our now is, as their space was, unchanged and unchangeable. Under the guidance of His Light from above, under the protection of Mary of the Gael, and in the footprints of our illustrious dead, we too, towards that objective shall proudly march on."

The programme provided a grand variety of Irish entertainment, and the manner in which it was run off was indeed a credit to the master of ceremonies, Mr. L. Connerford. Without a hitch of any kind, and without a minute's delay the 27 items of the programme were completed, within three hours a fact worthy of special mention. Each and every item was performed by the pupils of the various schools with the confidence of professionals, and their various powers of entertainment, wit, nothing to be desired. During the programme the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band under the direction of Mr. Connerford, rendered a very fine selection of Irish airs. The Abbeyside Pipe Band also provided a rousing programme of well-known Irish music.

O.A.P. Sub-Committee.

At a meeting of Old Age Pensions Sub-Committee held at the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Saturday, 4th July, the following members were present—M. J. Keane, chairman; Senator J. Butler, L. Veale, vice-chairman; D. C. C. Cuttigan and Mr. McDonald (officials).

Mr. Veale proposed the following resolution:—"That we desire to record our very deep sense of loss occasioned by the death of Mr. James Hayes, for many years secretary of this committee, and we wish to convey to the members of his family our very deep sympathy on the great loss they have sustained."

Mr. Butler seconded. Mr. Veale, speaking to the resolution, said he was acquainted with Mr. Hayes for many years; and he found him a very efficient officer to this committee and courteous to the members.

Mr. Butler said he knew Mr. Hayes for over 30 years and he was a very fine sportsman and was always ready to give the sandest advice on every occasion when the occasion of old age pensions was discussed.

Mr. Keane said he would like to endorse what Mr. Veale and Mr. Butler had stated. Mr. Hayes was a man of a great sport and an asset to the business of the town, interesting himself in many types of sport and in anything that would attract a man of many parts; we shall miss him.

Mrs. Cullinan desired to be associated with the resolution and she worked with him in his official duties for very many years and regretted the occasion arose for putting this resolution.

Mr. McDonald also desired to be associated with the resolution of sympathy.

FARRIERY COURSE CONCLUDED

The six weeks' course in farriery at the Technical School, Dungarvan, held under the auspices of the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee was brought to a successful close when a most enjoyable social was held at the Devonshire Arms Hotel on Friday night last. In addition to the students who had done the course the following were also present—Messrs. W. A. Colman, P.C., J. C. F.W.C.F.; D. Cullinan, C.C.; J. Kelly, D. Lynch, Vocational Schools Staff; T. O'Connor, Examiner, Department of Education; P. Lynch, R. Johnson, Secretary, and N. Kelly, member of the Vocational Education Committee.

Tributes to the success of the course which had been given by branches of farriery, metal work electrical and acetylene welding, etc., were paid by the speakers. An excellent and most enjoyable supper served by Mr. Colman in his address said that the course in Dungarvan had outstepped the merits of any course he gave elsewhere. The young men, he stated, had been given a grand body of men, and they would go far in their noble means of livelihood. Throughout his stay he had given the full contents of his 54 years' experiences to these young men, and he believed it would give the county a better future in farriery. Mr. Colman paid special tribute to Mr. Kelly, Engineering Instructor, and stated that without his co-operation the course could not have reached such an outstanding success. He also paid tribute to Mr. Cullinan, C.E.O., stating that he was a young man of great ambition, who would play a major part in the education of our youth, and with the co-operation of all parties make Dungarvan an important dot on the map.

"I was amazed at the great gap between the ages of 16 and 40 in this area. It is most regrettable to think that this gap has been caused by emigration. We must fight hard to try and rescue some of our lifeblood from this drainage it is at present undergoing, and the best way we can do so is by giving them a trade and a means of earning their own livelihood by their own arts and crafts. It is out to make it succeed, so give him the co-operation he needs in this fight of vital importance."

Concluding, Mr. Colman wished the students every success in their future careers, and urged them to keep closely in touch throughout their years. Messrs. M. Moloney, M. Keane and Henry McGrath (students) expressed their sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. Colman and Mr. Kelly for their attention, great patience and thorough schooling during the course. They also assured them that they would do their utmost to live up to the high standards of such a course.

Mr. Cullinan, C.E.O., said that the course had certainly been an eye-opening one for the young men. His ambition had proved. It was something County Waterford would benefit by, and no words could pay a just tribute to Mr. Colman. A week's night and day giving the boys the full benefit of his vast experience, and he hoped they would make every use of it. Mr. Cullinan also complimented Mr. Kelly on the outstanding work carried out by him during the course, and added that here in Dungarvan the teachers and instructors did not regard their work as a job but as a vocation, and if such a spirit existed all over the world, the world would be a wonderful place of great happiness and progress. The teachers did only what they were paid for in their vocational education, but they were doing it with a heart.

