ALL-IRELAND SEMI-FINALS—S.H. & M.H.

The following senior hurling team has been selected to play Galway at Croke Park on Sunday next, August 14th: J. Ware, goal, (Ekin's Own), A. Fleming, J. Cusack, J. Goode (Mt. Sion), (Clonea), (Dungarvan), J. Galvin, Capt. V. Easton, M. Hayes (Clonea), (Bennmore), (Butterstown), J. O'Connor and E. Carey (U.C.D.), (Erin's Own).

W. Galvin, J. Keane, C. Moylan (Clonea), (Mt. Sion), (Dungarvan), K. O'Connor, E. Daly, T. Curran (Erin's Own), (U.C.D.), (Dungarvan), Subst.—M. Healy (Mt. Sion), Pat Neville (Dungarvan), (Fortlaw), P. Waters (Mt. Sion), D. Power (Mt. Sion), J. Murphy (Erin's Own), M. Feeney (U.C.D.), L. Fanning (Mt. Sion), J. Allen (Dunhill).

The side shows one change from that which defeated Cork, J. Galvin (Clonea), a new-comer on the team, replaces D. Power at right half-back. The team was selected by M. Cullen and C. Ware, both of Erin's Own, Waterford; Tom Lannon, Dungarvan; Davy Shanahan, Whitestown, Clonea; John Keane, Mount Sion, Waterford, who was a member of the selection committee; M. Hickey, in 1938 the Waterford senior team beat Galway at Ennis on August 7th by 4-8 to 3-1.

The minor hurling team to play Galway at the same venue will be—J. Flynn, goal (Cappoquin Rvs.), M. Morrissey, S. Hayden, M. Hogan (Na Risiq), (Na Risiq), (Sars, D'van), P. Walsh, M. Kellher, T. Cunningham (Cap. Rvs.), (Sars, D'van), J. J. Conlon, P. Gallagher (Na Risiq), (Na Risiq), W. Conway, M. Flannery, M. O'Connor (Cap. Rvs.), (Na Risiq), (Cap. Rvs.), M. McHugh, P. O'Connor, M. Browne (Sars, D'van), (Sars, D'van), T. Deane (Sars, D'van).

Heretofore we give the 1929 minor team which won the Munster title—P. Ryan (Waterford), S. Whelan (Dungarvan), L. Byrne (Mt. Sion), P. Donnelly (Passage E.), D. Wyse (Ewan), P. Houlahan (Waterford), N. Farady (Erin's Own), F. Pinkert (Erin's Own), C. Ryan (Erin's Own), J. Butler (Erin's Own), S. Shanahan (Tallow), P. Reilly (Ferrybank), Murphy (Dungarvan), M. Curley (Tallow), J. Goode (Dungarvan).

This game was played at Waterford on November 19th, 1929, Dungarvan defeating Tipperary by 5-0 to 0-2.

In the All-Ireland final of 1929 won by Waterford, D. Goode and Noonan, both of Dungarvan, and D. Wyse, Waterford, were included.

THE GALWAY S.H. TEAM.
The following is the Galway team to meet Waterford on Sunday—S. Duggan (goal), R. Quinn, P. Forde, W. Fahy, M. Flaherty, M. Nestor, B. Hanniffy (Kilmeadoogh), P. Gantley and J. Killeen.

H. Gordon, T. Kelly, T. Moroney, J. Brophy, E. Power, C. Gallagher. Subst.—E. O'Brien, D. Gordon, M. Nestor, F. Duggan, N. Fogarty, C. Corless, T. Sheridan, J. Callanan.

The line-out shows four changes in personnel and several positional alterations from that which which lost to Kilkenny in the All-Ireland semi-final last year.

Newcomers are R. Quinn (right half-back), M. Nestor (Kilmeadoogh) (centre half-back), B. Hanniffy (left half-back), and T. Moroney (left half-back) and they replace J. Killeen, P. Jordan, S. Gallagher and M. Nestor, last year's centre-forward.

The goalkeeper, Duggan, is one of the best in Ireland, while P. Gantley who played in the Cork championships of 1946 was easily the best centre-field player in the competition and was responsible for St. Finbar's win. B. Hanniffy, who has been in Cork for the past year is another robust hurler and has few equals on the hurling field, and M. Nestor helped Cork to win last year's All-Ireland title.

The winners of this game meet Dublin in the All-Ireland final.

WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES

By "AN RUNAIDHE"

OFF TO CROKE PARK

Sunday will find all Gaels from East and West Waterford in Croke Park. This is a journey we have all been waiting years for. History has repeated itself with a vengeance. The last three teams in the Senior Hurling Competition are the same as in 1938 when Waterford beat Galway in the semi-final and were then beaten in the final by Dublin. Let us hope that the semi-final will result in the same manner on this occasion. One change has been made in the senior team. Jimmy Galvin plays at right half-back in preference to Davy Power. There may be a late change in the line-out as Jackie Good has not yet reported fit. I hope that the alteration is not necessary as it would be rather difficult to fill the position. I still think that a change is essential in the forward division but I confidently expect a victory on Sunday.

