

West Waterford Notes

West Waterford News.
THANKS.
 The organisers of the recent exhibition to the Minister for Agriculture and Telegraphs, Mr. Sean MacBride, desire to express their appreciation to all who contributed to the success of the function. A meeting was held at Clashmore on the auspices of the West Waterford Comhulle Countairte on Friday, one of the most interesting features was that all members of the community gave a whole-hearted co-operation.

WINTERING.
 The Kinsalebeg-Clashmore group met at Clashmore on Sunday when a good run resulted in a kill. The Dungarvan group had a good day's sport on the same day.

LOCAL PROJECTS.
 Work on the new sewerage scheme at Ardmore, the Rural Sanitation Scheme in the West Waterford area and the construction of the approach to the proposed new bridge over the Blackwater near Clonmel is expected to start in the course of a few weeks and will require considerable employment. Subject to an adequate supply of water being located to the public pump is to be erected in Ardmore while a number of new roads in the Aglish-Clashmore area are to be surfaced under the Five Year Plan.

NEW WATERWORKS SCHEME.
 The new waterworks scheme at Clashmore has been completed and the new supply will be put on in the near future. It is hoped to have the supply extended to Raheen next year.

GARDA TRANSFERS.
 Sgt. Murphy who has been in charge of Villierstown Garda Station for the past few months has been transferred to Holywell. He has been succeeded by Sgt. Davis to whom a welcome is extended.

CLASHMORE LECTURE.
 On Friday evening last, Mr. Donald Lynam, B.A., B.Sc., the well-known hurler, delivered a lecture to the Clashmore I.C.A. on his travels abroad. The lecture proved most interesting and informative.

CLASHMORE I.C.A. CARD DRIVE.
 On Sunday night next, 2nd March, the Clashmore G.A. I.C.A. will hold a card drive in the local N.S.

THE FISHING SEASON.
 In this area there has been a slight improvement in the salmon fishing season but so far few big catches have been reported. It is expected however, that improved weather conditions will result in a better run of fish.

PLOUGHING.
 Ploughing operations are now well advanced in this area. Despite the presence of frost and rain in the prices of wheat and barley there appears to be every prospect of an improved tillage crop this year.

LISMORE NOTES

EXEMPT FROM TAX.
 Due to the decline in the population, Lismore is now exempt from entertainment tax. This should provide a boon to dancers.

LISMORE A.C.
 The first annual general meeting of the newly-formed Athletic Club was held in St. Catherine's Hall on Thursday night last. The very large number of members and intending members present was ample proof of the popularity of the club which already has won cross-country honours. Officers for the present season have been elected, discussions on various events concerning the club took place. It was decided to hold a sports meeting in the near future and a cross-country on St. Patrick's day. Means of raising funds for the club were also discussed and several proposals were put forward but as yet none were decided on and will be further discussed at the next committee meeting.

MONSTER WHIST DRIVE.
 A monster whist drive in aid of Parochial Funds will be held in the Town Hall on April 10th. Prizes total £28. First rounds may be played anywhere. Cards to be obtained from Very Rev. Canon McGrath, P.P., or any of the Church committee.

MONSTER WHIST DRIVE.
 A monster whist drive in aid of Parochial Funds will be held in the Town Hall on Sunday night next, March 2nd, 6.20 in prizes, commencing 8.30 p.m. Admission 4/- including minis-ters. Come along all you whist players and give your support to a very worthy cause.

Kilmacthomas, Kilrossanty and Stradbally Notes

At The Sales of pure-bred tested bulls conducted at the Royal Dublin Society's Grounds, Ballsbridge, on Thursday last week, the S.E.C.B. Society, Thurles, purchased for 250 guineas an Aberdeen Angus (Fahafeah Quality Fame) entered by well and popularly known Mr. D. Connors, Fahafeah, Kilmacthomas, a front-rank farmer for whom, by the way, a party of G.P.O. engineers have just installed a telephone at his residence.

Reverence to Hear that the revered pastor of the parish of Newtown, Kilmacthomas and Kill, Very Rev. H. Synnot, B.A., P.P., is now on the high road to complete recovery from the effects of his recent indisposition. County Council Employees are at present engaged at the work of sinking a pump at Ballyvad, Kilmacthomas. This, when completed, will provide a number of local families with an unfailing supply of water suitable for domestic purposes.

