DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

The Hilary sittings of the Dungarvan Circuit Court opened on last Tuesday at Dungarvan Courthouse before Judge Roe.

Review of Compensation Application.—The Waterford County Council applied for a review of the compensation paid to M. Bluet (34), labourer, Shanahan St., Dungarvan, in respect of an injury sustained to his eye on April 5, 1940, while in the employment of the respondents.

Mr. J. A. D'Arcy, B.L. (instructed by Mr. M. M. Halley, solicitor), for the respondents. Mr. Clarke, B.L. (instructed by J. F. Williams and Son, solicitors), for Bluet.

Mr. D'Arcy said that the original order allowing compensation was made by Judge Sealy on June 25, 1940. Bluet was employed as a road worker by the respondents when a splinter of a stone went into his right eye and damaged it. He had no vision in that eye. The original order by Judge Sealy awarded 35s. a week on the basis of total incapacity.

Dr. M. K. Cusack, Dungarvan, said he examined Bluet on December 15 last and found that his right eye was to all intents and purposes blind. The left eye was normal. Bluet did not see why he could not do ordinary labouring work.

Judge Roe—He is able to do work that an ordinary one-eyed man can do.

Continuing, witness said that Bluet complained to him that he had a "nervous shivering" and a pain over his left eye and his forehead and crown of the head. Witness found no signs of neurasthenia.

Cross-examined by Mr. Clarke, witness said that Bluet told him "I am not able to do work owing to the loss of the eye."

Dr. R. D. Condon, eye specialist, Waterford, said he examined Bluet on January 27 and found a big scar on the pupil of his right eye. The vision in the left eye was normal. Witness thought he should be able to do work quite well. He complained to witness that his nerves were shattered. Witness did not find anything abnormal in the left eye.

Dr. Condon—In October, '47, and November, '48, he complained he was suffering from sleeplessness and was unable to get to bed. Witness formed the opinion that he was neurasthenic as the result of his accident. Witness prescribed pills for him. On 17th January last there was no change in his condition and witness did not change her opinion of his condition. In witness's opinion he was totally unfit for work because he was neurasthenic and was a one-eyed man.

Mr. Bluet said that after his accident he was seven weeks in a Waterford hospital and when he came home he attended to his case for the past nine years. Since the accident witness's nerves were shattered. Witness said that he was not able to do any work.

Cross-examined—If the County Council is prepared to give you work away from machines, will you try to do it? Witness—I would try.

Would you start on Monday? I would be able to start on Monday.

Judge Roe said that it looked to him that the applicant had a serious accident 9 years ago and since then he had done no work and the County Council had to pay him because he was found unfit for work. Witness, in the medical evidence, his Lordship said that Dr. Foley had said it would have been a good deal better for him if in 1940 or 1941 he had gone back to work. She said he was unfit for work at present. He (Judge Roe) could not pass over Dr. Foley's evidence, and in the circumstances he would allow the order to stand and refuse the application. The County Council offered him work and it would be well for him to try it. He would be better off if he did. He (Judge Roe) would recommend that he try to do this work. "He looks to me like a man," said his Lordship, "that has a grievance against the County Council and therefore entitled to sit down for the rest of his days. He has become lazy from years of not doing anything. I would recommend that he take this opportunity to do work that is offered to him."

Transfer of Licence.—Mr. J. D'Arcy (instructed by Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey) applied on behalf of Mr. T. Murphy Main St., Cappoquin, for a transfer of the spirit licence held in respect of the Central Bar, Main Street, Cappoquin, to the building next door.

It was stated that the applicant purchased the premises known as the Central Bar in 1941 for £230 and bought Colender's, next door, for £1,000, and it was in respect of this premises he wanted the transfer of the licence.

Mr. Healy, engineer, proved a plan of both houses and gave details of the measurements of the ground floors.

Mr. Murphy, applicant, gave evidence of buying both premises. He was living in newly-purchased premises at present.

Supt. P. Green, Lismore, said there was no objection.

His Lordship granted the transfer.

Malignant Damage Claim.—Wm. Quinn, farmer, Raspberry Hill, Ballyduff, had a claim under the Malignant Injury to Property Act in respect of the burning of a rick of wheat and a rick of oats.

