County Committee of Agriculture TEMPORARY CLERK APPOINTED

WATERFORD Co. Committee of Agriculture agreed to appoint a temporary clerical assistant at the Committee's Office in Dungarvan for a period of three months when it was stated at the monthly meeting by the C.A.O., Mr. P. Conroy, that because of their expanding education and advisory services in agriculture, the pressure of work in the office had grown to the extent that an assistant was "absolutely necessary if the clerical work was to be kept up-to-date."

Mr. Conroy stated that there was a great amount of work to be done in the office now and in view of the Committee's decisions to expand their schemes it was only reasonable to expect that the work in the office would have to be supplemented. Most other counties had already two clerical officers and while he had given the matter every consideration, he felt it necessary to recommend the appointment of an assistant, Miss Carmel O'Sullivan, their permanent clerical officer, could not be expected to cope with the growing volume of work.

Mr. H. R. Dowd said that they could not overlook their C.A.O.'s recommendation in a matter like this. Mr. J. Fahey said that while he had no objection to the appointment in view of what had been stated by the C.A.O., he felt that such a matter should have been on the agenda. Finally, on the suggestion of Mr. Quirke, it was agreed to appoint a temporary assistant for a period of 3 months at the end of which period the matter would be reviewed.

German-Irish Co-Operation

In furtherance of their policy of full co-operation with the Clonmel Engineering Works, one of their biggest Irish dealers, Gebr. Claus, Harsenwifel, Western Germany, manufacturers of the world famous Claus Combine Harvesters have brought Mr. Con Barlow, of Clonmel, to their factory for special training in the latest manufacturing and maintenance techniques, so that he may be in a position to impart this specialised knowledge to his fellow-farmers employed by the Clonmel firm. It is evidence of the interest the German factory has in its Irish farmer customer because the firm's motto which has stood the test of time is "Good service with plentiful spares."

Doctor Threatens to Resign WILL NOT RISK HEALTH OF FAMILY IN CONDEMNED HOUSE ANY LONGER

"In conscience, I cannot risk the health of my family any longer even if it entails resigning from the Dispensary services and going abroad." This was stated by Dr. J. J. Murray, Clashmore, in a letter to Waterford Board of Public Assistance in Dungarvan on Monday, when he threatened that if something was not done to provide him with a proper dispensary residence without further delay, he would "be obliged to leave the district."

"In conscience, I cannot risk the health of my family any longer even if it entails resigning from the Dispensary services and going abroad." This was stated by Dr. J. J. Murray, Clashmore, in a letter to Waterford Board of Public Assistance in Dungarvan on Monday, when he threatened that if something was not done to provide him with a proper dispensary residence without further delay, he would "be obliged to leave the district."

Dr. Murray in his letter, stated that his house at Clashmore had been condemned for the past three years. Its condition had deteriorated very much in the past three months with the result his furniture was ruined by worms from the rotting floorboards while curbs were falling apart with fungus caused by the dampness.

Drugs and medicines were almost impossible to keep because of the damp conditions and the deterioration. The house as it stands, he said, was a menace to the health of his family and had been so for the past three years. Unless something was done he would be obliged to leave the district, a step he would be reluctant to take. "But in conscience, I cannot risk the health of my family any longer even if it entails resigning from the dispensary service and going abroad."

Chairman (Mr. T. Gallagher) said that he was very anxious to see that the matter was dealt with as quickly as possible. Mr. D. Fitzpatrick, Mayor of Waterford, pointed out that the doctor could not offer him much hope at a letter place within the immediate future. Mr. Wm. Carroll said the best thing to do would be to forward the doctor's letter to the Minister for Health and let him see the position. There was nothing the Board could do without the money to build a new place. The Acting Secretary, Mr. Sean Glynn, stated that Dr. Murray's case had been placed before the Department but so far there had been no reply from them. The Chairman stated that such an attitude by the Department was shameful. The officers in

COMPANY DID NOT INTEND TO DEPART FROM AGREEMENT

When our representative interviewed the Management of the Dickens Leather Company during the week, in connection with the strike now entering its third week, a spokesman made the following statement: "Various inaccurate statements have appeared in Press reports of the strike action taken by our employees on the 8th inst. We feel it necessary that one at least of these should be corrected."

Council Meeting Adjourned as Mark of Respect

As a mark of respect to the memory of the late Sean Moylan, Minister for Agriculture, Waterford County Council adjourned their meeting in Dungarvan, on Monday.

Moving the proposal, Mr. J. Quirke stated that he knew Sean Moylan as a soldier when he was a member of his Brigade. He was an outstanding soldier and an outstanding statesman. As Minister for Education he had been a very successful statesman and would have been every bit as successful as Minister for Agriculture.

Mr. Quirke in stating that he was very sorry such an occasion had arisen recalled that he spent six months on Spike Island in 1921 and no finer personality could one wish to know.

Mr. J. Fahey who seconded the proposal stated that he was glad to pay any further tribute to the late Mr. Moylan. Mr. Wm. Dower spoke in association with the proposal stating that there was a national air of satisfaction at the appointment of Mr. Moylan. The farmers generally had great confidence in him and it was greatly regretted throughout the county that he was not left with them much longer.

Mr. D. Heskinen stated that he too, knew Mr. Moylan who was one of the best administrators in the country. He had a fine grasp of agriculture and would have proved the ideal man to guide the industry through its difficulties.

Mr. M. Hartly said he too, knew Mr. Moylan for many years. He was a man who possessed a very fine personality. He held the most difficult post in the Government but would have made a great success of it. They were very sorry at his death.

Messrs. K. Keane, C. Curran, D. O'Leary, K. O'Leary and P. Blyden spoke stating that the Minister's death was a great loss to the nation. The Co. Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, spoke in association with the proposal on his own behalf.

Awarded Possession of Land

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court on Wednesday, the Trustees of the Chearley Estate, Satterbridge, Cappoquin, Messrs Bursell and Kenney were awarded possession of 44 acres of the land of Glantra East and Parknoe, known as "The Gurtens" and 11 acres at Satterbridge.

Mr. D'Arcy S.C., Mr. Lovatt-Dolan, B.L., instructed by Mr. Lavan, Solr. (Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co.) were for the applicants.

Mr. Ashley Powell, S.C., Mr. Morris, B.L., instructed by Messrs. Farrell & Morris, Solrs., were for the defendant, whose defence was that "the Gurtens" were held as a yearly tenancy since 1922 and 11 acres at Satterbridge as a yearly tenancy since 1936.

Mercy Community Bereaved

The Community of the Mercy Convent, Dungarvan suffered a sad bereavement by the death on Friday morning 15th inst., of Sister Mary Joseph (Cantwell).