A Great Favourite with everybody sharing the pleasure of her acquaintance is Miss Helen O'Reilly (farmer), Currahaha, Kilmacthomas, and last Monday, 24th ult., the charmingly mannered young lady took up the duties of her appointment in the capacity of clerk at the Portlannington (Laois) office of Mr. Rd. Power, Turf Commission agent, Treamore.

An Attractive Price is now being paid for periwinkles and neighbouring seaboards families collecting same are doing well, disposing of their gatherings to agents who are shipping large consignments to the Sister Isle.

As Advertised—The Leamybrien Dramatic Society's presentation of "The Troubadours" takes place at Leamybrien Hall to-night (Friday) 28th inst. at 8.30 o'clock. And the comedy is to be augmented by a well-balanced programme of vocal, instrumental and step-dance numbers. Here's confidently predicting that the Society will have an enthusiastic reception from a crowded house.

Have It that the Kilgobinet Dramatic Club will present the play, titled "The Dark Stranger" at Leamybrien Hall on the night of Friday, 7th inst. in aid of the Kilgobinet Gaelic Football Club.

Considerable Interest is centred in the Macra na Feirme County Final Debate on the motion reading: "That arranged marriages are more successful than love matches," which will be held in the Friary Hall, Dungarvan, to-morrow (Sunday) night, starting at 8.30 o'clock and with Kinsalebeg and Kilmacthomas combinations engaged, the controversy seems set to be conducted within earshot of a capacity audience.

Just a few tributes to the memory of one of the good old stock of Charles Joseph Kilmacthomas; one whose name was known far and wide through the Emerald Isle, the late Mr. Michael Arrigan, B.A., Shear's Street, Abbeyside, Dungarvan. He was graceful, quietly alert, filled with a warm, unostentatious enthusiasm that remained with him to the all-too-early close of his active and fruitful career, gay and humorous among his intimates, with a laugh that was infectious and a seriously merry mind that saw in the most laborious task a pastime that was delightful, and in every problem a challenge that was to be encountered with courage and solved with patient vigour.

Top-flight exponents of the Gaelic football code of a generation ago included the deceased and his brother, Patrick Micker, and Paddy Arrigan (as they were then affectionately hailed by their hosts of fans from coast to coast).

The dead departed one's kind.

F. C. A. NOTES

DUNGARVAN BATTALION NIGHT EXERCISES
 A very successful night exercise was carried out in Dungarvan on Tuesday night, the 18th February. A fair number of members took part in this exercise which they enjoyed very much.

FIELD DAYS
 A field day was held at Aglish last Sunday and large numbers reported. Members reported from Dungarvan, Ring, Piltown, Millstreet and Aglish. Aglish centre are to be complimented on their turn out as nearly all the effective members of that Centre reported. A good day's training was completed and all members benefited from the training. It is proposed to hold field days for the month of March as follows: Sunday, March 15, range practices at Youghal Range; Monday, March 17th, St. Patrick's Day, Church parade at Dungarvan with training for Easter parade to follow. Sunday, March 23, field day at Ardmore; Sunday, March 30, Field Day at Dungarvan.

FULL-TIME TRAINING.
 Full-time training will commence at Collins Barracks, Cork on Saturday, 5th April. Members who intend to report for this period should hand in their names at once so that arrangements may be made to enable them to report on that date.

LOCAL PARADES
 Nightly parades are being well attended at all the country centres, but there is still room for improvement at Dungarvan Centre. A word of warning to all members, that is members are aware that in order to qualify for gratuity when they report for full-time training they must have at least two parades per month to their credit before they qualify. If any member who reports for full-time training and does not get a gratuity, he can only claim it if he has not the required number of hours training completed.

Capacity Audience at Ballinroad
 The first play and concert to be produced by local artists was held in the New Parish Hall, Ballinroad on Sunday night last, 23rd February. A capacity audience of over 100 persons, including many from Dungarvan and Garrahan was present.

His Lordship the Bishop, who was not well enough to be present was represented by his Secretary, Rev. Fr. Robert Keane. At the opening of the concert, Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., who had from the very beginning his own and inspired the able committee and voluntary workers in this outstanding project, introduced Fr. Keane.

