LISMORE CATHEDRAL RE-OPENED

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY DR. AHEARNE

SOLEMN HIGH MASS AT WHICH HIS LORDSHIP, THE BISHOP OF WATERFORD AND LISMORE, MOST REV. DR. D. O'NEILL, PRESIDED, MARKED THE RE-OPENING OF ST. CATHALINE'S CATHEDRAL, LISMORE ON SUNDAY.

The Cathedral has been extensively renovated at a cost of approximately £15,000 and presented a very beautiful appearance in the brilliant sunlight of the occasion. A new roof was put on the building and all changes had to be pointed. The lighting decoration which for many years had been dark and gloomy has been completely replaced by a bright colour scheme that is certainly a tribute to those responsible.

Behind the striking transformation at the Cathedral is the story of a Parish Priest's mission and the story of a long and tireless struggle.

Cappoquin and Lismore Church were for many years past falling into serious disrepair until it became quite obvious that something would have to be done without any further delay.

It fell to Very Rev. Canon P. F. McGrath to tackle the gigantic task. He rallied the parishioners behind him and through many sacrifices and with the aid of various methods of fund-raising the task was done in Cappoquin.

The high altar was turned to St. Catharine's Cathedral in Lismore, where he was transferred on completion of his mission in Cappoquin. Here again he had the full backing of the newspaper and those throughout the surrounding countryside.

Today, Lismore Parish Church stands as one of the most beautiful and imposing structures in County Waterford. Solemn High Mass on Sunday's re-opening ceremonies was celebrated by Rev. T. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, with Rev. E. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan, as co-celebrant, Rev. M. Kelleher, C.C., Carrigrohane, as sub-celebrant, Rev. D. McGrath, C.C., Lismore, as master of ceremonies.

The attendance included Right Rev. Monsignor Kelleher, P.P., V.G., Ballybricken; Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.G., Dungarvan; Very Rev. P. F. Canon McGrath, P.P., Lismore; Very Rev. P. Ahearne, P.P., Killybeg; Very Rev. T. Dunphy, P.P., Ballyduff; Upper: Rev. P. Ahearne, D.D., St. John's, Galilee, Waterford; Rev. G. McEneaney, C.C., Ballybricken, and Rev. R. Keane, Bishop's Secretary, Waterford.

The sermon, preached by Rev. Dr. Ahearne, was as follows: "To what purpose is this waste?" Mt. xxv. 8.

Six days before his death Jesus was in the village of Bethany. He was guest at a banquet in the house of Simon the Leper. One of his fellow guests was Lazarus - whom he had raised from the dead a short time before. Martha, the sister of Lazarus, was serving at table. During the banquet, Mary, the other sister of Lazarus, came into the dining room where the guests were reclining at table. She carried a costly jar which was filled with a perfume oil. So precious was this perfume that it was valued at 300 silver pieces; a year's wages for a working man, six-month months' pay for a Roman soldier. Mary broke the slender neck of the flask and poured out every drop of the perfume over the head and feet of Jesus. It was an extravagant gesture, a practical act for the perfume was immensely costly and where a little of it would have been enough Mary used it all.

All at once there was criticism of what she had done "to what purpose is this waste?" And critics never lack the highest of motives "why was the perfume not sold for 300 silver pieces, which could be given to the poor?" It was Judas, the betrayer, who voiced the criticism. It was Jesus, the Son of God, who replied to the criticism, who defended the extravagant act of Mary. "Let her alone," he said, "why should you vex her; she did well to treat me so; you have the poor among you always and you can do good to them when you will but I am not always among you!" Mk. xiv. 6/8.

The good business man knew the value of the perfume. The practical man of the world knows how money is best spent, how the best value is to be got from it. An extravagant act for him. Only the dreamer, the idealist, those out of touch with reality, can ever see the meaning of apparent extravagance. But the good business man, the good economist in this case was Judas, who sold his master for a sum slightly more than a third the value of Mary's perfume. The idealist was Mary - who stood with another Mary at the foot of the cross a week later. The criticism made by the good business man was rejected by

The future of Ardkeen discussed in camera

"HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENT" DEBATED

SPECIAL BY TOM TOBIN

WATERFORD County Council met here in Dungarvan Courthouse last Monday. It was a special meeting. The big item on the agenda was the suggestion to use Ardkeen Chest Hospital as the County and City General Hospital... a suggestion that came from the former Minister for Health, but which, I am told, has the full backing of the present man.

Those of us representing the Press felt that we would not be allowed to cover any discussion on the matter. It was regarded as strictly confidential for more stupid reasons that I care to recall here. Earlier in the day we had heard the County Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan, appeal to the members of the Board of Assistance to treat the document as strictly confidential. We know what to expect at the County Council meeting.

