Vol. No. 2,195. SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1950. (Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.) PRICE 2d.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. Thos. McCarthy, Chairman, presided at the fortnightly meeting of the above on Friday last. Other members present were Messrs. T. A. Kynne, T.D.; N. Kelly and D. O'Sullivan.

Houses Allotted.—The Clerk informed the members that Nos. 19, 20, 21, new houses on the Abbeyside scheme, had been set to Mrs. K. Randles. Mr. M. Coleman and Mr. John Blake at a rent of 14/10 per week plus rates. That No. 3 St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside, had been let to Mr. John Maye.

The Chairman said he thought the rents were based on the earning capacity of the applicant. He can't see how the man Michael Coleman, a casual labourer, with a wife and family, can pay 19/8 a week rent. That man should be given a house at the 10/- rate when applying for a cheaper house when available.

The Chairman raised the question of the house vacated by Mr. Jas. Burke at St. Brigid's Terrace. The Council close their eyes to some things and open them too wide in other matters. If it is possible he would recommend that Michael Coleman should be allowed into this house, which is to be reconstructed by the Council.

After some more discussion the matter ended.

Letting of Houses.—Mr. O'Sullivan asked if there was anything further about the letting of the Town Hall for December 26th.

Mr. Kynne stated that he was not present at the previous meeting. As a public representative he disagreed with the order made. The Dickens League Benevolent Society are a body that are doing practical good for the working people.

Houses to be Purchased by Council.—On the proposition of Mr. Kynne, seconded by Mr. O'Sullivan, it was resolved that the Council purchase a number of houses declared by the engineer to be capable of reconstruction at a cost of £100 to £200.

The houses were offered to the Council by the owners at prices ranging from £10 to £40 and the reconstruction estimate by the engineer from £100 to £200.

Parking of Cars and Speed Limit.—A correspondence read by the Clerk from the Department on the above matter intimated that the question of fixing a speed limit for cars going through the town was a matter for the Minister after consultation with the local authority.

To Mr. Kelly, Mr. Kynne said in his opinion 20 m.p.h. is ample speed going through the town. This would be enforced by the Guards. His opinion on present parking is that it is chaotic, and it's essential that parking should be regulated. He had no hesitation in saying that cars should not be allowed parking except while discharging passengers in the narrow portion of O'Connell Street outside Egan's Hotel, or Powers' Garage. If they brought in an Order for parking on one side of the street only and if the shopkeepers had a reasonable parking space, it would be a happy thing for the town.

Mr. Kynne—It's a formidable task. It would have built a nice row of houses, but it's a saving on building scheme.

Arising out of the abstract of accounts submitted to the members.

Mr. Kynne asked the Clerk would he be right in assuming there was a considerable saving in the costs which had estimated at £25,000, excluding grants. He asked if that was so, and the Clerk replied that it was true to say that this amount had not been expended yet.

Mr. Kynne—If there is a surplus left over and have information to the effect that there will be, it might be possible to put it to reducing the rents of the houses. I have it in mind there will be a saving of about £25,000. There are only about six weeks work left, and even if we allow for the sum of £5,000 to be expended during that time, which is more than likely, then we will have a saving of £20,000. I wonder if there is a hope that this could be put to reducing the rents of the scheme or reducing the tax of the town. I would, however, much prefer to see it reducing the rents of the new houses.

Continuing, he said if they had a saving of £20,000, it would reduce the rents by 25%, which would mean a considerable reduction. A 25 per cent. reduction would be very nice. If this is correct it proves beyond any

G.A.A. MATCHES AT DUNGARVAN

ABBEYSIDE, 4-6; EIRE OGE, 4-4. VALLEY ROVERS, 1-6; SLIABH gCUA, 0-2

HURLING AND FOOTBALL. Splendid hurling was witnessed in the Abbeyside v. Eire Oge game at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, and the big crowd present were kept on their toes from start to finish. The keenest rivalry exists between the teams and the match spoken of for the past few weeks as "the local Derby" was indeed one of the best seen during the championships. Abbeyside, due to the members stated that they were favoured to repeat the performance this year; that they succeeded by the narrow margin of two points was due, not to the fact that they were superior in hurling ability, but that they played the cleaner game, their margins being secured as a result of two very deliberate fouls by the Eire Oge defence.

The teams were played on to the field by a further 100 members of the National Anthem was played by the same combination.

THE GAME. Abbeyside broke away from the throw-in and McHugh placed to D. O'Connor, who was fouled. The free taken by J. O'Connor was wide. A free to Eire Oge J. Kieley was cleared out by Callaghan, but T. Murphy got possession and scored a point. Abbeyside forced from the end very and Eire Oge conceded a point. This was short, and J. Kieley went in for a second point. O'Connor replied with a point. Evidence of the interest aroused by the concert all over the South of Ireland was shown by the very large number of cars parked in front of the cinema and lining each side of the adjoining roadways.