Addressing the gathering, Fr. Keane, said: "It is a very great privilege and honour for me to be here to-night on this very important occasion. I am here to represent His Lordship the Bishop who has asked me to convey to the people of Ballinroad and Garrahan his warmest congratulations on having achieved such outstanding success. To the members of the Committee and to all who have given their time and energy so generously His Lordship sends a word of sincere thanks."

When Fr. Walsh informed the Bishop about two years ago that a number of representative local people were anxious to have a suitable hall, His Lordship once gave Fr. Walsh the warmest approval and encouragement. He himself became a trustee of the site and he is deeply grateful to Mr. Gerald Morrissey who presented the site to the Committee.

It is now a source of great joy to the Bishop to know that the people of this district here at Ballinroad have a fine hall, well and truly built that you may be proud of. You will not need to go to other centres for recreation. You will not need to look to the stars of Hollywood or anywhere else to entertain you. You will be able to make your own entertainment and you will be able to ensure that it will be worthy of you and of your children. It is a step in the right direction and His Lordship is very grateful to everyone who has helped to make this possible.

It would be very important that everyone should appreciate the usefulness of those who have given and are giving their time and energy to this hall and that all should co-operate with them in maintaining the hall, and using it to the best advantage. It is the Bishop's sincere hope that the hall will give much enjoyment and the best form of recreation to the people of this district during the years to come. Thank you and may God bless you all.

BARLEY PRICE

The National Farmers' Association protests in the strongest terms against the Minister's unprovoked interference in feeding barley price arrangements this year. Heretofore, the price was negotiated through the N.F.A. by the representatives of the barley growers and pig feeders and implemented with the assistance of the Co-operatives. The function of a Minister or a Department would be to administer the agreed price, storage and distribution. This year, the Minister fixed the price of barley, lower than that agreed on by the interested sections and the N.F.A. regards this action as being in direct conflict with the autonomy of a vocational organisation based on Christian social principles.

The Minister has also ignored the N.F.A. recommendations on payment for dried barley. The price he has fixed is 37/- per barrel on 20% moisture content. Farmers supplying drier barley will receive no bonus but will be penalised for barley above 20% moisture content.

Obviously, this situation allows the victimisation of both the barleygrower and the pig feeder. The N.F.A. declare that the grower is entitled to at least 9d. per barrel for each 1% below 20% moisture content.

The Minister's decision is unjustifiable and completely unacceptable.

The main item for discussion at a recent meeting between the N.F.A. and the Minister for Agriculture and officers of his Department was Grade B pigs.

Farmers and the country generally has suffered severe losses over the last few decades due to the 4-year cycle in pig production and hence prices. Our last lowest price for pigs was in the autumn of 1954. Moving from there, the pig production cycle is now reaching its 4-year peak and it is imperative that falling prices would not reduce the bacon industry to the 1955 level.

In the whole of 1955, we exported only 51,401 cwt. of bacon. This was over 200,000 cwt. less than the previous year 1954 and was a clear indication of how quickly farmers could get out of pig production when prices fall far below an economic level.

It is estimated that for this month of February alone, we will export 40,000 cwt. of bacon and again we have an indication of the extent to which pig production has increased.

Our biggest worry at this stage is Grade B for which there is no guaranteed price. Vast supplies are being built up. Farmers, particularly those farmers who are selling live pigs, find that buyers are becoming very choosy and that it is almost impossible to sell a pig that may be of a lower grade.

The price of bonhams is falling steeply and in some parts of the country are reported to be as low as from 25/- to 30/- each. Logically, this will lead to farmers getting rid of heavy pigs and if the trend is allowed to continue by 1956, we will find ourselves in exactly the same position as we were in 1955.

Against this, over the last few months, our exports on the British market have been considerable. There has been a continuous supply of around 800 consignment and this has resulted in an increasing preference by the British housewife for Irish bacon and consequently a hardening of the price. It has taken a great deal of farmer effort and a certain amount of State investment to reach this stage. If pig feeders are now to be forced out of production, it will be a catastrophe from their point of view and will lose the country £5m. export trade.

The N.F.A. proposed to the Minister that a floor of a 200s. per cwt. would be put under Grade B, as a temporary measure to take us over a glut. This would cost approximately £75,000 and would be as sound an investment as any Government could make. This N.F.A. proposal is fully supported by the Bacon Curers' Association.