Mr. J. D'Arcy (instructed by A. Carroll and Co., solicitors), for the applicant; Mr. McCabe (instructed by Mr. M. Halley, solicitor), for the County Council.

Mr. D'Arcy said that the applicant had a small farm of about 30 acres, of which last year he had 24 acres of wheat and 2 acres of oats. He lived with his mother and sister. On October 5th last, with the help of a neighbour, he drew in wheat and oats into his yard and made ricks of them. On the following morning his mother found them on fire and she called her son, who went out and also found them burning.

Wm. Quinn, applicant, said he lived with his mother and sister on their farm. He grew 24 acres of wheat and 2 acres of oats last year. On October 4th and 5th, the wheat and oats were drawn into the haggard and ricks were made of them at the back of the house. Witness was helped on the second day by Pat O'Brien. Witness saw that the ricks were all right. Witness left the house that night about 7.30 and returned about 10.30. Before witness went to bed he withdrew a prop he had put in the rick that day. There was no sign of a fire then. Witness thought that on the following morning his mother woke him at a quarter past 7 and on going out saw the ricks just burning out. Witness thought they had been burning for hours. Witness reported the matter to the Ballyduff Guards and a Guard came back after him to the haggard and examined the place. Before the burning, when the wheat and oats were out in the field, one of the stacks had fallen down. This stack was by the main road near the haggard in which Mrs. Healy and her two daughters lived. The stack was all scattered and there were no cattle in the field.

Counsel—What sort of terms are you in with Mrs. Healy? Witness—Bad terms. Goats belonging to her were trespassing on my land at the time. How long was it going on? For three years, since the stack was killed. Mrs. Healy said to me that every time I chased the goats out she would have revenge for it.

Witness, continuing, said there was a spilt between his family and Thomas Mullumphy "for generations." The night of the fire was windy with the wind blowing from the South East. Giving details of the case, witness said he expected to get eight barrels of wheat to the acre at the fixed price of 23 a barrel. Witness had 30 barrels of wheat at the fixed price of 23 a barrel. There was also five tons of wheat straw at 23 a ton and four tons of oats straw at 24 per ton.

Ellen Quinn (73) widow and mother of applicant, said that before going to bed on the night in question she quenched the fire in the house. On the following morning about a quarter to 7 she went out to the cowhouse and saw that the ricks were burned away. Witness called her son and he went for the Guards. Patrick O'Brien, son of a neighbour, said he helped the Quinns to draw in the wheat and oats to the haggard and make the ricks. There was no sign of a fire when witness finished.

Mr. James Quirk, farmer and threshing mill owner, Inchmurney, said that he was in the haggard in the field area was average. The yield of 14 barrels of oats to the acre could well be but it was rather high. Witness did some of the threshing of the wheat and it was a nice average one.

Cross-examined, witness said he threshed two acres of oats after the fire. He said that he had 28 barrels. To a further question, witness said that the fixed price for oats was fixed at 23 and the fact it is not half fixed" (laughter).

DEFEENCE.—Sergt. Timothy Ryan, G.S., Ballyduff, said he received a written statement in witness's presence which he (applicant) signed, in the course of consideration of the application. "I have not the slightest idea in the world as to who or what set fire to it, but I don't think it was accidental." Witness searched around the place but could find no clues as to the origin of the fire or any evidence to suspect anyone of it.

Cross-examined about an alleged spilt between the Quinns and Mullumphy, witness said he had no evidence of it only what Mrs. Quinn said about a lawsuit of old.

To Mr. McCabe, witness said that the movements of Mullumphy and Mrs. Healy were traced that evening and witness could find no evidence that they were involved.

Mr. M. F. Walsh, Auctioneer and Valuer, Cappoquin, gave evidence of what in his opinion the damage to the corn would cost and said it was a total of £167.

His Lordship held that there was no balance of probability that a crime of malice had been committed and dismissed the application with costs.

Devine v. Waterford County Council.—John Devine, of Coole, Ballysaggart, had a claim under the Malignant Injury to Property Act in respect of the burning of a rick of straw and two cocks of hay against the Waterford County Council.

Mr. J. A. D'Arcy (instructed by J. O'Gorman, solicitor), for the applicant, Mr. M. Halley, solicitor, for the respondents.