COLR. KEANE... Publication caused considerable uneasiness.

Following the Manager's appeal to have the proposals discussed in camera we had arguments for and against the Press. Colr. R. Keane stood up and said that one newspaper had published the proposals despite the fact that no discussion took place on them when they were originally placed before the Board and despite the fact that they were still regarded as "confidential".

In view of the fact that it was this newspaper that gave the readers an exclusive front page report on the contents of the Minister's suggestions, I take it he was referring to the DUNGARVAN OBSERVER.

Colr. Keane further stated that the publication of his Minister's suggestion had caused considerable uneasiness among the patients concerned. Colr. H. B. Dowd held that by enclosing the Press, the Council would create a great deal of uneasiness.

However, the arguments went on until finally, the Pressmen were forced to leave by the decision of the Council - 16 to 7, at exactly 3.22 p.m. At that point we gained re-admittance. I cannot say we were recalled because Colr. Wm. Foran who was good enough to inform the Pressmen and myself that the Councilors had gone on to "next business". Apparently, we were considered it worth their while to go to the trouble of recalling the Press. At least we were heard the record of the debate outside the Courthouse gates enjoying the sunshine.

No statement was issued. No comment was made. We were left in the dark or so it would be thought. I had occasion to feel confident. I was out in the dark because in my pocket were three copies of the "highly confidential document". This is what the document contained: (1) I have now circulated to the members of the Waterford County Council and Waterford Board of Public Assistance copies of correspondence from the Department of Health in connection with the above as follows: (1) Letter dated 2/4/57 to Waterford Board of Public Assistance; (2) Letter dated 6/6/57 to Waterford County Council; (3) Letter dated 1/10/57 to Waterford County Council.

(2) It will be noted therefrom that the Minister for Health has proposed that Ardkeen Chest Hospital should, in time, cease to be operated as a Tuberculosis Institution and that it might be most appropriately used as a County Hospital. The Minister accordingly requests the Council's views on the matter and it is expected that this proposal will have been considered by the Waterford Board of Public Assistance at their meeting to be held on 20/5/57.

(3) I have considered the proposal that it was recommended that the present - It is presumed that a administration of Ardkeen be transferred to the Board or Public Assistance and that the outpatients clinics should remain at St. Patrick's. MODIFICATION NO. 4. 9. The present arrangements for "Thoracic Surgery" at Ardkeen should be continued. (10) The County Council might consider clarification of the whole situation, which will naturally take some time to effect) grant a Lease of Ardkeen Hospital to the Waterford Board of Public Assistance, on terms to be arranged, for a period of say, 5 years. The renewal of such lease should be dependent upon the due provision at Ardkeen of the full accommodation needs of the General County Hospital providing all the facilities now provided for Ardkeen and St. Patrick's Hospital (including Tuberculosis and non-Tuberculosis Chest cases).

(11) The cost of operating all services administered by the Waterford Board of Public Assistance should be apportioned between the City and County in proportion to their respective population basis in accordance with the claim already submitted by the County Council to the Minister for Health. (12) The Minister should be requested to allocate a grant of 100% to meet the cost of providing sufficient additional bed accommodation and operating theatre and other facilities at Ardkeen in order to provide for the final closing of St. Patrick's which should be effective within five years.

(13) The non-existence of existing nursing and other staffs at Ardkeen, will be a matter needing the co-operation of the Department of Health, the Department being expected to ensure that the Council is indemnified against any claims which may be sustained by staff for compensation for loss of office or worsens or conditions of employment as well as obligations remaining with the Council in respect of future superannuation to existing pensionable officers and servants. (14) The Department should compensate the Council for unrecouped overhead interest incurred in connection with the provision of Ardkeen Hospital, also for unrecouped preliminary expenditure incurred before the institution was opened for reception of patients, now being met by minor receipts.

(15) Outstanding Capital Programme - The Council and Board should, I submit, insist that the Department also approve of the completion, with aid of 100% grant of the outstanding Capital Works Programme at Ardkeen amongst which are the store and fuel handling equipment, boiler house structural work, rear entrance, east and garden stores and the extension of radio public address and nurses call systems to two units. (16) Additional Financial In-

At a public meeting of the Dungarvan Branch of the Labour Party on Sunday last, Deputy Kyrle said that the Budget should not have come as a shock to any of the members of the Branch, and that other Labour speakers had pointed out that unless the number of Labour deputies returned were sufficient in number to influence the formation of Government that no subsidies would be returned. He felt that the workers of the County were in a hard, lean period brought on themselves by voting in a strong Fianna Fail Government.

