NOTICE TO RATEPAYERS

Ratepayers are hereby reminded that the Current Year's Rates are now OVERDUE several months and should be PAID AT ONCE.

Some Ratepayers are apparently under the erroneous impression that the Rates need not be paid until the month of March. This is entirely contrary to Law and is also the cause of putting an unnecessary strain on the Council's finances when the Rates are not collected at the proper time.

Accordingly, the Rate Collector has been specially instructed that no further postponement of the payment of the Rates will be granted.

RATEPAYERS ARE THEREFORE WARNED THAT THE RATE COLLECTOR HAS STRICT INSTRUCTIONS TO TAKE IMMEDIATE PROCEEDINGS FOR DISTRAINT IF NECESSARY FOR THE RECOVERY OF ANY RATE NOW OUTSTANDING.

NOTICE TO BEET GROWERS The Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association is not satisfied with the terms of the new Sugar Beet Contract for the season 1957/58. This contract was issued above the heads of the Growers' representatives and without their prior agreement. The net effect of the contract to Growers who consume their own dry pulp is to grow beet at 7/- per ton less than in previous years relative to agreed established costs of production. The Association, under the circumstances, cannot take it on themselves to recommend to their Growers to sign a contract under such an imposition. This high-handed action on the part of the Company is wholeheartedly condemned and makes no contribution to the cause of increased production, which it claims to foster. The inaccuracies in the published advertisements of the Company will be self-evident to Growers. The Association will continue as long as is necessary to fight for justice in the Growers' interests. In issuing this statement, the Association have fully in mind the consequences of a reduced beet acreage to the National Consistencies of the wider issues. WATERFORD COUNTY COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE

Call for increase of 10 per cent on wheat price

Waterford County Committee of Agriculture unanimously called on the Minister for an increase of 10% on the 1954 price for wheat at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan on Saturday. The Committee were satisfied that the present system of grading was to their advantage. Mr. Dowd stated that the Minister should fix the price on the average bushel going to the mills. Mr. Walsh said that farmers would get 23-10-0 when bushing 60 lbs. while the average return was 57 or 58 lbs. He felt that it would be a better offer to the farmer if the Minister gave 75% on the average bushel weight and then go up and down in the price according to the return. Mr. Dowd stated that many of the farmers he represented took a very strong exception to this attempt to pull the wool over their eyes with this price juggling where wheat is concerned. As matters stand, he said, farmers stand to get a reduction for their wheat instead of an increase in price. They had instructed him in his area to demand an increase of 10% on the 1954 price, and he had asked that the gradient be allowed to remain as it is. Mr. Walsh said that grading step by step was desirable and to the farmer's advantage. Mr. Dowd agreed stating it was all right if the price was right. What we want is a proper price, he added, and an increase of 10% is not unreasonable. Mr. Curran—We haven't a hope in the world of 10% increase on the 1954 price. Mr. Fahy—The price of oil this year is going to make production of the farms very costly and all these things have to be taken into account. Mr. Curran—I know but we are asking more than the National Farmers' Association asked. Mr. Dowd replied that he was speaking for the farmers he represented and he was asking what they wanted. Finally after further discussion the Committee unanimously called on the Minister for a 10% increase in the 1954 price for wheat. The Committee also pressed the draft for the establishment of the Agricultural Institute. Mr. Curran stated that though proposals for a better mail by now and those concerned should be asked to go ahead with the institute's establishment immediately. East versus West was the theme of a lively discussion at a meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan on Saturday when a proposal to change the present system of instruction in poultry production was defeated on a vote of 7 to 5. The discussion was in fact a sequel to the recent resignation of Miss B. Coleman who had been poultry instructor in the West Waterford area. She resigned following a statement by Mr. W. Foran at a meeting of the committee that poultry producers in Waterford would be as well served by two instructors as by three. As a result of her resignation it was necessary to re-organise the system of instruction in the County. Certain changes were proposed by Mr. W. Foran, including the transfer of Miss Walsh from Waterford to a new headquarters in Lismore. Miss Mullins, whose headquarters in Dungarvan was to be taken over by the western end of the county and placed in charge of East Waterford. Her headquarters would, however, remain in Dungarvan. Mr. Conroy stated in putting his headquarters. Mr. Conroy