Mr. D'Arcy said that the burning occurred on the night of November 28th last between midnight and 1 a.m. Witness saw a large quantity of hay and straw were burned. At the time, said Mr. D'Arcy, it appeared that a Mr. Daunt had some trouble with his labourers and he sacked one of them and the rest then went on strike. The applicant's son went and helped Mr. Daunt with his cross and laid appeal to be very much against local feelings.

Mr. J. Noonan, civil engineer, proved a sketch of the applicant's house and farmyard, showing the apparent position of the ricks that were burned.

Mr. John Devine, applicant, said he had a farm of 44 acres and lived with his son, James, at the farm. November witness had corn drawn in and a big rick with wheat straw at one end and oats straw at the other end, was made in the haggard. There were four cocks of hay near it, one being 8 feet from the rick. On November 28th the evening was dry but in the morning it had rained hard. Before getting that night at 9 o'clock witness went out to the yard and found everything all right. Witness awoke at about 12 o'clock, went to sleep and was awoke by a shout from his daughter. Witness jumped out of bed, rushed out and saw flames at the west end of the rick. The fire was just starting. When witness came around to the south side the whole west end was on fire. Witness pulled away a ladder from the rick and those ricks of it were scorched at the end. When witness got to the fire it was burning the corner at both sides. The two hay cocks were on fire at that time, but they caught fire later. Witness said that there must have been oil in it because of the way it burned. Witness sent his daughter for Jas. Clancy, a neighbour, and Clancy watched the dwelling-house, which had a thatched roof. The rick was completely burned and the hay cocks. There were three tons of wheat straw worth 23 a ton and five tons of oats straw worth 24 a ton in the rick. There were also six tons of hay worth about 22 a ton. On the following morning witness found footprints coming out a gap from the turning field. This house was investigated by the police. Witness saw Mr. Daunt and there was "trouble" at his threshing because he sacked a man and the other two "left in amputation." Witness's son helped Mr. Daunt every day. There was a lot of talk about it.

Counsel—Do you know of any reason for the burning of your house? Witness—I don't know any reason for my son helping Mr. Daunt.

Cross-examined by Mr. Halley—Where do you say the fire started? I could not tell you. All I can tell you is that the bottom of the ladder was scorched and the rick was burned. Witness was then questioned about a statement made to Sergt. Ryan in which it was stated he said that the fire started in the bench in the rick. Mr. Halley—I suggest to you that the statement you made to Sergt. Ryan is the correct one? Witness—It might be.

Questioned about the footprints, witness said he had no idea where they were.

Re-examined witness said that the County Council built a road there about three years ago under a scheme and the farmers gave a hand. Witness's son gave three days working at it. When the road was going down a long way from the top, witness also noticed the flames about midway around the ladder. The top of the ladder was not scorched but the bottom was. The hay was not on fire at that time, but it caught fire later from the rick. Witness then went on to tell how he went to Lismore for the fire brigade. Witness pointed them out to Sergt. Ryan. Witness concluded his evidence by saying that his father was not popular with Mrs. Devine because of a lawsuit over a boundary fence or with the Murphys or the Dumes.

Cross-examined by Mr. Halley regarding a statement he made to Sergt. Ryan about the footprints, said he was not sure if he said: "I am certain that the footprints are mine."

Did you tell him under the impression that they were yours and not strange ones? I might have.

Miss Christina Devine, daughter of applicant, said she asked out the fire in the kitchen on the night in question. She said she was awoken by the glare of the fire through her bedroom window, and getting up called her brother and father. She saw the end of the rick on fire and was from top to bottom, spreading to the south side.

Mr. Jas. Clancy, a neighbour, gave evidence of helping at the fire. He said that when he arrived the rick was all on fire, spreading on both sides. The two hay cocks also caught fire. Witness did not notice the ladder.

DEFEENCE.—Sergt. Ryan, G.S., Ballyduff, said he investigated the burning. As regards the footprints, witness said that both the applicant and his son pointed them out to him. Witness, Superintendent from Lismore, investigated them and as a result were satisfied that they belonged to John Devine. Witness added that the fresh footprints were investigated. Wm. Devine made a statement to witness about them.