He wanted to make another forecast and it was this - That should the Co. Council workers get any increase in wages granted by the Council to compensate for the increase of 12 1/2 per cent imposed on the average family by the Budget, that that increase would be refused sanction by the Government. The same would apply to any work, Forestry, Board of Works, Po Office, etc., employed by anybody whose wage needed the sanction of the Government. It was to be hoped that the workers were about to learn would not be forgotten at the time of the next election. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Vice-Chairman, John McGearty, U.D.C.H. Joint Sec. and Treas., P. J. Breen, P.C. and Noel Hackett, Tommy McCarthy was elected Chairman for life in appreciation of his long and faithful service to the Labour movement.

Long speeches 'the whole trouble'

Long speeches, said Mr. Scamuis Lynch, were the whole trouble when members complained about the small amount of business done and the frequency of meetings.

Mr. Lynch said if they were to get through the agenda at every meeting the members would have to curtail their speeches.

Mr. Lannon reminded the members that £750 was provided in the estimates for expenses for meetings.

But, he added, at the rate you are going, you will need another £750. I suggest you have no more meetings until September.

Mr. Keane suggested that the meetings start at 10 o'clock in the morning as 'it would give the members more time for talking."

It was finally decided that the next meeting which will be the annual general meeting, will be held on July 1st.

pensate for the increase of 12-1/2 per week imposed on the average family by the Budget, that increase would be refused by the Government. It would apply to any worker Forestry, Board of Works, Post Office, etc., employed by anybody whose wage needed the sanction of the Government.

It was to be hoped that the lesson the workers were about to learn would not be forgotten at the time of the next election.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:— Vice-Chairman, John McCarthy, U.D.C.; Joint Sec. and Treas., P. J. Breen, P.C. and Noel Hackett. Tommy McCarthy was elected Chairman for life in appreciation of his long and faithful service to the Labour movement.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

A resolution from Clonmel Corporation urging the Ministers for Local Government and Finance to authorise the expenditure of grants from the E. and E. Schemes Vote on the repair and improvements of Urban roads was adopted by Youghal Urban Council at the fortnightly meeting on Thursday night.

The text of the resolution was as follows:—

Having regard to deterioration of roads in urban areas arising from the increasing volume of motor traffic, and to the limited Municipal Rate Fund available to Councils of non-County Boroughs and urban districts, we urge the Ministers for Local Government and Finance to authorise the expenditure of grants from the E. and E. Schemes Vote on the repair and improvement of urban roads.

The Town Clerk (Mr. Haslam) suggested adding to the resolution by way of addendum "that it should be possible to use such grants for sewers."

Mr. Daly—We have 9 miles of urban roads and the Co. Council have only two miles. We could never hope to have enough money at our disposal to properly attend to these 9 miles of roads ourselves.

Mr. Lynch—I agree with Mr. Daly. Some of our urban roads are bad and the Minister should take notice of the resolution and see that some of the money from the E. and E. Schemes Vote should be made available for urban roads or for sewers as the Town Clerk suggested.

Mr. Ahern—I agree because out of the thousands we give the County Council annually we get very little return for it.

Chairman—I think it is a very necessary resolution and I agree it should include sewers, after all, £14,000 of the ratepayers money goes to the Co. Council every year and we do not get much value for it.

Finally the resolution with the addendum was unanimously adopted on the proposition of Mr. Daly seconded by Mr. Lynch.

WORK AT CLAYCASTLE

Mr. Lynch—What is the position with regard to the extension of the sleeper piling at Claycastle, did we get the £1,000 from L.G.D., promised to our Clerk.

Mr. Lyness, Acting Clerk, said that the £1,000 was promised over the phone but so far it had not been received.

Mr. Lynch—It is the officials in the Departments in Dublin, are responsible for the hold up and it would be just as well we had neither minister or deputies and I think Deputy Corry is right.

Mr. Daly—We should request the three East Cork Deputies with Mr. O'Gorman, our Chairman, to take the necessary steps to hasten the forwarding of the promised £1,000 grant.

NEW GUIDE TO YOUGHAL

The Company producing the Guide to Youghal forwarding the manuscript which they proposed using subject to the Council's approval.

The Asst. Clerk read the manuscript which is mainly historical and which was compiled by Wm. French, Youghal, and was unanimously approved.

Mr. French was congratulated for his most interesting contribution to the guide.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR

The Private Secretary to An Taoiseach wrote acknowledging the Council's letter asking that a special investigator be sent to Youghal.

TRAFFIC CONTROL

Mr. Daly—Was there any reply about traffic control, Local Govt. Dept and the Dept. of Justice should make up their minds. In West Cork they want traffic not to exceed 25 miles an hour through towns.

Chairman—There was a suggestion here that cars should park at alternate sides of the streets different weeks.

Mr. Lynch—We fined parking places here for them but they took no notice.

