DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL ESTIMATES MEETING—

Rate of £1 10s. 0d. in £

Mr. T. Lannon, chairman, presided at the meeting of the Urban Council on Friday last. The other members present were—Messrs. M. J. Keane, P. O'Dwyer, T. McCarthy, Senator J. Butler, T. A. Kyne, T.D., and Thos. Lee. Mr. S. J. Moylan, Manager, and Mr. E. Deery, Clerk, were also present.

Procedure.—The agenda embraced consideration of the estimate submitted by the Manager to be dealt with specially, while the general agenda contained such items for consideration as additional public lamps, Town Hall improvements and many others.

Mr. McCarthy said this is a very important meeting and he would ask the Chairman to see to it that when any member rises to speak the Chairman will not allow any other member to interrupt or butt in until the other member is finished.

Chairman.—I made a suggestion that the council put in sanitary arrangements and apply to the court for a license.

Mr. Keane—We have our own water supply and we are not dependent on the public supply. We should be able to supply our own water.

Chairman.—The council has decided to put in sanitary arrangements and apply to the court for a license.

Mr. Keane—Will you as chairman tell that to the authorities.

Chairman.—I don't take that.

Mr. Keane—Will the council agree, rather than have the hall derelict, to let it to some individual or company?

Chairman.—There is no objection to that.

Mr. Keane—This thing has been discussed for some time and our patience is exhausted.

Chairman.—The council has decided to put in sanitary arrangements and apply to the court for a license.

Mr. Keane—Will you as chairman tell that to the authorities.

Chairman.—I don't take that.

MARSHALL AID STOPPED.

The U.S. have suspended Marshall Plan aid to Ireland. The E.C.A. said the Irish Government had agreed that the economic recovery has moved forward to a position where it no longer needs outside dollar assistance to maintain a healthy economy.

The U.S. has allocated 142,000 dollars to Ireland under the Aid Programme since it started three years ago.

Shed meth leis no daine do bhí ag obair in a thoiréal agus bhí mbeathú aige air uatha a thabhairt is a thabhairt. Ar Dheas De go raibís a n-ann.

The Chairman then moved the adoption of the report and accounts which were formally seconded and unanimously approved.

Dividends at the rate of 8d per annum on the cumulative preference shares and 10 per cent. on the ordinary shares for the year 1950 were moved and sanctioned by the meeting.

The retiring directors, P. A. Casey and Dr. Ann Casey and the auditors, Messrs. Kennedy, Crowley and Co., were unanimously re-elected and the meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, director and staff.

F.C.A. NOTES

DUNGARVAN BATTALION

Range Practices.-On Sunday next annual range practices will be continued at Youghal Range. A number of members have completed their course for the year and it will not be necessary for these to fire any more in 1951. These persons who have been notified are required to complete the table of their scores and it is hoped that they will all be present to do so on next Sunday. Transport arrangements are as follows (all times shown are S.T.): Dungarvan, 13.00 hrs.; Ring, 13.15 hrs.; Lismore, 11.30 hrs.; Kilmacomas, 12.15 hrs.; Mahonbridge, 12.30 hrs.; Aglish, 12.45 hrs.; Clashmore, 13.15 hrs. and Ballinacully, 12.30 hrs. It will be necessary for members to be at the collecting points at these times so as to avoid any undue delay. The Battalion Staff wishes to request that everyone concerned makes a special effort to be present this year for Range Practices. This is one of the most important aspects of all military training and it shows a man what are his capabilities when using the weapon with which he is armed. Even a soldier is able to shoot he is of very little use to a unit and he cannot become proficient in the use of arms unless he is given the same knowledge of range as an open range. On his shooting could depend the lives of himself and his comrades, and consequently he should make every effort to ensure that he will be able to render a good account of himself in coming to the open range and improving his standard.

Army Rankings.-Since the beginning of the year considerable number of recruits have enlisted in An Forsa. Most of these young men have not the same knowledge of range as the long service members and for their benefit we wish to give a list of the ranks which are in existence. These ranks apply to An Forsa the same as they do to the regular forces. They are as follows: Private (1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th); Corporal (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Sergeant (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Sergeant Major (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Lieutenant (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Captain (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Major (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Lieutenant Colonel (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Colonel (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Major General (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Lieutenant General (1st, 2nd, 3rd); General (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Field Marshal (1st, 2nd, 3rd); Admiral (1st, 2nd, 3rd);