Judge Roe—As I understand it, there was a number of footprints there and that young Devine said: "Those are mine" and you checked them and found they coincided with his? Witness—Yes.

Did you check in the house if there

COURSED AND TRACKED

FURTHER RECOLLECTIONS OF THE NATIONAL MEETING.

NEXT WEEK all Ireland will be re-routed at Powerstown Park, Clonmel. It is the only meeting in Ireland where we can find such a gathering of representatives of every county from Antrim to Cork. Not even at Clounanna can the same spirit or atmosphere of the great coursing crowds be felt as keenly as at Clonmel. We have the champion puppies of every county and district, and when we weigh up the difficulties and hard work necessary to give the all-important ticket for the big event the best wishes of every coursing man go out to every owner from North, South, East and West. Win or lose, it is something to be proud of to own one of the sixty-four. Considering the hundreds of puppies that compete in trial stakes, it is no mean achievement to be numbered amongst them. Granted fine weather it should be a great meeting, and with the International Cup included, should provide plenty of thrills for the followers of the leash.

THE Irish Brigade at Allcar last week, with the exception of Red Chain Express, did not prove the Waterloo Cup type and bore out my remarks regarding the difference of coursing in England. Speed is not the main factor there. In fact, it is a usual occurrence to see the lead beaten time after time. It is the real test of a good coursing dog, and it is remarkable how those dogs can take it and come up fit and fresh for the next round. Of course we must remember that the English coursing men are mostly very wealthy people who can afford to keep and pay very big fees to trainers with the sole object of winning the Waterloo Cup.

GREYHOUND racing and coursing are there are controlled by very different bodies. In fact, the best coursing men never race their greyhounds on the track, and breed for coursing only. For several years we have not had any dogs from England in the International Cup at Clonmel, due, no doubt, to the fact that the good working dog has not much chance under the present system here.

HOW many readers will remember the great coursing at Clonmel in February, 1931, when we had several English dogs included in the International Cup? To name a couple—Mr. J. V. Rank's "Deedie," and the eventual winner, Mr. E. A. Vivian's "Johnny Peters." This meeting was one of the best ever held at Powerstown Park, and it was truly an International Cup that year, as the Irish dogs were the best ever, including "Brown Foam" and "Lion's Share," both demons behind a hare. And to clinch matters we had two English dogs "Deedie" and "Johnny Peters" and "Lion's Share" in the semi-finals. In the first semi-final, after an undecided course, "Brown Foam" beat "Deedie"; and in the other semi-final "Johnny Peters" beat "Lion's Share." So we had a real international final with the flag going to the English dog. The Irish dog had the worse of the handicap owing to the "no course" in the semi-final. And I always thought "Brown Foam" one of the best coursing dogs we had in this country, as I had seen him run at Clounanna and in the Greenal Cup at Kilmallock the same year. "White Sandhills" was the winner of the Derby that year (1931), and "Oh Fancy" won the Oaks.

Settlement.—A settlement was announced and made a rule of court, with no admission of liability by the defendants, in a claim by Bridget Hogan, The Bungalow, Kereagh, against John O'Farrell, trading as St. Joseph's Hatcheries, Nenagh, County Tipperary for £200 for loss and damages suffered.

In her statement of claim, the plaintiff stated that (1) by agreement in writing made in December, '47, and January, '48, the defendant agreed to deliver to the plaintiff 500 strong and healthy pullets; (2) in consideration of the agreement the plaintiff paid to the defendant £59, the agreed price of the pullets; (3) the defendant failed and neglected to carry out the agreement; (4) of the 500 chickens that were delivered, two were dead, 153 were weak and unhealthy, and they died almost immediately after delivery, 258 were cockerels, and 87 were pullets.

The settlement provides for a decree by consent of £105 12s. 6d., with costs, on the basis of a decree for £75; that the sum of £25 lodged in court be paid out, and that there be no admission of liability on the part of defendant.

Mr. J. A. D'Arcy (instructed by J. F. Williams and Son, solicitors), for the plaintiff; Mr. C. B. McKenna (instructed by P. O'Connor and Son, solicitors), for the defendant.

