WEST WATERFORD NEWS.

CLASHMORE "45" DRIVE.
A successful "45" drive, under the auspices of the local Parish Council and in aid of Parochial Funds, was held in Clashmore on Sunday night last. There was a record attendance and arrangements were in charge of Rev. Fr. D. Slattery, C.C.; Messrs. W. Dowler M.C.C.; J. Lenane, T. Fitzgerald, M. Collins, E. Hartry and C. Curran. The attendance included Very Rev. Fr. W. Flynn, P.P., and Very Rev. Fr. P. Ahearne, P.P.

The prizewinners were—1st, M. Ward and M. Cunningham; 2nd, J. Baker and F. Lennon (subs. for K. Connors and P. Ronayne); 3rd, J. Curran and P. Ormonde. Consolation Prizes—M. Bagge, M. Baker, T. Connolly, T. Hallinan. Result of Draw—1st, Michael Kelly, Monaree, Youghal; 2nd, Very Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P.; 3rd, Mrs. K. Coyne. Clashmore. The promoters desire to return thanks to all who contributed to the success of the card drive and drawing of prizes.

HUNTING.
The big annual Christmas season meet of the West Waterfords will take place in Clashmore this year on Monday, 27th December, and the usual big crowd will flock to this popular sporting centre. A record "field" is expected and a great day's sport is assured.

THE WEATHER.
In common with other parts of the country this area of West Waterford suffered badly from the effects of the recent storms and floods. In several cases low-lying land was completely inundated, and due to the sodden condition of the soil agricultural operations were brought to a standstill.

AGLISH DANCE.
A successful dance, under the popular auspices of the Bricket Social Club was held in the Glebe Hall, Aglish, on Sunday night last. There was a good attendance and all had a pleasant time. In addition to the sparkling strains of the Orpheus Ballroom Orchestra, Waterford. As usual catering arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of Mrs. Reynolds.

AGLISH CELEBRITY CONCERT.
A grand celebrity concert will be held at Aglish (Glebe Hall) on Sunday night next, 19th inst. Leading artists will contribute to a first-class programme. Included in the list of contributors are Paddy MacManus, one of Ireland's leading tenors; Reuben Hurst, Junr., Youghal; Crissey Gibby, Cork; Michael Clancy, Rita Mulcahy, John Owens, etc.

As the concert is in aid of a most commendable object, it is hoped that generous patronage will be forthcoming. A dance will follow and the music will be supplied by the enterprising Bride's Serenaders. Catering will be by Mrs. Reynolds.

XMAS.
Signs of the close proximity of Christmas are now evident on all sides. The shops are well stocked with reasonable fare and trade is brisk.

CARD GAMES.
Card games for turkeys and geese have been held in practically every townland during the past few weeks. Big numbers of card enthusiasts turned out to try their luck and it wasn't uncommon to have 30 or 40 "sixes" playing for a pair of geese.

DEATH OF MR. T. LYNCH.
KEREEN.
The death occurred recently of Mr. Thomas Lynch Kereen. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was a general favourite, noted for his many amiable characteristics, and his demise has occasioned regret amongst his numerous friends, while sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives. The funeral to Clashmore churchyard was of very large and representative proportions. Rev. Fr. D. Power, C.C., Aglish, officiated at the interment.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.
A meeting of the Youghal No. 2 (Rural) Old Age Pensions Committee will be held in Clashmore on to-night (Saturday) at 8.30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

CAPPOQUIN BACON FACTORY.
The attention of farmers and pig feeders is directed to the fact that Mr. J. O'Donovan, Clashmore, is local agent for the above factory. Pigs will be collected by lorry each Monday.

OATS.
Since the price was fixed for the oat crop several farmers in this area have disposed of it. A big number of farmers had, however, already disposed of it at a lower price as they hadn't the necessary facilities for storage.

TILLAGE.
It is expected that notwithstanding the abolition of compulsory tillage there will not be an appreciable decrease in the area under crops in 1949 as all farmers had already a big area "broken." A substantial reduction is, however, expected in 1950, resulting in less employment on the land.

WATERFORD SENIOR HURLING FINAL

MOUNT SION'S CLEAR-CUT VICTORY.