The deceased Sister, who came of a very distinguished County Tipperary family, was a dear relative of the late Bishop Cantwell, Los Angeles. She spent fifty-seven years in education, over forty of which were devoted to teaching in the Primary School, where down the years she was idolized by the many pupils whom she taught.

Of the High Mass for the happy repose of her soul on Friday evening, 18th November, following which interment was made in the Community cemetery adjoining the parish church, and most representative attendance of clergy and laity from the town and surrounding countryside.

The Venerable Archbishop Power, P.P., V.F., presided at the High Mass which was celebrated by the Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan. There was a very large number of priests in the choir. (Undertaking was by Messrs. Kiely & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Wanted—The Third Man

WATERFORD DOCTORS ARE OVERWORKED

At a meeting of Waterford Board of Assistance in Dungarvan on Monday, a resolution was passed calling on the Minister for Health to appoint a third doctor for the dispensary area of Waterford City without further delay because of the exceptional pressure of work on the two doctors at present doing duty. The resolution asked that the appointment made in a temporary capacity so far as long delay would be avoided.

The Chairman stated that he had occasion to visit the dispensary and found patients in a queue waiting to be attended to by the doctor. On enquiry he learned that there were, at least, 150 patients going there daily.

Mr. Wm. Carroll said that such a state of affairs was also a great strain on the patients having to wait so long. Mr. Gallagher stated that the doctors were doing tremendous work at present and some were at evening clinics and giving the services free of charge. They were getting no remuneration for such work and he believed it was time they gave credit where credit was due. It was intimated to expect their two dispensary doctors in Waterford to do the amount of work they have to do at present.

Mr. Gallagher then moved a resolution calling on the Minister to appoint a third doctor which was passed unanimously.

Mr. D. Fitzpatrick, Mayor of Waterford, agreed with the views of Mr. Gallagher, stating that for an area like Waterford City, with such a big population, two dispensary doctors were not sufficient to meet the needs of the people. They should have a Production savings passed on to the motorist . . .

The phenomenal success of the Minor '1000' and new 'Oxford' (success that makes it difficult for production to keep step with sales) has made it possible for Morris to pass on to you the savings made available by this higher rate of production. Low as the new prices are, they cover everything—there are no "extras" to be added: heater, demister, fixed pile carpets, full chromium trim, interior lights—these are all part of the standard equipment of every Morris car—and notwithstanding the fact that tubelens tyres are fitted, a spare wheel is supplied. Leather upholstery is standard in the Minor 4-door and 'Oxford' saloons. Check the value in our showrooms to-day—nowhere else will you money buy so much! New prices:

NFA NEWS

AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE

The second Agricultural Institute Bill which has been introduced is for all practical purposes identical with the 1956 Bill introduced by the Inter-Party Government.

Due to N.F.A. action the Bill now before the house is a great improvement on the original White Paper. The independence of the Institute is assured by the method of appointment of directors of whom the majority will be from Farm Organisations and Universities. The Chairman will be appointed by the President of the Republic and the Director to whom the staff will be responsible will be a Board appointee.

It is also a hopeful sign that the Institute will not be forced to present Daily estimates to the Department of Finance in minute detail. The Institute will only have to account for what has been spent in any given year. Most people will remember that in 1955 the first big public undertaking by the NFA was an enquiry into agricultural education in this country. In this effort they were ably assisted by Macra na Feirme in contesting the contents of the original White Paper of the Agricultural Institute. The report of the Commission formed by both Organisations to investigate the Agricultural Institute was enthusiastically received by Educationalists in many countries.

On Thursday, the 21st November, the N.F.A. in Killala, Co. Mayo, will have fixed another milestone in the progress of this most energetic branch. Already this year they have been responsible for building a Co-Operative Creamery which is now in full operation. They now await the arrival of a Dutch boat chartered by the Branch bringing a cargo of slag to Killala town. This collective effort will mean that in that area farmers will be receiving their slag this year at about £3-10-0 per ton under the prevailing price in the Republic.

FERTILISER PRICES 1957-58
The abolition of the Prices Advisory Body has created a situation which makes it impossible for the NFA to publicly voice grievances on the high cost of fertilisers. Since the inauguration of the Association, representatives have always in the past used this Body to put up a case for reduced prices of fertilisers for farmers.

So far this year prices for compound fertilisers have not been published. The NFA have sent a request to the Department of Industry and Commerce asking that a Commission of Enquiry be set up under new legislation to investigate the high costs of fertilisers in general and all compounds in particular. The present subsidy of 40% superphosphate tends to protect manufacturers without giving any advantage to buyers.

With the Free Trade nearly upon us, immediate action will have to be taken if Irish Farmers are to have any hope of going into competition with European Farmers. Fertilisers in this country are among the highest priced in Europe, consequently are sure among the lowest users. This state of affairs cannot continue to operate and consequently the N.F.A. application for a Commission of Enquiry should receive the full support of all sections.

BACON CONSULTATIVE COUNCIL

The NFA and the Irish Bacon Curers Association represented this country at the meeting of the Bacon Consultative Council held in London on Tuesday, the 21st November. The Council exchanged information on the quantities of bacon likely to come to the British market. A further meeting which will be attended by the NFA will be held in the Hague on November 28th.

STUDY CONFERENCE

Full arrangements have now been made for the week-end Study Conference to be held under the auspices of Teagasc, the Urban Cultural and Educational Organisation. This week-end Study Conference is being held for the purpose of launching the NFA Macra na Feirme Farm Apprenticeship Scheme and will take place in Killiney Castle Hotel on 14th and 15th December. Inclusive charge for the week-end for delegates is £2 and any further information may be had by applying to: The Secretary, NFA, House, 27 Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin.

SOME OF THE SPEAKERS WHO WILL ATTEND THE CONFERENCE ARE:

Mr. E. Childers, T.D., Minister for Lands; Dr. Robert O'Connor, Rec. Dr. Duffy, Mr. Morgan J. Sheehy, Lieut. Gen. M. C. Costello, Senior Professor P. M. Quinlan, Dr. L. P. E. Smith, and John Callanan.

COMHLUCHT SIUCRE EIREANN, TEORANTA

CONTAGIOUS ABORTION IN CATTLE

This is a highly contagious disease of very great economic concern to dairy farmers, resulting in loss of calves and reduction in milk yield. It is often followed by difficulty in getting cows in calf. There are other forms of abortion but this is the most serious. There are also several other causes of difficulty in getting cows in calf.

CAUSE AND METHOD OF INFECTION
The cause is a very minute germ which is passed out in milk or in the urine of infected cows.

