WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL

Rates to be Challenged by Tramore Town Commissioners

Mr. D. Leahy, Chairman, presided at the Special Meeting of the Waterford Co. Council held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Tuesday last. Other members in attendance were : Messrs. T. A. Kyne, T.D., J. Campion, Liam Morrissey, T. Fahy, Ml. Harty, D. Heskin, Jas. Quirke, Ml. Morrissey, Thos. Power, Frank Roche, J. Ormonde, T.D., N.T., Wm. Kenneally, Eric Power, Jas. Mansfield, N. Kelly.

ADMINISTRATION OF SMALL DWELLINGS ACT.

A man named O'Neill from the Mount Stuart area appeared before the Council and asked if the Council would build a cottage on a plot of land owned by him.

The Manager, after a short discussion promised to look into the question.

Arising out of this Mr. Kyne referring to the delay in the administration of the Small Dwellings Act said he would not advise anyone to apply under this act. He cited cases of houses long since ready for occupation which were built under this act but which the tenants cannot occupy due to delay in getting clear title. He is not blaming the Co. Council Secretary who administers the Act as it is framed but there is something wrong somewhere. He suggested that some official of the Council be appointed to deal with this scheme of building under the Small Dwellings Act.

Mr. Quirke supporting, said the people of Ballyduff went all out for building under this scheme when it was initiated. It took like a house on fire there but due to the administration of the scheme anybody in that area would not touch it now.

Mr. Heskin agreed with Mr. Kyne regarding the appointment of one official to attend to this scheme and said if the scheme was availed of, it would be a great relief to the Council in the matter of building houses.

Mr. Kenneally—In Waterford City the Corporation will pay overnight on the Engineer's completion certificate under this scheme.

Mr. M. Morrissey said much of the delay is caused by title and sub-division which take a very long time.

Following more discussion Messrs. Kyne and Ormonde T.D.s. and Senator Butler were appointed as a deputation to meet the Ministers for Local Government and Lands with a view to speeding up the scheme.

RATES TO BE CHALLENGED.

Mr. T. F. Casey, Clerk, Tramore Town Commissioners wrote as follows :—

"I am directed by the Tramore Town Commissioners at a special meeting to refer to notice of Deposit of Rate Books for Inspection and of Intention to make Rates. I am to inform you that the Tramore Town Commissioners object to the making of a rate for the Separate Charge No. 14, in the notice for the purpose of Tramore Water Works at rate of 19.196 pence in the £ on the grounds that the expenses to be raised and defrayed by means of the said rate are general expenses within the meaning and for the purposes of the Local Government (Sanitary Services) Act, 1948, and are thereby required to be charged on the whole of the County Health district of Waterford.

"I am further directed to notify you, that should the Co. Council make the said rate, the Tramore Town Commissioners will take such proceedings as they may be advised to have it declared illegal and invalid."

Mr. Quirke asked if the Town Commissioners had, as promised, given their Counsel's opinion to the Co. Council.

Mr. Hailey, Council Solicitor, said they had not yet done so.

The Chairman said the Co. Council maintained that the rate should be a separate charge while the Tramore Town Commissioners maintain they should be charged on the whole of the Co. Health District of Waterford. Legal opinions on both sides stated that each side was right in its respective stand and for quite some time back both sides had been in a deadlock. The Department of Local Government would not take any action in the matter but the stage had now been reached where the Tramore Town Commissioners had threatened litigation.

Mr. Hally, Council's solicitor, asked if the Council was going to get the Tramore Town Commissioners' legal opinion, as he said if and when they got it it might alter the matter. The Co. Council had already given their counsel's opinion to the Commissioners.

Mr. Ml. Morrissey said the Commissioners' legal adviser, Mr. Fergus Power, was to attend this meeting and is on his way up at present.

Mr. Heskin suggested that in order to avoid litigation a deputation of the Council members should go to see the Minister with a view to clarifying the matter.

Mr. Morrissey objected to this and said Mr. Heskin when Chairman opposed sending a joint deputation to the Minister.

Mr. Heskin — The purpose of this deputation would be to get the Minister to amend the legislation which our Counsel maintain is wrong. He again suggested that a deputation interview the new Minister to see what are his views on this matter.

Mr. E. Power said that there Council and the Tramore Town more affected by this rate and it is incorrect to set this out as a fight between the County Council and he Tramore Town Commissioners.

Mr. Heskin—May the Council have the opinion of the Commissioners Counsel.

Mr. Harty said he would always oppose asking the people say, from the mountainous districts of Ballysaggart, Kilrosanty and other places, to pay extra charges for amenities from which they derive no benefits. He would always stand by those men who are working from 5 in the morning to 10 at night, without the benefits of electric light, water supplies or tarred roads.

Mr. M. Morrissey—Oh! they have no amenities anywhere but in Tramore.

Mr. Quirke—Tramore agreed when getting those amenities to pay for them.

Mr. Fergus Power, solicitor, for the Tramore Town Commissioners, who arrived at this stage in the proceedings stated that the opinion they had was that the charges should not be separate but should be spread over the County Health District. He added that he had sent the notice of intention to strike the rate together with his original opinion as he could advise them only on the manner in which this year's rate was struck. Mr. Power added that he had hoped to have heard from his counsel before this meeting but he had not.

Mr. Hally said if the matter drifted into litigation they would have to come together and decide the form of litigation.

Finally Mr. Heskin suggested they adjourn the matter of striking the rate which was on the agenda until they had the Tramore Town Commissioners' legal opinion and until it had been discussed and considered by their own counsel.

Mr Heskin then moved that the Council adjourn the whole matter until the County Council's Counsel had an opportunity of perusing the opinion of the Tramore Commissioners' Counsel's opinion. This was approved.

LISMORE AND CAPPOQUIN WATER SUPPLY.

Mr. Campion raised the above matter again and after a discussion the Manager promised Mr. Campion that he would inquire into the delay in having leaks in water mains and connections repaired and the giving of authority to Mr. O'Sullivan, plumber to open the road and repair leaks when detected.

HELVICK SUPPLY.

Mr. Harty referred to the urgent need to expedite the Helvick water supply scheme.

TRAMORE BYELAWS.

Answering Mr. Eric Power, the Secretary said that copies of the draft bye-laws had been sent to the various Departments concerned and until the drafts are returned approved nothing further can be done.

Mr Ml. Morrissey said the matter is one of urgency and the Department's should be asked to expedite the return of the drafts.

GRANTS FOR THE ERECTION OF HOUSES.

On the proposal of Mr. Kyne, the Council adopted, subject to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government, a scheme to enable the Council to give grants to persons erecting their own houses, from the Local Loans Fund.

It was decided in the first instance, that the maximum number of houses be 60 and that preference be given to applications from Irish citizens.

Mr. Quirke said that the Council dish out a lot of money in various ways but there is one class in the community who seems to be forgotten; that is the farmer over £50 valuation. He can get nothing. You meet the case of a farmers of say, £70 valuation, he may be just struggling along, trying to make ends meet and rear a family, in a thatched house. Such a man cannot derive any benefit from such schemes.

PORTLAW HOUSES.

Mr. Keyes, Housing Officer of the County Council reported as follows :— The above scheme was to be considered for a one-third subsidy rate as well as grant from the Transition Development Fund, not exceeding £400 per house.

The scheme is now practically completed and the Local Government Department were recently asked to indicate the amount of grant available in respect of those houses. I enclose for the information of the Council a copy of the Department's letter of the 4th ult. indicating that no grant from the Transition Fund will be made.

The Department's letter is as follows—"That grant from Transition Development Fund will not be made in the case of the 33 re-constructed cottages at Portlaw. Contributions will be made towards the Annual Loan Charges of Section 6 of the Housing (Financial and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1932, in respect of this scheme. The total all-in cost has amounted to £14,949 19/2."

Chairman—That's very disappointing coming at this stage. If we sent up a recommendation that we went ahead with this scheme on the assumption that a grant would be forthcoming from the Transition Development Fund.

Mr. Roche asked what had become of the further scheme of 34 houses for which tenders were received a considerable time since. He is afraid all these things are put on the long finger. He had thought of resigning from the Council as he can see there is very little use in members coming here; they are just like so many rubber stamps and are only required here when it comes to passing some estimate or money.

Mr. Keyes—Sanction for the acceptance of a tender was received a few days ago but the Department pointed out certain technical details which had to be sent to the Housing Architect and are now being attended to by him.

Mr. Roche — But what has happened over the past five months.

Mr. Keyes—We could not do anything pending sanction from the Department. Messrs. Nolans, Waterford, are the contractors.

Mr. Roche —The Department must be working by old time.

Following more discussion, a resolution was then passed requesting the Minister to re-consider his decision not to make any grant from the Transition Development Fund for the reconstruction of houses at Portlaw.

ADDITIONAL HALF-ACRE PLOT.

In connection with the Council's proposal to give extra ½ acre plots to cottiers with only half an acre,

Mr. Kyne said that if those extra half acres were advertised at an economic rent of 1/- instead of 1/6 he thought there would be much greater demand. From figures supplied by Mr. Doyle, B.E., he thought there could be a saving in the fencing costs which would enable the economic rent to be fixed at 1/-.

YOUGHAL BRIDGE

Mr. Harty asked if the council could say what steps were being taken with a view to building a new Youghal Bridge.

He said that the position had been for too long one of great dissatisfaction to all residents of the area using the bridge and the time had now come when all were tired of suffering the inconveniences caused by its present condition.

The Chairman, Mr. D. Leahy, stated that he understood that the Chairman of Cork County Council had stated that borings had been made, or were about to be made in Ardsallagh, above the present location. He understood that this location had been advised as being the most likely.

Mr. Harty stated that he had been given to understand that should this happen, the liability would be entirely that of the Waterford County Council, as both sides of the River Blackwater in this location were in Co. Waterford. He held the Bridge should be erected on the present site or nearer Youghal.

Mr. Heskin said he told the people of Youghal two years ago that they had put their two feet in it by making an unconditional Bridge Order.

Mr. Harty asked what is the cause of the delay. All the big bridges destroyed in Europe during the war have been long since re-erected and one small bridge here in Ireland cannot be built. Whenever the bridge was being built, if it ever would, they should, in the meantime, take steps to try to facilitate the traders whose trade depended to a great extent on the use of the bridge. He asked the Council to take immediate steps to ensure that the question of Youghal bridge was dealt with and that it was re-built on the present site. He would not be in favour of movingthe bridge further up river.

Mr. Hally, Solicitor, stated that he was of the opinion that before any definite action would be taken in this matter there would be a public inquiry.

favour of moving the bridge furprised steps were not taken years ago to repair the old bridge.

Mr. Campion pointed out that in the first County Council of Waterford, under the chairmanship of Mr. Thomas Power, 50 or 60 years ago, they passed a resolution for the provision of a new Youghal Bridge and at that time it was suggested that it should extend from Ferrypoint right across to Youghal, which was, he thought, the most sensible suggestion of the lot.