Mr. Kelly, Engineering Instructor, said that Mr. Colman's inspiration was the cause of the success of the course. He had given a noble challenge to the young men of the county and he hoped they would carry it on and become the good craftsmen they can be. Mr. Kelly said it was up to them to carry the banner back on the noble level where it belongs and he felt that they were capable of doing so. You have now acquired a fund of practical knowledge and experience and with it you can raise the standard of the trade throughout the county to its highest level and I believe in the young men of the county, Mr. Kelly wished the students every success throughout the future.

Mr. D. Lynch, in his address, praised the excellent work carried out by the instructors and pupils. He said that to-day the industries of this town and county looked to them for skilled men and women. In the past they have always tried to meet those needs. It has always been their policy to train their students to the highest degree and to make them good citizens and in the future with their energetic C.E.O. they will make Dungarvan Technical School one of the very best in Ireland and one every pupil will be proud to acknowledge.

Mr. N. Kelly, M.C.C., said that as a member of the Committee he would like to congratulate the instructors and students. He had excellent reports on the course but the exhibition had confirmed beyond all doubt the authenticity of these reports.

Mr. P. Lynch said that in his opinion the success of the course could be attributed to the ever-tenacious of both parties. Mr. Colman devoted himself to all and Mr. Kelly was as they all knew, a man no other could upset.

Mr. Colman paid tribute to the local Press for the outstanding help and publicity given to the course. Subsequently a very enjoyable social followed during which songs, etc., were rendered by all present.

WARNING FLOUR AND BREAD RATIONING. It has come to the notice of the Minister for Industry and Commerce that the rationing regulations relating to flour and bread are not being fully observed and these regulations apply to every person to a weekly allowance of flour and bread. To obtain that allowance certain simple conditions have to be complied with, viz.— (1) The householder is required to lodge with the grocer or baker pages 18 and 19 of the current ration book. (2) The retailer of flour or bread is required to apply on a special form to the baker or wholesaler, as the case may be, for as much flour and bread as will supply the ration of the persons who have lodged ration pages with him.

These simple obligations are sometimes neglected, and the Minister for Industry and Commerce feels it necessary to warn all concerned that rations of flour and bread cannot be supplied to householders or traders who fail to comply fully and promptly with the regulations. JOHN LEYDON, Secretary. Department of Industry and Commerce, Dublin. 29th June, 1949.

Death of Mr. Roger (Rody) Walsh. KNOCKBOY, BALLINACULLY. Deep and sincere regret was expressed on all sides when news of the death (which occurred suddenly) on Wednesday, 29th June, of Mr. Rody Walsh, became known. The deepest sympathy is extended to his wife, young family and other relatives in their sorrow. Only 33 the fifties, the deceased was a man of powerful physique, industrious and hardworking, and the suddenness of his passing has cast a gloom over the entire area where he was held in high regard. He was an active member of the Old I.R.A. and the Active Service Unit. Deceased was brother of Mr. Patrick Walsh, Lickendarra, and Mr. Leo Walsh, Ballinacully. The remains were removed to Touraneena Church on Wednesday evening. The coffin was draped in the tricolour and a guard of honour of the men drawn from the 7th Batt. area marched on either side. Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Doherty, C.C., Very Rev. H. Conway, P.P., Kilmogin, and Rev. J. Morrissey, C.C., received the remains and recited the prayers. On Thursday following the celebration of Masses of Requiem for the repose of his soul, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of an imposing cortege of mourners and sympathisers. A guard of honour of Old I.R.A. men were again in attendance and as the coffin was lowered into the grave, the sad notes of the Last Post echoed over the surrounding countryside to mark the passing of another of Ireland's soldiers.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. B. Walsh (widow) and children; Pat; and Laurence Walsh (brothers); M. Barron (father-in-law); J. and P. Hickey (relatives). Mass cards were received from—His loving wife and children; Barron family; Walsh family, Lickendarra; Walsh family, Ballinacully; Mickey and Kitty Gleeson; Jack and Mrs. O'Meara; his Comrades, 7th Batt., Ballymacarbery Coy., I.R.A.; Biddy and David Casey, Grawn; Bridget Wall, Paha; Jack and Mrs. Crotry; John and Mrs. Meehan; Meehan family, Boolavont; De son d family, Ballymacarbery; T. and Mrs. Dalton, Deelish; Nell and Con. Glasha; Jimmy Kieley and family; H. Hourigan; Paddy and Anthony Meehan Dublin. Garda J. McCarthy.—The death has taken place in the Mater Hospital, Dublin, after a short illness, of Garda Joseph McCarthy (46), 24 St. Patrick's Road, Drumcondra. A native of Ballyculline, Dungarvan, he was educated in Mount Melisery, and joined the Garda Síochana in 1924. After a short time he was attached to the Administration Branch, Garda Headquarters, where he remained for the 25 years of his service. He is survived by his wife and four young daughters. He was a brother of Rev. D. Carthage, O.S.A., Rev. John McCarthy, Ballyculline, Mr. Thomas McCarthy, Ballyculline; Mr. Pat. McCarthy, Ballymacarbery; Rev. Hugh Egan, O.S.A., Convoy; Harry Forlaw, and Sister Patricia (Liverpool).