SYMPTOMS OF DISEASE
Usually the only symptom shown by a cow is abortion. This generally occurs from the fourth to the eighth month of pregnancy. It is most important to remember, however, that very many infected cows carry their calves to full term and apparently calve normally although abortion can spread from farm to farm.

DIAGNOSIS
Every abortion, especially those occurring in the second half of pregnancy, should be suspected to have been caused by the abortion germ. Cows which retain the foetus should also be suspected. To make certain, suspected animals should be big-tested by a veterinary surgeon.

HYGIENIC PRECAUTIONS
A cow about to calve should be put in a shed by herself and kept there for about three weeks after she calves. If possible cows should not be allowed to calve in a shed in which there are other cows or calves. When a cow has calved the shed or ground on which she has calved should be disinfected. It is wise precaution to carry out similar disinfection after every calving. All calves born dead or all calves born which are apparently buried, should be promptly buried. If any calves are put in a shed which has been taken, remember that

CONTROL AND PREVENTION
Method I—Blood Testing
The aim in this method is to blood test all breeding stock including bulls and to dispose of those which do not pass the test. Only animals which pass the tests should be added to the herd. Tested herds should be strictly isolated from other cattle. That is a difficult method which does not suit many farmers and before adopting it a farmer should go into all the details with his veterinary surgeon.

Method II—Vaccination
This is the most practical and reliable method. All calves and heifers kept for breeding and all cows should be vaccinated with Strain 19 Vaccine which gives excellent results. Female cattle from 4 months old onwards can be vaccinated. Each farmer should make his own arrangements with his veterinary surgeon.

GENERAL REMARKS
Contagious abortion is caused by a germ passed out by a diseased cow when she aborts or when she calves normally. There is no cure but the disease can be prevented either by blood testing and getting rid of diseased animals or by vaccination. The hygienic precautions already referred to should, of course, be taken.

Late Mrs. Bridget Connors

ABBEYSIDE

The death took place at the Hospital, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night, 13th Nov. of Mrs. Bridget (Bridgie) Connors, at an advanced age.

The deceased, relict of Michl. Connors, was formerly residing at Sexton Street, Abbeyside, and later at Murphy Place.

A quiet dispositioned woman, she was very popular with all who knew her.

There was a large attendance at the removal of the remains at Abbeyside Church on Thursday evening and again at the funeral which took place to Garranbane Cemetery on Friday, following Masses of Requiem for the happy repose of her soul.

Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C. Abbeyside, officiated at the graveside. Many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received by her family members.

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kiely and Sons, Undertakers, Shandon).

Dungarvan FCA Annual Dinner

The annual dinner of the Dungarvan Battalion FCA was held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel on Saturday night last. Amongst those present were Capt. R. D. Keating, Battalion O.C. Lieut. Col. M. Ledwith, O.C. F.C.A., Southern Command, Comm. P. Barry, Area Officer, Capt. W. Egan, O.C. Mallow Bn. Staff; Capt. M. McSweeney, Training Officer, Mallow Bn.; Capt. H. Costello, Training Officer, Fermoy Bn.; Lieut. T. O'Higgins, Training Officer, Kanturk Bn.; Lieut. T. Harrington, Training Officer, Dungarvan Bn.; Lieut. S. O'Brien, Lieut. J. J. Glanville; Lieut. P. Cullinane, Lieut. T. McGrath, Lieut. C. Curran and the N.C.O.s and members of the Battalion.

Lieut. Col. Ledwith referred in glowing terms to the FCA and said the members were a credit to their country. He complimented the Dungarvan Bn. on their efficiency and on the fact that they had secured second place in this year's Command competition.

An enjoyable social followed the dinner.

SHAMROCKS HURLING CLUB

A meeting of Shamrocks Hurling Club will be held at Kiltawney School on this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend. SUNDAY NIGHT AT THE ARCH

On next Sunday night, Nov. 24, what could be termed the year's greatest attraction will be the visit of the fabulous DeCastro brothers Celi Band to the Arch Ballroom, Tallow. This fine brother combination are paying their initial visit to Tallow. Scores of radio and H.M.V. recordings, their visit is eagerly looked forward to by the large number of cult lovers in the valley of the Bride. Don't miss this outstanding attraction on Sunday night; hear Margaret Stevin, wonder vocalist.

AGRICULTURE LECTURES AT BALLINADUFF

A series of agriculture lectures are at present being conducted at Ballinaduff by Mr. A. Moran, B.Agr.Sc., F.A.S. & A.S. The course includes subjects on local farming techniques and problems and is well attended.

VICTORY CELEBRATION

On Sunday night last Ballyduff G.A.A. held a very successful victory celebration in St. Michael's Hall. During the night the Bannish Cup and medals were presented. A very enjoyable night was held by all present.

TALLOW LADY'S SUCCESS

Miss Teenie Guinness (now Mrs. Mandit) formerly of Tallow, has made quite a name for herself in the singing world and last month won a singing contest at Rylands, England. Before her departure to England about seven years ago, she was a well-known figure of concerts etc. in her native town.

POPULAR LOCAL MAN DEPARTS FOR U.S.A.

One of the town's most popular young men, Mr. Peter Gillan, took his departure for the U.S.A. during the week. Pete was a prominent member of that very popular Orchestra, the Brideside Screamers in which he played the sax and accordion like a virtuoso. Pete will be a big loss to the band and replacing him will be no easy task. His fellow members made him a presentation in recognition of their esteem of him. On behalf of his many friends and the dancing public in general, we wish him success and prosperity in the land of his adoption.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

His many friends in Cappoquin learned with much regret of the death of Mr. John O'Leary, Forestry Inspector, which occurred at Portlaoise on last Wednesday. He lived in Cappoquin for many years during which period he was in charge of the forestry plantations in the area. He was extremely popular with his subordinates and the general public.

EPIDEMIC

While the influenza epidemic raged in many other centres there were, up to last week, only a few cases in Cappoquin. This week there was a spread of the disease which has now reached the stage of an epidemic. No fewer than seven members of the senior hurling team were affected and this necessitated the postponement of the semi-final against Mount Sion which was to have been played on last Sunday. It is hoped that in a short time the boys will have fully recovered.

SALE OF WORK

The sale of work and jumble sale in aid of St. Michael's Orphanage will be held in the Industrial School on next Sunday afternoon. We hope this general support will be given to this worthy cause and that the charitable work done by the Sisters of Mercy for hundreds of orphans boys down through the years will thus be recognized.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAME

Our Junior footballers meet Stranmillis at Dungarvan on next Sunday in the Divisional final.

BOWLING

Games arranged for Sunday were not thrown owing to adverse weather conditions. Special circumstances permit two games will be run on next Sunday forenoon.