A member said that the residents of North Youghal would not agree to that.

Dungarvan Urban Council

CHAIRMAN AND VICE-CHAIRMAN RE-ELECTED

The annual meeting of the above council was held on Saturday last at 12 noon for the purpose of electing the Chairman and Vice-Chairman for the ensuing 12 months.

The following members were in attendance—Messrs. T. Lannen, chairman; T. McCarthy, P. O'Dwyer, Senator J. Butler, T. A. Kyne, T.D.; N. Kelly, vice-chairman; M. J. Keane and P. A. Casey.

CHAIRMAN.

Mr. Casey proposed the re-election of the Chairman, who, he said, was very successful and attentive as chairman during the past 12 months.

Mr. Keane, seconding, said every member must feel satisfied with the conduct of the chairman over the past year. He has given each member a fair crack of the whip. He is a young man who speaks out his mind fearlessly in the interests of the ratepaytrs and the public.

Mr. Kelly, supporting, asked to be associated with the remarks of the proposer and seconder.

Mr. Kyne also paid tribute to the outgoing chairman, who, he added, was quite impartial.

Senator Butler also paid tribute to Mr. Lannen as chairman, and said that he was very pleased at his unanimous selection. If any fault could be found with the chairman during the past year it was maybe that he allowed each member too much time to make his point.

Messrs. O'Dwyer and McCarthy also complimented the chairman on his re-election.

The Chairman, returning thanks for his re-election, said he will continue to do his best in the interest of the town and the ratepayers.

VICE-CHAIRMAN.

Mr. N. Kelly, outgoing vice-chairman, was, on the proposition of Mr. Keane, seconded by Mr. O'Dwyer, re-elected to the vice-chair.

Senator Butler, supporting the re-election of Mr. Kelly, said for the few times Mr. Kelly was in the chair there was nothing in his conduct of the meeting that any member could object to.

The Chairman then declared Mr. Kelly elected.

Mr. Kelly returned thanks.

TOWN HALL AGAIN.

The Chairman referred to the question of the repairs to the Town Hall and the huge demand made on the ratepayers as a result of demands made by county officials, and said the sooner powers are handed back to the council the better, as it will prevent squandering the people's money. He thought the council as a body should stand together in this matter of getting back the power formerly held by councils.

Mr. Keane agreed and said that such powers should be in the hands of the people's representatives.

Senator Butler said that to get back such powers will now require new legislation, and if anyone will propose such a resolution he will be happy to second it.

Following more discussion, Mr. Keane suggested that the Clerk write the Department to speed up their decision on the plan before them (No. 2 Plan as approved by the council).

The Clerk stated he understood two Department engineers v visit the hall on Monday.

DOUBLE FOR KERRY

Waterford Footballers Outclassed

S.F.—Kerry, 5-6; Waterford, 1—1 M.F.—Kerry, 2-12; Waterford, 1-2

Kerry qualified for the Munster Senior and Minor Football Championship Finals in convincing style at Waterford on Sunday disposing of the home Co's. best in two games that provided disappointing entertainment for some five thousand spectators.

In both cases the holders traditional high fielding and long kicking subdued the rugged close tackling style adopted by the Waterford fifteens. The foundation for their wins was laid in the opening half of each game during which they built up substantial leads without reply from the opposition.

In the senior match Kerry got off to a flying start; they goaled in the first minute and never afterwards looked back. They had a strong sun to their backs and with D. Hanafin catching great balls at mid-field, and troubling the home defence with raking centres, the holders soon got under way. The first half yielded 3-2, but none of the scores came very easily. Waterford had a fine defence and even though often bested in the air close marking foiled the winners forwards on numerous occasions, and two fifties which provided exciting melees in the Kingdom's square, and from which with a little luck a score might have been forthcoming, granted the losers defence about the only relief they had in this half. Considering the severe pressure, full-backs R. Maguire, M. Collins, with M. Prendergast and his two flanking halves, P. Donnelly and P. Fitzgerald, deserve the highest praise for keeping the Kerry tally to 3-2. The first-named, in particular, proved himself a tower of strength and though lacking the inches of E. Kennelly, Kerry's tall full-forward, he was always his master, both on the ground and in the air.

Despite the valiant efforts of the defence, however, Kerry were not to be gainsaid. The worried Waterford selectors made numerous changes, but without the desired result. J. Goode, full-forward, changed with M. Hallahan at midfield and T. Barry right corner forward changed places with T. McGrath on the forty-yards mark. The switches effected some improvement but it was not enough to upset the Kerry machine.

P. B. Brosnan, Kerry's veteran full-back with J. Lyne in front of him, and E. Dowling were best in the visiting defence, and invariably proved too good for the home attackers, of whom Goode, McGrath and Barry were the most useful.

The Kerry selection showed one change, F. O'Keeffe taking over 'Bruddy' O'Donnell's position at right corner forward. O'Keeffe started his side on a winning run with a goal in the first minute, when he received from J. J. Sheehan and netted with a ground shot. Waterford crowded the Kerry square in two melees following fifty yard kicks, but overs resulted in each case. J. Brosnan pointed and S. O'Connor had another Kerry goal to put the visitors 2-1 up after a quarter of an hour. The first half ended with P. Godley pointing and O'Connor goaling again to leave the score, 3-2 to nil.

Kerry goaled again in the first minute of the second half when T. Ashe received from O'Connor. A few minutes later Waterford's first score, a point was sent over by T. Barry. Cunningham and Veale went off and were replaced by J. Kiely and M. Ryan respectively about this stage. J. Good had Waterford's only goal from an attack initiated by Barry but it was negatived almost immediately when Kenneally goaled at the other end. With time running out, Kerry added four points per O'Keeffe, Godley, Ashe, and O'Connor.

Kerry.—J. Moloney, J. Murphy, P. B. Brosnan, D. Murphy, E. Dowling, J. Lyne, J. Palmer, J. Brosnan, D. Hanafin, P. Godley, J. J. Sheehan, S. O'Connor, F. O'Keeffe, E. Kennelly, T. Ashe G. O'Sullivan replacing Kennelly.

Waterford—K. Sheehan, T. Veale, R. Maguire, M. Collins; P. Donnell, M. Prendergast, P. Fitzgerald, J. Power, M. Hallahan P. Kirwan, T. McGrath, T. Cunningham; T. Barry, J. Goode, F. Farrelly. J. Kiely and M. Ryan replaced Cunningham and Veale respectively.

Referee : M. Colbert (Cork).

MINOR FOOTBALL.

As in the senior game Kerry's minors proved too experienced for a hard-working Waterford selection. Favoured by the sun and a helpful breeze the visitors built up a comfortable first half lead of 1-8 to nil. The main factor accounting for Kerry's lead was their predominance at midfield where C. Kennelly and K. Barry so outclassed their opponents that the latter were replaced before the hour was out. The home defence of whom T. Power and L. O'Donnell, the wing halves, were best, fought spiritedly against the constructive moves of the Kerry attack whose play was featured by splendid fielding and opportunism.

Waterford had one great five minutes in the second half and minutes in the second half and it followed their first goal. Storming the Kerry defence, they threw all they had into one effort which had the holders in confusion for a time, but the Kerry lines held and gradually the game swung in their favour. Positional switches failed to improve the home team's position and the winners coasted to a comfortable win.

C. Kennelly T. Bailey, K. Barry D. McAuliffe P. Lynch, D. Quirke P. O'Sullivan replaced Ashe.

Waterford : J. McCarthy, J. Whelan T. Cheasty, J. Markey, T. Power N. Cavanagh L. O'Donnell J. Crotty J. Cunningham, T. Power, W. Allen, D. O'Reilly, T. Soratt J. Ormonde. T. Greaney and W. Daniels replaced Hayes and Crotty respectively.

Referee : D. O'Donovan, Cork.

Minor Hurlers Fail At Carrick

TIPPERARY TOO STRONG.

One thousand two hundred and sixty-six people travelled from Waterford on Friday evening, 29th June, by train to Carrick-on-Suir for the minor hurling replay between Waterford and Tipperary, and the hundreds who travelled by cars and buses from all over the counties Waterford and Tipperary, got value for their trouble when both teams battled out a hard-fought game, which was brimful of needle tussles and brilliant play both in the air and on the ground.

Tipperary, although they won by 2-2 to 0-2, were decidedly lucky to emerge victors, for had Waterford forwards turned scoring opportunities to account, the result might well have been the reverse.

The winners proved themselves to have the better attack, though neither set of forwards was particularly impressive. Tipperary's defence in which Wall, Quinn and Ryan starred, nearly always had the measure of the opposing forwards, who missed two good chances of goaling and had at least three near misses for the point posts. At midfield also Ryan and Dowling of Tipperary had the better of matters with their opposites, Veale and Brett.

Tipperary, who led 1-1 to nil at the interval, had their first score, a goal, in the fourth minute per Cleary. Dwyer put them further ahead when he pointed from far out. Both sides made positional switches following the change of ends, and in the third minute the winners had their second goal, Dwyer finishing to the net from an attack initiated by Cleary. Hogan had Waterford's first point. Ryan replying for Tipperary with a like score. In the closing stages Pinkert pointed for Waterford.

CORRESPONDENCE

OLD I.R.A. PENSIONS.

Editor, "Dungarvan Observer."

Sir—The letter signed by a number of Old I.R.A. men and women calling for an increase of pensions has met with immediate response and promises of support from every county in Ireland, and the committee set up has been inundated with requests for immediate action. At a meeting held in the Mansion House, Dublin, at which a number of representatives of Old I.R.A. Organisations were present, it was unanimously decided to hold a general meeting of Old I.R.A. pensioners in the Mansion House to which representatives of all existing organisations and all others interested would be invited, for the purpose of voicing our demand for justice and launching a national campaign on behalf of the claims of Old I.R.A. pensioners. The meeting will be held in the Round Room of the Mansion House on July 12th, commencing at 8 p.m., and we look to the attendance of representatives from all parts of the country.—Yours faithfully,

Piarus Beaslai, Chairman;
Gay and Michael Cremen,
Joint Hon. Secretaries.

TENDERS are invited from competent Building and Civil Engineering Contractors for the erection and completion of eight (8) Houses and for the Site Development Works at Kilmeaden, in accordance with the plans, specification and conditions of contract prepared by the Council's Housing Architect, Mr. W. O. Morrissey, B.Arch., A.R.I.B.A., A.M.T.P.I. Thomas Street, Clonmel.

Sealed tenders must be lodged in respect of the above scheme and copies of plans, specification and tender forms may be obtained from the undersigned on deposit of £10 0 0 which deposit is returnable on receipt of a bona-fide tender not subsequently withdrawn and on return of all documents.

Sealed tenders, endorsed "Kilmeaden Housing Scheme," on the prescribed form completed in ink and Accompanied, under seperate cover, by the plans and specification must reach the undersigned not later than 12 o'clock (noon) on Wednesday, 25th July, 1951.