The Minors will, in my opinion, have little difficulty in winning, but we must take little for granted nowadays. I know that we shall now on Sunday-night with another double victory and Waterford hurlers will have gone a step higher on the ladder of fame. Good luck to both teams.

Dungarvan District Court

The Dungarvan District Court was held on Tuesday before J. O. Ryan, Transfer of Licences—Mr. T. C. Williams (J. F. Williams & Son) was granted, on oath of Mrs. Ellen Foley, Gratian Square, an interim transfer of the licence held by her husband, the late Mr. Patrick Foley.

Dance Licences.—Mr. J. F. Kenney (E. A. Ryan & Co.) was granted on behalf of Jas. McGrath, Grawn, Modello, a licence to hold a dance at Modello Hall on 15th August, in respect of the local Social Club.

Mr. A. R. Farrell (Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey) was granted on behalf of Hannah Sullivan, Seaview, Ring, a licence to hold a licence at Ring Technical School in respect of the local branch of the Young Countrywomen's Association.

Road Transport Act.—Supt. P. O'Mahony charged Mee. Hennessy, Waterford, with using a lorry to carry merchandise without a plate. Mr. M. M. Halcy, solr., for defendant.

Supt. O'Mahony said that Mr. Hennessy owned a number of lorries one of which had a plate. On the occasion in question the lorry was bringing a load of flour and the explanation given was that the licensed lorry could not be started and one of the others had to be taken. The defendant did not know that he could get an authorisation for a lorry. The Supt. in Waterford had said that the defendant was one of the last to break the law.

The Justice imposed a fine of 5/- on the defendant. Alleged Cruelty Charge.—Sergt. Liddane summoned Wm. Hassett, farmer, Killooney, with using a horse with a sore on its right foot. Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., for defendant.

Sergt. Liddane in evidence said that the defendant was using the horse on the last Fair Day in Dungarvan. There was a cut on the horse's right foot, which, witness considered was caused by a nail due to the general neglect in the shoeing of the animal. Witness also found a sore under the straddle on the animal. This latter sore seemed to be there only a few days.

Mr. Farrell said he was the first he heard of the sore under the straddle and pointed out that this charge was a warning to the defendant. Wm. Hassett, defendant, who stated he had a 103 acre farm, said he became acquainted with the fact that the horse's hoof was sore when he came to Dungarvan on the Fair morning. It was caused by a nail driven into the shoe that came out on the hoof. Witness drove the horse that morning for 13 miles. When Sergeant Liddane told witness about it, witness said that he would get the nail out and get the horse shod. Witness then got the horse shod. As regards the sore on the horse's shoulder, witness said it was caused by the warble fly and the sore should be opened to kill the fly.

Cross-examined by Sergt. Liddane—If you had taken reasonable care of the animal would you have left him in the condition he was in? Witness—I always take care of my animals. —Did you take care of this animal? I did. —Did you consider he should be shod before going to Dungarvan?—No. —Why did you get him shod so when you were in Dungarvan?—You told me. —To further question witness said that the matter from the sore on the shoulder was not wearing the straddle.

Justice—Did you examine the leg that morning when you got up? Witness—I did and I saw no evi- dence of a sore before. —To a further question by Sergt. Liddane witness said he saw the animal's foot on the night before and remarks about the defendant or her daughter. Mrs. Bridget Young, defendant and complainant in the cross-examination, said that on July 20th, Mrs. Ellen Young's mother was passing up and down witness's door "spitting and snorting" and witness caught a bucket of water and threw it at her. Mrs. McGrath's daughter was not there. Witness was called names and a reference was made about her "witness" "cumping out." Witness said that she had to camp out when they were evicted from their house as they had no place to go. They also called witness and her daughter names.

Justice—Did you think it was proper to throw water at them? Witness—She aggravated me so much passing up and down that I threw it at her. —Justice—But she is entitled to pass up and down. —The Justice said he would accept Mrs. Ellen Young's evidence. Mrs. Bridget Young was very meek and mild in the box to-day but he was sure she was not so meek and mild on July 20th when she threw the water. She should have more sense and have regard to the condition Mrs. Ellen Young was in as it might have more serious consequences. He fined Bridget Young £1 and allowed £21 in costs with three months to pay or alternative of 14 days' imprisonment. On Bridget Young giving an undertaking not to interfere with Ellen Young or her master again, the Justice said he would make no order about binding her to the peace.