By defeating Avonmore on the above score in the county decider at the Gaelic Field, Waterford, on the day last, Mount Sion took their sixth championship in ten years. Avonmore, a combination of five junior clubs from the West, disappointed their followers by the poor display given, as much more was expected from those who had during the year disposed of Clones, Bricket Rangers, St. Patrick's and Dungarvan in the West Division. In contrast to their tactics in all the preceding matches played, in which first time ground pulling paid such dividends, each and every one of the Avonmore team on Sunday last tried lifting the ball and about nine times out of ten were disappointed in the process. In sharp contrast to the smooth combination displayed by the winners, the losers played all through as individuals, a fact which lost them many opportunities. While the final score would indicate a very one-sided match, it was by no means this, and had the Avonmore forwards, particularly the full line, been able to evade the attentions of the Mount Sion backs, they got sufficient chances to raise at least four or five green favours, but so closely were they marked that Waters from the Mount Sion sticks had no difficulty in clearing all shots directed at his posts.

Mount Sion led 6-4 to 0-2 at half-time, but the majority of their second half scores came in the last ten minutes against the unrelenting fight of Avonmore who are to be complimented for battling it out stubbornly to the last minute.

Mount Sion scores came from T. Gallahue (2-2), M. Healy (2-2), J. Keane (1-3), T. Keane (2-0), M. Heffernan (1-0), M. Flannely (1-0), and P. Fanning (0-1); while T. Fives said Avonmore who are to be complimented for battling it out stubbornly to the last minute.

LABOUR COURT WAS SHOCKED
At a special sitting of the Labour Court in Carrick-on-Suir to arbitrate on a dispute between the A.S.W.U. and Messrs. Plunder and Pollock, Ltd., tanners, Carrick, in connection with the dismissal of an employee, Mr. R. J. P. Mortlish, Chairman, said that the court had been shocked by evidence concerning timekeeping and clocking-in. No business could be run properly unless there was honesty in regard to timekeeping and reasonable punctuality. He suggested to the workers that an honest day's work should be given for what the Union and employer agreed was a proper day's pay. The court's decision, he said, would be announced.

Mr. Gilbert Lynch, the Union Organiser, agreed with the Chairman's views.

I COURSED AND TRACKED

SPLENDID COURSING AT NEWTOWN.

I must give top marks to the men of Newtown and Kilmacomas for the grand sport served up under the very adverse circumstances they had to contend with at their initial meeting. Everything was against them, the weather prior to the meeting being very bad and the day of the meeting, the 8th December, turning out one of the worst days this year. Yet, we saw splendid coursing good well-trained hares, and very few fluky courses. This new club can be proud of their first meeting and from what I now know of the men in charge I can see this meeting in the coming years second to none.

The park is nicely situated and a few hundred yards from Newtown village with plenty space for car parking on the grounds.

I liked the way Mr. Joe Barron's "Rainbow Chaser" ran his courses in the Dog Trial Stake, as he showed pace and determination and he should go well in Kilmacomas later on. The winner of the Birch Trial Stake, Mrs. M. Ewens' "Fervent" was another that impressed me as she went with great fire and is a good runner of a hare.

As I have said before the new trial stake system is rather satisfactory as it is very hard to access the true merit of the winners at local meetings because the fact remains that the puppy stakes are now preliminary trial stakes and not trial stakes proper. We have numbers of puppies competing that under the old system their owners would not consider them good enough to enter in a trial stake, but at the moment the owner has no opportunity of wondering how the whole system will work out.

Should the present weather continue I am afraid the Christmas meetings will not be up to their usual standard as clubs will find it very hard to keep their hares in good condition. The weather, particularly like continuous bad weather, particularly when confined to small parks with inadequate shelter. However, a few fine days with a nip of frost will make all the difference, and like one of the old brigade was heard to say at Newtown (we will be saying) "Buck that's a grand hare."

Speaking of good hares it is amusing to hear the remarks of some of the present-day coursers meetings, in fact it is a rare thing to see more than a few turns in any course nowadays unless in the case of a hare not taking the escape. When I recall the open meeting of twenty years ago in Co. Kildare, Co. Meath and the grand old meetings in Lusk and Donabate, Co. Dublin, I wonder what the men nowadays would think if they saw a pair of dogs after about twenty turns disappearing out of sight and caught over a mile from where they were slipped and the dog never coming up fit and fresh for his next outing. I remember winning a stake at an open meeting in Lusk in 1930; in the second course the dogs crossed the main Dublin/Belfast road, and my dog was caught over two miles from the coursing field; yet he went to slips again and won out the stake, and a couple of weeks later won again at Dunshaughlin, Co. Meath—another open meeting—and it was an uncommon sight to see the judge jumping the fences after the dogs. Chuckers and hare-shy merchants did not raise many flags in those days, and followers were the least saw coursing and not greyhound racing without muzzles.