The County Council does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender and the acceptance of any tender will be subject to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government.

The terms of Section 8 of the Housing (Financial and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1932, will apply to the contract and the successful Contrctor must complete at his own expense the necessary Forms of Agreement and enter into a Bond with an approved Insurance Company for the due performance of the works within the time limited by the Contract.

Youghal Urban Council.

At a meeting of the Youghal Urban Council, Mr. Sean P. Daly, B.E., Chairman, presiding, Messrs. E. P. Lynch, T. Connery, E. Keane, M.Sc. and M. Ahern, were also present.

The lists for revision of valuation furnished by the Rate Collector were examined and in each case the Council gave their observations which will accompany the lists when they are being sent to the Valuation Department. An additional list was submitted by the Valuation Department and in this connection Mr. Lynch said that according to the Valuation Acts it would appear that lists for revision should be submitted by any ratepayer or by any rate collector. The list, said Mr. Lynch was not submitted by either one or the other and he would propose before the Council would consider same, that the Town Clerk write and request the Valuation Department to state who was responsible for submitting the list and why was it submitted. He did not approve of this method of furnishing lists which he considered too arbitrary.

Mr. Ahern seconded.

Chairman—We protest against this trend to raise valuations on the slightest pretext and the Association of Municipal Authorities at their annual meeting and quarterly meeting made their protest.

Mr. Whelan (Rate Collector) When this officer from the Valuation Department was in Youghal I told him there was a lot of unemployment here and he could ascertain this fact himself at the Employment Exchange. The Valuation Officer replied that there were shop fronts in Youghal the like of which you would not see in any city.

Mr. Lynch—It is news to me that this official came to Youghal and put the gun up to our Rate Collector. This official must know everything or thinks he does with his £1,000 a year which the people in the towns and villages have to pay. These people in Dublin are doing their best to kill the towns. Every day we have all classes of inspectors in our town trying to pull money out of the people's pockets. There are some people in Youghal as badly off as those in any town in Ireland. I am appealing to the new Minister to give us a fair crack of the whip. About the Youghal Bridge there are people coming down here getting fine fat salaries and we are as wise to-day about the bridge as we were at any time during the very prolonged negotiations. They should get going with the bridge at once. The bridge is in the same condition for the past 14 or 15 years with its many gravel-filled barrels, zig-zagging its full length and every foreigner who sees it wants to know when the steeplechasing is on. I do not care about the people in Dublin, but I do think this town is being treated badly, and it is the people of the towns who must stand the official racket from Government offices and everyday they spend out of their offices they are costing the people money.

Chairman—As far as the lists for revision are concerned we are bound by law and we must comply with the law. The Association of Municipal Authorities have repeatedly protested against the Valuation Department's method of assesment, and every town and city in the 26 counties is affected as we are.

HOME PRODUCTION AND IMPORTATION OF ROOT SEEDS.

With a view to encouraging and maintaining home production, it has been decided that the present control on the importation of root seeds shall continue in operation.

Licences to import such quantities of these seeds as may be required to supplement home-production in meeting the country's requirements will be granted. Consideration is at present being given to the conditions under which such licences will be issued and a further announcement in the matter will be made shortly.

Youghal Action

A settlement for £850 and costs, without admission of liability was announced before the Master of the Hight Court in an action brought by Sidney Hamer, Glenthorne, Seafield Road, Youghal, against Doreen O'Byrne, hairdresser, Gibraltar Tce, Youghal, claiming damages for personal injuries which he sustained on May 14th, 1950, when the defendant's motor car in which he was a passenger collided with a telegraph pole at Lighthouse Hill, Youghal.

Mr. Desmond Donovan (instructed by Messrs. Barry M. O'Meara and Co.) was for Mr. Hamer and Messrs. Philip W. Bass and Co., were for the defendant.

An action for personal injuries arising out of the same accident and brought against the same defendant by Mrs. Brenda Hamer was announced settled for £500 and costs, without admission of liability.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

DEATH.

RANDLES—July 5th, 1951, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, John Randles, St. Thomas's Terrace, Dungarvan (Late Killarney), to the great regret of his wife and family. R.I.P. Funeral took place to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening. Burial on Saturday at 1 p.m.

IN MEMMORIAM.

KIELY (4th Anniversary)—In loving memory of Edmond Kiely (late of Garvan's Tce.), who died July 2nd. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy.

SLATTERY (Fourth Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of our only child Maureen (E. de M.), who died on July 7th, 1947, late of "Glendine," Mount Pleasant Avenue, Friars Walk, Cork. Masses offered. Sadly missed by her lonely Dad and Mam.

ACKNOWLEDGMEMNT.

TROY—The widow, brothers and sisters of the late Patrick Troy, of Drumslig, Grange, desire to return thanks to all those who sent Mass cards, messages of sympathy and who attended the funeral and obsequies at Ring. They wished to thank especially his neighbours who gave him assistance on the evening of his fatal accident, the doctors, sisters, nurses and attendants of the District Hospital, Dungarvan, particularly the late Dr. D. T. McCarthy, who showed his kindness and sympathy by accompanying him on his journey to the North Infirmary, Cork, where he received all the kindness and attention which could be provided by the specialists, house doctors, sisters and nurses and where he spent the last few weeks of his life in a spirit of courage, happiness, cheerfulness and resignation. R.I.P.

Golf Club (Ladies' Branch)—There was a very disappointing entry for the Open Day last Sunday, although the local players turned out in full force and Fermoy was well represented. As you will see by the results, Dungarvan carried off all the honours. Miss Cait Flynn (14) won the Deise Cup for the second time, having previously won it in 1949. She tied with Miss Kitty Cullinan, who was playing off a 26 handicap with a nett score of 74, Miss Flynn winning on the last six holes. The best gross was won by Mrs. J. F. Kenny (11), 92. The special prize for handicaps of 28 and over was won by Mrs. B. Considine, playing off 28 with 76 nett. The Scotch Foursomes v. Bogey in the afternoon was won by Mrs. J. C. D'Alton (11) and Mrs. B. Considine (30), 1 up.

Golf Notes.—The newly constructed Putting Green was put into operation for the first time last Sunday night with a putting competition sponsored by Mr. P. I. Power, vice-captain. There was a very large entry and after some very exciting rounds Mr. J. J. O'Keeffe emerged as the winner, with Mr. P. Daly runner-up.

Will holders of books of tickets kindly return counterfoils and cash at once. It would facilitate the work to have those in in time.

Annual dance fixed for 28th November. Sean Healy's Band is engaged. Reserve that date for an enjoyable night. See advt. cols.

Goosh Cycling Gala.—The committee of the Rising Sun Cycling Club are to be complimented in their efforts to stage an all cycling meeting at Geosh on the 15th inst. This energetic committee has received entries from such well-known riders as Tom Lavin, Karl McCarthy, of Cork; J. J. Nolan, Kilkenny; P. Larkin, Thurles; Ryan Bros., and J. J. O'Meara, of Waterford. Granted perfect weather, together with a first-class grass track, spectators are assured of a thrilling day's sport.

Cycling News.—At Ardfinnan Open Sports on Sunday last Thos. O'Neill, of the Rising Sun Cycling Club, did not seem to have Lady Luck in his favour when he crashed with two laps to go in the five mile cycle. On Sunday next, 8th inst., he shall be defending his one and three mile cycle titles at the County Championships Sports at Tallow. We wish him every good luck.

Otter Hunting.—The Bride View otter hounds will meet on Sunday next 8th inst., at Kilmolash Bridge (Cappagh) at 12 o'clock.

Minor Hurling Team.—The following members of the minor hurling team are requested to be at the Gaelic Field on Sunday next at 2.15 p.m. for match v. St. Augustine's:—E. Veale, J. Murray, T. Spratt, P. O'Brien, J. Harris, F. Kenneally, J. J. Cooney, B. Drummy, L. Shalloe, J. Mansfield, J. Mackey, P. Kirby, D. Whelan, M. Hurley, M. Fitzgerald, N. Connors, J. Quarry, D. Considine, J. Regan, P. Spratt, L. Hayes, A. Butler, J. Curran, A. Liddane, P. Singleton, D. Whelan (Square), P. Wade, F. Browne. All are requested to have hurleys and togs.—Runaidhe.

Abbeyside Rovers (Minor Hurling)—The following are requested to be at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday at 2.15 p.m. for match v. Dungarvan. All are to have hurley and togs—A. Flynn, F. Maher, P. Feeney, T. Collender, J. Hogan, J. Flynn, J. Fraher, J. Crotty, P. Shanahan, A. Young, Joe Drummy, J. Clancy, J. Ormond, M. Power, J. Enright, L. O'Donnell, L. O'Dea, B. Mulcahy, A. Hayes, M. Burke, B. Cullinane, L. Organ.—Runaidhe.

Over 600 Travel to Waterford.—Six hundred and fifty people travelled on two special trains to Waterford on Sunday for the Munster senior and minor football semi-finals between Waterford and Kerry at the Gaelic Field. Five hundred came from Fermoy and 150 from Tralee.

Local Man's Engagement.—The engagement is announced between John Gerard, second son of Mrs. Moloney and the late P. J. Moloney, Duckspool, Dungarvan, and Joan Teresa, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Bourke, Assolas, Kanturk.

Rural Electrification. — St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, was filled to capacity on Monday evening, June 2nd, to discuss the proposed Rural Electrification Scheme in the Ardmore-Grange area. Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., chairman, explained the purpose of the meeting and spoke in favour of the scheme, discussing its many advantages in the rural areas. Mr. F. Nugent explained in detail the proposed area. The extension contemplated is through Old Parish to Grange Cross and on to Youghal Bridge. Mr. Cashman gave a lengthy talk in support of the scheme and gave facts and figures in very convincing style to prove the economy of the scheme. Mr. Quain also spoke and gave several examples of costings, etc. Mr. T. Flynn proposed a vote of thanks to the Rev. Chairman. He also spoke of the efforts made by Messrs. Nugent, Cashman and Quain in contacting E.S.B. and the amount of work they had done to get the scheme through. Continuing, Mr. Flynn said since the invention of electricity in 1880 by Thomas A. Edison the mode of living of millions had become better. The greatness of America is due not only to her natural wealth but to the application of electricity in her industries. He would give all support possible to the scheme and knew of its wonderful benefits to the rural community.—Mr. J. Mansfield, M.C.C., seconded the vote of thanks. He spoke in favour of the scheme as benefiting the country financially. He said by reducing our imports of coal and oil and using our native power we are strengthening our economy. The outlook in the area is very favourable and the canvass is expected to be 100 per cent.

£110 for a Bullock.—The one-ton white-haired animal was purchased by the Collins Brothers, cattle dealers and meat and live-stock exporters, Waterford, from Mr. Michael Murphy, Ballyneale, near Carrick-on-Suir.

