Deise Hurlers' Smashing Victory MINORS BLAZE FOR SENIORS TO THE TRAIL FOLLOW SUIT

AT LAST THE TIDE HAS TURNED. THE SENIOR AND MINOR HURLERS GAVE US THE THRILL OF OUR LIVES ON SUNDAY WHEN THEY BROUGHT OFF THE DOUBLE AT CROKE PARK—THE SENIORS WINNING THE COUNTY'S FIRST ALL-IRELAND AND THE MINORS THEIR SECOND (THE FIRST BEING IN 1929).

The Minors had a close call from a grand Kilkenny side in a great second-half recovery, but they withstood the rally magnificently to win by 3-8 to 4-2. Dublin's young fast senior team got a great shock when they were out-weighted, out-hurled and most surprisingly of all, out-paced, by a determined and fit Waterford side.

Victory Celebrations At Dungarvan

TUMULTUOUS WELCOME TO TEAMS

The people of Dungarvan and outlying districts gave a tumultuous welcome to the local members of the victorious Waterford senior and minor teams at a victory celebration on Tuesday night. The demonstration must surely rank as one of the greatest of its kind ever to be witnessed in the town.

Despite the wretched weather that prevailed the people of the town turned out in full force and several hundreds of people from various parts of West Waterford journeyed by car and bicycle.

As the parade passed around the town, thousands of people lined the route, and there were deafening and continuous cheering as the members of the teams passed.

Many shop windows were decorated with the Waterford colours and from many houses flew the blue and white flag of the Deise. During the celebration bon-fires blazed at street corners and there was also a fire-works display.

The victory parade started from the Square and was headed by three standard bearers, two of them carrying the Deise colours and the third the National Flag. Following them came the Brass and Reed Band, school-boys, members of the Urban Council, Abbeyside Pipe Band, the local members of the teams in a motor lorry and the general public.

As the parade moved off there were deafening cheers from the throngs that lined the route. There were special cheers for the local members of the team as they passed. The parade proceeded down the Main Street, up Friary Street, along Emmet and Mitchell Streets, down Western Terrace and O'Connell Street to the square. On the square, Mr. Jim Ware, captain of the senior team who had just arrived from Waterford with the All-Ireland Cup, joined the parade. When the crowds recognised him, he got a tumultuous welcome.

The parade then proceeded to Abbeyside and there the inhabitants of the Village gave a rousing welcome to the teams. Returning to town, the parade halted at the Square where the members of the Reception Committee awaited it and to congratulate the Dungarvan and Abbeyside members of both teams. Around the platform on which was the reception committee was a dense throng of people.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the members of the teams got through the crowd to the platform. After the Brass and Reed Band had played "A Nation Once Again" and the Abbeyside Pipe Band "Faith of Our Fathers" Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, F.P., V.F., Chairman of the Reception Committee, addressed the crowd. He said he was very proud to be on the platform that night to congratulate the splendid senior team and the brilliant minor team on their great victories (cheers). Other speakers were: Very Rev. P. D. Cummins, O.S.A., Prior, Dungarvan; Rev. P. Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan (who presided); Rev. Bro. Murray, C.B.S., Dungarvan (Chairman, Munster Colleges Council); An Fear Mor, T. McCarthy, Chairman, Dungarvan U.D.C.; Dr. M. Casey, Senator J. Butler, Mr. T. A. Kyne J.D., Messrs. Jack Ware and M. Foley, N.T., (trainers); Mr. J. Ware, Captain, senior team, and Messrs. T. Curran, J. O'Connor, C. Moylan, J. Goode, K. O'Connor (senior team), M. McHugh, M. Hogan (minor team) and Mr. Fleming, U.S.A.

Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, Chairman of the Waterford Co. Board, thanked the people of Dungarvan for the reception given to the teams. Mr. D. Goode, secretary, do, also returned thanks and referred to the generous action of Dr. Casey in giving the employees of the Dickens Factory and Glue Factory a free spin to Dublin for the match.

During the speeches, a fire-works rocket hit the E.S.B. wires at the corner of the Square and plunged all that side of the Square into darkness. The playing of the National Anthem by the Brass and Reed Band brought the celebration to a close.