CAOL FOR MAN WHO SLASHED LORRY TYRES

"SHEER VANDALISM"—DISTRICT JUSTICE.

CASE AT DUNGARVAN COURT.

At Dungarvan District Court on Tuesday, before District Justice O'Keefe, Joseph Egan (21), messenger boy, Cahill Street, was convicted on two charges of damaging two tyres of a lorry by cutting them with a sharp instrument on November 12th, and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently.

Supt. P. O'Mahony, Dungarvan, prosecuted. Mr. J. J. Kenny, solicitor for defendant, pleaded not guilty. The damage to the tyres was stated to be £3d. Mr. O'Donovan, native of Co. Cork, said he was a lorry owner and was employed by C.I.E. to draw beet on November 12, 1948, was driving a lorry from Ardmore and finished work at about 7 p.m. Witness left the lorry outside his lodgings in Mitchell Street at about 7.15 p.m. Witness locked the lorry before he went into his lodgings. As a consequence of something that was said to witness the latter went out to the lorry and found one of the tyres punctured. The tyre, as far as witness could see, was cut by a sharp instrument. There was a cut of about 4 inches in it, cut clean through to the tube. Witness estimated the damage at £3d.

Mr. C. O'Donovan, a brother of last witness, said he was hauling beet from Ardmore for C.I.E. and on November 12 when he finished work he left the lorry outside his lodgings, which was the same house as his brother was staying in. Later on as a result of something witness heard he went out at about 7.45 p.m. and heard a tyre on his lorry blowing off. Witness examined it and came to the conclusion that it had been cut. On the following morning witness found a nail in the tyre, but it was not cut clean through. Witness estimated the damage to the tyre at £3d.

Mr. Kenny, witness said he had never heard of defendant and never had a row with him. Inspector Hayes said he was deputising for Supt. O'Mahony at that time and investigated the case and interviewed the defendant at the Garda Station and took a statement from defendant after he had been cautioned. Witness read the statement over for defendant, who said it was correct and signed it. Guard O'Dea was present at the time.

When witness was about to read the statement Mr. Kenny objected to it being admitted in evidence. After hearing Mr. Kenny's grounds for the objection, the Justice said he would hear evidence as regards the objection.

To questions by Mr. Kenny, Inspector Hayes said that he was not aware of the time defendant was arrested. Witness read the statement from defendant at 4.30 when defendant came himself to the office. Mr. Kenny—Where was he before he appeared here now? Witness—Somewhere in the Garda room. I presume. I did not see him at all. Did you give him any advice for the purpose of inducing him to give a statement? Certainly not. He came into the office by himself and said to me that he wanted to make a statement. There was no inducement good, bad or indifferent.

What was your impression as regards his mental ability? The first time I saw him I did get the impression that he was not of average intelligence. Replied to the Justice, witness said that defendant came in on his own to witness's office to make his statement, and after he had made it witness read it over for him and he seemed to know what he had said. Guard J. O'Dea said he came into the office during the course of the statement being made. Witness heard the statement being read for defendant and saw him signing it. Supt. O'Mahony—Was there any threat made? Witness—I heard no threat.

Mr. Kenny—There was no threat. I said an inducement, sir. Continuing, witness said that defendant appeared to witness to know and understand what he was doing. Mr. Kenny (to witness)—Was defendant dictating the statement or was it by question and answer? Witness—When I entered the office the defendant was dictating it. I heard no questions or answers. Joseph Egan (21), defendant, said that Sergt. Liddane and Guard Farrell came to the shop in which he was employed at about 2 or 3.30 and arrested him on a Saturday. When they got to the barracks Sergt. Liddane continued witness; asked him why he cut the tyre. "I said," continued witness, "that I did not cut them, and then he said he had three witnesses to say I did. I was put in a cell then. At about 5 o'clock Sergt. Liddane showed me up to the Inspector's room. Before that he said to me that I was going to be sent to Cork. My father had gone into hospital on the same day and I wanted to get out of the barracks, so I made the statement to the Inspector.

Cross-examined by Supt. O'Mahony—I suggest that when Sergt. Liddane saw you first that he did not arrest you, but asked you to come to the station to ask you about your movements. Isn't that right? Witness—I went down with the two of them. Did you make a statement to Sergeant Liddane? I did and I said I didn't cut the tyre.

And you made a statement to the Inspector? I did. And you also made one in the presence of the Peace Commissioner? I did. Who told you to make that? Sergeant Liddane asked me if I cut the second tyre and I said I did. You told the Inspector you cut the tyre; why did you change your mind before the Peace Commissioner? Sergeant Liddane came in and gave me a bit of advice.