Asst. Town Clerk—The Town Clerk sent another letter to the Departments last week.

Mr. Lynch—We were under

BANK BUILDINGS

Mr. Lynch—Who is the owner of the Bank Buildings at North Main Street.

Chairman—Let us tell them they have too many in the Department; it is overcrowded.

Mr. Lynch—I think it is a danger to the public just now and it is a disgrace to let this house fall into such a state of disrepair. Pigeons are going in and out as they please. It was decided to ascertain the owners and get in touch with them immediately.

CONGRATULATED COLLEAGUE

Mr. Daly—I propose we congratulate our colleague, Mr. Cole, on his having been awarded first prize at Killarney for being the best actor in a one-act play.

Mr. Ahern—I would like to second Mr. Daly. Mr. Cole, our colleague, has been a member of the Youghal Little Theatre Society for a long time and it is gratifying to us to know that as an amateur actor he has proved his worth.

Other members present joined in the congratulations.

SCAVENGING OF THE TOWN

Mr. Ahern—Have we any reply from the Manager about scavenging on the strand. The strand is our shop window and the people there who are paying big rates are getting only two days a week. The people are entitled to a good scavenging service and they must get it. I would like to know if the Manager has made an order.

Chairman—This is giving a second collection to those who have only one collection just now.

Mr. Lynch—How many collections in town.

Clerk—Every day.

Mr. Lynch—How many on the Strand?

Clerk—Three days a week.

Mr. Lynch—We were told when we got the lorry, it would clear the whole town very quickly. I propose we tell the Manager we are not satisfied the way scavenging is being carried out on the Strand.

Mr. Ahern—I second Mr. Lynch and I cannot understand why the Manager is doing this. He is victimising the Strand. I hope the Manager will see eye to eye with us.

HOUSES OUTSIDE THE URBAN AREA

Chairman—There are some houses at Summerfield and they have no place to dump their refuse.

Mr. Lynch—This is a matter for the County Council; we have no liability out there as these houses are outside the Urban District. The Manager should be told at next meeting to discuss this matter with proper authority.

Mr. Daly—The building referred to at last meeting and in regard to which a good offer was made to purchase the slates, is situated near the Ball Alley at the rear of the Youghal Cottage Hospital grounds. No one appears to know who the owners are and meanwhile everything moveable is being taken away.

EXPLANATION

In regard to a patient from Youghal, named J. O'Connell, about whom a complaint was made by the Council some time ago, to the effect that he was not admitted to St. Finbarr's Hospital, The Dept. of Health wrote stating the reason was that the man referred to had no acute complaint.

No action was taken.

SYMPATHY

Mr. Ahern—I would like to propose a vote of sympathy to the brothers and relatives of the late Miss Ahern, Summerfield, whose death occurred recently. The deceased lady was a member of an old and respected Youghal family.

Seconding the proposition, Mr. Lynch said that the late Miss Ahern was a lady possessing many sterling qualities who earned the respect of all who knew her.

Sympathy was also extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. M. Hourihan, of Church St.; to the relatives of the late Mr. P. Walsh, of Sandfield Terrace, and to the relatives of the late Mr. J. Broderick, of Clashmore.

All joined in the expressions of sympathy.

DEATH OF MRS. J. KENNELLY

We announce with regret the death of Mrs. Joanne (Hannah) Kennelly which occurred at her residence, Affane, on 16th inst. The deceased who was relict of Mr. Andrew Kennelly, was a very estimable lady whose passing has caused widespread sorrow. The remains were removed to Affane Church on Friday evening and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on the following morning. On both occasions there was a very large attendance. The chief mourners included: Mrs. Ita Cunningham and Miss Julia Kennelly (daughters).

SUCCESS OF OARSMEN

In the Head of the River Race rowed at Dublin on Saturday, the local eight in recording a time of 12 minutes 24 seconds.

Mr. Penman for Clinker Boats, writing in the "Sunday Press," Seamus Devlin said: "It was left to the West Waterford town of Cappoquin to supply the real heroes of this annual Liffey drama. The black singlelet eight—one of the ten clinker boats to compete the 2 1/2 miles course swept to a third in the actual race and their time was sufficient to give them possession of the clinker pennant. Stroked by Paddy McGrath, one of the four brothers in the boat the Cappoquin crew looked and rowed as smoothly as any on the water and in their showing here must prove a force in rowing this season."

Cappoquin's crew was: J. McGrath, P. Lenane, P. Arrigan, C. McGrath, M. Cahill, L. McGrath, J. Flynn, P. McGrath (Stk.) and Terry Corry (cox). There was keen local interest in the race, the result of which was eagerly awaited in town during the afternoon. A telephone message giving news of the victory was received by Mr. M. J. Sargent and the glad tidings were hailed with delight. Congratulations are extended to the crew, cox and Captain, J. Brady, coach, on this victory, which we hope is a prelude to a very successful season.