Kilkenny, who has been a moderately advanced age, was a brother of widely known and esteemed Mr. Thos. Murphy, cattle dealer, farmer and shopkeeper, Currahaba, to whom sympathy in full measure is offered in his tribulation. R.I.P.—Those of these parts who are positioned in Windsor, Berkshire, England, are among the many there now mourning the death (suddenly) of their well-beloved saintly pastor, the Very Rev. Timothy Canon Twomey, P.P. Only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Twomey (Woolen Mills proprietor) Driscoll, Co. Cork, Canon Twomey breathed his last at the Parochial House, Windsor, at a rather early age. His reverence was a lovely figure and in his parish had time and again proved himself "a friend indeed" to the Irish migrants he met, and he will long be remembered by all for his kind and affectionate nature. By the Way—Rev. Mons. KISSANE, D.Litt., L.S.S., President of Maynooth and Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the National University, conferred degrees at University College, Dublin, on the first day of this week. Miss Nora O'Keefe, who received the B.S. degree, is daughter of Padraig O'Caoinh, General Secretary, G.A.A. and Bean Uí Caoinh. The Goals of these parts will join with the others in warmly congratulating Miss O'Keefe on her success and in wishing the estimable young lady all prosperity and happiness in the purity of the career of her choice. Have It that Ballylaneen and its old cemetery, and Kilmacomas and Crotty's Rock were mentioned in the "Place the Accent" test which figured on the Radio Eireann programme on Thursday, 17th inst., and which was repeated on that of the next day but one. Of Luck and continuing interest in success to clubbable Co. Kerry-born Mr. Timothy Long, Accountant, National Bank, Kilmacomas, who has just been transferred on promotion to the Ballinglass, Co. Wicklow branch during his term in Kilmac' was a great favourite with all and will be missed and sorely missed.

CLASHMORE F. CUMANN.—There was a large attendance at the annual general meeting of the Clashmore F.F. Cumann when the following officers were unanimously re-elected: Chairman, Mr. C. C. O'Connell; Vice-do., Mr. W. Kiely; Treas., Messrs. T. Dee and J. Veale; Hon. Sec., Mr. P. Cunningham; Delegates to Comhairle Ceannais, Messrs. Fitzgerald, Dee and J. Veale. OLD COUN FOUND.—A rare old coin was recently found near Clashmore. It is a copper coin about the size of a penny and on one side is a representation of a head wearing a crown or mitre with a cross in the background. The inscription is very worn but the word "BOROMBE" can be clearly distinguished. On the other side appears to be 1395. PILTOWN CARNIVAL.—A very successful fancy dress ball was held in connection with Piltown carnival. First class music was supplied by the popular Tower Dance Band, Youghal. O.A.P. MEETING.—A meeting of the Youghal City Age Pensioners Committee (local) was held at Clashmore Mr. R. J. Russell, Chairman presided. Three claims were considered, two of the applications being granted and one was deferred. OLYMPIC CHAMPIONS' CLASHMORE ANCESTORS.—When he recently visited this country, Mr. Harold Connolly, U.S.A., Olympic Hammer Throwing champion, discussed that his grandmother (maiden name Bridget Ronayne) was a native of Clashmore and that other relatives in the district included Cummings, Bal, Veale, Currys, Colemans and Hickey. Mr. Connolly who is at present on a tour of Europe and hopes to visit his Clashmore relatives later in the year, is a teacher in Boston and an alumnus of that City's University. His European tour is sponsored by the International Exchange Service, U.S. Dept. of State. He won the Olympic hammer throw in Melbourne this year and holds the world record at 224 feet, 10 1/2 inches. HUNTING.—The West Waterford's met at Seesh on Saturday, 19th Jan. The field turned out and enjoyed a good day's sport. The Kinsale-Clashmore Hunt had some excellent hunting in the Clashmore area on Sunday last.

