DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

Industrial School and Reformatory for Youths

Before District Justice O'Riain in the Dungarvan Courthouse on Tuesday.

Assault.—Mrs. Angela Kieley, Old Cappaugh House, had a claim for £5 against John McGrath for assault and for trespass by defendant's motor lorry on various dates in October, 1949.

Mr. Farrell (Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, solrs.) for plaintiff.

Mr. Williams, solr., for defendant. Before proceeding with the case the District Justice read a letter from Miss K. Cotter, a witness in the case, stating that she was unable to attend.

Mr. Williams, solr., read a letter he had sent to Miss Cotter regarding her non-attendance. Mr. Farrell, solr., said he would object to the hearing of defendant's case in conjunction with the civil bill. The defendant's summons is something that is supposed to have happened two months before the date of the civil bill.

Mr. Williams, solr., said Miss Cotter was an essential witness in the assault case. The Justice, adjourning the case to the next court, said Mr. Williams can inform this lady that witnesses who refuse to attend the court on summons are liable to arrest if Mr. Williams apply for a court order.

Noxious Weeds Act.—The Minister for Agriculture charged Mrs. Eleanor Denny, Fford House, under the Weeds Act. Mr. Farrell, for Dr. Counihan, State Solicitor, prosecuted. Mr. Williams, solr., for defendant.

Guard Begley gave evidence and stated that bushes were not cut on six out of 34 acres. The Denny was in France at the time.

Five of 10/- imposed.—A fine of 10/- was imposed on Ed. Quinlan, Cappaugh (owner), in respect of 8 acres out of 102. Guard O'Leary, Cappaugh, was complainant.

Lights.—The usual fines were imposed in a number of cases under the Lights on Vehicles Act. Guards Giblin, Enright, McGowan, Deary, Farrell and Scott, Brown (Dungarvan) and Guard Dineen, Leamybrien, were the complainants.

Drunk and Disorderly.—Sergt. Liddane prosecuted. Defendants, no fixed abode, with being drunk and disorderly at the Square, Dungarvan.

Mr. J. Morrissey, solr., appeared for the accused, and reply Sergt. Liddane said accused was shouting, fighting and resisting arrest. His wife and himself were fighting and he was making vile accusations against her.

Mr. Morrissey (to the Justice) The sergeant is hard on him. Did not his family help you? Sergeant—You know the kind of help you would get from them. The people of the town must be protected.

To Mr. Morrissey, Sergeant Liddane said he could not say if all of the accused sons had sold horses at the fair the previous day and had given him a lot of drink. He (sergent) gave him six chances to leave the town.

To the Justice, the sergent said he took him to the station from where he was released at 11.30 when his piece called for him.

The Justice imposed a fine of £2 or in default 7 days. Firearms Charge.—Superintendent O'Chaoighain, Superintendent O'Riordan, Dungarvan, under the Firearms Act.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., for defendant. Supt. O'Mahony said that on the 29th October Guard Gordon found a small revolver at defendant's house. The explanation given was that he purchased the gun from a pal at the cinema. There was no ammunition. The charge is a technical one.

Guard Gordon said that Rordan took responsibility for the gun. To Mr. Morrissey—What Rordan told him about the purchase of the revolver was quite correct. The gun could discharge one shot. He agreed the gun was not properly working. Rordan is a respectable young man.

A fine of 10/- with the forfeiture of the gun was imposed. Alleged Larceny of Goods.—Supt. O'Mahony charged John Ronayne, Lackensilla, Aglish, with the alleged larceny of three goats, the property of Park Troy, Monagally.

heard there he visited Ronayne, who said the goats were his property and that he had sold the two kids for £1. He refused to give up the old goat. Witness got the goats back subsequently from Kinafarna.

To Mr. Kenny—The goats strayed away from him into the lands of Thos. Ronayne, Kinafarna. Witness had the old goat eight years. Ronayne, Kinafarna, kept sheep on the mountain and witness saw a goat with them, but it was not witness's goat. Ronayne is a substantial farmer with 100 acres of land. Witness had no difficulty in finding the goats but had difficulty in getting them back. Ronayne said the goats were his and witness told him if he didn't send them back he would deal with him.