Rev. Fr. McEwan, who was making his first appearance in Waterford, was given a very warm reception and after each group of songs received an impressive demand for encores. Maire Ní Scóla's groups of Irish and English songs won her much favour and delighted applause. Kitty O'Callaghan was as usual an excellent accompanist.

ARTISTS THANKED. The programme, prepared by Rev. Fr. Kennedy, P.P., Aglish, said that it was his very pleasant duty to express the sincere thanks of the committee for the great support which had been accorded. No words of his, he said, were needed to express the appreciation of the many who had been present and a great treat had been provided by hearing and seeing him. Notwithstanding the many cars from Red Eborac and kindly agreed to participate in the concert, which showed his magnanimous spirit of charity.

Maire Ní Scóla, he added, was no stranger in Waterford or in many parts of Ireland. She, too, had been put to great inconvenience in coming from Galway to take part in the concert and her singing had been par excellence.

Mr. Kynne, who presided, was well known and highly esteemed by music-lovers of Waterford. He was frequently heard from Red Eborac and through recordings and was "out on her own."

GAELIC NOTES

By "TAQBHLIN."

The meeting of Dungarvan and Killyrossy at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday next in the senior football semi-final is the main attraction on the day's county programme and this match is creating a great deal of interest not alone in the respective areas but throughout the county as well. The names of the players who are expected to give us the match of the year. Last year they contested the county final and the Comeragh men created a surprise by dethroning the champions who at the time were hot favourites to equal a long standing record by winning the championship for five years in succession. After last year's result, Killyrossy claimed that they had once and for all sized up the fact that not alone will they win on Sunday next, but they will take county honours as well. Against Stradbally recently they certainly had a field day and won impressively and this victory has set the Comeraghs on fire with a wave of enthusiasm. In preparation for Sunday's clash they have spared no effort with regards training and a few recent practice games shows a decided improvement with every outing. Of the two Dungarvan have the more imposing record, having won county honours on nineteen occasions, but this does not take from Killyrossy who have won four titles and are intent on taking their fifth this year.

Really speaking, I believe, Dungarvan will win the senior football title any time they make a serious effort and I am in a position to state that this year they have a grand team, all footballers, who on Sunday next will be fit to personify the best of the county. The bustling style of football favoured by Killyrossy is, however, something to be reckoned with and it certainly paid dividends in last year's final when Killyrossy won out in 1888, 1919, 1939, 1949.

I don't hear Old Parish are not a bit afraid to take on Sunday's winners in the County Final.

Have you noticed our Mistake?

Well, several of our customers have. In our recent advertisements for the famous JAMES Motor Cycles we have given the "Moloney Easy Payment System" at 15 guineas deposit and 3 guineas per week. This is definitely incorrect. It should read: 15 Guineas Deposit and 3 Guineas per month.

We now also supply B.S.A., Triumph and Excelsior Motor Cycles. "The Moloney Cash and Easy Payment System."

Notwithstanding the many cars from Red Eborac and kindly agreed to participate in the concert, which showed his magnanimous spirit of charity.

Maire Ní Scóla, he added, was no stranger in Waterford or in many parts of Ireland. She, too, had been put to great inconvenience in coming from Galway to take part in the concert and her singing had been par excellence.

Mr. Kynne, who presided, was well known and highly esteemed by music-lovers of Waterford. He was frequently heard from Red Eborac and through recordings and was "out on her own."

CELEBRITY CONCERT AT WATERFORD

VISIT OF FR. SNEYDY McEWAN.

The Regal Cinema was almost completely filled on Wednesday night, August 9th, by members of the discerning music-loving public for the concert given by Rev. Sydney McEwan, and the famous Scots tenor, and Maire Ní Scóla's sopranos, with Kitty O'Callaghan as accompanist.

Organised in aid of the St. Mary's Church (Anglican) Building Fund, the concert programme had a very high entertainment content and the distinguished artists provided an unforgettable treat for a most appreciative audience.

Evidence of the interest aroused by the concert all over the South of Ireland was shown by the very large number of cars parked in front of the cinema and lining each side of the adjoining roadways.

Rev. Fr. McEwan, who was making his first appearance in Waterford, was given a very warm reception and after each group of songs received an impressive demand for encores. Maire Ní Scóla's groups of Irish and English songs won her much favour and delighted applause. Kitty O'Callaghan was as usual an excellent accompanist.

ARTISTS THANKED. The programme, prepared by Rev. Fr. Kennedy, P.P., Aglish, said that it was his very pleasant duty to express the sincere thanks of the committee for the great support which had been accorded. No words of his, he said, were needed to express the appreciation of the many who had been present and a great treat had been provided by hearing and seeing him. Notwithstanding the many cars from Red Eborac and kindly agreed to participate in the concert, which showed his magnanimous spirit of charity.