When you made the statement before the Peace Commissioner you knew you were going out on bail? I did not know I was going out on bail until after the statement was made. Were you threatened in any way?

Mr. Kenny—There is no suggestion of a threat at all. To the Justice, witness said that the Inspector told him that he could make a statement of his own free will. Justice—Did you realise that making this statement admitting this offence was a serious matter? Witness—Yes.

When you were charged before the Peace Commissioner did you know him? Yes. When you were charged before him did you make any suggestion that the statement was obtained from you by an inducement that you could get out on bail if you made it? No. He only asked me if I had any quarrel against the Donovans.

To further questions, witness said he had made the statement to the Inspector to get out of the barracks. The Inspector did not force him to make it. Sergt. Liddane said that the statement by defendant in evidence as to what happened before and after he (defendant) came to the barracks was not entirely correct. When witness went to defendant where he was employed witness asked him would he mind coming down to the barracks to account for his movements. He said he didn't mind. Witness asked the man in charge of the shop if he minded and he said he didn't. Witness brought the defendant to the sergeant's office and asked him to account for his movements on the night before. Witness cautioned him and said that he had certain information about his movements that night. The defendant denied that he had anything to do with the tyre. Witness added that defendant's account of his movements was not the same as the information witness had.

Justice—You have heard the evidence that he said you informed him that you had two or three witnesses to corroborate him of these offences; is there any truth in that? Witness—That is not true at all. I had no witness. Mr. Kenny—Would you say that he is of high average intelligence? Witness—I investigated a case which he was in before with five other boys and he was the last of the six to admit it.

Questioned as regards Egan's going to the Inspector's office to make the statement alleged to have been made there, Sergt. Liddane said he met Egan coming out of the day-room and he asked witness where was the Inspector's office. Witness told him where it was. Witness had told him that he was getting bail before making the other statement as he had no doubt that he would be remanded on bail.

To the Justice, witness said—"He asked me if he would not get bail where would he go and I said Cork. Some of his relations at the time did refuse to go bail for him." The Justice said that having heard the evidence of the Inspector, Sergt. Liddane and the other Guard, he had no hesitation in admitting the statements in evidence. He did not believe defendant's evidence that there was any inducement held out to him or that Sergt. Liddane made a statement to him as the defendant alleged that he (Sergt. Liddane) had witnesses. "I have heard Sergt. Liddane give evidence in cases for a number of years now," said the Justice, "and he has given it in an exceptionally fair way, and I cannot for any reason imagine that he would make such a statement to defendant. I am satisfied that he did not make such a statement."

The Justice then ruled that the alleged statement be admitted in evidence and the Inspector proceeded to read it. In the course of the alleged statement it was stated that Egan left his place of employment at 7.0 p.m. or 7.15 p.m. to deliver messages and went up St. Mary Street along by Mitchell Street. The statement then went on to say that Egan saw a lorry outside a house in Mitchell Street and that while passing it he made a cut at one of the tyres. "When I heard the six coming out," continued the alleged statement, "I got frightened and ran down Scrammin's Lane." Mr. C. J. Murphy, P.C. Dungarvan, said that as he was coming in to the Garda Station on the evening in question he heard Egan saying to Sergt. Liddane that he cut one of the tyres, but the wind did not come out and he then cut the other tyre and when the wind came out he ran away down a lane.

Sergt. Liddane gave evidence of taking two statements from defendant, the first regarding defendant's movements on the night the tyre was cut and the other when, as stated, the Peace Commissioner came into the station room. Witness read the statement over to him and he said it was correct. When witness told defendant that he would be going out on bail he (witness) presumed that his relatives would bail him, but it was clear to witness that they came down to the station to bail him. In the course of the second statement alleged to have been made by defendant it was stated: "I cut one (tyre) but the wind did not come out and I then cut the other and the wind came out with a big noise and I ran away." In the statement it was also stated that there was a bigger cut in one tyre than the other. Asked what in his opinion caused the damage to the tyre, witness said that there was no doubt the tyre was cut by a knife or sharp instrument. When Mr. Kenny was cross-examining witness about the alleged statements, the Justice said he had heard evidence about them and he was satisfied they were properly made.