The local members of the victorious teams are—Seniors—C. Moylan, J. Goode, T. Curran, J. O'Connor; subs: J. Kiely, P. Neville. Minors—P. O'Connor, M. McHugh, T. Cunningham, M. Hogan; subs: J. Boyle, T. Dee, M. Shalloo, M. Ryan and D. Whelan (who replaced M. McHugh when injured).

Eddie Carey and Johnny O'Connor at centre-field sailed triumphantly over the various combinations tried against them. Hassett and Liam Donnelly, Cantwell and Donnelly, and finally, Cantwell and Hassett had spent themselves in turn trying to get the upper hand in vain. This Waterford pair have not been excelled in any match so far.

John Keane at centre forward was the inspiration of the Deise side and went through for some lovely scores. Christy Moylan on his left was no less spectacular. His first point from a lovely ground whip and his last goal was a hard first half from the Limerick man, Herbert, who plays with typical Limerick rough, robust style. The second half he ran his opponent to a standstill and crowned his grand display with a brilliant goal. The switching of Kevin O'Connor and W. Galvin, since the Galway match, was a wise move by the selectors and paid big dividends, while E. Daly crowned his full-forward duties with a great goal, Tom Curran on top of the right.

—unlucky not to have scored—on two occasions while in position for a certain score he was fouled—played his part well and his crossing of the Waterford Minor Hurling Team, viewing Dublin from Independent House.

THE TREK TO DUBLIN IMPRESSIONS OF THE JOURNEY AND MATCH

The advertisement said—A Special Fast Train will run from Dungarvan to Dublin, etc., etc. We decided to go on it. Apart from a few trivial inconveniences such as starting a quarter of an hour later and arriving over two hours behind schedule, she went fast enough! In fact I was very much tempted to open a 'Book' and lay substantial odds on the chances of meeting ourselves coming back! Anyway this special slow—sorry—fast train got us to Dublin and I suppose we should be thankful for that.

She was packed, as the saying goes, from top to bottom. A lot of people had to stand, clustering up the corridors and making it impossible to walk through them. The highlight on the train was the bar. It did a roaring trade, and a lot of the boys were well "chilled" before the Capital was reached. Everyone was in good humour, and there were plenty of impromptu concerts. On reaching Dublin there was the usual scramble for buses to get to O'Connell Street. Those who were unlucky in the scramble had to foot it—a nice tidy walk at any time. Our group decided to have some 'grog' before going to Croke Park and with this essential object in view we hid ourselves to Woolworths. What a hope we had! It looked as if all Waterford was there queuing up for a meal. We left them to it and went looking for a bus to get us to Croke Park.

We had a bit of a wait for one, but we were getting used to these little incidents by this. We got a good berth in the field with Kilkenny supporters in front of us, Dubliners behind us, but well flanked to right and left by our county-men. The Kilkenny men were quite enough, but the other opposition supporters kept telling us at intervals what the hurlers from the Metropolis were going to do with our boys. We only smiled at them and told them to wait and see.

The field began to fill and the vantage point we had selected to watch the games did not look at all secure. We began to be jostled here and there but finally got well wedged in the big throng. Our view of the pitch was, however, very good. Shortly before the Minor match began we saw the parade of the Irish Americans passing over the Canal Bridge and then coming into the field. Some men behind us said, "A Yankee below, a fresh maybe, but it sure looked good, buddy!"

Excitement was now mounting high as we anxiously looked forward to the fast approaching struggles. Suddenly there was a ripple of applause, which soon grew into thunderous cheers. Our minors were on the pitch. We began to pick out the local boys—"Buddy," Faddy O'Connor, Tom Cunningham. They all looked in good trim. We were pinning our faith in them to show the seniors the way. And they did. But they gave us many a shock in the last quarter of the game. We thought they were finished, but they held out in great style and the first leg of the double was up.

There were scenes of great enthusiasm as the boys were "chaired" off the pitch. Hats, coats, flags were flung into the air and it is very doubtful if their owners ever saw them again, at least in their original condition, at any rate. At last all the hand clapping and cheering died down. The "big moment" was fast approaching. We were all quivering and shaking with excitement. Will the seniors do their stuff, was the question we were all anxiously asking ourselves. We went over their great victories during the championship, we discussed local boys and over again all the pros and cons; and arrived at the same conclusion every time—they were going to win. But I think that each of us, despite our outward show of confidence, was a little bit jittery about the result. We were not showing it, though, not to the wise-cracking Dubliners behind us at any rate. Every sally of theirs we countered and returned on the double. We might be "pure ignorant county boys" come to Dublin but we were going to show these Dubliners a thing or two. Someone near us began to hum "Now is the Hour" very appropriately, I thought. Some Waterford lads to the right of us began to spell out the name of their county—W-a-t-e-r-f-o-r-d, Waterford. It was greeted with a wild cheer. But then from behind us came—D-u-b-l-i-n, Dublin. They got a laugh and a cheer. We were now fast reaching the stage when we would laugh and cheer at anything that would help to relieve the tension.