TALLOW NOTES

Death of Mr. Michael F. Tobin.

It is with very deep regret we record the death of Mr. Michael F. Tobin, which sad event took place at his residence, Tirrillon, Tallow, on the 9th inst., following a rather protracted illness, fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church and at a moderately advanced age. Member of an old and respected family, deceased was a very popular member of the community and on all occasions very deep and sincere regret is expressed at his passing, not alone in his native parish but all over East Cork and West Waterford where deceased was a very popular figure. A grand type of sportsman, he was an ardent supporter of all games and pastimes and was particularly a grand bowing exponent and generally with the left hand, getting length and accuracy in each throw, being successful over many of the bowing exponents of the adjoining counties of this period. Gentle, kindly and unassuming, he was rendering very deep sympathy to his bereaved widow, son, daughters and other relatives in their sorrow and loss. On Thursday evening the remains were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, where they were received by Rev. P. O'Reilly, C.C., Glendine, who blessed and recited the prayers for the dead, the accompanying cortege was both large and representative. On Thursday and Friday morning Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of his soul. The interment took place on Friday afternoon in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery, when all that was mortal of deceased was reverently consigned to mother earth in the presence of a very large number of travelling friends from long distances to pay a last tribute to an old and valued friend. Rev. P. O'Reilly, C.C., Glendine, officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners were: Mrs. M. Tobin (widow); James Tobin (son); Mrs. S. Geary, Miss Mary Tobin (daughters); Mr. D. Geary (son-in-law); Mrs. J. Tobin (daughter-in-law); Michael, Wm., James, John, Thomas, Patrick and Mee, John, John, Denis, Maurice and William Geary; Jane, Mary, Sarah, John, Alice and Bessie Geary (grandchildren); Mr. T. Tobin, U.S.A. (brother); Mrs. A. O'Sullivan, U.S.A. (sister), etc.—R.I.P.

Local Sales at Ballybride

At the Bloodstock Sales at Ballybride, Dublin, Mr. J. F. O'Keefe Tallow, sold a colt by War Hero Searle to Mr. M. O'Keefe Chambers for 220 guineas; a colt by Driver-Silly Pub to Mr. J. Healy for 130 guineas; and a filly named by Steeple Point to Mr. M. O'Keefe for 26 guineas. Mr. O'Keefe is a well-known breeder of blood stock and is a prominent figure in racing and hunting circles.

Popular Young Man Departs

During the past week Mr. Winifred Thorne, only son of Mr. W. and Mrs. Thorne, Tallow, has departed for Australia, to take up a remunerative position, carrying with him the best wishes of his relatives and friends. He was a very popular member of the community and took an active part in Gaelic League, athletic and dramatic work. Arrangements for the funeral will be held on Friday next, 25th August, and all indications point to another record success for the fame of Tallow monthly fair has spread by leaps and bounds and is already recognised as one of the apathy weeks in the town.

Monthly Fair

The attention of the agricultural community is directed to the fact that the monthly cattle, sheep and pig fair will be held on Friday next, 25th August, and all indications point to another record success for the fame of Tallow monthly fair has spread by leaps and bounds and is already recognised as one of the apathy weeks in the town. Following the celebration of Requiem Mass on Thursday morning the interment took place in the presence of a large gathering. Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., assisted by Rev. J. McCarthy, C.C., officiated.—R.I.P.

St. Catherine's Ours Disposed

At Castlemary on Sunday last, St. Catherine's (Ballynoe) beat the local place at St. Anne's grade Junior hurling championship by 3-6 to 1-3. Despite the disparity of the score the game was keenly contested especially in the opening half. On Sunday's display St. Catherine's should make a bold bid for the East Cork Championship this year.

Death of Miss N. Fleming

We regret to announce the death of Miss Nora Fleming, Ballynoe, which took place at St. Anne's Home, Fermoy, on August 12th, following a rather protracted illness. Member of an old and respected family, deceased was a general favourite with all classes of the community and her passing is regretted by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. At the removal of the remains to Ballynoe Parish Church on Sunday and at the subsequent funeral to the adjoining cemetery on Monday the attendance was both large and representative. Rev. Fr. Foley, C.C., officiated.

Annual Horse Fair

Tallow annual horse fair will be held on Monday, September 4th, and promises to be well attended in the standard of former years. Organised upward of a quarter of a century ago, the horse fair has surpassed even the most sanguine hopes of the organisers and is to-day one of Ireland's leading horse fairs— attracting buyers from all over the thirty-two counties, and across channel. At the moment owners and trainers are hard at work schooling their stock so that all will be ready for the annual day. All are requested to note that owing to the original date, the fair is falling on Sunday, this year's fair will be held on Monday, September 4th.

Harvesting Operations in Full Swing

Along the valley of the Bride, harvesting operations are excellent work is reported.

