COURSED AND TRACKED

By "DICK THE LIAR."

Another Win For Portlaw.

THE feature of Saturday night's racing at Waterford was the performance of "Mayfield Fiddle." This bitch has reared her second litter of puppies and made hacks of the opposition in her race. She has won numerous races for the past couple of seasons on Waterford, Kilkenny and Clonmel Tracks and considering the handicap of rearing two families she has proved herself a good one. Her owner, Miss Eily White is to be congratulated on the splendid way she turned her out and we wish her every success with her litter now in training by "Ruby Robert" out of Saturday night's winner.

THE racing all round on Satur-day night was very good and another old Waterford favourite, another old Waterford favourite,
"No Dwarf" scored cleverly from
Mr. J. Power's (Portlaw) "Buggy's Cross;" this fellow was a bit unlucky as only for getting unbalanced rounding the third and last bends he would have made the finish a near thing, but as I pointed out in a previous article, the sharp bends do not suit his method of galloping and I would like to see him at Harold's Cross or Shelbourne Park. However, he has already a couple to his credit in Waterford and is worth following.

THE Tramore dog. "Fast as Spark" won his race in great style as the opposition here was very strong and included "Playboy of the Western World." the winner of the Sweepstake early in the month. It was a good finish between the two mentioned and I think the "Playboy" was short of a gallop as he did not stay on in the run in, so if they meet again I am backing the "Playboy" and would advise my readers to do likewise.

I am sorry to say the racing on Monday night was ruined by fighting and the third race had to be

Senior and Minor Hurlers Qualify for All-Ireland Semi-Finals

Senior Hurling—Waterford, 4-7. Cork, 3-9. Minor Hurling—Waterford, 3-6. Tipperary, 0-3.

Minor Hurling—Waterford, 3-6.

Tipperary, 0-3.

Waterford Gaels had their first double in Munster championships on Sunday last when at Thurles their senior hurlers defeated Cork (holders and All-Ire; and finalists) by 4-7 to 3-9 and the minors beat Tipperary by 3-6 to 0-3 in two of the finest games ever played at this farfamed venue, thereby creating the greatest surprise in the history of the Association. Cork, fresh from a smashing victory over Limerick only two weeks ago turned up as a matter of course more confident than ever before with a team bristling with stars and holders of uncountable medals. The Waterford team which had been selected (the selection being rather severely criticised) took the field determined to end Cork's long run of successes in Munster championships and backed by a strong contingent of supporters, who came in traditional Tipperary. 0-3.

no match for Keane.

W. Galvin of Clonea, a new-comer played a great part in Waterford's win. He had the unenviable task of dealing with Foughy who starred against Limerick in the semi-final and this he did right well. Faster than his opponent and accurate in striking he had a great game, lashing in a goal in the second half.

Genial, kindly and unassuming, he took a keen interest in all local affairs both general and sporting and any movement for the upliftment of his native parish or county found in deceased a good and worthy supporter.