The Inside Story

TOM TOBIN

Parishioners have a street in their honour

Parishioners have a street in their honour. The Order of St. Joseph in Philadelphia, Pa., was so lonely after her that he applied for an American Diocese and went out to St. Charles College, Philadelphia, to do his Theology. In the first sports in which he competed in St. Charles Seminary, he won 100 dollars for the high jump when he cleared over six feet. In June 1891 he was ordained for the Diocese of Brooklyn. The first bishop of Brooklyn was still alive and his curate for a few years. The second Bishop, Most Rev. Charles McDonnell, sent the young Fr. Quealy to St. Agnes parish Rockville Centre, Archbishop Molloy succeeded Bishop Duggan, so that Mr. Quealy has not only the distinction of being the oldest priest in Long Island but also the only one to have been under the first four Bishops of Brooklyn, and now part in the installation ceremony in St. Agnes Cathedral, the church that became the Cathedral for the new diocese the moral Pope Pius XII established the new See on April 18th.

On Monday Francis Cardinal Spellman will install his former secretary, the Most Rev. Bishop Walter P. Kellenberg, as the first bishop of the new Long Island Catholic diocese. In addition to Cardinal Spellman, who headed the Archdiocese of New York, more than 20 bishops and several hundred priests will take part in the installation ceremony. St. Agnes Cathedral, the church that became the Cathedral for the new diocese the moral Pope Pius XII established the new See on April 18th.

The new diocese, the sixth largest in the U.S. with a Catholic population of 422,710 embraces Nassau and Suffolk counties. It was created when the two counties were separated from the old Diocese of Brooklyn.

The Most Rev. Bryan J. McEntagart, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of America, Washington, D. C., will be installed as the bishop of the diocese of Brooklyn on June 13th. He succeeds the Most Rev. Thomas E. Molloy who died last November. The new Long Island prelate was Cardinal Spellman's secretary from 1947 to 1950. He became auxiliary bishop of New York in 1953 and the next year he was appointed bishop of Ogdensburg, N. Y. A large man, about 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighing 260 pounds, Bishop Kellenberg is 59 years old.

Bishop Kellenberg will arrive in Rockville Centre by car around 5 p.m. on Sunday. He will live at the St. Agnes rectory, 30 Quayside, until he finds a suitable residence in the area. The diocesan offices will be set up temporarily in the St. Agnes parish until the new diocesan building is ready. The new diocesan building is a large, modern structure, built on a site of 100 acres, which was purchased by the diocese in 1954. The building is a masterpiece of modern architecture, designed by the architect, John J. Burgee. It is a large, modern structure, built on a site of 100 acres, which was purchased by the diocese in 1954.

When the school was completed, one a gymnasium and auditorium on the east end of the building and sixteen classrooms, a cafeteria and library on the west end of the building. These new additions enabled the students to be increased by more than twenty five per cent.

In 1856 the Clinton School a public school adjoining the parish property was acquired from School District 21 of Ireland. The high school in Ireland Rockville Centre to increase the already overcrowded facilities of the elementary school. In the early part of 1957 the Evans property, directly across College PI. from the church, was acquired as an addition to the play ground and parking fields. Some years before, Mgr. had purchased a plot of six acres on Seaman Ave. and Lakeview Ave., which is now known as St. Agnes athletic field, giving ample space for development and sports programs.

Assisting Mgr. Quealy in administering the parish which now has nearly 8,000 communicants are Fr. Williams and Fathers Michael J. O'Farrell and Andrew P. Connolly.

Two weeks ago Rockville Centre College Place officially became Quayside in honour of the 90 years old priest from Ireland. He was unable to be present because of illness but he watched the ceremonies from his window.

the Rev. R. I. Barry, who died in a Waterford nursing home on Saturday last. 18th May aged 63 years, was born at Elton, Co. Kerry, on 25th May 1894. He received his early education at the De La Salle Schools, Hospital, Co. Limerick. Afterwards at St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny and All Hallows College, and completed his theological studies in the U.S.A. where he spent two years before he was ordained to the priesthood at the age of 24 years in 1918, for the Mobile, Alabama Diocese, where he laboured zealously up to 1939.

In his 21 years as a priest in the U.S. he worked indefatigably in the interests of his flock, and to quote the words of the Rev. Fr. David O'Sullivan, a priest from Mobile Diocese, who attended the obsequies: "Fr. Barry has left in the diocese of Mobile a beautiful memory in a beautiful Church, which on his own initiative, he had rebuilt after it had been destroyed by fire."