At long last two senior teams were on the field. What a mighty roar greeted the Deise colours! I thought we were taken from all angles. When this was over, we watched the Dublin men loosening up. They hopped about; they stretched their legs and their hands; they swung their hurleys at imaginary balls; they smiled confidently—in fact they gave a very polished performance of a team that had nothing to fear. We were not a bit impressed, however. Their antics left us quite cold. On the other hand, our boys began to loosen up in a simple, natural manner. They did not try to impress the crowd with any spectacular semi-gymnastic exercises. They were a look of confidence as much as to say, "This is our day and nobody will deprive us of it." The parade then began; the bands struck up, flags began to wave, and the cheering became deafening. Around the field they went, the men from the Deise and the men from Dublin town; strong, able, fit, and trained men, ready to do or die in the titanic struggle ahead. The parade is over. The Artane Band has played "Faith of Our Fathers" and the National Anthem. The backs are in position. Archbishop Kinane is coming on to the pitch to start the game. The whistles go. The match is on. Dublin have the first over, but Waterford then get going. They get into their stride. There is a clash of hurleys in the Dublin back lines as the Dublin men try to keep out the Deise forwards. These opening minutes are breath-taking. Then comes Waterford's first score. Christy Moylan, our own townsman has cut a beauty off the ground and it sails over for a point. The cheering is deafening. And on the side of battle flows. The scores mount in burr avour. Dublin are cracking under the might of the men of the Deise. Victory isn't right. The interval comes and we have a good lead. Behind us the Dublin supporters are quiet. They are bewildered; they can't understand it; they have no excuse to offer. I COURSED AND TRACKED

"WESTERN POST" WINS IRISH DERBY

I paid a visit to Shelbourne Park on Saturday night last to see the final of the Greyhound Derby and I must say it was a thrilling sight. The six finalists looked a picture and it is interesting to note that Castledown Lad is grand-sire of four of the six, and three of them finished first, second and third. This must be a record and again proves that the well-bred ones with ordinary luck get there. Several people had asked my opinion as to the running of the finalists and I must say that there is no doubt that the best dog won. The favourite, Harvest King, may have been a shade unlucky owing to a bad break and slight interference when he made an effort at the first bend but apart from that he was never going like a winner. In fact I have seen the finals of most of the big races since 1927 and I have never seen a final with less bunching or interference and I must pay a tribute to the management and groundsmen at Shelbourne for the grand condition of the track; also the splendid business-like manner in which the racing was run off. There were no delays and everything was according to plan. The total prize-money on Saturday night according to the card was £1,641. Again I say, good luck Shelbourne, and I hope the management of provincial tracks whom I noticed present will have gained a little experience from Saturday night and put a little Shelbourne touch into the locals.

On account of the hurling final on Sunday quite a number of people travelled on Saturday and had the pleasure of seeing all the champions, dogs and men, and the Waterford men were there in full strength at both finals. I felt very proud to be one of them. I am looking forward to seeing a Waterford greyhound taking the blue riband (Derby) to Waterford in the near future and prove that we can produce the dogs as well as the men.

I am sure most of my readers who were at Shelbourne on Saturday night have the race card and I would ask them to compare the information as regards the form of the dogs in the different races with the cards produced on local tracks and they will see how the Dublin greyhound public are catered for. As I said before, Dublin give their patrons every information possible to enable them to access the chances of the runners. The information served up on some of the provincial tracks is like a crossword puzzle without a clue.

I would suggest that all tracks be compelled to give their patrons at least a fair summary of the dog's form stating the trap number in previous outings and their best winning time during the current season. At present a dog can run two bad trials and even though he has done good time in his last race all the information we get on the race card is his latest trials. That may be alright for people who keep a record of all dogs running on local tracks but as we all know the ordinary man does not do so and it is up to the track officials to give fuller details as to form etc. That is their job and let us hope they will carry it out as it seems to me they have ample time with only two nights racing a week and only trials on two days. The Dublin racing officials hold trials every day and during three nights weekly, also several sales monthly, and they can find time to give their patrons all necessary information as can be seen by their race cards.