The Minister's feelings however, would seem to be that pig cycles in this country are inevitable and that the industry is not worthy of this investment.

As a progressive organisation and asks farmers for their full support in an effort to induce the Government to take a more realistic approach.

PIGS—GRADE B CRUX.

Despite the fact that the Minister for Local Government feels that a meeting with the N.F.A. National Rates Committee "would serve no useful purpose" we believe that our Co. Rates Committees can do good work in every county.

As this bulletin is being issued, news is coming in of a mass meeting of several hundred farmers in Navan. Co. Meath. Delegates from the Department and the Council meeting. We are not yet aware of the outcome. The same action is being taken in many counties out in view of the vastly reduced income our members must make an all-out effort to ensure that there are no increases in rates.

The attitude of the Local Authorities and the fact that their indebtedness in Co. Cork is being increased to £1,400,000 is a pointer to the extremes to which rates can go if farmer opinion is not strongly expressed.

T.B. ERADICATION

Following discussions between the N.F.A. Live Stock Committee and officers of the Department, it has been decided that the Province of Connacht and counties Donegal and Clare will be declared a "clearance area" in the immediate future. In addition, cattle from Irish accredited herds will be permitted to clean herds in Britain.

An important contribution to the eradication of T.B. is that an Irish farmer may purchase cattle which have passed the 14 day test and having held them in isolation for 60 days and having passed the 2nd test, put them into an accredited herd.

Further, farmers whose holdings are suitably fenced can buy a "ready-made" herd and become registered as accredited herd owners immediately.

About 30% of our total cattle numbers are in the Shannon and the incidence of bovine T.B. is low, on an average it is about 5%. With full co-operation it is hoped that this area will be declared clean in 1 1/2 or 15 months time.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

DEATH OF MRS. J. BARRY TOURIN.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mrs. J. Barry Tourin, which took place at her residence following a long illness on Wednesday, 19th inst. The late Mrs. Barry (nee O'Shea) was a native of Cappoquin and the wife of Mr. John Barry of Provincial Crop Driers Company. She was very popular and her death at the early age of 35 has evoked widespread sympathy. There was a very large attendance when the remains were taken to St. Mary's Church on Thursday evening and also at the burial on the following day. The Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C. officiated on both occasions.

The chief mourners included John Barry (husband) and Betty, Jim, Richard and Francis (children).

Undertaking by C. Murray and Sen. Cappoquin.

PASSING OF NOTED GAELIC SCHOLAR

The death of an advanced age of Mr. Sean Prendergast, which occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday 22nd inst., has removed a very well-known personality. He was a native of Moonview and a recognised authority on Irish Literature and folklore. Gaelic was his language from the cradle and for many years he taught the native tongue with success in various centres. He was a gifted writer in the medium of Irish and in his early days won many awards in Gaelic competitions. Amongst the many presenters when the remains were taken from the Hospital to Cappoquin on Sunday evening were veterans of the language revival movement. The remains were received by the Very Rev. J. Kennelly, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., who also officiated at the funeral to St. Decan's cemetery on Monday. The immediate relatives include Patrick, Mervae, and Gerald, U.S.A. (brothers).

Undertaking by A. Walsh & Co. Cappoquin.

BOWLING.

Only one score was thrown in the medal competition this week-end. In this Frank O'Donoghue won well from R. O'Shea with P. English in third place.

VARIETY SHOW.

There was a record attendance at the Desmond on Sunday night when a number of Cork's leading artists gave a variety entertainment of much merit. That the audience thoroughly enjoyed the programme was shown by the applause which followed each item. The artists were Miss Ann Brennan (soprano), Con

The end of Utopia

The pressure of more and more exceptionally heavy taxes and we were unable to get the full story of that unpalatable meeting of the County Council. We ran a pamphlet on the matter, however, which told the story in a few words. There was an error in that little report but we stated the meeting lasted for two and a quarter hours. That is not so. It lasted from 2 pm to 4 pm—67 hours. And that word for it. It lasted for two long. The business that was transacted could have been attended to by a body of men in two hours at the most.