He adjourned generally with liberty to re-enter the summons against Mary Young (for whom a medical certificate was handed in) and dismissed the cross-summons against Bridget McGrath. (Remainder of Court next issue)

HOUSING CONDITIONS IN PORTLAW

DEPUTATION EXPLAINS POSITION TO COUNTY COUNCIL.

A deputation from the Portlaw Development Association came before the quarterly meeting of the Waterford County Council on last Monday in connection with housing difficulties in the Tannery Town. The deputation consisted of Very Rev. Fr. Murray, C.C.; Rev. Canon Burckett and Messrs P. Curran and D. Foran, and was introduced by Mr. F. Roche, M.C.C.

Addressing the meeting, Very Rev. Fr. Murray (who acted as spokesman) said their first duty was to thank the council for receiving them. Portlaw's position (he continued) was extraordinary since the closing of the tannery factory, Portlaw had any industry at all, and this had caused grave unemployment. Now with the advent of the medical officer and many workers were forced to live in houses unfit for human habitation. Of the 271 houses in the area, 22 (or 8 per cent) had been judged fit for human habitation, 121 (45 per cent) had to be demolished immediately, and 228 needed repairs. To relieve the position in Portlaw they were asking for a total of 125 houses. They thought that some of the houses could be repaired. He thought that the position in Portlaw deserved special consideration, and they were asking the council to ameliorate the terrible conditions that the people were forced to live under in Portlaw. They (deputation) also hoped that the offer of the hall for a dispensary could be used for a dispensary and that they also asked for a dump and that the services of a scavenger be made available. Rev. Fr. Murray added that it was not possible to get the building of houses in Portlaw, and that the people there were not in a position to build them themselves.

The Chairman (Mr. D. Heskin) said that for the information of the deputation it was proposed by the council to build 108 houses under the Non-Municipal Towns Scheme. This matter was before the council for a long time and the council's engineers were instructed to consider what number of houses would be available for Portlaw. He believed himself that taking into consideration the plans in view that the council was going a long way to meet the situation in Portlaw.

Mr. F. Roche said that if the proposed number of 108 were built and 47 others repaired he thought that the people of Portlaw would be very satisfied with that. While it would not suit them altogether, it would however, as a first step, do a lot. It was his personal opinion that they would be behind it 100 per cent, if given that number. He thought that the deputation would be more than delighted if the present situation could be relieved.

Chairman (to Mr. Doyle, Assistant County Surveyor)—How soon will the scheme be undertaken to consider what number of houses would be available for Portlaw. He believed himself that taking into consideration the plans in view that the council was going a long way to meet the situation in Portlaw.

Chairman—That is as far as we can go. Everything that can be done is being done. It is the intention of the County Council to build 108 houses and reconstruct 47.

Mr. Roche asked what was the hitch that was holding it up. It was not in the Department, and there was only one other place and that was

Cottage Tenant's Protest At Member's Remarks

Mr. D. Heskin chairman, presided at the quarterly meeting of the Waterford County Council at Dungarvan on Monday.

Mr. M. Hartly introduced a deputation of farmers from Kilmogford and neighbouring parishes in connection with a request to include sluice gates to prevent flooding by the Brickway drainage canal. Mr. Hartly said that the request was to include in the widening of the canal at Kilmogford and the widening of the bridge there, a sluice gate or two of them, whichever would be the more suitable. He wanted to inform the council that they by doing this could prevent the flooding of 1,000 acres of land and could also relieve the maintenance of two roads crossing the canal at Kilmogford. In addition to that there was the danger of loss of life because the Brickway canal flowed parallel with the roadside and there was a projection there during floods, which was a danger to animals and people in cars who were liable to drive into it. In addition to that the deputation of these people (deputation) sons of these people (deputation) provided approximately £1,000 to ameliorate the flooding there and the rate they had to pay was known as the Brickway Drainage Act. If even one sluice gate was provided it would be a relief, and he would like to emphasize that it would be no extra cost to the ratepayers.

Mr. O'Ryan said that the position was that they had no report and they did not know anything about sites or what steps had been taken. Mr. Hartly suggested that a report be set up regarding the whole question of housing in Portlaw and the progress made.

Mr. Doyle said that in the last scheme 108 houses were acquired, but only 22 were left over. Mr. Doyle then went on to say that it was suggested to build 23 or 24 houses on the sites already owned, and when they were built to remove tenants into them and reconstruct these houses; then remove other tenants into these and reconstruct the others.

Mr. Norris—That is a very sound suggestion.

Chairman—We are doing our best for the Portlaw position and I hope the deputation is satisfied.

Mr. Norris referred to the proposal regarding a dispensary in Portlaw and asked if they were going to build a dispensary and residence; and if so, who was going to pay for them.

Mr. Roche—Don't you think you will have that situation. If the hall is taken as the site for a new dispensary will not arise. There is no urgency for a doctor's residence at the moment. To my mind the money that would be spent on that it would be better to build houses for the people with it. The doctor there has a house and he is quite satisfied with it. I think the people are satisfied that the dispensary will be in the proper place.