IF YOU'RE GOING BY WHAT JOURNALISTS SAY—

C.A.O.: It has been stated that the farmers in East Waterford are not interested. I could not prove it but we have journalists here who might be—Mr. Flynn interrupted saying: If you are going by what the journalists say, you are going to be led astray. Mr. Walsh amidst laughter said: There's a tribute to the Press and a nice one too. Continuing he said that what Mr. Flynn had said about the Press was not so at all. When Miss Coleman resigned her position, it was expected that certain changes would be necessary. The members would have to stand behind their C.A.O. then this matter because if the day came when their instructors could dictate to their C.A.O. then the members might as well get on with the discussion. He added it seemed to him that there was a vague hint now that they should get another instructor. The thing should not be before the meeting at all, it was one to be dealt with by the C.A.O. and the members should accept this ruling. Miss Mullins stated that she had worked all over the county for the last twenty years and was the only instructor for a long time. She had the Poultry section scheme to attend to and brought up to the number in the county from 17 to 36. Then the Dept. of Agriculture considered the amount of work to be done far too great for one person and for 10 years she had 5 temporary instructors in various parts of the county including Lismore, Carrick on Suir, Kilmacomas and Waterford. She gave lectures throughout the county when she was working on her own and made a Dunganvan her H.Q. Miss Mullins stated that she never found the same interest in poultry production in East Waterford as that in the West. She felt, however, that there was room in the east for an instructor. A LOT OF NONSENSE.—Mr. Dowd said he believed there was a lot of nonsense about the whole matter. He proposed that instead of going round in circles, they should adopt the C.A.O.'s proposal with the proviso that Miss Mullins be asked to concentrate on the improvement of conditions in the east of the county. Mr. Walsh seconded this proposal. Mr. Quirk proposed an amendment that no change in the present position be made. Mr. Flynn pointed out that Mr. Quirk's amendment was not a change and one would not be asked for the industry there. The C.A.O. replied that the instructors would give a good account of themselves in any area. Mr. Dowd said that if Miss Mullins could do in the East what she had done in the West, there might be some justification for the appointment of a third instructor. Mr. Flynn stated that according to what had been stated the members were giving no credit to Miss Walsh for all she had done in her area. They wanted to put Miss Mullins down instead of her. They all knew that both were well in with the producers in their respective areas and were doing a good job. They should be allowed to carry on the good work. Mr. Dowd—if I had any doubt in the ability of Miss Walsh, I would not have proposed her for the western end of the county. Mr. Walsh—There is no question of any one's ability in this at all. CHANGE WOULD NOT BE GOOD.—The Chairman (Mr. Hart) held that it would not be a good thing to change about their instructors as proposed by the C.A.O. had been approved by people demanding that they be allowed stay as they were. Mr. Dowd said the proposal did not make sense at all. He could not see why it would be a good thing to have one instructor while the other end had two of them. Miss Mullins would be in Dungarvan and Miss Walsh in Lismore. The C.A.O. stated that this whole question of poultry instructors came up at the October meeting. As a result he provided a detailed picture of the position. They were now faced

TWO SAVING SUGGESTIONS

The man who invented bacon was a genius. His name is forgotten but his memory is honored in every home where bacon is on the menu. And that's your meat: bill and still eat well by buying the economy cuts of bacon, the flank, the collar and the shoulder. Ten slices will give you a full dinner for two. You can cut a few rashers off it for a couple of dinners out of it after that, while the odd bits go into sandwiches for tea. Did you ever fill low-priced rashers with ground stuffing, roll and tie and cook in the oven with a little stock? Did you ever finish a shoulder of bacon in the oven? After boiling in the usual way and cover with brown sugar with a few cloves dotted here and there, in a tin in a hot oven until sugar is brown and crusty (about 15 minutes) it tastes like baked ham at nearly half the price.

The Inside Story

By Tom Tobin

IT CANNOT BE DENIED.

It is really amusing to see the futile efforts of a certain newspaper in its attempt to discredit these columns.

At the last meeting of the Urban Council, Tommy Lee stated that the press reporters do not report half of what is said at their meetings.

I CAN'T REMEMBER.

Mr. Donal Moloney, who was in the chair in the absence of the Chairman, Ald. Tom Kyrne, T.D. who was ill, did not give Mr. Walsh time to qualify his statement with a very important addition.

IT WAS NO JOKE.

Readers will see a strange reference to the Press in this issue. It was made at last Saturday's meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture by Mr. Flynn and while it passed over as a huge joke it was not received as such by those it concerned.

of more bluff. The matter had to be adjourned at the request of the 'offended' party because Tom Kyrne was absent. But there was no waiting when an attack was made on Tom Kyrne because he allowed Cllr Lee the freedom of speech on an issue that is a very important one.

Ald. H. Gill, Chairman, presided at the Estimates Meeting of the above in the Courthouse, on Monday last. Other members in attendance were: Deputies Kennedy, Ryan and Ormond.

The proposal was made by Mr. Gallagher, seconded by Deputy Kyrne. The Board approved the increase.

THE ESTIMATE The estimate submitted by the Manager showed that the increase in gross expenditure of £7,332, is offset by an increase in receipts amounting to £4,827, leaving a decrease of £2,505 to the net requirement. To this must be added the reduction in the credit balance, which is £1,178, and the result is an increase of £1,327 in the net demand of £293,278.

BOARD THANKED A letter from the Manager thanking the Board for resolution of sympathy passed to him on the death of his brother, was ordered to be inserted in the Minutes.

Mr. Lannon, dissenting, said he is against the increase of £1,600 to the doctors, whom, he said, are already sufficiently well paid.

CLASHMORE DISPENSARY RESIDENCE The Secretary said the Department had not yet replied to the Board's request to send down an inspector to report on the house offered at Clashmore as a dispensary and residence.

Mr. Lannon—Where is the money to come from? Are we to give the people a tax? Mr. Walsh agreed but said it would be very bad at this time to make fish of our own flesh of another.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL

Four resolutions relating to the Partition of Ireland provided lively discussion at a special meeting of Waterford County Council in Dungarvan yesterday.