The Waterford Boys (Champions of Ireland's Senior and Minor Hurlers, 1948).

Were you ever in dear old Waterford Where flows the silvery Suir. Where the grass is green the whole year round. And the air is mild and pure. —Old Song.

For the boys of the Decies we'll now raise a cheer, Who beat all the champions and won in high gear; Both Seniors and Minors they proved themselves men, So we'll give one more cheer for those heroes again.

Clare, Cork and Galway went down in defeat, And the hurlers from Dublin at Croke Park they beat; The Minors there too gave a polished display When the boys from Kilkenny they conquered that day.

Erin's Own and Dungarvan, Mount Sion and Clonca, The boys from each club gave a gallant display.

Sarsfield, Na Risiq and sweet Cappoquin, The stars from those teams helped the Minors to win. With Jim Ware in the goal, Casack, Fleming and Keane, Each charge and fierce onslaught those heroes withstood; Whilst the forwards Tom Curran and Daly there above prize, Keane, Baston and Moylan were out on their own.

Willie Galvin starred there and Eddie Carew, And Johnny O'Connor played elegant too. Whilst Kevin O'Connor, Mick Hickey, Mick Hayes, Their skill, style and dash we'll remember always.

So we'll now drink a health to the gallant display, Both Seniors and Minors, they both have won through; Now Champions of Ireland they've each gained the prize, So who can compare with the Waterford Boys?

MICHAEL WALSH, Ballymore, Kilkenny, September 5th, 1948.

TALLOW NEWS

ORBITARY Expressions of deep and sincere regret were expressed over wider areas of West Waterford and East Cork on the announcement of the death of Mrs. J. Hoare, Lishenny, Tallow, which sad event occurred recently at Dungarvan Hospital, following a short illness, and to her beloved husband and relatives the deepest sympathy of their many friends and the general public is extended in their sorrowful bereavement.

Evidence of the respect felt at deceased's passing was illustrated fully by the dimensions of the cortege present at the removal of the remains from Dungarvan to the church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, where they were received at the entrance by Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C. Requiem Masses having been offered for the repose of deceased's soul, at the Carmelite Convent, Tallow, the interment took place in the new cemetery adjoining the church, in the presence of a very large cortege of mourners, relatives, friends and the general public. Rev. Fr. Condon, C.C., officiated at the graveside, R.I.P. Chief mourners present were Mr. J. Hoare (husband); Mr. John Browne (brother); Messrs. Patrick, Dan and David Hoare (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Ferrell, Mary, Willie, Michael, Lee, Gerald and John Griffin, the Misses Bridie, Rita and Hattie, Willis, Mrs. Wm. Hoare and family, Mrs. P. Hoare and family, and Mrs. David Hoare and family (cousins and relatives).

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS

HOLIDAY-MAKERS. Domiciled in the land of the rose is Mrs. W. Knott (nee Hannigan), who is spending a holiday in her native Bonmahon, accompanied by her son Michael. Both are in radiant health and spirits and are enjoying every moment of their stay amongst relatives and friends, who are glad to be renewing happy acquaintance with them. Incidentally, Mrs. Knott is a cousin of Mr. Veale, insurance agent, Seaford, Bonmahon, and her present visit to her birthplace is the first after an absence of twelve years.

NICE TO NOTE.—That the work of building a new school at Fews, Kilmacthomas, is proceeding apace, and will when completed provide a commodious and comfortable structure for the children of the district and their excellent teachers, Mrs. J. O'Donovan, N.T., and Mrs. E. Cunningham, N.T.

SYMPATHY. Widespread sympathy is extended to Mrs. J. O'Neill, Portlaoise, on the death of her father, the late Mr. W. Cooper, Monastery Street, Waterford; and to Mr. C. O'Connor, Fews, on the death of his cousin, the late Mr. C. O'Connor, Cush, Grange, West Waterford.