Thos. Ronayne, son of defendant, said he went to his cousin at Kinafarna on the day after St. Stephen's day with John O'Neill (junr.). He saw the three goats and brought the two kids to O'Neill's house and the goat to his own house.

The Justice, witness said when he saw the goats they were on Moll Donovan's land. John O'Neill (junr.), Monagally, said John Ronayne told him his people gave him two goats to sell and told him to ask his (witness's) father would he buy them for £1. Witness took the two kids and thought the people in Kinafarna owned them.

John O'Neill (senr.) said he paid £1 for the two kids. Ronayne told him that this old goat strayed away and he thought as there was a good price for goats, she would never come back, but that she did with two fine kids.

To Mr. Kenny—Ronayne is a respectable farmer. He would not say that he was likely to pinch the goats. Sergt. Power, Villiersdown, deposed that he visited Ronayne's as a result of a complaint made and signed a statement (produced).

To Mr. Kenny—Witness said Ronayne was a respectable and substantial farmer. Mr. Kenny said he would ask for a direction and said he might change his mind in the case if any, should be one for trover and conversion.

The Justice said he would hear the defendant. John Ronayne, in reply to Mr. Kenny, said he farmed 96 acres at Lackensilla. His brother at Kinafarna died about 44 years ago and left a wife and two children. A cycle lamp from Miss Higgins, Kilgobnet, and breaking into Butler's house, Ballyknock.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., appeared for the defendant. The Superintendent, stating the case, explained that this boy's father was in England and his mother was dead. He should ask the Justice to send next before the reformatory. His aunt was prepared to do anything for him, even to send him to college, but he would not stay with her. He was staying with his uncle when the present charges took place.

Mr. Morrissey said the boy was making arrangements to go to his father in London, who is prepared to take him in. The Justice questioned the accused, who said that he had worked in a laundry in London. He had come back on holidays and hadn't the fare to return.

The Justice said he was anxious to send boys to reformatories if he can avoid it. That is not casting any reflection on reformatories, which he has often visited. It is quite obvious that the boy is running wild and in a reformatory he will be given a trade and will come out with a trade at 19 years. He was committed to Daingean Reformatory, Offaly.

James Street (12 years) against whom the Superintendent said there were five charges of larceny, whose father is in England and whose mother has no control over him, was sent to Greenmount Industrial School until attaining the age of 15 years.

Patk. Morrissey (15 years) was next charged with being guilty of larceny at Mrs. Curran's, Peter Clancy's, Mrs. Roderick, Davis Street, and Sheehan's, Colingour.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., appeared for the accused. Supt. O'Mahony said this boy was 15 years in a few days. He got the benefit of the Probation Act last year. This is also a case for sending away as his father is most of his time away at sea, and there is only a young girl of 18 to look after him.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., pleaded for a chance for this boy and said his father sent home an average of £4 a week to run the house. The Superintendent said this boy got a chance not so long ago when he

TO-DAY in POWER'S BREWERY . . . Hygiene . . .

People generally are becoming more hygienically minded. And in Power's Brewery every available equipment in being installed to achieve absolute hygiene in the finished bottled drinks. The bottles are sterilized in a very strong but detergent solution BEFORE passing into the new washing machines, where they are very thoroughly brushed inside and out, drained, and given a final rinse in pure fresh water, and finally examined as they pass on to the filling through a powerful inspection lens recently designed by a leading American firm and which clearly shows up the inside of each bottle, no matter what colour.

The hygienic maintenance of all machinery and equipment is also being provided for, and a new sterilizing tank is being installed into which, after each day's bottling, are placed all couplings, taps and piping through which the beer passes from cask to filling machine. From first operation to filter the bottle is not touched by hand.

DUNGARVAN U.D.C. Authorities Demand Fair Field.