TONIGHT'S LECTURE

Tonight (Friday) at the Vocational School, Dr. J. E. Lavin will lecture on 'Cerebral Diseases'. The subject is of much importance to the farming community and a large attendance is expected.

In order to be present at the wedding of her daughter, Miss Patricia Sargent, Mrs. K. Sargent left Tallow on Saturday enroute for the U.S.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. J. Bonner, Ballyrattier, on the death of her uncle, Mr. Michael Foley, Kilmore, Clashmore, which occurred on 18th inst.

P.T.F.A.

At the monthly meeting of the Council of the Pioneer Association, a vote of sympathy was conveyed to Mr. J. Singleton, who was bereaved through the deaths of his mother and sister. The Secretary was directed to write to Michael O'Connor assuring him of the prayers and best wishes of his fellow-members for his recovery.

45 DRIVE

We are glad to record that Tom reports to hand the 45 drive in aid of the I.R.A. Memorial Fund will be an all-time record one for Cappoquin. Much appreciated help is being given in all the surrounding districts. By kind permission of the C.P.M.S., first rounds may be played in the hall on Wednesday nights at 8.30 until the final on Saturday night, Dec. 15th. Those who have got cars and have not yet played them can get the opportunity of doing so by bringing them to the hall.

Sunday last, Lismore Junior hurlers advanced into the final by defeating Cobhain Rovers 3-1 to 1-1. Despite the fact that Lismore were an under-strength fifteen, due to several of their regulars being down with the flu, they went out and played like trojans for the hour and gave their opponents no chance to settle down. To make the victory more sensational, many of Sunday's team had spent most of the previous week in bed with flu and in fact so bad were the Lismore selectors that they did their utmost on Saturday to get the same postponed but to no avail. So to both selectors and team we say — congratulations on doing such a wonderful job and may the black and amber be victorious on Dec. 15th in Dungarvan.

WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL

At the quarterly meeting of Waterford Co. Council at Dungarvan on Monday week last, Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided.

TINNALYRA WATER

A deputation consisting of Messrs. Cotter and Coleman from the Tinnalyra area, was introduced by Colr. R. Keane.

Mr. Cotter who acted as spokesman made an excellent case as to the necessity of sinking a pump in the area, the erection of which was already approved by the Council.

A report from the Co. M.O.H. however, stated that there are two protected wells in the area which serve the needs of the people.

Mr. Fahy said that the wells mentioned are completely dry in summer.

Deputy Ormonde and Colr. N. Walsh, having notice of representations made to them on the need for a pump.

Mr. Foran said he for one would be very wary of pumps. In his area they are not giving 100% satisfaction.

Following more discussion it was agreed that the Engineer inspect the existing private pump in the area and that a pump be supplied for the residents subject to the cost being ascertained and passed by the Council.

Late Mrs. Bridget Connors

ABBEYSIDE

The death took place at the Hospital, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night, 13th Nov. of Mrs. Bridget (Bridie) Connors, at an advanced age.

The deceased, relict of Michl. Connors, was formerly residing at Sexton Street, Abbeyside, and later at Murphy Place.

A quiet dispositioned woman, she was very popular with all who knew her. There was a large attendance at the removal of the remains to Abbeyside Church on Thursday evening and again at the funeral which took place to Carrabane Cemetery on Friday, following Masses of Requiem for the happy repose of her soul.

Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside, officiated at the graveside. Many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received by her family members. (Funeral arrangements were carried out by James Kiely and Sons, Undertakers, Shandon).

Dungarvan FCA Annual Dinner

The annual dinner of the Dungarvan Battalion FCA was held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, on Saturday night last. Amongst those present were Capt. R. D. Keating, Battalion O/C, Lieut. Col. M. Ledwith, O/C, F.C.A., Southern Command; Comdt. P. Barry, Area Officer; Capt. W. Egan, O/C, Mallow Bn. Staff; Capt. M. McSweeney, Training Officer, Mallow Bn.; Capt. H. Costello, Training Officer, Fermoy Bn.; Lieut. T. O'Higgins, Training Officer, Kanturk Bn.; Lieut. T. Harrington, Training Officer, Dungarvan Bn.; Lieut. S. O'Brien, Lieut. J. J. Glanville; Lieut. P. Callinan, Lieut. T. McGrath, Lieut. C. Curran and the N.C.O.s and members of the Battalion. Lieut.-Col. Ledwith referred in glowing terms to the FCA and said the members were a credit to their country. He complimented the Dungarvan Bn. on their efficiency and on the fact that they had secured second place in this year's Command competition. An enjoyable social followed the dinner.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

His many friends in Cappoquin learned with much regret of the death of Mr. John O'Leary Forestry Inspector, which occurred at Portlaoise on last Wednesday. He lived in Cappoquin for many years during which period he was in charge of the forestry plantations in the area. He was extremely popular with his subordinates and the general public.

EPIDEMIC

While the influenza epidemic raged in many other centres there were, up to last week, only a few cases in Cappoquin. This week there has been a spread of the disease which has now reached the stage of an epidemic. No fewer than seven members of the senior hurling team were affected and this necessitated the postponement of the semi-final against Mount Sion which was to have been played on last Sunday. It is hoped that in a short time the boys will have fully recovered.

SALE OF WORK

The sale of work and jumble sale in aid of St. Michael's Orphanage will be held in the Industrial School on next Sunday afternoon. We hope that generous support will be given to this worthy cause and that the charitable work done by the Sisters of Mercy for hundreds of orphan boys down through the years will thus be recognised.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAME

Our junior footballers meet Stradally at Dungarvan on next Sunday in the Divisional final.

BOWLING

Scores arranged for Sunday were not thrown owing to adverse weather conditions. Should circumstances permit two scores will be run off next Sunday forenoon.

LISMORE NOTES

POPULAR LOCAL MAN DEPARTS FOR U.S.A.

One of the town's most popular young men, Mr. Peter Gillan, took his departure for the U.S.A. during the week. Pete was a prominent member of that very popular Orchestra, the Brideside Srenaders in which he played the sax and accordion. His departure will be a big loss to the band and replacing him will be no easy task. His fellow members made him a presentation in recognition of their esteem of him. On behalf of his many friends and the dancing public in general, we wish him success and prosperity in the land of his adoption.

FLU EPIDEMIC STRIKES TOWN

The influenza epidemic which has been prevalent throughout the country during the last few weeks, has now come to Lismore and large numbers are confined to bed with it. The Convent Schools, both primary and secondary are closed, as quite a number of pupils have become flu victims.

The Inside Story

An Opportunity Dungarvan should Not Miss

Sensible people in the town of Dungarvan will be glad to learn that there is still a hope that the cattle mart will be set up on the old Marsh.