Ballyduff, Moorehill, and Knockanore Notes.

Successful Gymkhana.— Ideal weather favoured the annual gymkhana (under the auspices of the local club) held at Ballyduff on Sunday and helped to make the fixture a huge success. The attendance exceeded all expectations while entries for the various events were well above the average. Arrangements in the hands of a very competent committee were all that could be desired. Hence, everything worked with clocklike precision and well up to schedule. Taken all round the jumping was excellent although the stone wall and water jump took their toll of victims. The course was very well laid out and evoked the highest praise from both competitors and spectators. The committee in charge are to be congratulated on the arrangements which were as perfect as possible while the excellent jumping kept the spectators on their toes. Results—Competition I (Open)—1, Mr. P. Rice's, 2, Mr. Morgan's, 3, Mr. P. Rice's, 4, Mr. P. Rice's, 5, Mr. P. Rice's, 6, Mr. P. Rice's, 7, Mr. P. Rice's, 8, Mr. P. Rice's, 9, Mr. P. Local Security Force

There was a good attendance of former members of the Local Security Force at the C.Y.M.S. Hall on Friday night when service medals and certificates were presented. Supt. Crean, who presided in attendance, and having formally handed his medal and certificate to Mr. M. J. Sargent, D.P., the latter then made the presentation to each member. Supt. Crean, addressing the assembly, congratulated the members on the loyal manner in which they had served during the emergency, and referred to the terms to those comrades who had taken part in the operations. A former member of the Local Security Force, Mr. John Flanagan, Guard Moxony, was also in attendance. During the course of the next fortnight medals and certificates will be presented in the other company.

Retired Denis

With deep regret we chronicle the death of Mrs. Mary Geary, Lreanagh, Ballyduff, which sad event occurred at her residence on the 8th inst., following a rather brief illness fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which she was a most exemplary member. Deceased was a member of an old, respected family whose death is deeply and deservedly regretted. Of an unassuming and retiring disposition, she was a very popular member of the community and took an active part in the various societies of the town. Her passing is regretted by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. At the removal of the remains to Ballynoe Parish Church on Sunday and at the subsequent funeral to the adjoining cemetery on Monday the attendance was both large and representative. Rev. Fr. Foley, C.C., officiated.—R.I.P.

Excursion to Tramore

To-convenience those who intend travelling to Tramore on the special train on Sunday, August 20th, the local committee has arranged for an excursion to Tramore on the special train on Sunday, August 20th. The excursion, which is being sponsored by the Children of Mary, will be held on Sunday, August 20th, and will include a visit to the town of Tramore, a picnic on the beach, and a return to Ballyduff in the evening. The excursion is open to all members of the Children of Mary and their families. The cost of the excursion is 10/- per person, which includes a return train ticket, a picnic, and a return to Ballyduff in the evening. The excursion is being held on Sunday, August 20th, and will be held on the special train on Sunday, August 20th.

Successful Dance

The night dance, run by the Sports Committee on Sunday night, was a most enjoyable affair and attracted a splendid crowd. Jimmy Wylie, of Mitchelstown, with his orchestra, was the featured attraction, and the evening was a very successful first appearance in Cappoquin, and the catering by Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. J. J. Foley left nothing to be desired.

LISMORE NOTES

Death of Mr. Maurice Hartnett.—It is with sincere regret that we record the death of Mr. Maurice Hartnett, Chapel Street, Lismore, which occurred at the District Hospital in the early hours of Saturday morning, August 12th, following a brief illness. Deceased, who was 90 years of age, was a native of Lismore, and was a member of an old family who was widely respected in the district. On Saturday evening the remains were removed to St. Catherine's Church where there was a most representative gathering, fully testifying to the popularity of deceased and his family. Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul on Sunday morning and interment took place in the presence of a large gathering. Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Foley, C.C., officiated.—R.I.P.

Stock Judging Competition

The Ballysagar Young Farmers Club held their first inter-club Stock Judging Competition at the local place on Thursday evening last on the farm of J. Armstrong, ex-N.T., kindly lent by the owner. A large crowd was attracted to the event, and the members of the club were thrilled by the skill of the members of the eight clubs that competed from Waterford and East Cork. Mr. D. Cullinan, B.A.G., Mr. S. Chief Executive Officer and Mr. D. Walsh, Agricultural Officer, acted as the official adjudicators, with Mr. P. Flynn and Miss K. Barry as official judges. After the competition a social was held in the hall, and the prizes were given by Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., and teachers, where a lovely feast was served by the ladies of the club. After the prizes were presented to the winners as follows: Team prize, Ballysagar; 2nd, Tallow; 3rd, Ballysagar; 4th, Tallow; 5th, Ballysagar; 6th, Tallow; 7th, Ballysagar; 8th, Tallow; 9th, Ballysagar; 10th, Tallow.