The late Fr. Barry returned to Ireland in 1939 and acted as Chaplain in various Convents in the Diocese since, until failing health forced him to enter the nursing home.

There was a huge attendance present at the removal of the remains to Ballinroo Church (where deceased expressed the wish to be buried beside his brother, the late Fr. Barry, Ballyharrahan) on Sunday evening. On arrival at the Church the casket containing the remains was blessed by the Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan.

On Monday morning, Solemn Requiem Office was sung and Mass offered for the departed soul.

The celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Abbeysteaden, Dungarvan. Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan, sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan, Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P., Abbeysteaden, was Master of Ceremonies.

Among the clergy in the choir were: Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P., Abbeysteaden; Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. Fr. Corbett, P.P., Ring; Rev. Fr. Beecher, C.C., Kilkenny; Rev. Fr. Russell, C.C., Ballylance; Rev. Fr. David O'Sullivan, representing the priests of the Diocese of Mobile, U.S.A. who is at present on holiday at his native Bandon, Co. Cork, home.

The chief mourners present included: Mr. Wm. Barry, Elton (brother); Mrs. Roberts, Dublin; Mother Lupeta, Convent of Mercy, Longford; Sr. Philippa, U.S.A. (sisters); Mrs. P. Barry, Ballyharrahan, Dungarvan (sister-in-law); and many nephews, nieces and other relatives.

Many spiritual and floral bouquets were laid on the grave.

When all the colourful ceremonies are in progress there will be many among the attendants who will recall the priest who built Rockville Centre to what it is today—the aged priest from Co. Waterford in Ireland who went to school in picturesquely Ballylance riding on a little black donkey, and they will say a prayer in thanksgiving for the blessing that sent him their way.

LISMORE NOTES

CRICKET.
On Sunday last, Lismore Cricket XI were defeated by Tramore in the first round of the junior Cup. Tramore, who batted first, scored 76. Lismore however, failed to pass this score and were all out for 63. Lismore met a Waterford side on Saturday in a friendly game.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LOCAL HORSEMAN.

We congratulate Mr. J. Cantillon, The Castle, Lismore, on his success at Cahir Gymkhana, where he secured second place in the Novice competition. Mr. Cantillon, riding his own horse, Centa, was only narrowly beaten for first place in the event, in which a large number of competitors took part. An excellent horseman and a prominent member of the Lismore Waterford Hunt, we wish Mr. Cantillon further success with his horse.

G.A.A.

At the Sportsfield, Cappoquin on Sunday last, the Lismore junior footballers were beaten by Slieve GUBA in the first round of the championship. The game was evenly contested and probably the most exciting of the season. Lismore were beaten by a score of 1-0 to 0-0.

WORKERS LEAVE FOR CHANNEL ISLANDS.

During the week, a group of men and boys left for the Channel Islands where they will be employed for the next three or four months at potato and fruit picking. From reports to hand we believe the wages and accommodation are first class.

But a parish church is not only the house of God but also the spiritual soul in the parish. Man has a twofold life: the natural life which he receives from his parents, which begins at birth and ends at death, and the supernatural life which begins at the baptismal font on the day when man is rescued from the clutches of Satan and made a child of God by Baptism. Here at the altar rails that supernatural life is fed and nourished with the divine food of Holy Communion. Here at the altar that spiritual life is brought to maturity with the Sacrament of Confirmation. Here is the Confessional that spiritual life, injured or destroyed by sin, is restored to the repentant sinner. Here at the Altar Rails is the pledge of fidelity and human love transformed with a Divine radiance by the Sacrament of Matrimony. And when the course of human life is run, when the love of those dear to us and the skill of those devoted to us cannot prolong our stay, from the Parish Church will come God's minister, bearing in his hands that which can give us Eternal Life—the Sacraments of Viaticum and Extreme Unction. It is to the Parish Church that our dead bodies will make their last visit and in the shadow of the Church they will lie in the blessed hope of a glorious resurrection. Every significant event of our spiritual life takes place in our Parish Church; our whole spiritual life revolves around it; it is our spiritual home. Are we doing anything more than our duty when we ensure that it is a beautiful home, well built, costly adorned and adequately equipped? And when we think of Him with whom to share this home—for it is God's home in the parish—who will say that the cost to repair, decorate and maintain was excessive? On a Sunday morning in June years.

the Son of God. The extravagant gesture of the idealist was approved by Him.
Human nature does not change. There will always be criticism, sometimes hostile, sometimes well-meaning but unenlightened. And there will always be the highest of motives for criticism. How often does one hear it said that our newly-built churches are too costly? That there is needless expenditure, extravagance in fact, in the building, the decoration, the repair and the encouragement of our churches? Something less pretentious, less beautiful and less costly would, it is said, meet the needs of the people and save them from a serious financial burden. How glib, how superficial, how much in conflict with the true spirit of faith in such a purpose and how terribly the self-same criticism voiced by Judas when he said "to what purpose is this waste?"