At the last meeting of the Urban Council, members rejected the offer of £100 an acre by those behind the project and it seemed that ended the matter.

However, I am glad to say that we will hear something more about it soon. The difference in opinion may well be settled with the carrying out of a survey to determine the value of the land for the purpose intended.

I would like to see the project supported by the Urban Council and by the people of the town generally. It seems that a very important factor is being overlooked by the majority.

What a blessing that will be. A cattle mart will bring much better business to the town than the ordinary monthly fair. Let me explain a point here. Dungarvan monthly fair held a reputation of being one of the finest in this country. Since the advent of cattle marts in most places of importance, Dungarvan has been frowned upon by buyers and sellers.

BETTER TRADE FOR TOWN Now, this is another important point to be considered: With the mart, we can expect at least two fairs in the month, plus a weekly calf sale every Saturday, plus a pig sale and other livestock sales.

My advice to the Urban Council is to reconsider this matter and make it fast. There is something to be said for the fact that the promoters would go out of town to get the land they need. Not that I will effect the business of the town in any way as all connected with the trade will come into town. I understand that the ten-to-day is to acquire property where there is plenty of it. In other words, so that if land is needed to store cattle pending the next fair, it will be readily available. And don't count too much on the so-called advantage.

of being convenient to the railway. Most buyers prefer to use road transport to-day for various reasons. It is easier on cattle, quicker and more economical.

I respectfully suggest to members of the Council to consider meeting representatives of the Cattle Mart Co-Op and the sooner the better. Dungarvan cannot afford to lose the business that a cattle mart would bring it.

There is also the important contribution to the rates that the mart would make. These would be substantial and would be a great help to the town. Our Councillors would be foolish to turn their backs on this opportunity.

For the Record

There is a meeting of the Urban Council to-night (Friday) . . . but there is nothing on the agenda about the case of the offer of £100 an acre by those behind the project and it seemed that ended the matter.

WESTERN CROWN FOR LISMORE

Lismore 3-1; Colligan Rockies 1-1 The spirited stick-work of Lismore and Colligan Rockies provided a small attendance with thrills aplenty at Cappoquin on Sunday last. The game, which opened and continued throughout at a remarkable fast pace, ended in a welter of excitement as Colligan, who trailed from an early stage, crowded the winners' goal in search of the balancing scores.

What a blessing that will be. A cattle mart will bring much better business to the town than the ordinary monthly fair. Let me explain a point here. Dungarvan monthly fair held a reputation of being one of the finest in this country. Since the advent of cattle marts in most places of importance, Dungarvan has been frowned upon by buyers and sellers.

the 17 houses that were not demolished. I wonder why. Last Monday's meeting of the Co. Council did not come off. It was adjourned as a mark of respect to the late Sean Moylan, Minister for Agriculture.

The meeting will be held next Monday. With such a heavy agenda it is difficult to see the completion of the agenda. However, if members settle down to it in a business-like way, they can accomplish it. Let us hope they do.

Late Miss Bridie Ryan

We regret to record the death of Miss Bridie Ryan, Ballinamult, which occurred at her residence recently. She was one of the district's most popular and respected ladies.

The funeral to St. Mary's, Touraneena, was largely attended and was also the interment. Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P., and Rev. T. Wall, C.C., officiated. Mass cards were received from: Loving brother Jim (Novena); Kitty Kiely, Ballinamult; Birnie, Liam and Michael, Boreisleigh; Mary Power, Touraneena; her affectionate brother Ned; Mrs. W. Foley, Clonmel; (Novena); Tom and Ellen McGrath; Thomas and Mrs. Nugent; The Square; Keane family, Boreisleigh; Mrs. Parker, Josie and Ned; Pat Walsh and family; Croughateskin; Tom and Bridie Walsh, Cahernaleague; Michael and Alice Connors, Ballinamult; O'Keefe's, Touraneena; Kattie and John Lookey Lystrath; the McGrath family, Priestown; Jimmy Kiely and family, Dungarvan; Mary Prendergast, Glenanore; Danny and Alice Kiely, Boalavonteen; Jim Hanrahan, Ballinamult; Josie Hanrahan, Doon; Jim and Margaret Foley, Knockmeal; Wm. Fitzpatrick, Knockmeal; Kathleen and Danny Kiely, Cahernaleague; J. J. O'Keefe, Conegalee; Eddie and Babs Curran, Windgap; Margaret Hally, Carlow; Tobin family, Reanaudaunpaun.

Late Mary Ellen Ryan

We regret to record the death of Mary Ellen Ryan, Ballycullane, which occurred at her residence recently. She was a member of an old and widely respected family, being daughter of the late Michael and Mrs. Julia Ryan, Ballycullane, and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. Her demise at a comparatively early age is deeply and deservedly regretted by all who had the pleasure of her genial . . . acquaintance. She was cheerful and good humoured, her outlook in life was broad and bright and no adverse cloud ever seemed to darken her brief span of life. Deeply religious, she was indeed a loving sister and kind friend but her nearest and dearest are consoled by the knowledge that she died as she lived, patient and resigned to the Will of her Creator. Though leaving a void which cannot be filled.—R.I.P.

The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a very large and representative attendance of mourners and friends.

The chief mourners were: Patrick, John and Michael (brothers); Julianne (sister).

A large number of Mass cards, telegrams, messages and letters of sympathy were received.

Local Happenings

BRICKEY RANGERS H. & F. RYAN—The brothers' relatives of the late Bridie Ryan, Ballinamult, wish to thank all the good neighbours, who assisted them in their recent bereavement; also all those who sent Mass Cards and messages of sympathy and those who attended the funeral. They hope that this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

MEEHAN—The family of the late Catherine Meehan, Boalavonteen, Ballinamult, wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy; those who attended the Mass and funeral. A special word of thanks to Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., Rev. Fr. Wall, C.C., and Dr. McCann who attended her during her illness and to the kind neighbours and relatives who helped in every way. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

BARRON (Dromore Villiers-town)—The son, daughters, and sisters of the late Denis Barron, R.I.P., desire to return sincere thanks to all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy and those who attended the removal of the remains and burial. They thank especially the kind neighbours for their help. Hoping this will be accepted by all as an expression of sincere appreciation.

Wedding of Local Interest.—The marriage took place on Saturday, 9th inst., in St. Patrick's Church, Malta, of Mr. Gerald V. Mather, Malta, and Miss Lydia Gray, younger daughter of Major and Mrs. J. Macefield Gray, Comeragh House, Kilmacthomas. The Rev. E. Borg-Oliver officiated. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a cream-coloured gown with insets and train of Chantilly lace; her bridal veil was worn with a tiara and she carried a bouquet of white dahlias.