Guard L. Farrell said that accompanied by Guard Straine and defendant they went to the grounds of a house known as "The Beeches," O'Connell Street, after defendant had made the statement. They were going searching for a knife and they talked about it on the way up. Guard Straine had a bicycle. Witness asked defendant what kind of knife it was and he told witness it was a small one with a blue handle. "When we got to the place," said witness, "he pointed out where he threw it into the garden. We went in and searched for the knife. It was between daylight and dark. We did not find the knife." Continuing, witness said that on the way to the station defendant pointed out a knife in a shop window like the knife he had, but the one in the window had a red handle and his had a blue handle. To Mr. Kenny, witness said he also searched for the knife on the following day but didn't find it. To the Justice, witness said it would be difficult to find the knife as there was a lot of grass and leaves about the place. An assistant employed in the shop where defendant was messenger boy said he left work at about 7.15 p.m. on November 12 and met defendant outside Mrs. Curran's shop in Mitchell Street and they went to the street and witness saw him go into his sister's house in Mitchell Street near where the lorries were.

Mr. Kenny—Did you see him go to the lorry? Witness—No. He went into his sister's house. Michael Daly said he met defendant at 7.15 p.m. in the tyre shop at Scrammin's Lane. He (defendant) had parcels in his arms. This concluded the evidence for the prosecution, and Mr. Kenny submitted that the case was not conclusive and asked for a direction. He added that there was no evidence of malice or motive given. Justice—I am satisfied that there is a prima facie case. Evidence for the defence was then taken.

Joseph Egan, defendant, said he left the place of his employment about 7 on the night the tyre was cut to deliver parcels to a lady on Mary Street and met two shop assistants and was talking to them when the assistant from the London and Newcastle shop came along and they went up Mitchell Street to defendant's sister's house. The lorries were parked about 25 to 30 yards from his sister's house. The shop assistant left him at his sister's house and defendant went in, lit a cigarette and met his sister. Witness then went out and down Scrammin's Lane and met Dan O'Connell and turned down Scrammin's Lane and turned into O'Connell Street and passed the brewery to deliver the parcels he had. Witness then went up to the field to his house in Cahill Street. Witness's mother and sister were there and witness left the house about 7.45 p.m. or 7.50 to go to the pictures. Daly was waiting for witness at the corner and witness's sister passed them in the meantime. After that they went down to the pictures.

Mr. Kenny—Do you know the owners of the lorries? Witness—No. I never met them before at my life. What time did you deliver the messages? At about 7.30 and I was with me at the time. Cross-examined by Supt. O'Mahony as to why he told Guard Farrell about the knife, witness replied that he had made the statement before that. Superintendent—Had you the blue knife? Witness—I had no blue knife. Had your father one? No. Justice—You told Sergt. Liddane that one was bigger than the other. How did you know that? Witness—The Guards said that the wind went out of one but not out of the other. One of them must be bigger than the other. Did they tell you one cut was longer than the other? No. Did you tell Sergt. Liddane that one cut was bigger than the other? I did not. Did he read the statement over to you? He did. And didn't you hear that? Well, I heard a Guard say that the wind came out of one and not out of the other.

But how did you know and why did you say one cut was bigger than the other? Witness repeated the same answer. Witness—Are the statements true? Witness—No. Justice—Did Sergt. Liddane read over the statement to you? Witness—Yes. And you signed it? Yes. In that statement it says that you cut a larger cut in one tyre than the other? Yes. Where did you get that information? I only heard a Guard say that the wind went out of one and not the other. How did you know that one cut was larger than the other? Did Sergt. Liddane tell you that? No, sir.

Where did you get that information? Witness repeated his previous answer of having heard it said that the wind came out of one tyre and not out of the other. Justice—I am not asking you about the wind coming out. I am dealing with the cut being longer than the other—did you know that? Did Sergt. Liddane take down what you said? Yes. Can I take it so that you in fact said that one cut was longer than the other? I did not. The Justice at this stage asked for the third statement alleged to have been made by defendant to Sergt. Liddane and read: "I cut one first and the wind did not come out. I then cut a bigger one in the other and the wind came out with a big noise and I ran away." How did you know one cut was bigger than the other? When the wind came out of one and not out of the other, the other one was bigger. Explain that? That is the way they asked me the question and that is the way I answered it. Did the Guards tell you the tyre were cut? Yes. But they did not tell you the tyre were cut? No. Mrs. Egan, defendant's mother, said her son came in to his home about 25 minutes or 20 minutes to 8 on the night in question and left the house going on for 8 o'clock. This concluded the evidence for the defence.