Claim Against Urban Council.—Christopher O'Donovan and his brother, Michael O'Donovan, haulage contractors, Douglas Road, Cork, had claims against the Dungarvan Urban Council in respect to damage to tyres and a tube of the motor Ferriss on 12th November last in Dungarvan.

Mr. Clarke (instructed by Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, solicitors), for the applicants; Mr. T. C. Williams (J. F. Williams and Son, solicitors) for Dungarvan Urban Council, and Mr. M. Halley, solicitor, for the Waterford County Council.

TALLOW NOTES

Athletic Club Annual.—On Friday night last the annual meeting of the Tallow Athletic Club was held at the Temperance Hall, and was attended by a record number of members and the general public. At the outset the Chairman extended a hearty welcome to all, and said the attendance looked good for the future of athletics in Tallow, and it was very pleasing to see so many youthful members amongst them, as it was to them one looked with confidence to the future to carry on the good work in athletic circles in the years to come. Mr. P. O'Mahony, Secretary, submitted his report on the year's activities on the athletic field, and the various functions organised during the year, all of which proved very successful. During 1948 a cross-country novice race was held, and in July a very successful novice sports meeting. On the athletic field the members of the club had many successes, and he congratulated them on their many victories. He concluded by thanking each and every member of the club for their help and aid during the past year. The report of the Treasurer (Mr. A. Murphy) was then read, and disclosed that, despite heavy expenditure during the year, they had on a credit balance for 1949. Both reports were considered very satisfactory and were unanimously adopted. A very heavy vote of thanks was extended to both officials for the able manner in which they handled the affairs of the club during the past year. The Captain of the club gave an account of the club's successes during 1948, which included a number of county championship events, and said they had done remarkably well. He congratulated the members on their achievements and wished them many further successes during the coming season. The officers elected for the current year were:—President, Very Rev. Fr. Hearne, P.P.; Vice-president, Rev. Fr. Conroy, C.C.; Chairman, Mr. W. O'Brien, Chapel Street; Vice-chairman, Mr. J. Beecher, West Street; Hon. Treas., Mr. A. Murphy, West Street; Hon. Secy., Mr. P. O'Mahony, West Street; Captain of the club, Mr. S. Frazier; Committee—Messrs. W. Beecher, J. Baldwin, J. Cunningham, J. Hurley, A. Collier, S. Hyde, J. Tobin, and M. Beecher.

45 Drive.—On Sunday night the weekly 45 drive was held at the Temperance Hall, and was attended by a capacity house. From start to finish the games were closely and keenly contested, and the closing rounds were played amidst keen excitement. The winners were: 1st prize, Messrs. P. Henley, West Street, and J. Tobin, Janeville, 2nd, Messrs. A. Hancock, Chapel Street, and J. Conroy, Convent Street; 3rd, Messrs. O'Callaghan, The Square, and W. Cronin, Parkside.

Wedding Bells.—The Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Dublin, was recently the scene of a very pretty wedding when members of two well known Limerick and Waterford families were united in holy matrimony. The contracting parties were Mr. Michael Tobin, M.P.S.I., Galbally, Co. Limerick, and Miss Peggy Kelly, Ballymore, Co. Limerick. The bride was the daughter of the late Mr. M. L. Tobin, and of Mrs. Susan Tobin, Beech Hill, Tallow, and is a very esteemed and popular young lady. The groom is the son of the late Mr. T. Hayes, N.T., and of Mrs. Annie Hayes, ex-Mr. Dug-Muire, Caherconish, Co. Limerick, and is a very popular young man. The ceremony was celebrated with Nuptial Mass and Pupal Blessing, and was performed by Rev. P. Tobin, Glasgow, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. A. Haugh, C.C., Glasgothly, Dublin. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss P. Hayes, as bridesmaid, while Mr. John Tobin, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held, and was attended by a number of guests after which the happy couple left on their honeymoon, carrying with them the best wishes of all. On behalf of their legions of friends, we join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Tobin every happiness and success.