NEW HOMES. Having just completed the erection of a beautiful bungalow at Newtown, Waterford, for Mr. N. F. Dunne, B.E., assistant county surveyor, the well-known mid-Waterford building contractor, Messrs Barry O'Donovan, started this week on the work of erecting the first of 19 spacious dwellings to be built by them here in the heart of the Deise county. They have begun this fresh contract at Leamybrien, and all of these parts will note with pleasure the appearance in due course of these new residences in this fair and fertile region.

DEATHS IN EXILE. Mr. Wm. Maye, who died recently in Boston, Mass., U.S.A., was a brother of Mr. Michael Maye, Curra-baha, Kilmacthomas; Mrs. Bridget Troy, widow, do., and Mrs. Minnie Fitzgerald, widow, Cooltur, do., to whom many expressions of sincere sympathy have been tendered in their sorrow. Formerly of Grawn, in the parish of Kilkenny, was Mr. Michael Whelan, who had died in New York City, N.Y., U.S.A. He leaves a widow and family of two sons and one daughter, with whom much sympathy felt in their sad bereavement and loss.

NUPTIALS. Felicitations are cordially offered to Mr. Matthew Loneran, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Loneran, Kilmacthomas, and Miss Catherine Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hayes, Leamybrien, do., on their recent marriage, which was solemnized at St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilkenny, on Tuesday morning, 7th inst., by Rev. Fr. M. J. Hackett, P.P., do., who was also celebrant of the nuptial Mass. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by Miss Mary Kett, Leamybrien, as bridesmaid. Mr. James Healy, Bury, Dungarvan, acted as best man. The wedding breakfast was held at Ocean View Hotel, Clonca. Bridegroom and bride are surrounded by an exceedingly well-wished family in the social and sporting life of their natal district, and they received a large array of serviceable and costly wedding presents. We unite with their friends in wishing them every success in their future.

Ballymacarbery & Nire Valley Musings. Scholarship Winner.—Among the successful pupils awarded a scholarship as a result of an examination conducted by the Waterford County Council scheme, is Master John J. Phelan, son of Mrs. M. Phelan and the late Pat Phelan, Graigangour, Ballymacarbery. Master Phelan is a pupil of the late Mr. Phelan, C.B.S., at Dungarvan. We heartily congratulate him on his success, which we hope is but the forerunner of many more in the near future.

Portlaoise Abu.—Quite a big number of enthusiastic supporters from the area journeyed to the capital to see the gallant Deise men bring great honours and fame to the home county. Hats off and cheers for our All-Ireland champions.

Racing at Powersdown.—On Thursday, 2nd inst., Powersdown Park was once again the "mecca" of race-goers, and all declare that better racing has never been witnessed at this most popular racing centre, which was in excellent condition despite the almost continuous downpour of rain of the previous days.

Storm.—A storm which at times reached gale force passed over this area on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, followed by torrential rain. Corn cut and uncut was lodged and badly damaged in many places, while corn and wheat stacked in the fields were blown and knocked to the ground.

Circus at Ballymacarbery.—On Thursday evening of last week John Duffy & Sons' Circus visited Ballymacarbery, and despite the very adverse weather conditions which prevailed, circus excitement was high and a large gathering of children and adults enjoyed a very pleasant night's entertainment.

Touraneena Priest on Holidays.—Rev. Fr. J. Flynn, of the English Mission, is at present on holidays in his native Touraneena. He is in excellent health and spirits, and his many friends wish him an enjoyable holiday.

FAMOUS SPORTING TROPHIES

The ALL-IRELAND HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

The All-Ireland Hurling Championship has been played every year since 1887, but the great trophy that goes to the winning county in Ireland to-day may be said to have come into existence in 1921—its first holders being Limerick. It was the late Mr. Liam McCarthy, London, who presented the trophy to the Association, and many are the milestones in G.A.A. history on which the name of the donor could be fittingly inscribed. The All-Ireland Hurling Trophy stands for this greatest of old Irish games as it is played by champions. Cork, nine times the winner; Kilkenny, six times; Tipperary, five; and Limerick, four. The trophy is a silver cup, 10 inches high, and is presented to the winner of the final match in a gala ceremony at Croke Park, Dublin, on the day of the final match.