Tipperary Born Priest Honoured in Galway.—Monsignor Wm. Bohan, Vicar-General of Galloway, who was born in Toomevara, Co. Tipperary, was guest of honour at a dinner given by the priests and people of the diocese to mark his Golden Jubilee, which he celebrates this week. Monsignor Bohan, who was educated at All Hallows, was ordained in 1901. He went to Ayr as curate and was later 17 years as parish priest in Stranraer. He became Canon in 1937 and was appointed Vicar-General in 1943. He said his Jubilee Thanksgiving Mass at Dumfries Cathedral.

Conradh Na Gaelinge.—Feis Cheanntair Cheapach Chuinn.—In conformity with the plan of An Coiste Conntae to hold Feiseanna Ceanntair as a process of elimination for Feis na nDeise competitions, Feis Cheanntair Cheapach Chuinn will be held on 15th Lunasa, and at the last meeting of the local craobh a general plan of work was drawn up and Clar Na Feise will be circulated soon. We cannot hope to have this Feis Cheanntair as elaborate an affair as last year's Feis Na nDeise, but it can be taken that Craobh Cheapach will leave nothing undone to make it a success. As well as receiving attractive prizes, winners in all competitions will get a free trip to Feis Na nDeise and entrance fees, etc., will be paid. Arrangements are being made with the local Cumann lu Chleas Gael Club for the holding of a senior hurling match and other sports events, so that every aspect of Gaelic culture will be displayed.

Turus do Ghaeligeoiri.—Acht Chonnradh gur mian leis teacht go mbeidh Bus le failt ta an "turus" eadar Chraobach idir Cheapach Chuinn Lios Mor and Sliabh gCua go patrun na hAirde Moire socraithe anois is son Ghaeligeoir jeath is amuigh dhen Chonnradh gur mian leis teacht linn geobhaidh se a ainm mar aon le 50 taille do thabhairt do Mhicheal O Currin Cisteoir, Sraid Glas, Ceapach Chuinn. DAIL QUESTIONS.

The Minister informed Mr. E. E. Rooney (F.G.) that the payment of arrears of salary to members of the Garda Siochana could not begin until a revised pay order embodying the new rates of pay was made. The arrears would be payable from January 15th, 1951, inclusive. He added that the work of preparing the new Pay Order was being "expedited as much as possible."

In answer to Mr. B. Corish (Lab.), the Minister for Defence (Mr. O. Traynor) said, in the Dail on Wednesday, that it was his intention to increase the strength of the regular army up to that provided in peace establishments—12,500. The method by which he proposed to do this were being given consideration.

CONNRADH NA GAEDHILGE

SUCCESSES AT FEILE CLUAIN NEALA.

Ta tosach maith deanta againn ach is fada agus is deochair an bothair ata romhainn, adubairt Seamus Mac Faoite, ag labhairt le baill na Craoibhe i Halla an Bhaile ag an gCailidhe seachtamhainiul. Ta obair so miosa curtha dhinn again agus is mithid dhinn feachaint siar chun ar saothair d'infuchadh.

"The past month has been packed with activities between plays, dramas, the flag-day, the outing, ticket selling, entries for Feile Cluain Meala, and the organising of our own Feis na nDeise. While we are enjoying a short respite before we resume our activities let us review the work of the past six months, count our mistakes and successes and prepare ourselves for the future.

"Our recent achievements at Feile Cluain Meala are very encouraging and are deserving of the highest praise. Our heartiest congratulations go to Sean Norris, P.T. Instructor, on his great success in the Senior Solo Singing, and to Mairead Burke in gaining 2nd place in the Ladies Section. Our English play was beaten for first place by a slender few marks and a magnificent performance was given by J. Begley, F. Meagher, K. Tobin, E. Galvin and B. McCarthy. Our Irish play got third place and according to reports their marks were over 80 per cent. To M. Brackett, M. Burke, J. Kelleher and T. Nolan, we say "better luck next time." The dancing entries, however, were not successful, but our efforts were by no means discouraging. Despite the fact that there was only one figure dancing competition open to all, with 3-hand reels, 4-hand reels and 8-hand reels, all competing against each other. I think it would be safe to say that our 8-hand reel could hold its own with any other 8-hand reel competing. The competition was won by a 4-hand reel and a 3-hand reel came second. A special word of praise to Misses E. Ormonde, K. Noble and C. Morrissey for their fine performance in the 3-hand reel. Our 8-hand reel was asked for a demonstration at the ceilidhe, and when Misses P. Ormonde, R. Power, B. Daly and T. Nolan, and Messrs. J. Daly, L. Shalloe, M. Daly and J. Mansfield obliged they received a thunderous applause. We are sorry to disappoint such a fine dancer as Miss Mary O'Mahoney on her first trip with us and to Miss Tess Nagle and Breeda Woulfe we say "better luck at Feis na nDeise."

A special vote of thanks to S. Bowman, who offered his car for Clonmel to J. Desmond, T. Crotty and M. Power, who travelled with us to supply such good lively music. The risk of omitting someone is too great to try to thank the ticket sellers. Unfortunately, I do not think that any of us appreciate the value of their work, and each and everyone of them deserves our praise, our appreciation and gratitude. We should thank especially Rev. Fr. Cummins, O.S.A.; Mrs. Nolan, Main Street, and M. J. Keane, Friary Street, and J. Tobin, Ballymacmague, and S. McGrath, who placed their cars at our disposal for the ticket selling.

"So much for our successes, "ach cad mar gheall ar an nGaedhilg?" Let there be no mistake or misunderstanding regarding our object 'to revive the Irish language throughout the whole of Ireland, so that we may be a free, Gaelic nation once again.' It would be foolish to expect to revive the Irish language if we continue speaking English. How can we expect the people to reform from an Anglicised nation if we, the reformers, remain Anglicised in our hearts. It is a mistake and waste of time to pretend to be ardent members of the Gaelic League if we continue to sabotage our own efforts when the opportunity suits us. The general public may seem to us to be a disinterested, Anglicised, antipathetic mass, but when it comes to sincerity there are none more vigilant and wary. While we are patting ourselves in the back, the general public are waiting for the downfall that becomes all organisations who are insincere.

"However, it would be equally silly and insincere to confine our members to people with a knowledge of Irish. We must always keep our doors open to the public to show them that we trust them, that we are not a clique out to collect a few miserable prizes or a small loyal group of so-called intellects. We must always strive to have a membership representative of all sections of the community. We must always be on the look-out for new members. We must always be ready to tolerate mistakes; we must always remember that the Connradh is a voluntary organisation, and we must always keep our activities under the public eye. "Publicity is our lifeline."

Air Travel

Aer Lingus will operate over 450 services per week to Great Britain and the Continent during July and frequencies on almost all routes have been increased to meet the rising demand.

Almost 180 flights will be operated between Dublin and London alone, of which "Starflights" will total 42 at three return flights each night.

Glasgow, the company's second busiest route, will have 40 flights per week, 20 more than in June. On some days, notably July 14th and 28th, the frequency of flights on this route will surpass even those on the London route.

Manchester and Liverpool routes will be augmented by 16 and 20 services per week, respectively, and a daily service will be provided between Dublin and Birmingham, with additional flights on certain week-days.

There will be no change in the twice weekly service to Jersey, although traffic on this route is considerably higher than last year, but the company's other two holiday routes, the Isle of Man and Paris, will be considerably strengthened to cater for the increasing tourist traffic. Fifteen return flights per week will be made to the Isle of Man and the extra services include an additional late evening flight and an extra Saturday service. For the first time this year there will be a daily service to Paris, with afternoon departures on the two most popular days, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Dublin-Bristol service is developing satisfactorily. Although inaugurated less than two months go, 1,000 people have already used this service. This figure represents very nearly 90 per cent. utilisation of the available seating capacity. This route will have an additional flight each Tuesday from July 1st.

Poultry Hatcheries Act.—The following statement has been issued by the Government Information Bureau on behalf of the Department of Agriculture:—The Minister for Agriculture has made regulations under the Poultry Hatcheries Act, 1947, the effect of which is to modify the regulations previously made under that Act. The new regulations are operative as from the 11th July, 1951. The principal modification relates to the classes of poultry hatcheries exempted from licensing under the Act.

Fire Brigade Helped to Save Ship

The Dungarvan Fire Brigade played an important part in saving a vessel which was in danger of foundering in Dungarvan Bay on Saturday morning. The vessel was the Irish-owned m.v. "Tyronnall," manned by an Arklow crew under Capt. Henry Tyrrell, which was bound for Haulbowline with a cargo of coal and bricks from Liverpool.

Springing a leak off Dungarvan shortly after 3 a.m. on Saturday, a radio S.O.S. was sent out from the vessel which was picked up by her sister ship, the "Hallronell," registered at Bristol, which was then only ten miles east of Dungarvan Harbour.

The Bristol vessel hurried to the assistance of the "Tyrronall" and took a number of the crew into Dungarvan, the remainder staying at the pumps.

The pumps, it had been found, were unable to cope with the intake of water and a trailer pump borrowed from the Dungarvan Fire Brigade was hurried to the vessel by boat, the apparatus being in charge of Staff Fire Officer Ned Morrissey.

With the aid of the Fire Brigade apparatus, pumping out 180 gallons a minute the crew managed to keep the vessel afloat, although at one time her decks were almost awash.

A grand feat of navigation on the part of skipper Tyrrell succeeded in bringing the crippled vessel alongside Dungarvan Quay late on Saturday afternoon, where pumping operations were continued. On Monday the removal of part of the cargo in the forward hatch enabled temporary repairs to be carried out under the supervision of a Board of Trade official. When repairs were completed late on Monday afternoon the "Tyrronall" sailed for Haulbowline with the balance of her cargo and for overhaul. In addition to the skipper the members of crew were: Mr. D. Kenny, mate; Messrs. J. Mangan, M. Synnott, B. Whelan, B. Tyrrell and P. English. The "Tyrronall" is registered in Dublin and is 330 tons nett.

EXTRACTS FROM TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT TO THE CO. WATERFORD LIBRARIES COMMITTEE.

Referring to the competition of Commercial Libraries in Dungarvan town (population 5,000) the County Librarian, Mr. Fergus Murphy, states:—

"The radical difference between Public and Commercial Libraries is one of kind and function. The former are part of the social services organised on a non-profit-making basis, whose main and principal function is to serve the higher cultural and vocational needs of the community, to stimulate thought and by the building up of a large "reservoir" of knowledge, deep and wide, make it a real "people's university" accessible to all."

"In this county with our 16,214 General Works in the Adult Section as against 15,084 Fiction we may appear to have sprinted too far ahead of our reading public. My faith, however, remains unshaken and the increased use which is made of our stock of general works, the mounting flow of requests and more widespread realisation that our County Library can meet so many and such diverse needs, amply justifies this faith."

An Eye to the Future.

