It was agreed to await further developments by the Council.

What Does It Mean?—In recent inter-county championship games rough play, savage assaults and disorderly conduct have been the order. This conduct has already dealt a severe blow to the prestige of the G.A.A. and unless the ruling authorities of the association take immediate and firm that as soon as the Council could provide new houses for their tenants at the New Line they could demolish action the future of our native games will be endangered.

This shocking conduct has never been so widespread and spectators who go to enjoy a good, honest game have to witness instead exhibitions of and allow them be occupied until and that the County Manager be asked primitive savagery in which the lives of players are endangered. The first exhibition of this nature this year oc-

Derelict Site.—Discussing a derelict site at Mitchel Street which has been offered for sale to the Council, the members decided to adjourn the mat-

Messrs. Farrell and Morrasey, solve, the members of the above Council, demand Rev. Mr. Bryce to make a public apology through the local Press re his action as regards decorations and Papal flag.

This flag has always been recognised as the "International Flag."

Mr. Kelly seid that some weeks ago Princess Margaret had an audience with the Popa and she never objected to the Papal flag. He thought its trange that a small town rector should object to it to such an extent as to order its removal from a spot where it had been hoisted for many years without ever an objection from any of the Protestant community. He said that many of the Protestant community against the protein from a spot where it had been hoisted for many years without ever an objection from a spot where it had been hoisted for many years without ever an objection from a spot where it had been hoisted for many years again this game was a great draw.

SELECTIONS

The two remaining heats Cup were decided on above night and both were disappointing affairs, as due to interference in the fourth heat Black Dolores never got a chance of giving her true running, as the time returned (31.95) proves. However, no one can anticipate how some dogs are going to run, and particularly at this present period, due to the very warm weather and hard going. A number of otherwise clean runners are getting bad tempered. The Racing Manager has a hard task at present, but considering everything is doing a good job. Din The Farmer must be a game sort as he had to carry a passenger nearly all the way; in fact, he was a dog and a half to keep going. The most impressive not run up to her old form. I was sorry Tiny Tim did not compete, as I Dungarvan bitch, Kate The Tinker, came to the rescue of backers in the last and won a great race and is a