Grand Entertainment.—On Wednesday night of last week a grand "entertainment" was given at the Regal Cinema, Tallow, by the members of the Youghal Little Theatre Group, and was an outstanding success. The production was "Shadow and Substance," and for the four acts the production was one of the best ever performed by an amateur group on the Tallow stage. Everything to even the smallest detail was perfect, while the settings, lighting, make-up and costumes were all that could be desired. While each and every one of the players were excellent. Special mention must be made of Mr. E. J. Colbert in the exacting role of Canon Skerritt, P.P. It was a role that would have taxed the ability of a professional, but Mr. Colbert filled the part with apparent ease, and in his whole performance one could not find a single flaw. The play is in four acts, and the action takes place in Canon Skerritt's diningroom at Ardmore, a small town in County Louth. The cast was: Brigid (Canon Skerritt's servant), Betty Doyle; Dermot Frank O'Flaherty (the local schoolmaster), Thos. Begley; Thomas Conaghan (the Canon's stepson), H. G. G. Rev. Fr. Corr (local C.C.), John G. G. Rev. Fr. Kirwan (local C.C.); Billy Lyons; Rev. Very Rev. Thos. Conroy, P.P.; Edward Colbert (Miss Skerritt's brother); Violet Magillane (his wife), Mairin Doyle. The production was by Mr. Edward Colbert, while stage settings, lighting, etc., was in the capable hands of Mr. John Fitzgerald. The entertainment was in aid of the Tallow Tennis Club, and the proceeds were sent to a delightful supper and party by the club. At the conclusion the Chairman of the Tennis Club thanked the producer, Mr. Edward Colbert, and the members of the Little Theatre Group for aiding the club with such a magnificent performance. Mr. Colbert retired on behalf of the Group and thanked the club for the great help given to his Group, and for the social which they all very much appreciated. It would be a great pleasure to return to Tallow with another play in the near future.

Interesting Lecture.—On Monday night, Jan. 25, a lecture was given at the Cinema Hall, Tallow, by Mr. John McGaughey, V.S., under the auspices of the Tallow Young Far-

Former Resident Passes.—It is with deep regret we record the death of a former Tallow resident in the person of Mrs. Margaret O'Flaherty, which occurred recently at her residence, Corobone, Mitchelstown, at the ripe age of 86 years. Deceased, who possessed her faculties up to the time of her death, was a great story-teller and could recall many of the stirring events of our history, as well as being able to recount her early childhood days when potatoes were eaten three times a day. A grand type of Irishwoman, she was beloved by all classes of the community, and her death, although in the fulness of years, is deeply and deservedly regretted. Kindly, genial, unassuming and charitable, her passing has created a void which time can never fill, and her many friends join in extending her bereaved relatives deep and sincere sympathy in their sorrow and loss. CORRESPONDENCE

NAILING HALF TRIBUTES.

To the Editor, Dungarvan Observer.—Six—If R. P. Keating had not asked for a public explanation re Anti-Partition Collection at Ardmore, we would treat his letter with silent contempt. As it is, we do not intend to enter into any controversy, but we are anxious to show that this letter was misrepresentation from top to bottom. Two collectors side by side received subscriptions from the general public. (2) No one seems to know who is secretary, treasurer, or chairman of the Finance Panel. Did Mr. Keating write a letter or postcard to any of these men and see if it could be returned and endorsed by any person? Why, even if this gentleman called to the Forge, his alleged difficulty would be solved. The naked truth, Mr. Keating, is that you are not entitled to enter into any bad terms with this Party since the general election. (3) As regards the Finance Panel, the collection table, was there any receipt or even suggestion on this point? As a matter of fact, we are contemplating seeing a solicitor on this issue.

Dungarvan Circuit Court.

Mr. Clarke said that the two applicants had their own motor lorries and worked as haulage contractors. The lorries were damaged on November 14th in Dungarvan, where both men were engaged in the haulage of beet. The lorries were left outside a house in Mitchell Street where both applicants were staying. At 7.45 on that night it appeared that the damage was done. Christopher O'Donovan heard an explosion and when he went out he found that the tyres of one of the lorries was badly cut and the tyre on the other lorry was badly cut also. The matter was investigated by the police and a man was prosecuted and convicted.

Mr. Williams—I think we have to pay. This man was convicted by District Justice O'Hain here. Mr. Williams said that he thought that the damaged tyres should be worth something. Mr. M. O'Donovan said he fitted the tyre on his lorry on the 16th or 18th October last. It was a new tyre and was about 1,000 miles on it. He was asked by Mr. Williams witness said he had done about 1,000 miles on the tyre and he didn't believe that it was of any value now. Witness then went on to describe the cut in the tyre.