It was the greatest farce of the meeting I have attended in my long time. The meeting started off by hearing a report from the N.F.A. on a petition that put a really brilliant case before them. It was really presented the wrong way. This motion is at present in and that with which it is faced in the immediate future. Mr. Andy Coughlan from Rathgarra gave an address. He would serve as a truly splendid basis for an education for members of the Government today. His address is one that should be reprinted by the N.F.A. and distributed all over the country. It is a breath of every county in their down-trodden national of ours.

AS INDIVIDUALS.

He made it quite clear that the time had come when we just could not be satisfied with keeping rates and taxes at last year's figure. They would have to be reduced . . . and they would have to be reduced very considerably. Mr. Coughlan, as the every other member of the delegation, knew what he was talking about and the sooner the Councils of Waterford and elsewhere bring themselves to realise this important point, the better for all concerned. No longer is the farmer "the countryman" and thank God for that. The generation of today is educated and that education is not allowed end with the departure from school or college. These men are not speaking for the farmer alone, they are speaking for the man in the office, in the factory, in the profession and in every walk of life in this nation of ours. We have to be serious, not of their statements. The end of that artificial support is at hand . . . men must stand or fall by their own efforts as individuals. I have said this before. I say it again and the Government must be brought to realise it before it is too late . . . local and national.

But what did our local government do? They listened and they argued. They found themselves at the end of a one-way street. After six hours they had succeeded in reducing the estimate by 14 . . . and in fairness to many members, those of us on the outside looking in had some sympathy for them regardless of what they may think. We have PUPPETS OF THE POLITICIANS.

We are quick to criticise our local councillors and rightly so, but in doing so we must not overlook the fact that they are carrying more than the names of the nation's politicians in Dail Eireann. We must remember that time after time these national politicians in politics stand their places in politics stoutly without shame or sorrow in the little platforms of every village, town and city in the country at election time and promised the scullible minds of those in the crowd at their feet, everything from free milk to free hen-houses.

The Inside Story

COURAGE NEEDED

Take a look at the situation here in our own county. We are "top-heavy" with officialdom. We have officials wherever we turn and they seem to be falling over one another. To say anything against their standards of work would be grossly unjust but it may well be said that with a reduction of 25% in their numbers, at least the same amount of work could be done.

NO GARDEN OF EDEN

Yes, we fell for it and now we are paying dearly for the facilities of brainless management in national affairs. Free milk, free dental treatment, free houses and all those other free offers issued by the Government have to be paid for.

FREE THEY SAY

Now let us take a quick glance at some interesting facts in the County Estimate. 396 people received glasses. Surely, that, say 25 men are left off in the months of August, September, October and March, when work galore is available on the farms in their areas. I feel sure the N.F.A. in Waterford would be only too happy to set up a register of farmers in all areas needing farm labour during the harvest and at the planting of crops.

THE TRAMORRE SCANDAL

Then we have the case of Tramore. They asked for a public convenience and got it. It cost the ratepayers of the county £4,300. Fantastic, you say, but a fact, nevertheless. £4,300 for a public convenience. Just consider the fine business you and I are doing. Now you may say "some idea of what it costs us, the people who pay up, to attract the tourists to beautiful Ireland. That a fool's paradise we are living in. Let us face it. The time has come when the County Council will have to cut its cloth according to its measure and it would be a great day indeed for the ratepayers of Waterford and for the nation as a whole if the Banks would refuse to facilitate our local authorities with overdrafts and long term loans.

THE BANK SHOULD REFUSE

And you are expected to make up the cost of the repairs at a rate of from 1/- to 2/6 weekly. And would our councillors stop playing to the gallery with their balcony entitled "the poor cottage tenants." What about the people subsidising this false state of luxury? They cannot go on dipping into the pocket and withdrawing money to pay out. The end of the act has to come sometime.

THE POOR MOUTH

Cut University Scholarships from four to two a year and see to it that the young men and women for whom it was designed get the benefit of the scheme. That is not the case today. Boys and girls availing themselves of education at the expense of the ratepayers of County Waterford, are, in the majority, the sons and daughters of people who can well afford to educate their children without scrounging without that poor mouth. How many of us had to do without University education because our parents couldn't afford it and because we had to stand down for the shopkeeper's son or the farmer's son. To-day, they are perfect snobs and certainly little better for their educational journey ride at the expense of the ratepayers. What a fine thing it should be on the other hand, to see the children of the wage-earner get that opportunity. The tragedy is that they are being robbed by the covetous shopkeepers, the professional and the tidy farmer. And to add insult to injury, we had members of the Council saying that the means test should be opened wider with the support of people who should be the last to support it. I salute Jack Butler for the brilliant stand he took in the matter.