Cecily and Gretta Micallef, Eynorville (nieces of the bridegroom) were child attendants, wearing long blue velvet dresses with pink head-dresses and carrying nosegays of pink flowers. The pages were Peter and Brian O'Leary, nephews of the bridegroom, and the Hon. Toby von Brockhoff (cousin of the bride). Dr. Breen Randon was best man and the ushers were Capt. Robert Ingham, M.B.E., and Mr. Gino Micallef, P.M. A reception was held in the Hotel, Proencina, and the honeymoon is being spent in Rome.

Bobbie Rogers and his Band (Newbridge) are booked to discuss the music at Kilrossanty Social Club's second annual dance in the C.S.M. Ballroom, Clonca to-morrow (Sunday) night and according to all signs and tokens this function will be the most successful of the year. A very large and representative cortege attended at the removal of the remains from her residence to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening.

The remains were received at the Church Gates and blessed by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Office and High Mass for the happy repose of her soul was offered up by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., and the other clergy present were Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan; Rev. Fr. Kilmacthomas, Kilrossanty and Stradbally Notes

Wedding of Local Interest.—The marriage took place on Saturday, 9th inst., in St. Patrick's Church, Malta, of Mr. Gerald V. Mather, Malta, and Miss Lydia Gray, younger daughter of Major and Mrs. J. Macefield Gray, Comeragh House, Kilmacthomas. The Rev. E. Borg-Oliver officiated. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a cream-coloured gown with insets and train of Chantilly lace; her bridal veil was worn with a tiara and she carried a bouquet of white dahlias.

Cecily and Gretta Micallef, Eynorville (nieces of the bridegroom) were child attendants, wearing long blue velvet dresses with pink head-dresses and carrying nosegays of pink flowers. The pages were Peter and Brian O'Leary, nephews of the bridegroom, and the Hon. Toby von Brockhoff (cousin of the bride). Dr. Breen Randon was best man and the ushers were Capt. Robert Ingham, M.B.E., and Mr. Gino Micallef, P.M. A reception was held in the Hotel, Proencina, and the honeymoon is being spent in Rome.

Bobbie Rogers and his Band (Newbridge) are booked to discuss the music at Kilrossanty Social Club's second annual dance in the C.S.M. Ballroom, Clonca to-morrow (Sunday) night and according to all signs and tokens this function will be the most successful of the year. A very large and representative cortege attended at the removal of the remains from her residence to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening.

The remains were received at the Church Gates and blessed by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Office and High Mass for the happy repose of her soul was offered up by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., and the other clergy present were Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan; Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C., do.; Very Rev. D. Power, P.P., Kilgobnet; Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside; Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Ballinacree; Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Kilgobnet.

TALENTED YOUNG LADY

Pupils from over 300 secondary schools competed recently in the competition by the Irish weekly paper "Inniu" by forwarding essays on the subject "The Future of the Nation depends on Ourselves." Two Cronins from Munster, unrelated to each other, came first and second. The first prize of a silver trophy mounted on oak and engraved with the arms of the four Provinces together with a cheque went to 18½ years old Michael Cronin of Cappoquin, and the runner-up, Miss Kathleen Cronin of Castlestownroche Square at 115 to Toppersley Grounds to witness the Youghal versus Middleton C.B.S. and Sarsfields versus Blackrock hurling challenges. Due to the heavy rain which started about noon the match was postponed and despite the weather there was a large crowd in attendance. Both matches were keenly contested and resulted as follows: Youghal C.B.S. 1-2; Middleton C.B.S. 2-2; Sarsfields' 5-4; Blackrock 4-8. That evening at 6.30 when the rain eased off somewhat the Flageolet Band 64 strong paraded the town and the large crowds lining the streets were loud in their praise of the members of the band and the community of Brothers responsible for the formation and training of the boys in a short space of time. During the week the streets and houses displayed flags and bunting for the occasion. There was a large attendance at Horgan's Picture Theatre for the special centenary programme on Monday and Tuesday and the Regal Cinema was filled to capacity on Wednesday and Thursday for the celebrity concert featuring CBS Flageolet Band; Nick Lewis, tenor; Alan Beale, instrumentalist; Kevin Hilton, entertainer; Jack O'Connor and Kay Connor, songs from the shows;

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DEATH OF MR. RICHARD AYLYARD

Stradbally, which happened last week-end, was received with regret throughout the Mid-Waterford area where he was well known and deservedly popular. Worthy member of a highly respected, well connected family, his refined and gentle nature, coupled with a generous and charitable disposition, endeared him to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

A large gathering of relatives friends and sympathisers accompanied the remains to the Parish Church, Newtown, where they lay overnight. Immediately after the 10 o'clock Mass in the sacred edifice on Sunday interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. In the presence of a gathering representative of all sections of the community—indicative of the large measure of popularity deceased and his nearest and dearest enjoyed. Very Rev. H. Synnot, B.A., Newtown, gave the absolution at the graveside. Many spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received.—R.I.P.

THE GREAT REGRET OF A VAST CIRCLE OF FRIENDS IN THIS PART of the county, the death of Mr. John Mooney, Knockaun, who passed away last week-end, after a comparatively short illness and in the fullness of his years.

A much esteemed and estimable member of the farming community, he was a kind, charitable and helpful neighbour, who endeared himself to all with whom he came into contact and by all of whom he was highly appreciated for his many qualities of head and heart. A devout and exemplary Catholic, when illness or sorrow came the way those who resided in his district he was always there to lend a helping hand and bring genuine sympathy and consolation. For his unobtrusive good deeds in this respect he had gained for himself a very warm corner in the hearts of all. With his proximate ties sincere sympathy is widespread. An immense cortege accompanied the removal of the remains to the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Kill, where the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. L. Walsh, C.C., do. Subsequent to the celebration of Mass and High Mass on Thursday of last week, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery and all of the priests present at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside.—The Light of Heaven to his soul.

Continuing.

The influenza epidemic is still making its presence felt in practically every townland on both sides of the Mahon and the local doctors and nurses are being kept busily on the move early and late.