"Certain progressive local authorities, such as our Waterford County Council, have already submitted rational plans for the development of their county services to An Comhairle Leabharlanna. The latter and the Government Departments jointly concerned may now give a practical proof of their concern for the speedy expansion of Public Library Services by allocating grants, without further unnecessary delay to those counties whose local authorities have taken the initiative."

"Inevitably, the perennial question of library extension activities is tentatively nibbled at and hastily ejected in a half-digested form. The truth is, that to date, no clearly defined policy, based on a groundwork of mutual agreement between the members of our profession, has been formulated."

"Irish County Library Services are unlikely to be troubled with problems of Library Extension activities for some years yet to come. The urgency of immediae problems to be solved preclude any dangerous flights into the realm of fanciful appendages."

Special Activities of the Year.

A "Catalogue of Books in the Irish History Section, together with a selection of Illustrative Irish Biography and Irish Fiction," was compiled. This fourth issue was inspired by a very interesting and pertinent discussion initiated by Mr. M. J. McCarthy at one of our library meetings. Mr. McCarthy was struck by two aspects of the Irish history problem, as we may justly term it. Finally, he referred to the preponderance of books on Irish history written from an alien and antagonistic viewpoint, and secondly to the dearth of handy cheap well-written impartial accounts of the various historical phases. He made a special plea for the publication of such volumes. With Irish publishing still in such a moribund state, it is extremely unlikely that this condition of affairs will be speedily remedied. The Irish voice is still unheard and we continue to be maligned, misrepresented or ignored the world over.

Issues increased by 7,599 during the year to be a total of 146,657. There are 7,728 registered borrowers.

FEIS NA nDEISE

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held on the 26th June at 8.15 p.m. in the Town Hall. Mr. Denis Cullinane, C.E.O., presided. Also present were—Messrs. M. Browne (finance), P. Walsh (exhibitions), R. Walsh (dancing), S. O Faithaigh (Gaedhilg), J. Patterson (music) and J. Whitney.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, passed and signed.

Finance.—It was decided to hold church gate collections in the county in the near future. Arrangements were made to hold a ceilidhe in the Town Hall on 13th July and to have buses bring in the members of the Gaelic League branches throughout the county. It was also decided to circularise various firms and business concerns re funds and prizes. The treasurer, Mr. M. Browne, reported that cups were being subscribed by Mr. Sean Goulding, Lismore, and Messrs. M. Roche, Cork.

Publicity.—It was agreed to have 200 posters circulated throughout Munster, to have miniature posters printed which would be suitable for transport vehicles, etc. Arrangements are being made to have a banner or scroll erected at a prominent part of the town. The Souvenir Programme was discussed but little information was available.

Exhibitions.—Mr. P. Walsh, reporting on his section's activities, said that full co-operation was forthcoming from the local industries and that everything pointed to a successful attractive exhibition. It was hoped to have a rural science demonstration by Macra na Feirme and a basket-making exhibition and demonstration in conjunction with the larger industries programme.

Music.—A very lively debate arose when the matter of the celebrity concert was brought up for discussion. Some members felt that a ceilidhe should be held on the night of the Feis to cater for the outlying districts and for the visitors. Others maintained that the standard of the Feis would be shown to best advantage at a celebrity concert. After some lively discussion it was decided to hold the concert on the final day of the Feis and to have the ceilidhe on the previous Sunday night. (Mr. Leo Rowsome, well-known Radio Eireann piper, has been engaged for the concert).

Meeting.—It was decided to hold a full meeting of all sections concerned with the Feis in the near future, followed by a short ceilidhe. The next meeting of the Executive Committe was fixed for Tuesday, 10th July, at the same venue.

The committees of An Connradh and Feis Na nDeise wish to thank the management and staff of the "Dungarvan Observer" for the valuable space given to their advertising and publicity and for their kind co-operation in all transactions.

EXPORT LICENCE GRANTED

Mr. T. A. Kyne (Lab.) asked the Minister for Industry and Commerce whether he was aware that 50 workers employed at a leather factory in Dungarvan were under one week's notice and that the balance of the workers were warned that they would be required to go on short time and if so, if he would state whether it was correct that the home trade would be unable to take any supplies until August, of finished light leather and if he would in the circumstances grant a licence for the export of this type of leather and thus prevent the 50 men from losing their employment and the balance of over 100 men being put on short time.

Mr. Lemass said he was informed by the Deputy that the position was as stated in the first part of the question, but as an export licence sought by the Company had prior to the receipt of the Deputy's communication already been issued, he assumed that the position to which he referred no longer obtained. He had decided that export licences would continue to be granted for any leather produced by the Company which was surplus to or unsuited for the requirements of the home footwear manufacturers and the Company had been so informed.

WHEAT GROWERS MEET MINISTER.

The Minister for Agriculture (Mr. T. Walsh) accompanied by officials of his Department, received a deputation of wheat growers of the Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association, Ltd., in regard to the price to be paid for the current crop of wheat.

The deputation stressed the need for a substantial increase in price, in view of the greatly increased production costs, the high price of animal feeding stuffs, and the need for encouraging wheat growing at home, in view of the high price of imported wheat and the present international situation.

The Minister discussed all aspects of the position with the deputation, and intimated that the whole price position was under review, and that an announcement would be made in the near future.

It was stated by the deputation that they felt satisfied that the representations put forward would receive the Minister's earnest and favourable consideration.

Circuit Court Judge Bereaved.—Mr. Robert Bernard Roe, Palmerston Lodge, Dartry Road, Dublin, who has died, aged 18, was a member of a prominent Dundalk family. He was a son of Circuit Court Judge P. J. Roe, brother of Mr. Frank Roe, barrister-at-law. Deceased was in his first year as a law student at U.C.D. and had previously attended Castleknock College.

SOCIAL WELFARE BILL

Criticism of Fianna Fail Scheme

On the second stage of the Social Welfare Bill in the Dail on Wednesday,

Mr. T. F. O'Higgins (F.G.) said that the country had not been informed by the present temporary Minister for Social Welfare what plans the present temporary Government had in regard to social welfare. When Fianna Fail had an overall majority and were not depending on "Five Feathers," they refused to give half a million pounds to the old age pensions. The present Minister had opposed the Social Welfare Scheme for political reasons and had proposed a Fianna Fail scheme instead. The country was now entitled to know what had become of the previous Government's scheme.

The Government had stopped something that would have been beneficial to the workers. They would never have had this proposal to increase old age pensions by 2/6 a week from the Fianna Fail Government if the money to cover it had not been in the financial proposals already passed by the House.

Mr. J. Hickey (Lab.) said that when old age pensions were at a maximum of 5/- a week the recipients could purchase 1lb. butter, 7lbs. bread, 6 pints of milk, 1lb. sugar, 2 ozs. of tea, 3 lbs. of meat, 1 doz. eggs and 2 pints of stout. These would cost 20/- to-day. How, he asked, were these pensioners to provide themselves with clothing, boots and other essentials without depriving themselves of the necessities of life. He agreed with the Minister when as a Deputy he introduced an amendment to Deputy Norton's scheme and said that if an old age pensioner had £2 per week it would not be too much to add a further £1 to that income. The Labour Party would back the Government 100 per cent. if they brought in an amendment on those lines now. It was dishonest for the Minister to make the statement on March 2nd to the House and now to come along with the scheme that was embodied in the Social Security Bill. Was it not time to stop talking and come down to realities. He knew of cases of women coming from England here to stay with their daughters being refused their English pensions and having to get home assistance here. If there was anything the Minister could do in such cases of pensioners transferring their residence from England he should do it. It should be the subject matter of arrangement between the two Governments. The Minister had changed his mind about giving pensions at 65 instead of 70 years of age. It was cold compensation for a man or woman on reaching 65 to be told they would have to go to the Labour Exchange to get so much or that they would get sickness benefit if they were ill. It was wrong to ask people with rheumatism or other illness to march every morning to the Labour Exchanges to sign on. Surely they could do something better than that for their old people.

Mr. T. A. Kyne (Lab.) said that the Bill was long overdue. Because of the increased cost of living, an increase in the rate of pensions was an urgent necessity, and Deputies needed no pat on the back or any fine tributes from old age pensioners for offering them this modicum of generosity.

Mr. M. J. Corry (F.F.) said he was glad that the Bill had been brought in separately and apart from the Social Security Bill, which would take months to get through the House. It was not part of the Social Security Bill as introduced by the last Government, but was brought in as an amendment to the Bill by the previous Government and as a price for the support of certain Deputies to get the Bill through the Dail.

Electricity Rationing

HOW TO SAVE UNITS.

COOKER.

When one part of the cooker is in use plan your menu to have all the cooking done on that part.

Boiling Plates.—(1) Do not leave a switch at "high" when "med" or "low" will suffice. (2) Finish cooking by switching off and using the retained heat. (3) Never leave a boiling plate switched on unless the plate is covered by a utensil. (4) Keep two or three saucepans going on one boiling plate. (5) Use correct utensils on boiling plates. (6) Use a pressure cooker or steamer if possible. (7) Use an electric kettle for boiling small quantities of water. (8) Use large saucepans that cover plate when heating small quantities of milk, etc.

Grill.—(1) Grilling is more economical than frying. (2) When grilling on a grill boiler use the top for boiling or steaming.

Oven.—(1) Cook as much as possible in the oven at one time. (2) Use casseroles for cooking vegetables in the oven when roasting and save using boiling plates. (3) Avoid opening oven door except when really necessary. (4) Arrange oven shelves in correct position before heating up the oven. (5) When possible turn off oven switch 15 minutes before meal is served. It will finish cooking on retained heat. (6) Turn "off" main switch when finished cooking.

PRICE OF MILK

Speaking at a meeting of the Creamery Milk Supply Association, at Bridgetown, Co. Clare, Mr. John Feely, Vice-Chairman National Executive, said the Association would not feel satisfied until they received 1/9 per gallon for milk. The one snag they were up against, however, was the fact that each time milk was increased by one penny a gallon, butter would have to be increased by twopence a pound, and that would be hard on the 600,000 people living in Dublin.

For example, Mr. Feely said the farmers were worse off than ever before but they hoped to send a deputation to the Minister for Agriculture in a short time and demand an independent arbitration board to inquire into costings from 1947 as the cost of production was easier that year than any other year; at present the Association was catering for 90,000 farmers and their aim was to get the town and city suppliers into the organisation.

In a reply to a request from the chairman, Mr. William Walshe, he said it would never be the intentions of the Association to put forward candidates for the Dail or local authorities elections.