The fortnightly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council was held on Friday last. Mr. T. McCarthy, chairman, presiding. Other members in attendance were—Messrs. L. A. Veale, vice-chairman; D. O'Sullivan, N. Kelly, M. Clancy and Senator J. Butler. Mr. M. O'Meara, Acting Clerk, was also present.

SPECIAL HARBOUR MEETING.—The Harbour Board was first held to get the views of the merchants on the proposed increases in harbour dues and the advisability of proceeding with the suggested agreement which captain of boats using the harbour are to be asked to sign before the meeting.

The merchants were represented as follows:—Mr. E. Maher (Dungarvan Co-Op. Creamery); Mr. M. Conway (Messrs. A. Moloney and Sons Ltd.); Mr. J. McHugh (Messrs. K. Williams and Co., Ltd.).

Suggested Increase in Harbour Dues and Tonnage.—The Clerk handed read out the list of the present charges for imports and exports, which showed that only 10/- per ton was charged on timber exported.

Mr. Maher said he understood that the increases were to be half-round and asked why timber duties were not increased. Senator Butler explained that the council had no say in the matter.

Mr. Maher expressed the opinion that any further increases would only help to close the port. The merchants do not object to the present charges.

Mr. McHugh—We agreed to 1/- during the emergency on the understanding that after the emergency prices would revert back.

Senator Butler said the Department heard of the present charges for the first time about three weeks ago through a deputation from the council.

Mr. Maher said he had no objection to the present charges. He was of opinion that the trade of the port will increase, but if it is to be done, the few unfortunate merchants? Referring to the agreement which was suggested, Senator Butler said that the council should not be asked to sign this agreement.

Mr. Curran (Harbour Master) arrived at this stage. Senator Butler—Yes, we should not give any assurance that the council will not be asked to sign this agreement.

The Harbour Master said he was not in favour of the agreement. It would be unfair to a captain to ask him to sign when his berth is berthed.

The Harbour Master read out a list of the present charges in Wicklow and Dungarvan, all of which were at the same level, with the exception of timber, which in Wicklow is 1/- and in Dungarvan 8d.

To a member, the Clerk stated that the net register tonnage until the end of 1949 was 8d. per ton in 1949.

Tipperary's Record Maintained.

Tipperary, 7-1; Waterford, 2-3. Tipperary senior hurlers retained their winning record at Davin Memorial Park, Carrick-on-Suir, by defeating Waterford in Sunday's National League game before a crowd of 8,000.

Waterford put up a good show for the first 20 minutes, but from this onward were not in the picture and showed a complete lack of training, being beaten for the first time since they were captained by Good, Fleming, Hayes, and being beaten, who was put-ting down, Good, Fleming, Hayes.

Waterford played against a light breeze in the first half and after 15 minutes play registered a point. There was some brilliant play for a short time, which finally resulted in a goal for Tipperary per Kenny. Soon afterwards P. Stakeum registered another goal. Waterford returned to the attack and scored a point.

The next accused was Christopher Power (18) against whom the Superintendent said there was no charge up to this, but if he keeps on he will find himself in a reformatory.

The Justice said he would adjourn this case for a month to allow 10/- compensation to be paid. He advised defendant not to steal any more hens.

Patk. Attridge was next before the court and charged with stealing three fowl from Mrs. Curran, Ballinacree; one fowl from Peter Clancy, Ballygaghin; one from Mrs. Sheehan, Colingour; a cycle lamp from Miss Higgins, Kilgobnet, and breaking into Butler's house, Ballyknock.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., appeared for the defendant. The Superintendent, stating the case, explained that this boy's father was in England and his mother was dead. He should ask the Justice to send next before the reformatory. His aunt was prepared to do anything for him, even to send him to college, but he would not stay with her. He was staying with his uncle when the present charges took place.

Mr. Morrissey said the boy was making arrangements to go to his father in London, who is prepared to take him in. The Justice questioned the accused, who said that he had worked in a laundry in London. He had come back on holidays and hadn't the fare to return.