The Justice said that it was a rather unusual case in many ways, unusual because as a result of malicious damage, a man committed himself to prison for a crime which he did not do. In law, however, it was not necessary for a motive or spite to be sufficient to commit the offence. Mr. Kenny said there was no less than three statements made and they all differed. In the first statement he denied responsibility for the act. In the second statement he admitted it. In the third statement he admitted it and in the fourth statement he admitted it and in the fifth statement he admitted it and in the sixth statement he admitted it and in the seventh statement he For Cattle Breeders.—Persons intending to exhibit at the Dublin Show, commencing on Sunday, December 20th, should send their entries to the Department of Agriculture, Dublin, not later than 10th January, 1949.

Golf Club Drive.—On Sunday next at the Clubhouse, Ballinacorney, the last of the series of the night 26 and the 25 5s. prize for the top score of the series will be awarded. "An Irish on Bantay Bay" produced by the pupils of the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan, on last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights was a unqualified success, and the large audience at each performance showed their appreciation of the high standard produced by each and every one of the 14 actresses taking part, whose ages ranged from 8 to 17 years. It is undoubtedly a marvellous production and everybody who saw it was amazed at the perfection shown by this group in songs (solos, duet and chorus), dance, dialogue and elocution and the spontaneous applause which followed each item from appreciative audiences must have been most gratifying to the actresses and to the producers. The fact that this colourful production, composed of nine groups of children, each group having distinctive costumes (and what unique costumes), and taking this in conjunction with the brilliant performance, one can readily estimate the amount of time and energy expended by the Mercy nuns in the staging of this operetta.

The Lord Mayor of Cork (Mr. M. Sheehan) who was in the audience, in a few brief words, expressed his delight at the wonderful show produced. We understand that a matinee performance will be staged on Friday (Christmas Eve) in our next issue we will give a list of the names of the children taking part.

MR. STEPHEN HANNEY. VILLAGESTOWN CAPPOQUIN. The death of Mr. Stephen Hanney, which occurred rather suddenly at his residence on Sunday, December 13th, has removed a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in West Waterford. A man of sterling qualities, honest, genial, unassuming and generous to a fault, his passing is Dungarvan District Court.

The Dungarvan District Court was held on Wednesday, before District Justice O. Rian.

Wireless Sets Prosecutions.—A fine of 10s., with 8s. expenses, was imposed on the following, who were summoned at the suit of the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs with availing in their possession unlicensed wireless receiving sets.—Catherine Drummy, 35 Loughmore, Dungarvan; Kate Keohan, Wolfe Road, Abbeyside; Matthew Organ, Sarsfield Street, O.S.M. The bride who looked charming, was given away by her brother, Mr. Thos. Shiel and had attending at the ceremony Miss Hanna Power (sister of the bridegroom). Mr. Edmond Rockett, late of Ballybrack, Kilmacothomas, acted as best man. The reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. McGarhan, 40 Tregunter Road, Kensington, where upwards of 50 guests were present. The attendants included two of the bride's brothers, Messrs. John and Patrick Power, both late of the Royal Navy, and two prominent and popular Kilmacothomasians, Messrs. John Murray and Thomas Veale. For a long period prior and up to his departure to the sister life the bridegroom was a valued member of the outdoor staff of the flourishing firm of Messrs. Edward Hill and Son, Ltd., Kilmacothomas. The bride is a pleasingly dispositioned young lady of most attractive appearance, whom to know is to admire, and the estimable pair received a very large array of serviceable and costly presents, including a washing machine and Mrs. Power every blessing and happiness in the matrimonial sphere.

Dance.—As was generally anticipated, the Progressive Annual Dance (Messrs. Edward Flahavan and Sons, Ltd., Kilmacothomas) attracted a monster hosting of devotees to the St. Michael's Parish Hall on Sunday night last and the function proved a most successful and enjoyable social. The music was rendered by the band of Rink Limerick and his ballroom orchestra.

Sympathy.—Widespread sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Loneragan, Upper Kilmacothomas, on the death of her brother, Mr. Michl. Boushel, who was a well known and popular member of the staff of the Henry's drapery establishment, Dublin, and it was that mortal of whom was laid to rest in Glasnevin Cemetery on Monday week (8th inst.).

Interest in Greyhound Coursing Fans.—To a sterling Mahon-side sportsman we are indebted for the submission of the case for the formation of the Kilmacothomas and District Coursing Club as it appeared on the programme of the coming meeting held at the home of the late Mr. J. Murphy, M.P., Byrne, M.O., Kilmacothomas; Vice-President, P. O'Callaghan, P.M.; Secretary, P. O'Donoghue, Hon. Sec., P. Morrissey, Kilmacothomas; Dr. Bryan Foley, M.O., Bonmahon; J. Kirwan, P.M.; J. Cullinan and N. Dunphy.

