Kiely, M.H.

A very interesting and enjoyable function took place at Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan, on Saturday night of last week, when Mr. Thomas Kiely M.H.,

M.F.H.; K. J. Mulcany, ex-M.F.H.; and Capt. J. Wall.

Making the presentation, Mr. Lynch said he was sorry that their president could not attend. He thought he would be the most desirable man to preside at a function like this, but he sent his apologies for not being able to be present. The duty, therefore, devolved on him (Mr. Lynch) to make the presentation, and it was unnecessary for him to say that it was a very pleasant duty. He would like to congratulate Mr. Kiely on his selection. Mrs. Kiely was a very fine type of Irish girl and would be a credit to any man as his wife. Paying tribute to the work of Mr. Kiely as M.H., Mr. Lynch said they were really lucky in having a man of Tommy Kiely's calibre in keeping hunting going. As he had often said before, Tommy Kiely was one of the few. "There is one man missing to-night," said Mr. Lynch, "an outstanding man in covert or saddle, and he is Jack Wall. We all regret that he is ill and could not come. Before I came here I went to see him and he asked me to convey his feli-that Messrs. Kenny, Fives and Lynch had said so much that there was very little for him to say, except that in early days when they started the pack that whenever any advice or help was needed, they were always able to get it from Tom Kiely. Needless to say, when they started they had difficulties, and as Mr. Kenny said that the future will have bigger ones, but with Mr. Kiely's help they would be get over.

All the other members present at the function followed in paying tribute to Mr. Kiely and wishing him and Mrs. Kiely many happy years, and concluded by toasting Mr. Kiely singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mr. Kiely, replying, regretted that Messrs, J. Wall and Jas. Hayes could not attend. He expressed his appreciation of what the members had done for him and the nice things they had said about him. He thought he did not deserve them. He hoped in the future to do his best for hunting the future to do his best for hunting and to keep the Harriers going. He concluded by expressing again his appreciation of the presentation made to him and the tributes paid to
