Death of Mr. John Spillane.—It is with very sincere sympathy we record the death of Mr. John (Jack) Spillane which sad event occurred at his brother's residence, Townpark, on Saturday evening, September 30th, 1950, following a brief illness. Deceased who was a very popular man was a member of a respected family and his passing at an early age has aroused the deepest regret.

Of a quite and retiring disposition he was a general favourite and all unite in expressing very deep and sincere sympathy to his bereaved sisters and brothers.

On Sunday evening his remains were removed to St. Cathage's Church accompanied by a large cortege. Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul on Monday morning and interment took place in the afternoon in the Council Cemetery in the presence of another large and representative cortege. Rev. Fr. McGrath, C.C., Lismore, officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Dave and Denis (brothers); Miss J. Spillane (sister); Mrs. M. Flynn, New Street (sister); Mrs. Kearney, Glencairm (do.).

WHAT KIND OF A MAN IS YOUR MURPHY DEALER?

In your district only one radio dealer is allowed to sell Murphy radio sets. We chose him out of many. Not for his looks. We don't care two hoots whether he's pug ugly or the answer to a maiden's prayer. Nor for his gift of the gab—if he has any. We don't want to sell Murphy sets by blarney. He's a first class radio engineer. And he's a man you can trust.