Kilmacothomas Notes.

St. Mary's Church, Fulham Road, London was the centre of a pretty wedding on last Saturday morning (17th ult.), when worthy members of two old Irish Catholic family stocks were united in the sacred bonds of matrimony, the contracting parties being: Mr. Martin Power, 25A Shepherd's Bush Road, Hammersmith, London, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. John Power, Kilmacothomas, County Waterford, and Miss Elizabeth (Elsie) Shiel, second youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Michl. Shiel, Newbridge, Co. Kildare. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. Fr. A. Mullins, O.S.M. The bride who looked charming, was given away by her brother, Mr. Thos. Shiel and had attending at the ceremony Miss Hanna Power (sister of the bridegroom). Mr. Edmond Rockett, late of Ballybrack, Kilmacothomas, acted as best man. PERJURY ALLEGED AGAINST WITNESS

Solicitor's Sensational Accusation in Dungarvan Court. CASE ADJOURNED

There was a sensational development in a case at Dungarvan District Court on last Tuesday, when during the cross-examination on the direct, the solicitor engaged by the complainant in the case alleged that the defendant in question was committing perjury.

The case was one in which Christopher Power, Ballinroad, Dungarvan, was summoned by Mrs. Prendergast, Clonsilla, for absconding with her husband's cross-summons by Mrs. Prendergast against Power for assault.

Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solicitor for Power, and Mr. J. F. Kenny, solicitor for Mrs. Prendergast, were present. At the outset Mr. Kenny pointed out that a witness for his case was unable to attend and asked for an adjournment. Mr. Morrissey was not prepared to agree to the adjournment (Mr. Kenny) was prepared to go on with the case.

Mr. Morrissey said there had been an adjournment before in the case and would not agree to a further adjournment.

The case was then taken on. Christopher Power, complainant, said that on October 15th last he and his wife had been in Dungarvan, and he was driving home and his wife was cycling. On the road going home he witnessed Mrs. Prendergast attacking "his woman" and also himself.

He called out a robber and she turned round and said "I'm not a robber, I'm ill-luck and went down on her two knees to curse me. She hit me, and I showed her away from me. When she added that later she came to his house and assaulted him again. On October 4th witness said he also saw Mrs. Prendergast on the morning of the Court case. This was going on for three years. On the morning of the Court case witness said he saw Mrs. Prendergast and that there is a record of her in the barracks." (Laughter.)

Cross-examined by Mr. Kenny—Why didn't you summon her before? Witness—I didn't want my name or my wife's name in the papers at all.

What did you do on the 15th October?—I met her at Kilmillon. And you had a bit of a row?—I had.

Who struck the first blow?—She did. Where did she hit you?—On the face.

To a further question witness said he shoved her and she fell on the ground, but "hopped up again like a top."

Mrs. Power, complainant's wife, said she met Mrs. Prendergast near the Post Office in Dungarvan, where she abused witness. Going back from town witness passed her on the road and she abused witness again. Witness's husband had gone into a house and the defendant came along again and abused witness.

Mr. Morrissey—Did she accuse you of having something to do with her husband?

Witness—She did. Had you anything to do with him?—No.

Mrs. A. Prendergast said that on October 15th she was going home from Dungarvan and Mrs. Power passed her on a bike. As Mrs. Power passed she said to her "I'm going to the priest again. I will complain you, and if the Mission didn't do you any good, I will." Witness's husband (continued witness) was inside a house, and as Mrs. Power was walking on he came out and gave witness a kick in the back and she fell on the ground.

Witness—When she saw me, she kicked me a kick on the head, and he kicked my parcels around the road. I was picking them up and he said "I'm kicking you, and I'm kicking you on my hands and knees." Continuing, witness said a lorry came along and she stopped it to take her home. Witness went to the barracks and complained about Power and his wife. Power's wife did not hit her but she induced him to hit witness. The name came in the papers, witness denied she struck Power.

Mr. Morrissey—Were you ever up in court before? Witness—No, only when the children were there.

Were you ever bound to the peace?—No.

Do you deny that you were ever bound to the peace?—I do.

At this stage Mr. Morrissey alleged that the witness was committing perjury and asked to adjourn the case to get a certificate that she was bound to the peace.

An adjournment was granted.

No Meeting of U.D.C.—Only one member—Mr. M. Clancy—turned up for the meeting of the Urban Council on last Friday night, with the result that no meeting was held and the business to be transacted was adjourned to the next meeting.