Think for a moment what a parish church is. It is God's home on earth. It is the house in which Almighty God, with divine co-operation, dwells constantly in the midst of His people. Who that has a vivid faith in the Real Presence will dare to say that the parish church is anything but a holy and beautiful place? God's house is anything but poor and pitifully inadequate to express the duty of every creature—the duty of reverence and love for His Creator? Who will question the wisdom of those who give, and sometimes stint themselves in order to give, so that God's house is built in beauty all other buildings? It is a void faith in the Real Presence which in the late middle ages studded the Continent of Europe with these magnificent cathedrals and churches, so majestic in their design, so costly in their adornment, which we to-day, for all our technical skill, can do no more than try to imitate but never equal, much less surpass.

If the challenge match between Lismore and Abbeysteaden minor hurlers, is to be taken as a guide for the coming season, then our chances of any honours in the minor grade are very slim indeed, as Abbeysteaden completely swamped the Lismore fifteen in the challenge game at the Gaelic Field, Lismore, on Thursday evening.

PARISH CHURCH COMPLETED

Now that the renovation and interior decoration of St. Carthage's Church have been completed, the people of Lismore can rejoice in the knowledge that their Church ranks with the best in the Diocese. Credit for this is due to our very esteemed Parish Priest, Very Rev. P. E. Canon McGrath, who undertook this gigantic task. The achievement is all the more meritorious when one considers how quickly and efficiently it was completed. Credit is also due to the contractors for their artistic work, which must be seen to be appreciated.

BISHOP ATTENDS REDEDICATION CEREMONIES

On Sunday last the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Cohanlan, was present at the re-dedication ceremonies of St. Carthage's Church. A special sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Ahearne, St. John College, Waterford. Details elsewhere in this issue.

Peace to the Soul of the late Dr. Helen McQuaid, of 67 Fitzwilliam Square, Dublin, (and of Pirey, London). This distinguished lady, all this was mortal of whom was laid to rest in Dean's Grange Cemetery last week, was sister of His Grace, Most Rev. John C. A railing is to be erected around the plot for protection and in due course the garden will be another eye-compelling sight of beauty on the Malinbeg-Cork road.

The Great Call was announced on Wednesday week, 18th May, by Mr. Thomas Power, farmer, Ballyville, Stradbally, who had been taken ill by a sudden attack of the heart. He was 70 years of age and had been a member of the Stradbally G.A.A. for many years. He was a well-known and popular figure in the community and his death was a great loss to the parish.

There was an immense attendance at the removal of the remains from the residence to the local Convent Chapel, where the coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev. H. Synnott, B.V., P.P., Newtown, assisted by Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday morning and the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 11 o'clock. A devout and exemplary Catholic, he meritoriously enjoyed the esteem and goodwill of all sections of the community during his lifetime. He saw service with the British Forces in France in the 1914-18 War. Monster Hurling Show at Cappoquin

A MOST imposing programme by the championship clash of Geraldines and Tourin at 3 o'clock and the eagerly-awaited meeting of the homesters and Mount Sion in the Sargent Cup final will attract hurling enthusiasts by the hundred-fold to the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, on Sunday next.

Admiration of the contrasting characteristics of the principals is largely responsible for the manner in which the bill-o-fare has caused the temperature of Gaeldom to rise but it is nurtured by recollections of past meetings between the sides, and the prospects of weighing the relative merits of the champions and three of their strongest challengers.

The myth of Mount Sion's invincibility has gained momentum in the last half decade that one must treat with considerable trepidation the prospects of any side that aspires to challenge their long-term supremacy.

But up in Cappoquin there is behind the locals a wave of quiet confidence in their ability to wrest the coveted trophy, which commemorates the memory of one of the town's all-time greats, the late Willie Sargent, from the sideboard of the famed City club where it has rested since the inception of the competition three years ago.

In previous clashes Mount Sion have had far and away the better of the argument. They have stopped the Cornerstone representatives in the championships of 1951, '53 and '56 and they were again successful when they clashed in the final of the secondary competition two years ago.

Yet Cappoquin, superbly fit and ready to go, believe they can and will achieve great things at the champions' expense on Sunday evening. Nothing has been overlooked in preparing them for the fray. Every man has trained evenly and the entire town will be down to render vocal support to Mick O'Connor and his men.

On the home soil and before their own supporters Cappoquin must be capable of giving the men of Sion one whole of a game. This is not just blind optimism. The fact is that the warriors of the red and blue have been the champions since the turn of the decade. And in Cappoquin itself they regard the present fifteen as being the most talented they have yet strung together.