Dr. Ryan, Minister for Health and Social Security, replying, said he had never listened to a more dishonest and insincere debate from the Opposition Benches. The explanation was that the Deputies opposite were disappointed that the F.F. Government had introduced the measure. Deputy Norton was more piqued at its introduction than he was concerned with the good it would do to the old age pensioners, and was trying to confuse the issue by giving the impression that this was the last word of F.F. The Deputy knew that the Bill was a separate measure and would be followed by a complete scheme of social welfare. The retiring allowances had been made by Deputy Norton on the provision that the person receiving them was suitably qualified by payments of insurance, etc. No party in the House had ever proposed to give old age pensions at 65. It had been proposed by Deputy Norton that a retiring allowance should be paid at 65, but for that the employer and employee would have to pay.

The Bill passed its second stage.

POTATO BLIGHT

Bad weather delayed the planting of potatoes this season.

If late and backward crops are attacked by blight the result may be total failure.

Do not take unnecessary risks. Ensure a good crop by early and thorough spraying.

Do not delay spraying because the stalks are not fully developed.

Potato blight will not spare small and backward stalks.

SPRAY NOW

Spray again in two to three weeks.

Spray a third time if possible.

Read the Department's Leaflet No. 14 and consult the Instructor in Agriculture.

Ballyduff, Moorehill and Knockanore News

Grand Finale.—The garden fete and carnival was brought to a conclusion on Friday night of last week with a grand concert and dance at St. Michael's Parish Hall which was packed to capacity. The programme was a very elaborate one and judging by the loud applause which followed each artist's appearance the entertainment was much appreciated by all. During the interval the M.C. thanked the various artists who contributed to the programme, the large audience for their attendance and their appreciation of the programme and to all who helped in any way to make the entertainment such a success. Afterwards a very enjoyable dance was held and attracted wide patronage. During the carnival week-end large crowds were the order and dull moments unknown—boxing exhibitions, tug-o'-war contests, acrobatic display, basket ball, hurling and football matches and last but by no means least the fancy dress parades for children and adults, which attracted much attention and added a riot of colour to the proceedings, while the Ballyduff Fife and Drum Band enlivened the event with grand selections of music which added much to the enjoyment of all. Judges at the various competitions were: Very Rev. Fr. McGrath, P.P., Mrs. S. Curran and Sergt. Olman. The winners were:—Step-dancing, (four-hand reel, confined), J. Cullinan, E. Fennessy, M. Barry and M. Byrne; reel, jig and hornpipe (confined) M. Coleman and J. Cullinan; (open), M. Harker, M. Quane and M. Fahy; Slip Jig (confined) J. Cullinan. Children's Fancy Dress (juniors), 1st "Help the Missions," T. Hegarty; 2nd, "Flower Girl," R. O'Neill; 3rd, tie between "Gipsey" N. Kenneally and "It pays to advertise" M. Scanlan. Senior, 1st, "Bacon and Cabbage," M. O'Mahony; "Guinness is good for You," M. Kenneally; 3, "Darby and Joan" J. Heskin and P. O'Mahony. Adult Fancy Dress: 1st, "Dev Stole my Seewheart from me;" 2nd, "Victories of the Government," 3rd, "Terry on the Road."

In Gaelic Circles.—On Sunday next the local minor football team, Mocollop meet Ardmore in the second round of the championship and a great game is anticipated at Cappoquin Sportsfield. The game is arousing much speculation and should be a keenly contested one as both teams are all out to reach the next round.

Wedding Bells.—The Church of the Immaculate Contepion, Mitchelstown, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning of last week when members of two well-known families were united. The contracting parties were: Mrs. Jas. Hennessy, Ballyshane, Co. Limerick and Miss Eileen Cotter, Marshalstown, Mitchelstown. The groom is only son of Mrs. J. Hennessy and the late Sean Hennessy, Ballyshane, and is a very popular member of the community. The bride is eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cotter, Marshalstown, where she is esteemed by all classes. Miss Kitty Cotter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. John Lee, cousin of the groom, was best man. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Very Rev. J. O'Keeffe, P.P., V.F. Mitchelstown. Afterwards a reception was held at the Blue Dragon Hotel, Ballinarush, Kilworth, and was attended by a number of friends. With their many friends we join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hennessy every success, prosperity and happiness.

Athletes in the News.—At Carrigtwohill Sports on Sunday last Mr. M. Quirke won the novice 440 yards from a large number of competitors and in very good time. This popular athlete is a member of the Tallow Athletic Club and is a prominent member of the Ballyduff hurling and football Club. His many friends join in congratulating him on his success which it is hoped is only the forerunner of many more successes during the current season.

Death of Mr. P. Geary.—It is with very deep regret we record the death of Mr. Patrick Geary, Ballyluskey, Ballynoe, which sad event took place at his residence following a rather protracted illness. Member of an old and respected East Cork family deceased was held in the highest esteem by all classes of the community and his death is regretted by all. Deceased was brother of Sister Mary Ellen, Laurel Hill Convent, Limerick and of the late Sister Margaret Mary, Faithful Companions of Jesus Convent, Bruff. A kindly genial and unassuming personality, a good neighbour and a sincere friend in brief sums up the character of deceased and we join in extending very deep and sincere sympathy to his bereaved relatives in their sorrow and loss. A very large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Catherine's Church, Ballynoe, on Wednesday evening when they were received at the Church gats by Very Rev. R. Thornhill, P.P., assisted by Rev. D. O'Mahony, C.C. Conna, who blessed and recited the prayers for the dead. On Thursday morning Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of his soul and in the afternoon the interment took place in the local cemetery when all that was mortal of deceased was reverently laid to rest in the presence of a large cortege and amidst every manifestation of very deep regret. Very Rev. R. Thornhill, P.P., assisted by Rev. D. O'Mahony, C.C., offici-

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Junior Hurling.—Tallow, 6—4; Geraldines, 3—2.—Tallow junior hurlers qualified for the next round at Cappoquin on Sunday by beating Geraldines (Aglish) on the above score. It was at times a good game, but loose play and a complete absence of ground hurling spoiled a lot of the exchanges. The greater experience of players like the Curleys, Doyle, Burke and Collins was the deciding factor in Tallow's victory. Particularly in defence they were superior with veteran Mickey Curley at centre back the outstanding figure. Collins and Burke were good wing halves, with Beecher a sound full-back. A very weak Geraldines forward line never looked like gaining a winning advantage, and Keating and O'Brien were the only ones to impress. The Geraldines defence more than held it own for three-quarters of the hour but then went to pieces, conceding three goals in ten minutes. In James Hallahan they had a great centre half-back, and this is a player with a big future on the hurling field. Kenneally was good in goal and could hardly be blamed for any of the six goals scored against him. It is difficult on Sunday's form to assess the real worth of the Tallow forward division. If they improve their positional play and curb their tendency to pick the ball off the ground, even when tackled, they would be much more dangerous. Messrs. Doyle, Ronayne, Mahony and MacNamara were best.

Tallow—D. Doyle, H. Ronayne, M. Beecher, P. Hayes, J. Burke, J. Hogan, W. Curley, C. Curley, M. Curley, P. McCarthy, P. Collins, R. McNamara, M. O'Brien, C. Ryan, D. O'Mahony.

Geraldines—M. Keating, P. Keating, J. Hallahan, M. Hallahan, W. Hallahan, P. Hallahan, T. Riordan, J. O'Brien, L. Ronayne, J. Osborne, P. Kenneally, J. O'Brien, R. Phelan, G. Hennessy, D. Foley.

Mr. W. Fitzgerald, Cappoquin, was an efficient referee.

Next Sunday's Games.—Cappoquin Minor hurlers meet Lismore on Sunday in a second round game at Lismore. The Cappoquin team will be a much stronger one than that which beat Tallow, and there should be little between the sides at the final whistle. At Cappoquin, Ardmore Minor footballers take on Mocollop and should advance to the next round.

Big Win in Crossword Competition.—The first prize of £500 in the "Sunday Independent's" Crossword Competition was won by Mr. D. J. Egan, who submitted an all-correct solution. Mr. Egan, who is Supervisor in the Forestry Department, has been stationed in Cappoquin for a number of years. He is very popular with all sections of the public and has been the recipient of many congratulations on his success.

On Holidays From U.S.A.—A very popular young priest, Very Rev. Michael Ahearne has just begun a two months' holiday in his native town. Fr. Ahearne, who ministers in Oregon, U.S.A., arrived at Shannon Airport on last Saturday and, being a great followed of Gaelic games, waited overnight in Limerick in order to see the Cork-Clare match. His numerous friends were delighted to see him looking so well and wish him a pleasant holiday in his native land.

Local Students' Success.—Congratulations are extended to Miss Mary O'Connor, B.A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Connor, Main Street, who has secured the Higher Diploma of Education with First Class Honours in the Summer Examinations at University College Cork. Another student who scored a big success is Mr. Brendan Olden, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Olden, who in the First Arts' Examination secured First Class Honours in four subjects and Second Class Honours in the fifth.

Successful Dance.—The dance run in the Boathouse on last Sunday night by the Modeligo Excursion Club was a very pleasant affair and was largely attended. Much of the success of the dance was attributed to the excellent musical programme given by the "Marino" Dance Band.

ENNISCORTHY DOCTORS DEATH.

Dr. Pauline Bower, M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O.L.M., Enniscorthy, whose death has occurred, graduated at U.C.D. in 1925. She was widow of Dr. W. H. Bowen, Enniscorthy, and daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Thomas F. McGrath, Carrick-on-Suir. Dr. Bowen was M.O. at the Co. Home, Enniscorthy, which appointment she held since 1944. She is survived by her four children, Marie, Elizabeth, Patrick and William.

Congratulations.—Hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. Daniel Leahy, Crossary, Knockanore, on his unanimous election as Chairman of the Waterford County Council. A grand type of Irishman, a Gael and a sportsman, it is but a fitting tribute to his popularity not alone in his native district but all over the Decies.

TALLOW NOTES

All Set for Sunday.—Arrangements are now complete for the holding of the Waterford Co. Championships Sports at Tallow on Sunday next and all indications point to a most successful meeting. From reports to hand record entries have been received for the twelve championship events which include running, cycling, jumping, weight-throwing and 16-lb. shot. The programme will open with boys and girls races and conclude with a monster tug-o'-war competition which is open to all, and should provide a grand finale to a big day's sport. The track has been specially prepared for Sunday and will be in perfect condition, while nothing has been overlooked. Sunday promises to be a red-letter day in the athletic world in Co. Waterford and judging by the large entries for each event competition will be very keen at Tallow championship sports on Sunday. The programme will commence at 2.30 p.m. sharp and all intending competitors are requesed to be on the mark. Amplification of the various events will be in the capable hands of Mr. J. K. O'Connor, Thurles, who needs no introduction to the public in Tallow, as past records speak for themselves. This is the first time the county championship sports have been held in Tallow and the local club are to be congratulated on their initiative in staging them at this end of the county and it is to be hoped the public will show their appreciation by supporting the fixture on Sunday. The Tallow Athletic Club are doing their part in the athletic revival—show by your patronage that you appreciate their efforts. So with all arrangements complete favourable weather is all that is needed to make it complete.