Late Mr. Wm. Walsh, Fitzgerald Terrace.—It is with much regret that we record the death of Mr. William Walsh, Fitzgerald's Terrace, Dungarvan, which occurred after an illness of some months at an early age. Mr. Walsh was a gentleman of his finger tips, kind obliging and understanding. He was also a fine sportsman. He was possessed of a fine talent for house decoration, an art in which he excelled. He served with distinction also for some months in the National Army. His untimely death is a great blow to his bereaved wife and two little children and the heartfelt sympathy of the community is tendered to them in their sorrow. Swimming News.—The Dungarvan Swimming Club has achieved one of its greatest honours to date by the success of one of its youngest members, at the Cork Open Air Baths on Sunday last when Miss Mary Hill daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hill, of Church Street, won the 100 yards freestyle championship of Munster from a big number of competitors from all the leading clubs in Munster in the excellent time of 79 and two-fifths seconds. The members of the club and all the swimming enthusiasts in town congratulate our youthful champion on this great feat at such a young age and will be looking out for her name in future big swim events. Miss Marie McCarthy daughter of Dr. Casey (Rich) also proved that she is going from strength to strength by being placed in the 100 yards free style and the 100 metres. Another member of the ladies section of the Club who is showing great promise is Miss Nina Brazil who will undoubtedly be heard of next season. The competition for the Nolan Cup will be held at the Pool on Sunday next at 11.30 a.m.

The winners of the major trophies at the juvenile gala held recently were John Begley (Dr. Casey Rich Cup). These cups were competed for on a points system over a number of events and the individual winners received medals.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

OBITUARY. It is with very deep and sincere regret that we record the death of Mr. John Hurley, which sad event occurred at his residence, Knockask, Cappoquin, on Monday, 30th August, following a brief illness and at the ripe old age of 93 years. Deceased was a member of an old and highly respectable family and was throughout his long and honoured life held in the highest esteem over a very wide area, where he was so well and so popularly known. His life was long and eventful. In his early days, he served as a horse soldier in the Royal Artillery and later spent some years in the R.I.C., following which he was appointed game-keeper for the Cappoquin Estate Company, which responsible position he held for many years. Of a genial and unassuming disposition, deceased was always a favourite and his passing, even in the very fullness of years, has evoked expressions of the deepest sympathy. To his bereaved family and relatives our deep sympathy is extended. A last and fitting tribute to his esteem and respect in which he was held was amply demonstrated by the large and representative cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains to the parish of St. Declan's Cemetery on Tuesday evening, where they were received at the Church Gates by Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P., Cappoquin, Rev. Fr. Carroll and Rev. Fr. Hackett. On Wednesday morning, Solemn Requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul and the funeral took place in the presence of the interment took place in the presence of an equally large gathering of relatives and friends. Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Dunphy, C.C., officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners were: John and Patrick Hurley, New York; Wm. Hurley, London, and John Hurley, Knockask (sons); Mrs. Kathleen Johnson, Caroline, U.S.A. (daughter); Mrs. Helen Hurley, New York; Mrs. Kathleen Hurley, Cappoquin (daughters-in-law); Mr. Johnstone U.S.A. (son-in-law); John, James, Michael and Margaret Hurley, Cappoquin; Alfred John Billy and Peggie Hurley, Mrs. Virginia Sharp, U.S.A. (grandchildren); Mr. James Maher, Newcastle (nephew).

45 DRIVE. The Cappoquin Hurling and Football Club will hold their Annual 45 Drive on Sunday, October 24th. The cards for same are now available.

CELEBRATIONS. On Tuesday night our town took on an air of gaiety, festivity and rejoicing such as it had not known for years. The whole town became alive and the people of all ages since the great day, were suddenly released and the jubilation and enthusiasm of every man, woman and child became so exuberant that it was a great occasion and an important one and called for such celebrations. Nothing was too big for those young men, who were instrumental in bringing such honour and glory to Cappoquin and our county.

The parade was timed for 9 o'clock and the principal numbers of people gathered at the Pike to await the arrival of the players. The downpour of rain did not mar their enthusiasm. Their spirits, for the excitement was feverish and the rain seemingly not felt. Bon fires were lighted at various points along the route and all at the principal streets of the town. Shortly after nine o'clock the players arrived amidst terrific cheering which was whistled and sung. The parade was headed by members of the local Hurling Club bearing banners and flags, followed by the Accordion Band, the band of the local Hurling Club, and the players, who were marching at each side of the coach bearing torches, etc. The players were introduced individually to the public and each one got a rousing reception. The celebrations were brought to a close by the playing of the National Anthem. The local players were: Michael O'Connor, M. Browne, M. Kelleher, Vincent Walsh, Billy Conway and T. Flynn.