The Cornerstone side contains a wealth of good hurling. Their game is invariably easy on the eye and they have in captain Mick O'Connor, the brothers Lacey, Tom McCarthy, Jim Sargent, Billy Dooney and Tom Lonergan men who have earned distinction in past encounters with the legendary Monastery combination.

But Cappoquin folk must find even more sustaining in the anxious hours of waiting, the emergence of Charlie Cullen, Noel Mason and the Fraher brothers as hurlers of real accomplishment, the amazing feats of goalman Francis O'Donoghue and the arrival of former Afane men Ned Costin and Tom Coffey.

And what of Mount Sion? The champions have reached their third successive decider without any apparent difficulty. On their way they put paid to Erin's Own De La Salle and Dunhill. Their progress has not been marked by anything of exceptional calling, but they have been more than equal to all demands made on them and Mount Sion in a final are a force all in their own.

WESTERN JUNIOR LEAGUES A GREAT DAY FOR THE VILLAGE

Who say our country's soul has fled. Who say our country's heart is dead. Come let them hear the marching tread Of twice five thousand Hurling men."

A record crowd was present to hear the 'marching tread' and to witness as colourful a scene as ever seen by the banks of the Colligan. The C.B.S. field, colourfully decorated for the occasion, saw the boys from Dun na Mainistreach (attending the School) defeat their schoolmates from Dungarvan Thuaith, to bring the Cup and medals to the Village for the first time.

Not since the palmy days when our county senior men were a match for the best in the Province, has a Waterford football team displayed such zeal and vigour, aye, and fluent football, too. This was a spirited performance, worthy of the Decies fighting tradition, and clearly indicated a most auspicious future for the game in the county.

The Garryowen representatives came with a big reputation. They had conquered the best in Munster twelve months ago and Limerick opinion, at least, regarded the present side as being on par with their titewinning fifteen.

The hurling was generally disappointing and seldom roused a fair-sized gathering to any pitch of excitement. Abbeyside turned in a good performance, though their defence was always in control and the forwards, although prone to overuse the ball at times, rattled up an impressive total of white favours.

Geraldines, in contrast, found the task of replacing seven regulars very beyond them. After the opening quarter they fell rapidly into arrears and despite an improvement in the closing stages, they were well-beaten at the end.

Abbeyside—P. Whelan (goal), P. Foley, A. Flynn, J. Morrissey, N. McGovern, D. Whelan, L. Dea, J. O'Connor and G. Flynn, P. Hogan, D. Enright, J. Hogan, D. Russell, P. Whelan, D. Connors.

Who say our country's soul has fled. Who say our country's heart is dead. Come let them hear the marching tread Of twice five thousand Hurling men."

A record crowd was present to hear the 'marching tread' and to witness as colourful a scene as ever seen by the banks of the Colligan. The C.B.S. field, colourfully decorated for the occasion, saw the boys from Dun na Mainistreach (attending the School) defeat their schoolmates from Dungarvan Thuaith, to bring the Cup and medals to the Village for the first time.

Not since the palmy days when our county senior men were a match for the best in the Province, has a Waterford football team displayed such zeal and vigour, aye, and fluent football, too. This was a spirited performance, worthy of the Decies fighting tradition, and clearly indicated a most auspicious future for the game in the county.

The Garryowen representatives came with a big reputation. They had conquered the best in Munster twelve months ago and Limerick opinion, at least, regarded the present side as being on par with their titewinning fifteen.

The hurling was generally disappointing and seldom roused a fair-sized gathering to any pitch of excitement. Abbeyside turned in a good performance, though their defence was always in control and the forwards, although prone to overuse the ball at times, rattled up an impressive total of white favours.

Geraldines, in contrast, found the task of replacing seven regulars very beyond them. After the opening quarter they fell rapidly into arrears and despite an improvement in the closing stages, they were well-beaten at the end.

Abbeyside—P. Whelan (goal), P. Foley, A. Flynn, J. Morrissey, N. McGovern, D. Whelan, L. Dea, J. O'Connor and G. Flynn, P. Hogan, D. Enright, J. Hogan, D. Russell, P. Whelan, D. Connors.

Impressive Waterford Halt Limerick

Waterford - - 1-8; Limerick - - 0-3

WATERFORD minor footballers—almost without exception boys in the strapping mould of potential champions—delighted home supporters with the grandeur of their performance when scoring an unexpectedly decisive and right impressive victory over Limerick, the provincial title-holders, in the opening round of the Munster championship at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday afternoon.

The winners held their own for the greater part of the opening half. Nearing half-time Abbeyside shot a spate of points and the second period saw the Villagers again in more or less complete control.