Inter-School Sports.—The chief topic of conversation in the parish schools and in the adjoining one of Kilwatermoy, is the inter-school sports which will be held in Tallow on Sunday July 15th, under the auspices of the Tallow A.C., and the chief centre of attraction at the moment is the window of Mr. W. J. Fitzgerald's Motor Display Stores, where the prizes are on view and it can be said they are a monster selection and include a boys and girls bicycle for the boy and girl scoring the most points at the meeting, while wristlet watches will be awarded to the runners-up, in addition to a lovely array of prizes for each event. So boys and girls get into training at once—your big day is Sunday, July 15th.

Monthly Fair Another Huge Success.—The best since its initiation is the only apt description of the Tallow monthly fair held on Friday last—size, quality and prices all reached record figures and an early clearance was the order all round. Buyers were present from all parts and one and all were unanimous that the Tallow fair now ranks amongst the leading fairs in Munster—both from the quality of the stock on offer and the quantity. Prices showed an upward tendency while demand was very brisk, hence very few lots of cattle remained unsold. Sheep were in brisk demand and an early clearance was effected. Store pigs met a ready sale at advanced prices. The exodus of stock by road and rail must have constituted a record and speaks more eloquently than words of the fairs success while every facility was available for buyer and seller, thanks to the energetci organising committee. Details—3 and 3½ year old cattle made from £46 to £56 each; 2 and 2½ year old sold at from £21 to £36; yearlings and 1½ year-olds made from £14 to £27 according to quality. Dropped calves, £3 5s. to £5 10s.; hoggets, £6 to £7 10s. lambs made from £5 10s. to £7; store pigs £6 1s. to £10 each slips. £3 15s. to £5 5s.; sows and farrows, £35 to £41.

Successful Indoor Feis.—A very successful indoor feis sponsored by the Tallow Gaelic League Cumann was held at the Regal Cinema on Wednesday evening and attracted a large attendance. Entries all round were very good while the standard displayed by competitors in all grades was excellent. The organising committee are to be congratulated on their very successful function. In a short address E. de Paor O.S., thanked all associated with the success of the feis, especially the adjudicators who travelled long distances and at much inconvenience. The adjudicators were Liam O'Brian, Seamus O'Mahony and Nial de Barra. The winners were: Ceol (10 to 12 years), Maire Ni Craith; do. (12 to 14) Maire Ni Beitsear; (12 to 14), Padraig O Riai; do. (14 to 17) Maisas Ni Cathai. Aithriseoreacht (10 to 12) Sean O Siothchain; (12 to 14) Maire Ni Beithsem; labhaire na Gaedhilge (10 to 12) Sean O Siathchain (12 to 14) Maire Ni Caitear.

Entertainment at the Regal Cinema.—There was a very large attendance at the Regal Cinema on Thursday night when Tallow Dramatic and Musical Society presented "Crime Comes to Ballyconeen" a drama in four acts by J. B. McCarthy, in aid of parochial funds. Production in the capable hands of Mr. E. Colbert, Youghal, left nothing to be desired, the various artists portraying their respective parts in a most realistic manner and the audience were not slow to show their appreciation. During the interval Very Rev. M. Hearne, P.P., thanked all who helped to make the entertainment such a success, the artists taking part, the audience and Mr. Hyde for placing the hall at their disposal. The case was as follows: "Terence Maggee" (Hotel Propritor); Ned Power; Pigie (his daughter); Myra Ryan; "Max Arnold" (actor)

LISMORE NOTES

Mr. Denis Heskin.—The people of Lismore and district feel very disappointed that Mr. Denis Heskin, of Deerpark, declined, as outgoing Chairman of the Waterford County Council, to contest his seat for re-election. Mr. Heskin has done a lot for the people of Lismore and county and is held in the highest esteem by everybody.

Mr. Lawlor.—We are indeed very pleased to know that Mr. Lawlor, of Fortwilliam, is doing very well in the Bon Secour Nursing Home, Cork, and hope to have him back home shortly. It may be some time before he can take up duty, but we feel that he was very fortunate.

Taken Suddenly Ill.—Mrs. Crotty, Main Street, Lismore, was taken suddenly ill at Youghal Strand on Sunday evening last and was removed to the Bon Secour Nursing Home, Cork. She had a successful operation on arrival and is doing very well.

Carrignagour Farm Sold.—Mr. Noonan, Auctioneer, Lismore, disposed of by public auction Mr. W. J. Prendergast's farm and stock at Carrignagour on the 28th June. The purchaser of the farm was Mr. Greehy, Glengarrfa, Lismore. Mr. T. O'Brien, solr., Clonmel, had carriage of sale.

Golden Jubilee.—We wish to congratulate Right Rev. Monsignor Patk. O'Donnell, Ph.D., B.C.L., M.A., Main Street, Lismore, on the Golden Jubilee of his ordination. Monsignor O'Donnell is Parish Rector of St. Jerome's Parish, New York. Parish celebrations, including dinner and receptions by the parishioners and Irish Societies were held in New York.

'Bus to Youghal.—The Dungarvan 'Bus Company will run a special 'bus to Youghal via Lismore and Tallow on the Tuesday night of each week until further notice. The return fare is only 3/-.

Holidays.—Dr. Healy, M.D., is enjoying a well-earned holiday in Youghal at the moment. Dr. Power M.B., is doing temporary duty in the area.

Successful Dance.—The dance held in the Town Hall, Lismore, on Sunday night last was an outstanding success and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present. An excellent programme of music was supplied by the Brideside Dance Band, Tallow.

Stock Judging.—Mr. Liam Ryan, Secretary to the Ballysaggart Young Farmers' Club, left for England on Monday, where with three other members of Macra Na Feirme he will lead the Irish Stock Judging team at the Royal Show at Cambridge on July 5th.

Holidays.—Presently enjoying a brief holiday at the parental home, Cooldrishogue, is Miss Carmel Power, S.R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Power. This very popular, esteemed and distinguished young lady has achieved high honours in the nursing profession and is attached to a London Hospital where she has a very brilliant career.

ADDRESS BY DR. MANNNIX IN MELBOURNE

In a recent address in Melbourne to the members of the Australian League for an Undivided Ireland, His Grace, Dr. Mannix, Archbishop of Melbourne, said that it was very appropriate that they in Melbourne should assemble to protest "against the British partition line in Ireland."

"I don't suppose," said Dr. Mannix, "that I have many years to live—one never knows, of course—but I should like to be able to predict to-day that in my time I would be able to look from Melbourne upon an undivided Ireland at the other side of the world. It is quite possible, at all events, at the moment, not to be able to see a change of policy. England needs all the friends that she can have, and there is no nation that would be more friendly and helpful to English in any crisis that may arise in the future than an undivided Ireland.

"The Irish people have been very patient and have suffered not for years but for centuries. Perhaps it would be all the better if all that they have suffered through the years were, if possible, forgotten. For the Irish people are not merely patient but they are also a forgiving people. They are ready to have friendly relations with England, Scotland and Wales.

"But before England can count upon a friendly Ireland at her side, the line of partition, drawn and maintained by England, must be wiped out."

Juanita Harvey (novelist); Tessie McCarthy; Sergt. Fergus Keating (Garda Siochana); Tom Roche, Florry Fitzgerald (Boots at Hotel) Connie Ryqn; detective, Mort Kelleher.

Grand Ceili.—A most successful ceili under the auspices of the Regal Ballroom was held at the Regal Ballroom on Friday night and attracted a record gathering. Much appreciated music was supplied by the Brideside Serenaders.

Tallow for Area Final.—By their win over Geraldines (Aglish) on Sunday last the Tallow fifteen qualified for the area final against Ballyduff. Sunday's display was a grand sporting exhibition of the code and reflects the greatest credit on both teams. From start to finish there was not an incident of any kind as both teams concentrated on playing the ball and up to the closing stages it was either sides game. Congratulations to Tallow and Geraldines on the display served up. P. J. Collins J. Burke C. and M. Curley and H. Ronayne were best for the winners while C. Hallihan, J. Kenneally, M. Keating and S. O'Brien were best for the losers.

Kilmacthomas Notes

A Number of Children who received their first Holy Communion at the 8.30 Mass in St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, on Friday, 29th ult (feast day of SS. Peter and Paul) were drawn from Ballylaneen N.S. and Ballinarid N.S.

Mid-Waterford sweltered in heat over yester-week-end, and the gloriously sunny conditions lured record numbers of "inlanders" to the seaside on Sunday. From the coast to the Comeraghs hay-cutting operations are proceeding apace, while in the area's peat bogs the work of turf-harvesting continues in full swing.

Many Expressions of sincere sympathy have been tendered to worthily well-esteemed Mrs. A. Coffey, N.T., "Ard-na-Greine," Kilmacthomas, and Miss C. Walsh, do., on the death, last week, of their universally popular brother, Mr. Patk. Walsh, of 7 Park Road, Waterford, who was a retired postmaster of Waterford G.P.O. Peace to his gentle soul.

In the Stomach of a bonham found dead on Monday in a farmyard not far from Kilmacthomas were discovered—Two pieces of wire five inches long, several parts of a razor blade, wire nail, brass nut, an assortment of brightly coloured straps of pottery, glass and stone. The pieces of wire had punctured the stomach and killed the animal, which was one of a litter of eighteen and was apparently healthy. As far as can be ascertained, a happening of a similar nature never previously occurred in the centre of the Deise country.

Holiday-makers.—Attached to the staff of one of the most expansive hospitals in London are the Misses Rita and Maisie Walsh (nurses). Daughters of Mrs. and the late Mr. Walter Walsh, Ballyogarty, Kilmacthomas, the amiable young ladies are now enjoying their annual holiday break in their natal region. The surname "O'Neill" is borne by one of the oldest and best-connected family stocks of the once famous copper mining village of Bonmahon. Belonging to the said stock are estimable Mrs. O'Neill and her daughter, Miss Kathleen O'Neill, of Bury, Lancashire, England, who are holidaying at this side these days, being the guests of their likeable cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Veale, Carrigcastle, Bonmahon. Also from Bury, Lancs., are Mr. and Mrs. Walker and their niece, Miss Joan Basford, who too, are holidaying anow in Bonmahon, where they are staying with the O'Neill-Hannigan family, firm friends of the charmingly mannered trio.

First Prizewinners at the Cork Summer Show included Mr. N. Connors, Park, Stradbally, and Major Wade, Mill House, Carrigcastle, Kilmacthomas.

By the Way.—Many mid-Waterfordian "old-timers" feel that the 'bus, with its countless advantages for the rural population, has almost annihilated the country girl who was once as distinctive as the stone gem dubbed "ruby" (which ancient tradition has assigned to the present month), and who could always be identified by her little shawl and the characteristic simplicity of her raiment. To see a colleen of this type now is almost as great a rarity as to see a woman with long tresses. And —well, more's the pity!