A member of the deputation referred to the demolition of some houses in Portlaw and asked the Minister if he was going to make a provision to be made for new families.

Chairman—There is going to be no demolition at all.

The same member of the deputation thought that some of the houses were not fit to live in. Reconstructing them may be ideal but they might be condemned by the M.O.H. later on. He thought they should go on with the scheme. Mr. Murphy (Minister for Local Government) was very interested in it.

Chairman—That is what is in view, to carry on with the scheme immediately.

Rev. Fr. Murray also drew attention to the need for water supply for the village of Ballyduff (Kilmeaden) and also for the school there.

Mr. O'Ryan—We cannot do anything about the school.

Mr. Norris—I think you could bring the water to the village.

Chairman—As manager of the school did you ever make an application to the Department of Education for it?

Rev. Fr. Murray—No, but I mentioned it to the M.O.H.

Chairman—We are having a special meeting soon to consider water schemes for the county and this one for Ballyduff can come up. I think the deputation should be satisfied that the council are doing their best for housing in Portlaw.

Rev. Fr. Murray then handed a petition for a water supply for Ballyduff and expressed his thanks and appreciation at the way the deputation had been received by the council.

The deputation then withdrew.

Mr. O'Ryan favoured adhering to the present system.

Following further discussion, Mr. O'Ryan proposed and Senator Butler seconded, that the suggestion in the Minister's letter be adopted. Mr. O'Ryan proposed an amendment that the present system be adhered to.

On a vote Mr. O'Ryan's amendment was carried by a large majority. Before the vote was taken there were some exchanges between Mr. O'Ryan and Mr. O'Ryan, the former remarking that Mr. O'Ryan was always trying to bring in something political into discussions.

Mr. O'Ryan answered: "I am not." Mr. O'Ryan—If this suggestion came from Mr. MacBride you would be falling over yourself to adopt it.

Mr. O'Ryan—I would not. I opposed it before because it was raised ALLEGED USE OF COTTAGE AS SUMMER RESIDENCE.

Correspondence was read from Mr. Keeler, sell, Waterford, on behalf of Miss B. Allen, College Green, Waterford, protesting against remarks by Mr. B. Barron at recent meetings of the council regarding the alleged use of a cottage as a summer residence.

A letter was also read from Miss Cullen protesting against the statements and asking that she be made tenant of the cottage in question with a "clean record."

Mr. Martin, rent collector, in a letter stated that he let the cottage in question to the best of his ability. The Chairman said he would like to point out that from time to time that when reports came before the council about cottages it was the duty of the council to see fair play exercised because people were in a bad way as regards houses. Rightly or wrongly these statements by Mr. Barron might clear the air as regards other cottages.

Mr. O'Ryan—Thanks to be as regards we have people like Mr. Barron with the courage to say it.

Mr. R. Barron, referring to a statement in the correspondence read about the sub-letting of the cottage, said he denied saying that. Mr. R. Barron then went on to state that he got his information from people in the area about the cottage not being lived in in the winter and used in the summer time. "When this was reported to me," continued Mr. Barron, "I was asked to bring it up at the meeting here and I will again because I believe it is my duty to do so."

The complaint was made to me to have nothing to say to the tenant—and I was asked to report it and I did."

Mr. O'Ryan—You were quite right; and it could apply to a number of others too.

Continuing, Mr. Barron said that he also mentioned about arrears of rent. He was told that another man could not pay the rent and he could and she was granted the cottage as she paid them.

Mr. O'Ryan—Is she married?

Mr. R. Barron—No, and she never should have got the cottage.

Chairman—I feel Mr. Barron did his duty in this. I propose that we take no action.

Mr. Barron said he would also like to contradict that he said anything about the letting of the cottage.

Mr. O'Ryan—Why was this lady appointed when a more deserving applicant did not get it?

Mr. O'Ryan—I think we should find out how she became an occupant seeing that she is a single woman.

It was stated that the lady in question had now given up the key of the cottage.

Chairman—The point is that this lady became a tenant and Mr. Barron was approached by certain people to bring this up and ask why she got it. I think as a public representative he did his duty and thought he was doing what was right and he was justified in raising the matter.

No action was taken in the matter and it was agreed that inquiries be made as to how Miss Cullen became a tenant of the cottage.

INSURABILITY OF CARTERS. Following a discussion on a letter from the Department regarding the insurability of carters, it was decided to refer the question to the ARDKEEN HOUSE.

The County Secretary informed the Council that the Department had consented to allow a 100 per cent grant for the long term development of Ardkeen House. He also informed the Council that as regards Kilkenny House, Kilkenny, the Minister had indicated that its development must be deferred.

Senator Butler—He is going on with Ardkeen?

Mr. O'Ryan—He is.