VICTORY CELEBRATION. On Sunday night next a grand victory parade takes place at the Boat-house Hall under the auspices of the local G.A.A. Club. A wonderful night is anticipated and members of the teams will be present. Dancing commences at 9 p.m.

SUCCESSFUL CELL. On Wednesday night, Sept. 1, a very successful cell was held in the Boat-house in aid of the training fund. Despite very inclement weather, large numbers were present and a really enjoyable night was spent by all. Splendid music was rendered by the Ceoltoir Coismoire Cell Band.

Late Mr. C. O'Connor, Grange.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. C. O'Connor, Cush, Grange. A member of a well known and popular family, the deceased was a general favourite, and noted for his many amiable characteristics. A practical farmer, he was a well known breeder of pedigree stock. His demise has occasioned deep and widespread regret, and much sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife, daughters and brother. The remains were removed to Grange Church, and the accompanying cortege was of large and representative proportions. Following the celebration of Requiem Masses for the eternal repose of his soul, the interment took place in the local cemetery, R.I.P.

New Business.—Mr. D. Cullinane, the popular English victualler, has opened a branch in Clashmore. Mr. Cullinane is to be congratulated on his enterprise, and it is hoped that he will receive generous support.

THE ALL-IRELAND FINAL

goal by Colleder. Browne got a next point for Waterford and after some fierce onslaughts Murphy had a Kilkenny goal. The Waterford defences were severely tested in the closing minutes but they weathered the storm to win by 4-2 to 4-2.

Before concluding with this double Deise victory we feel that a special word of thanks and appreciation is due to the following.—The four senior selectors, Messrs. C. Ware, M. Cullen (Erin's Own), D. Shanahan (Clonca) and T. Lannen (Dungarvan); the five minor selectors, viz. Rev. Bro. Murray, Superior, Dungarvan (C.B.S.), P. Cunningham (Cappoquin), P. Fanning (Mount Sion), Rev. Bro. O'Connor (Mount Sion) and M. Gallagher (do.). To Dr. D. T. McCarthy, Hon. Physician to the teams, who spared nothing in an endeavour to have both fifteens in the pink of condition in taking the field in all their games; the two trainers, Messrs. Jack Ware (Erin's Own) and M. Foley, B.A., N.T. Abbeystee—a brace of men who know all the finer points of the game; the two messengers, Messrs. Peter Croft and J. Power, Dungarvan, whose manipulations on the senior fifteen for all their matches had them as supple and fit as the proverbial fiddle. Nor must we forget the supporters of whom every man, woman and child in the county and city, who were able to travel, were at Croke Park and gave our teams such full-hearted and hearty support as was rarely if ever heard in that famous arena before, and finally the Co. Declan G.A.A. officials and in particular Mr. Declan Goode, Secretary, who worked at top pressure, morning, noon and night in attending to the hundred and one details that arise in connection with one, not to speak of two All-Ireland finals.

WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES. By "AN RUNAIDHE." ALL-IRELAND FINALS. I will not take up much space on this topic as every man, woman and child in the County and City of Waterford and every Waterford person in all corners of the world are by now fully aware of the great victories of last Sunday. I must, however, add my congratulations to both teams and also to the selectors and trainers. Our senior hurlers were easily the fittest team ever to wear the county colours and the supposed fast Dublin team was beaten for speed in all sectors.

The minors gave supporters a bit of a shock, but what was unknown to all was that one of the cars conveying the players in from Naas, had a rather serious accident which had its effect on some of them. However, they won and that is the main thing. It is all over now but history has been made and although the scenes in Croke Park will forever remain in my memory, it is by the magnificent reception which the teams received in Waterford City on Monday night that I shall always recall the All-Ireland Hurling Final of 1948. Never was such a sight seen in Waterford City and I believe it will never be repeated.

WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIPS. At Lismore on Sunday next Cappoquin meet Ballyduff in the third round of the junior hurling championship. Ballyduff defeated St. Patrick's in the first round and had a bye in the second. As St. Patrick's fielded a complete new junior team this year they proved poor opposition for Ballyduff who won easily and it is difficult to judge the merits of the team. However, Ballyduff were always in top-class and can be relied upon to field a good fifteen.