Christopher O'Donovan said the tyre was on the lorry for about six weeks and he had done 1,000 to 1,500 miles or even 2,000 miles on it. The tube under the tyre had also been cut. Mr. David Power, garage proprietor, Dungarvan said he saw the tyre and tubes and went on to describe the damage to them. The tyres could not be used again and they could not be vulcanised. The tube would go to be too bad.

Judge Roe said that one tyre had been used for one-twelfth of its normal life and the other one-sixth and he thought he should make a reduction for that. He gave a decree to Mr. O'Donovan for 14 guineas and to Christopher O'Donovan a decree of £18 4s., with costs and expenses. After hearing Mr. Farrell on the question of expenses for his clients, the Lordship said he would direct the Court's Registrar to fix reasonable expenses to leave them clear of a loss. His Lordship also directed that the amount of the decrees be levied on the Urban District of Dungarvan.

Review of Compensation.—J. Coyne, Ballyheeny, Clashmore, had an application under Section 28 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, to increase his compensation in view of the new increased rate of pay in operation for County Council workers. Mr. Clarke (instructed by Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey) for the applicant, said the applicant had been a County Council worker, who had been injured in cutting hedges when he was 34 years of age. He had been in the service of the County Council for 15 years. The late Judge Sealy awarded compensation of £1 5s. 4d. a week and found that the average weekly earnings were 25s. 1d. The accident happened on May 1, 1945. The late Judge Sealy also held that the applicant was unhealthy and unfit to work. Since then the rate of wages had increased by 25 per cent. His Lordship made an order fixing the rate of compensation at £1 15s. 8d. a week on the basis of total incapacity as from that date.

Mr. M. Halley, solr., for the respondents.

Kilmacthomas Notes.—Presentation.—Miss Ellen O'Brien, who recently retired from Kilmacthomas National School, after a period of close to 40 years' service in the teaching profession, was presented with a santeen of cutlery and dinner service by her past pupils and friends. Annual Dance of Stradbally Harriers.—This function, held at Stradbally Parish Hall on Sunday night last, attracted devotees from many parts far and near, and was a highly successful and thoroughly enjoyable social. Dancing commenced at 9.30 p.m. and continued up to 4 a.m., when the playing of the National Anthem brought the festive proceedings to a close. The music was capitally rendered by Jimmie Cawley and his orchestra.

St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilmacthomas.—Have it that this sacred edifice (which was built over 108 years ago) will shortly undergo a series of repairs and renovations. Incidentally the newly-erected gate leading to the church and donated in her will by the late lamented Miss Bridget (Bridie) Mullany, of Ballykerogue, is greatly admired.

Death of Mr. M. Cummins.—With the death of Mr. M. Cummins, which occurred at his residence, Island, Stradbally, on Monday evening last, Mr. Matthew Cummins, farmer, there has been severed another link with a previous Deise generation. Full of years and the close of a life-time of honest effort and successful endeavour, his passing came after a rather protracted illness which he bore with a fortitude and Christian resignation characteristic of the man. His lamented demise has caused profound regret amongst a friendship circle as wide as his members were appreciative of his many outstanding and thoroughly admirable qualities of head and heart. Any movement for the betterment of his fallen man met with his whole-hearted support as did any charitable cause. Recognised as a keen judge of bloodstock and a lover of the peculiarities and ailments, his advice in this connection was much appreciated. The late Mr. Cummins was in every way a most likable personality. A large and representative cortege attended at the removal of the remains on Tuesday evening to Saint Bridget's Church, Kilmacthomas, where the coffin was received by the Very Rev. M. J. Hackett, P.P., do., who said the prayers for the dead, assisted by Rev. P. D. Curran, M.S.A. (Prior), Dungarvan (cousin of the deceased). Three Requiem Masses for the happy repose of his soul were celebrated on Wednesday morning, and the burial subsequently took place in the adjoining cemetery amid manifestations of profound sorrow. The two priests already named were Rev. D. Dawson, C.C. Kilmacthomas, officiated at