The Heresy of Yesterday is the dogma of to-day. Nearing his 70th birthday milestone is the Mahon Valley man who has never found his point of view identical with the individuals who persist in going about with bare heads, whether in sun, rain or storm; but according to a statistical expert the hatless brigade has now become a corps, recruited from all ranks of society, the prince and the commoner being equally susceptible to the freedom of the new cult. Prior to World War 1 the man who went without a hat was looked upon as a crank and dogs barked at him. Though a section of the community—especially the hatters—regard the fellow with his cranium uncovered as an "odd fish," it must be acknowledged that he has outlived the conventional reproach of other days. The hatter—whether he trades in town or in city—will always have friends on whom he can implicitly rely—the adult whose hair is turning grey and the young old boys with the bald-headed pates. They refrain from exposing themselves to the public gaze, and quite right too.

Congratulations are offered to Mrs. D. E. Barrett, Comeragh Loodge, Kilmacthomas on winning a monetary prize in a Crossword Competition conducted by an Irish Sunday newspaper.

It Is Expected that Messrs. P. J. Little and Sean Ormond, T.D.s., will be present at the special meeting of the mid-Waterford Comhairle Ceanntair, Fianna Fail, to be held at the Courthouse, Kilmacthomas, this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock.

Mahon Rangers v. Sean O'Mara's.—Coming off at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, tomorrow (Sunday), this clash—a second-round tie in the West Waterford Divisional Junior Hurling Championship Competition of the current year—should be well worth seeing. The teams are said to be ship-shape for the set-to and with both equally determined on and confident of success a topping tussle seems assured. May the better combination qualify for round three!

A Party of young men motoring from Youghal to Tramore and Kilkenny on the latest Church holiday were fortunate to have escaped serious injuries when their car hit the wall (in which a G.P.O. letter-box was embedded) beside Currabaha level-crossing, near Kilmacthomas, with such violence that the structure was levelled to the ground. The car was damaged, as also was a bicycle (belonging to a local farmer) which was parked against the wall.

Excelsior.—Miss Philomena Gallagher, who, on Thursday, 21st ultimo, was received into the Franciscan Order at the Convent thereof in Melton-Mowbray, Leicester, England, is a daughter of highly-esteemed Garda and Mrs. James Gallagher, Stradbally. Miss Gallagher (in religion Sr. Mary Crestentia) is a brilliant past pupil of the Convent of Mercy Schools, Stradbally, where, during her term, she always figured prominently and distinctly successfully in the beautiful and educative plays that were presented to the public from time to time. And she was a valued member of the Stradbally Dramatic Class as well. Sr. M. Crestentia's good mother had the happiness of being present at the ceremony in Melton-Mowbray.

Nice to Note.—That the veteran Kilrafrehan handballer, Tom Fahy, was well to the fore in many of the games played at the admirably appointed Stradbally alley in recent weeks. Jackie Power and P. Power, of Stradbally, beat Ed. Dunphy and Ml. Power, do., by 8 games to 1 in a brilliant exhibition of the code at the said court but a few evenings ago. If they continue in regular training these local players will take some beating in inter-club contests undoubtedly.

Dail Suspension of Deputy Dillon

The question of procedure in the election of Deputy Speaker led to heated exchanges in the Dail on Wednesday which culminated in the suspension of Mr. Dillon (Ind.) for not obeying the Chair and the election of Mr. C. Breslin (F.F.) as Leas-Ceann Comhairle.

Two motions were before the House. One was by Mr. de Valera for the election of Mr. Breslin and the other by Mr. C. M. Fagan (Ind.) for the election of Alderman A. Byrne (Ind.).

The debate became heated when the Ceann Comhairle ruled that he had called on the Taoiseach to reply and that no one else could speak. Several Deputies said that they desired to speak to the motions. Mr. S. Collins (F.G.) claimed that the Taoiseach had only intervened in the debate, but Mr. de Valera denied this and said he was called on by the Chair. The Ceann Comhairle in explanation said that nobody offered himself when the Taoiseach rose and he (Ceann Comhairle) assumed he was speaking in reply.

General R. Mulcahy declared that the Taoiseach had "tricked the House by his statement." To this Mr. de Valera replied: "That is an untruth."

During these exchanges Mr. Dillon had been pressing to be heard but the Ceann Comhairle ruled against him and finally named the Deputy for failing to resume his seat. Mr. de Valera then moved Mr. Dillon's suspension and this was carried by 72 votes to 60.

Mr. Breslin was elected Leas-Ceann Comhairle by 73 votes to 59. Five Independents voted with the Government in both divisions.

FINANCE BILL IN SEANAD.

When the Second Stage of the Finance Bill was taken in the Seanad, Senator Douglas said he believed that the income tax as such was unfair. It was absurd for an independent State to be operating on British Income Tax Acts and never to have made a serious attempt to evolve a scheme of its own.

Senator Quirke said that he would not be against the mechanisation of Irish farms if we could produce here the raw materials necessary to keep it moving in times of crisis. It was insane in the present international situation to go over completely to tractors and lorries. It was foolish in his opinion to have changed the President's escort from horses to motor cycles. In Ireland we should have horses in all the outstanding parades and ceremonies. Everything in connection with horses was produced at home and the money remained in Ireland, while every penny spent on the purchase and upkeep of mechanised transport went abroad.

Senator Colgan said the Minister should consider the establishment of a "pay as you earn" system for income tax, particularly for the working classes.

INTER-COUNTY HANDBALL AT TRAMORE

The handball revival continues next Sunday when two Munster Championship games are down for decision.

In the Junior Soft Ball Singles we shall see the continuation of the "blacked out" game of Sunday night last in which J. Kelly, of Waterford, was leading J. Gallagher, Tipperary, by one game to nil and by 8 aces to 1 in the second game when bad light stopped play. The contest will resume with Kelly retaining his lead, but this does not mean a victory for him as the rubber is for the best 3 out of 5.

In the other game spectators will see hardball for the first time between the Tipperary Senior Singles Champion and the Waterford Senior Singles Champion. The first game will start at 3 p.m. Admission 1/6 and 1/-.

It has also been announced that the Munster Senior Hardball Championship Final and the Minor Soft Ball Doubles Championship Final will be played at Tramore on a date to be announced later.

CORK HURLERS IN MUNSTER FINAL

In a game which was entirely colourless and lacked the glamour and thrills usually associated with this competition, Cork easily defeated Clare at the Gaelic Grounds, Limerick, on Sunday, to qualify for the Munster senior hurling final against either Tipperary or Limerick.

The crowd of 15,300—receipts £2,024 — who witnessed the match in idea conditions, saw hardly a passage of worthwhile hurling in the hour.

The final score saw Clare finishing only eight points behind, but it was a misleading result, for at no time did the Banner County men look like matching their opponents.

Cork started the debacle with a goal by Lynam after seven minutes and from then up to the interval Clare reeled under a series of hammer blows from which they never seemed likely to recover.

Having led 4-7 to 1-2 at half-time, Cork could afford to relax. They did and only came to life again when Clare got within striking distance in the last five minutes.

Not alone was the standard below par, but the frequent stoppages for frees and injuries slowed the game down to snail's pace.

On this form it is hard to assess the worth of Cork's team but they look the makings of a first-class side.

In V. Twomey of Glen Rovers Cork appear to have a "find" while "Danno" O'Mahony, at centre-half, was also in great form and was well backed by Matt Fouhy on the left. Griffin at centre-field impressed by his clean striking, while Ring and Daly were as effective as ever in the half-forward line. Cork had plenty of punch in the forward line, with speedy Lynam and crafty Condon showing to advantage throughout.

Solon, who finished at full-back, was best supported by Guinnane and Grady in a shaky Clare defence. Considine did well at centre-field, while Smith Nugent and Jordan were the pick of the forwards.

With the wind, Cork were on top from the start and had had a succession of scores from Lynam (1-0) Fouhy (0-1 free), Ring (0-1), Condon (1-0), Daly (1-0), Ring (0-2), and Aherne 0-1), in that order before Smith had a goal for Clare from a free.

Points from Considine (70), and Smith (free) further reduced Clare's arrears but before the interval, Ring (0-1), O'Brien (1-0 direct from 70), and Lynam (0-1), added Cork scores for a half-time lead of 4-7 to 1-2.

Clare restarted well and after a goal had been disallowed, Considine (2) and Smith had points. Smith then goaled a 21 yards free and Considine followed with another from long range. Cork had the final score, however, when Condon sent to the net.

Cork—J. Cotter, D. Barry, G. O'Riordan, V. Twomey, S. O'Brien, J. O'Mahony, M. Fouhy, W. Griffin, G. Murphy, M. Finn, C. Ring, W. J. Daly, J. Lynam, T. Aherne, S. Condon. Sub.—P. Barry (for Aherne).

Clare—J. J. Bugler, D. McInerney, P. Callaghan, D. Solon, D. Grady, M. Guinane, B. McMahan, M. Considine, D. Carroll, J. Greene, M. Nugent, J. Purcell, J. Smith, P. Jordan, A. O'Brien. Subs.—P. Greene (for Callaghan), P. Walsh (for Greene).

Referee—Mr. W. O'Donoghue (Limerick).

CORK MINORS WIN.

Cork minors were deserving winners over Clare but contrary to expectations Clare put up a hard fight with only a solitary score separating the teams when the final whistle came. Hero of the game was J. Clifford of Glen Rovers who, at left half-forward had the unique distinction of having every one of Cork's scores. Well supported by O'Mahony and O'Regan, Clifford proved himself a stylish sharpshooter. Outstanding in Cork's defence was M. Sheehan, at full back.

Cork swept the opposition before it all through the first half and ran up a goal and five points to Clare's scoreless sheet. D. Hanrahan and D. Madigan fought hard in Clare's defence, while A. Casey, L. Blake and G. Browne were the pick of the forwards.

With a strong breeze to their backs, Cork swept into the attack from the start and S. Clifford opened the scoring with a point from a free. Within fifteen minutes Clifford had added two more points and before the interval the same player had brought Cork's score to 1-5 without reply from Clare. Cork maintained their superiority after the interval and Clifford added another point. Clare fought back and A. Casey had their first score—a goal. Clifford had another point and so had Casey. Clifford pointed again and Casey had a similar score. G. Browne reduced the arrears with a goal. Clifford raised the white flag once more and in the last few minutes, L. Blake had a snap goal to reduce the gap to three points but the Cork boys hung on to their lead.

Cork—S. Dempsey, S. Cowhey, M. Sheehan, P. Devereaux, S. Regan, P. Duggan, S. O'Donoghue, M. Horgan, J. Clifford, T. Kelly, S. O'Sullivan, C. Thomas.

Clare—P. Waldron, D. Hanrahan, T. Keane, B. Madigan, T. O'Gorman, M. Lynch, T. Butler, P. Daly, A. Casey, B. Gilmartin, N. Deasy, L. Blake, S. Madigan, G. Browne, S. Ryan.