Pleasant to Publish that Miss Maureen Moroney, the very likeable local teenage girl who was knocked down by a passing car hard by McGrath's level-crossing (on the Waterford-Cork main road) near her home quite recently, is now showing progress towards improvement at the County Hospital, Waterford, where she is under treatment since the accident.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Moroney (farmer), Curra-baha West, she is suffering from concussion and leg injuries and was in an unconscious state for 19 days following the mishap. Late Mr. James Hayes, Leamybrien.—Mass cards were received from: his loving wife and family; Dick and Molly; Maggie and Hendrick; Noel, Charles and Eileen; Ellis and Austin; Kattie and Matty; Lonergan, his loving grand-children the Maguire's (Michael, Mary V. and Eileen); Hogan family, Leamybrien; Veale family, do.; Tom and Margaret Power, do.; Maurice McGrath; Patrick O'Donovan; Mary and family, Coneragh; Bridget Kirwan and family, Kilrossanty; his old friend, Jimmy Lonergan and family, Leamybrien; John Conyn, Coneragh; Kett and Lynch family, Leamybrien; John and M. THE CENTENARY MASS

The Centenary Mass presided over by His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Aherne, Bishop of Cloyne, was celebrated on Thursday at 11.30 at which there was a huge congregation. Rev. W. Egan, P.P., Castlemary, was celebrant; Rev. Fr. Savage, C.C., deacon; Rev. Fr. Kennally, sub-deacon; Rev. Fr. O'Connell, C.C., master of ceremonies, and the special sermon was preached by Rev. P. Cashman, S.J., Galway, all past pupils of the Youghal Schools.

HOW THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS CAME TO YOUGHAL

At the request of Very Rev. T. Canon Murphy, P.P., Youghal, and with the consent of the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Murphy, the Christian Brothers came to Youghal in January, 1857, and took up residence in South Abbey. Their first Superior was Rev. Brother John Wiseman, noted mathematician. Class work did not begin until the end of February as the schools needed repairs and furnishing, and at the re-opening after the summer vacation there were 450 pupils on the register. At this time the Brothers changed residence from South Abbey to Marine Terrace, the present Monastery. Brother Wiseman died in November, 1866 and is buried at Our Lady's Mount, Cork. Rev. Brother Vincent Harold was appointed Superior in 1871 and the schools reached a flourishing state. The Bishop, in his Confirmation visits was loud in the praise of the boys, on one occasion remarking "Youghal has taken the lead of the Diocese" and there is great satisfaction to me in visiting the institution. Brother Harold died in 1919 having been connected with Youghal for 48 years but due to ill-health had to resign the Superintendency in 1899. Youghal Christian Brothers Schools figured prominently in the prize lists and scholarships awarded by the Department of Intermediate Education. In 1907 there were three scholarships, three exhibitions, 14 prizes, five in English and Mathematics and many distinctions. In 1908 Rev. Brother Luke Ryan was appointed Superior and in that office achieved very much success as a teacher and administrator. He not only attended to the education of the pupils but did much to improve the Monastery and Schools. He continued as Superior until 1917 and was succeeded by Rev. Bro. C. S. Walsh who maintained the very high standard set by his predecessor. Not only did pupils figure in high places in the results lists published by the Department of Education but very many successes were obtained in Civil Service examinations.

Vocations to the priesthood and Religious life were prominent features of the history of Youghal Schools and past pupils have earned honoured places for themselves in the Church, the Professions, Civil Service, Air Lines and business. In reading the Annals of the Community and Schools several features are worthy of note: 1. The generosity of the clergy and the people; 2. the constant attention to improving school buildings and general amenities; 3. the high tone and discipline maintained; 4. and the success of the in Civil Service examinations.

A tribute must be paid to the unwavering loyalty of the past pupils, both in Ireland and in far away places, and that loyalty has always been shown in a most practical form. The Brothers appreciate very much the keen interest taken by the various Bishops in the Youghal Schools and records tell of their frequent visits and on all occasions their Lordships spoke highly of the work being done in the Religious and secular fields of education. The whole history of the Brothers in Youghal through the century 1857-1957 is one of good will, generous co-operation and hard work. The education imparted, whether in the Religious, or secular sphere has been reflected in the very high positions now adorned by past pupils of the Youghal Christian Brothers.

HOUSES BROKEN INTO

Unique football final: Mount Sion attempt first leg of great double, but . . . TRADITION SAYS KILROSSANTY

★ 1952 CHAMPS

Boys, said Maurice Hurley, 'tis old times back once more, When we played Dunhill and Fenor, Rathgormac and Tramore, For the stuff is still in Comeragh and will until the day The trumpet tones of Gabriel will call us all away.

(Extract from ballad by Ml. Walsh, Ballingown).

70 YRS. WITH GREEN & GOLD

KILROSSANTY!!! The very name, redolent as it is of football greatness, inevitably causes one to pause and marvel at the milestones which punctuate a tradition that grew up with the Association itself. It is now five years since the Blue Riband found a resting place beneath the Comeraghs, but the instinctive football spirit of the Green and Gold is as buoyant to-day as it was in the great years when legendary Patsy Wall, Paddy McGrath, Pat Veale, and Dick Maguire in turn brought back to the historic stronghold the premier championship of Fonthill.

Although there are some amongst the present wearers of the Green and Gold who have never before engaged in combat on the day of championship reckoning, Kilrossanty to-day, as ever, commands the respect of every big ball enthusiast from Suir to Blackwater-side.

Having battled their way back to the final hurdle after an intervening lapse of half a decade—a long time by Kilrossanty standards over the past twenty years—it almost goes without saying that the Comeragh men will leave no stone unturned and no move in the game untried in their endeavours to lead another championship.

Cumann Uath-Chisteas Gaelach was a mere three years in existence when Kilrossanty contested a county final only to be beaten at the second attempt by Enniscorthy. But their first loss was at hand and twelve months later the gallant twenty-one that was captained by Patsy Wall mastered all opposition without conceding a single score, an achievement that is still recalled with pride by the older generation of Comeragh folk.

Those were the days when the All-Ireland championship was contested at club level. Thus it was that the wearers of the Green and Gold found themselves charged with the task of representing the county on foreign fields. And right well they acquitted themselves, by all contemporary accounts, their eventual one-point defeat being contrived by a Tipperary team—famed B-horse— that subsequently walked away with the championship.

Back on the home front the following year, English relieved the Comeragh men of the county crown, and though Jim Terpey and Patrick Navin in turn sent out several very capable sides, thirty-one years were to elapse before the championship again graced the Cross of Leamyribarr.

Then came Paddy McGrath's all-conquering junior fifteen of 1918. Kilrossanty were on the march and twelve months later three frustrating decades of barren endeavour was rewarded with a second county title.

The subsequent fight for independence temporarily blighted the football aspirations of the grand side, Pat Keating who is still spoken of with swelling pride by the older generation of Comeragh folk.

MONNY MAGUIRE . . . Long a stalwart in the green and gold.

Beaten in the finals of 1940 and '42 and again failing at the decisive hurdle in '43 and '45—in each instance championship Stradbally were the conquerors—Kilrossanty came back in 1948 only to fall, this time at the second attempt, to Dugurvan, who had taken the championship from the Reds' the previous year.