Two notices of motion had been submitted by Mr. Charlie Curran F.F. which read that we call upon the Government to take immediate positive steps to bring about the territorial unity of Ireland. Copies of the resolution to be forwarded to the Taoiseach Mr. J. A. Costello, to Mr. E. de Valera, T.D. and to each County Council in the Republic.

The second motion was: That we call upon the British Government to immediately withdraw their army of occupation from the six north-eastern counties of Ireland. Copies of this resolution to be sent to the Prime Minister of Britain, the Secretary General of U.N.O. and to each County Council in the Republic of Ireland.

At the outset, the Chairman Mr. Morrissey stated that he regarded such resolutions as "leaves" that the Government of the country, past and present, had done.

Mr. Curran intervened to say that the people to be concerned with matters of this kind, raised by Mr. Curran were the leaders of the State. It was up to them to tell the people what to do for the unification of Ireland and it was for no one else to do so.

Mr. Curran said he agreed wholeheartedly. He had no intention and no wish to criticise the efforts of the Government past or present, and he had no wish whatsoever to advocate the use of physical force to achieve the unity of the country but he felt after 35 years of native administration, something more should be done to achieve that one object of every Irishman.

He knew of the Nationalists in the North and he knew only too well the relentless persecution that they were being subjected to by the authorities there. He realised that the Nationalists felt that the people in the Republic of Ireland had abandoned them entirely which, of course, was not true at all, but something had to be done to regain their confidence in the North. Some greater constitutional effort would have to be made, he added, to unite north and south and should the resolutions he had submitted, be passed the grave danger that they will in an illegal organisation. Let face up to facts in this entire matter. We are facing a very serious situation, a very dangerous situation, at the present time and something will have to be done urgently to avoid it.

Mr. J. Flynn stated that in 1916 he took an oath of allegiance but he was convinced at this was a very wrong time to pass resolutions of the type it forward by Mr. Curran. They had their own Government now and they had their leaders in that Government and if they could not do any better than they had done to date, then public opinion would not do any more.

Mr. Heskin Ind. stated that resolutions might influence public opinion.

Mr. Moran: I think it is a sad state of affairs that we should finish up our meeting at the end of the day by coming down to a discussion of this type. To consider it alone is going against the grain. I agree that the resolutions show no confidence in the leaders of the State of today and yesterday. It seems to me that Mr. Curran is trying to boost some other leader who is hidden at the moment for the purpose of solving partition and am totally opposed to this. We should not in any way try to encourage illegal action in an effort to do away with partition. It is widening the breach instead of narrowing it.

Ald. T. Kyne T.D. Lab. stated that he too felt that the motions implied no confidence in the efforts of the Government of the State, past and present and that he felt some other person or force there able to do better. While he resolutions might be harmless in themselves, they had worry about the implications they would cause.

When Sen. Butler was told Mr. Curran's resolutions were seconded by Mr. O'Ryan F.F. he went on to say that the resolutions constituted a vote of censure on the Government in office. They suggested that the Government was neglecting something that should be done, which, of course was not the case. Int it a wonder he stated, that Mr. Curran would tell the Government how to do what he suggest should be done. They had tried in the past and were still trying and they were the only people entitled to speak for this country. I am satisfied that they have done and are doing what they can to Partition. Every Government has taken immediate and positive action to remedy the problem and they could do no more. There is no indication

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT PULP

The B.G.A. claim that the price of pulp has nothing to do with the price of beef. The price of pulp has nothing to do with the price of beef. The price of pulp has nothing to do with the price of beef.

Owing to the fact that the B.G.A. was not agreeable to meet the Company until 8th November to discuss the costs of production there is now no time left for further discussion unless growers are to be deprived of the advantage of manures below world prices and unless the arrangements for contracting are to be delayed with consequent uncertainty about farm rotations for 1957 and loss of best yields if sowings were delayed. Contracts on the terms stated are therefore being offered at once.

The reasons why it is necessary to increase the price of dried pulp while leaving the price of the growers ration of pulp unchanged are:

- (1) The drying of pulp requires the consumption of many millions of gallons of fuel oil at Carlow, Mallow and Thurles. The increased cost of this fuel the uncertainty about adequate supplies being available and about dollars being available to buy it make it impossible for the Company to undertake commitments involving the use of scarce and uncertain resources.
- (2) The only alternative to using oil would be the use of imported high volatile coal supplies of which are very scarce and dear and the use of which would also have an adverse effect on the balance of payments. Apart from pulp drying the Sugar Company now uses no imported fuel except a small quantity of fuel oil to ignite Irish anthracite dust.

FREIGHT SUBSIDY.

The Company will continue to pay all rail freight and canal freight on clean beet and to give the same rate of subsidy on the road transport of beet.