Give our hurlers, in all grades, encouragement for the future, and next year we hope to see them repeating the "double." There is plenty of material available and the will to do it in recent years—put them out of the League, and we hope to see them better than ever next year. The greatest credit to state new officials, who are to be complimented on their excellent behaviour on and off the field. It is hoped that this happy state of affairs will be made of good conduct and sportsmanship.

CAPOQUIN V. TOURIN. This game is arousing considerable interest and a close and thrilling contest is predicted. Local rivalry should add to the attractiveness of the fixture.

WATERFORD HURLING. By winning this year's S.H. and M.H. All-Ireland Championships, Waterford has taken its place in the forefront of the great hurling counties. The question now arises, what is the future? Is our spectacular year a flash in the pan? This year's great and historic achievements will

LISMORE NOTES

Variety Concert.—Ballynora Dramatic Society travelled to Lismore on Wednesday night, 8th inst., where they staged a grand variety concert. The programme included a one-act drama and two comedy sketches. Also in the programme were choral items and dance numbers. The audience very much enjoyed a good night's entertainment.

Sudden Death of Garda Siochana.—A deep sense of gloom was cast over Lismore and surrounding districts on Friday morning, 10th inst., when the death of Garda James Dennis was announced, which sad and sudden demise occurred in the early hours of the morning while on night duty at the Garda Barracks, Lismore. Since his advent to Lismore some six years ago Garda Dennis who was a native of Kinsale, Co. Cork, was known for his faithfulness to duty, and his never-failing courtesy, and his uprightness of character. He was beloved by all and sundry, and his death at the early age of 40 years is a great cross on his heart-broken widow and six young children whom he leaves to mourn his loss. On behalf of the people of Lismore we deeply sympathise with Mrs. Dennis and offer in consolation that God in His mercy will comfort her in her great loss.

On Friday evening the remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church accompanied by a very large and representative congregation, and escorted by a guard of honour of Garda. On Saturday morning Requiem Masses were offered up at 8 o'clock for the happy repose of his soul, and 11 o'clock Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated. After second Mass on Sunday, accompanied by another huge cortege, which bore the coffin to the cemetery in which deceased was held, and escorted by a guard of honour of Garda under Suplt. Creane, Lismore, the remains were interred in the cemetery. An enjoyable feature of the drive was the keen contest in evidence at most of the tables.

The following divided the prize money—Ed. Kieley, John Kieley, John Boyle, Tom Quailly, J. Cunningham, J. Troy, M. Gleeson, R. Walsh, Pierce Butler, Seamus Whelan, J. Dunphy, M. O'Connell, Jack Dunford and P. Moloney.

A Great Success.—The dance under the auspices of the Knocknagone Race Committee attracted a large attendance to the Halfway Hall on Sunday night last and proved a very enjoyable function. It was well up to the high standard set by previous dances and unanimous pleasure was expressed by all who attended. The accompaniments were rendered by Jackie Murray and his band which was a treat in itself.

Comins 45 Drive.—The semi-finals and finals of the 45 Drive organised under the auspices of the Knocknagone Race Committee attracted a large attendance to the Halfway Hall on Sunday night last and proved a very enjoyable function. It was well up to the high standard set by previous dances and unanimous pleasure was expressed by all who attended. The accompaniments were rendered by Jackie Murray and his band which was a treat in itself.

TOURANEENA AND DISTRICT NOTES

Congratulations are extended to Miss Rosemary Nugent (17), 105 Hollybank Road, Drumcondra, Dublin, on being one of two pupils selected to represent Ireland as delegate to the New York Herald Tribune Annual Forum on March 5th next. This is the first time that representatives from Ireland have been invited to the Forum. Miss Nugent will leave Shannon Airport on the 28th inst., and while in America will also participate in a programme of school and community activities as well as a study of living conditions with different families. The success achieved by this talented young lady seem to be but the forerunner of what promises to be an illustrious career and was hailed with great joy in the Touraneena district, where she is a well-known and popular figure with many family connections, being niece of our very popular and respected residents—Messrs. James and Patrick Nugent. Her father, Mr. Thomas Morrissey, Ballinacorney, Ballinacorney, and is presently a commercial salesman attached to a large Dublin firm. Mr. Nugent is a native of Lisleigh, Ballinacorney, and served all through the first World War and had many thrilling experiences. Mrs. Nugent is none other than the famous soprano Radio Eireann fame Eide O'Dwyer.

Prize Won.—At a drawing of prizes recently held at Cappoquin, Mr. Thomas Morrissey, Ballinacorney, Ballinacorney, was the winner of a very suitable and seasonal prize.