And so to 1949, when Dick Maguire and a team that included his brother Monny, the evergreen Cheasty, Mick Whelan, Pat Fitzgerald and the brothers Veale of the successful side of ten years before and veteran Johnny Power, who had collected his first senior trophy twenty years before.

Beaten in the replay of the 1948 decider by a great Dugurvan combination, Kilrossanty in turn won the following championship at the second attempt, and in their process probably re-created the sweetest of all victories over neighbouring Stradbally, this on the threshold of a golden inning. Those two years were the days when the rivalry between the Reds and the Green and Gold wrote a new chapter in Waterford football.

On Sunday next another Kilrossanty team strides out to do battle for the big ball crown. This time their opponents hail from the famous nursery of the Blue Riband who were so successfully defended against all opposition for four consecutive years.

FOOTBALL fever is on the rampage these days. And not without good cause, for county champions Mount Sion, whose big ball exploits have almost kept step with the great achievements of their hurling compatriots in recent years, and Kilrossanty of the storied tradition meet at the City Sportsfield on Sunday next in a senior final that seems destined to provoke as vibrant an exhibition as has ever graced the showpiece of the Gaelic calendar.

Gaelic Waterford is aflame at the prospects of a mighty battle. This, it is felt, could be the final of a decade. Certain it is that Mount Sion, bidding for their second title on the test, and Kilrossanty, the last side to win out in successive years, will wage a war in which good football and hard pulsating entertainment will go hand in hand.

The champions, twenty-five years ago, make no secret of their desire to halve the silver jubilee with a senior double for the second successive year, a feat that has never before been accomplished, but Kilrossanty, their thirst for victory whetted by five years in the football wilderness, have prepared for battle in a manner that suggests that it will not be for want of effort should the Blue Riband again by-pass the Comeragh camp.

Ever since the rivals qualified for the showdown football folk have been intrigued about the relative prospects and with every passing day public enthusiasm, as buoyant in neutral territory as it is in the neighbourhood of the rival camps, tends to reach concert pitch.

It is easy to understand the wonderful interest the game has aroused. Few finals in recent years have had such a colourful background—bolstered by a couple of hectic meetings, weeks months ago—and on top of all there is the singularly open mind with which the average follower views the encounter.

In ordinary circumstances one likes to feel on firm ground before attempting a survey of such a contest, but I am consoled by the thought that even those who see the game through green and gold and blue and white coloured glasses are over-wrought these days by their endeavours to establish a practical theory.

Kilrossanty, it is contended, are the more accomplished footballers. But the form of the Comeragh men has been something of an enigma of late. Then again there are those who have long held that Kilrossanty's game will play right into the champions' hands, a view that is obviously influenced by the tenor of their meeting in last year's semi-final.

Although the wearers of the Green and Gold exacted a measure of revenge for that reversion when they clashed in the Brickey Hope Cup last May, it will be recalled that they were again hard put to win a trophy they captured with ease twelve months before.

All this, of course, is secretly more than a little disturbing to those who seek a line on the basis of current form and past achievements.

The uncertainty with which the average follower views the likely outcome is reflected in the fact that while the game has been the centrepiece of conversation for weeks back, even those who are well qualified to deliver judgment are very circumspect when it comes to giving an outright vote one way or another.

Of the two, Kilrossanty have previously experienced the difficult route to the ultimate. The Comeragh men scored 1-5 to the Brickeys 0-4 in the opening round last June, but in subsequent tests with Gilling and Dugurvan they could muster but an insecure two-point advantage in each instance. Why they did, though, to battle their way to a stage that was last attained in the palmy days of Dick Maguire's four-in-a-row side.

Mount Sion's power-packed football routed De La Salle in the opening round. But they, too, found themselves up against it when pitted against a young Kill fifteen in the semi-final. In the end, they were a little flattered to prevail by three points.

The champions play an unusually peculiar type of game. Whatever its merits, though, it certainly has yielded golden dividends over the past couple of years, for when they step out on Sunday afternoon Mount Sion will be contesting their third successive final and the fourth since 1933.

These Monastery men are doubtless determined footballers imbued with a tremendous team spirit and possessed of a remarkable understanding of one another's play. In the true orthodox sense they scarcely measure up to the challenges, but they are fighters—stepped in, best Mount Sion tradition surely, a warning note to any opposition.

When winning the Phelan Cup for the second successive year a couple of months ago, Kilrossanty acted in a state of great football. Despite their indifferent form in the interim, mentors and supporters—not to mention the men immediately concerned with the job on hands—believe it is not too much to expect a performance on par with their Cup-winning effort from a side that has prepared for battle with old time Comeragh determination.

Kilrossanty have traditionally been accepted as footballers of the first water. By the standards set by their great predecessors the present bunch may appear to more than moderate the men immediately concerned with the job on hands—believe it is not too much to expect a performance on par with their Cup-winning effort from a side that has prepared for battle with old time Comeragh determination.

When turning back to the unenviable task of giving a vote I am greatly influenced by the imposing tradition—fickle a quality though it can be—of the Comeragh club. Then again, unless the champions forge an early advantage, the basic football superiority of Kilrossanty may settle even the holders in a similar spirit with the green and gold to beat.

RIVAL CAPTAINS

JIMMY POWER (Kilrossanty)

Mount Sion and Con Crowley! The names are almost synonymous in the football world of the fifties, for the advent of the Cork-born Garda, which coincided with their initial championship success, has been one of the outstanding features in the Monastery's recent rise as a big ball power. Mount Sion's fortunes have fairly gone from strength to strength since the experienced Con three interlunies they have lost only a single championship engagement.

Prior to giving allegiance to the Monastery Club, Crowley saw service with Finisk Rovers, Dugurvan and the Garda. He has been honoured by the county junior and senior selectors and during the current year had the distinction of skipping the fifteen which humbled Kerry in the Provincial semi-final. Con, now firmly established in the last line of defence, will be in search of his third senior award on Sunday next.

CON CROWLEY (Mount Sion)

Western J.F. Final Stradbally Cappoquin

Stradbally, who have experienced little difficulty in mastering all opposition encountered to date, should not be extended to grant their Western crown on Sunday next. Opposed by Cappoquin, their victims at the same stage twelve months ago, the Reds must be an odds on choice to take a further step along the road to senior football.

This divisional decider, which is billed for the Frater Field, should, however, provide a high quality match with an attractive exhibition.

The present Stradbally setup is regarded as the best since the days of 'MacFie' and company. On form it is difficult to envisage their downfall.

Cappoquin, who crashed heavily in last year's decider, will have to replace dual county representative, Mick O'Connor.

In the circumstances Stradbally must be a confident choice.