NOT PULLING THEIR WEIGHT

Let us take a look at the road works. The big trouble here seems to be lack of money. When I say this I refer to the manner in which workers are paid off at the most inappropriate times. Of course, it is true to say that not every road worker is pulling his weight. Far too many are inclined to treat the job as a "good thing" and as a result, a very bad return is obtained from the huge sums of money poured into the work by the taxpayer and ratepayer. And now for a reference to the inappropriate laying off of workers. This usually happens during November and December. Some are taken back around March and April. In other words, they are idle over the Christmas at a time when little if any work is available.

THE MASCOT

Some folk we meet in Show-bus superstitious. An all black cat, a rabbit's foot, Good luck they say "will bring a little artist that I knew before her call she took. I saw her kiss a small toy dog Her mascot of Good Luck. But, then to everyone his belief I have a mascot too. A little silver medal of a LADY DRESSED IN BLUE. 'Twas given by my mother "To keep you safe" she said. And promise that you'll wear it whenever you may be. "And when the dark clouds find you And you know not what to do Just whisper our small Ave To the LADY DRESSED IN BLUE. Somehow I've kept her promise, since she died that very Spring. But a promise to a mother is a very sacred thing. I've had my share of ups and downs My parts both big and small And there were times, God knows his true I had no parts at all. Then I'd go and tell my worries To that LADY DRESSED IN BLUE. And just like mother told me She always saw me through. All artists have their moments of frustration and dismay. Sure, I often kept on going With that small Ave. Now in the years before me, I'll do the best I can. To use the gifts God gave me To cheer my fellow man. And never with a word or jest Offend in any way. But spread whatever happiness I can from day to day. And when I've taken my last bow And life's curtain has come down, I must answer for the parts I played. The hero, knave or clown. And there beyond the facilities When my Heaven comes in view May I see again my Mother With THAT LADY DRESSED IN BLUE. —MAI O'HIGGINS

I heard from Michael Dwyer, Waterford Branch Chairman, Timothy Keene, Dublin, National Secretary; Messrs. FREE MILK

There is no point in saying it is a retrograde step to cut the service or that, No step can be more retrograde than that which takes us more and more into debt in providing a free service we cannot afford.

YOUR BABY

The politicians of Ireland are to blame for this threatened eclipse of our national economy. They offered us free schemes that are still dreamed of in the United States of America, such as the Health Act, etc. It sounded wonderful as did every other free scheme. The politicians pushed it through until it became law, and then they slapped it on the laps of the local authorities as much as to say: "From here on it is your baby... you have to pick up the money to keep this scheme going." And from there on it became mandatory on the local authority to provide money out of local rates to fulfil the promises of empty-headed politicians before the people.

WELFARE STATE

A very effective trimming could be done on the estimates but for that shocking fact and when the Manager tells the members that he cannot work within a rate of 39/0 in the £, it is mainly as a result of those mandatory demands on the county rate.

AN OLD MAN

No so very long ago I photographed an old man working on the roads for Waterford County Council. He wasn't far off 70 years of age, but for enough to deprive him of an old age pension. I was sorry for that old man because he was not in the form and certainly not in the health to go through the day-lifting heavy stones and breaking them into the foundation of a new road. But he had to. This old man had to live. He had his wife to support and the old home to keep going and he had no one to turn to. He was lucky to have a job with the County Council and he told me so. He should not have been working however, and none knew it better than himself because every day he worked made him weaker and weaker and brought death nearer.

ONLY AN OLD AGE PENSIONER

But then who cared about Old Jim? He was only a road-worker in the eyes of those who make our laws. To me and to the people he was a human-being and a fine worker, one of those who brought Ireland through many hopeless situations. In making provision for the aged, our lawmakers set down 70 years as retiring age for those who worked hard while the executives, the petty officials and the desk polishers were told they could retire at 60 and 65 years and be sure of a comfort-

Salmon net fishing continues

Salmon net fishing continues to be fairly good but nothing like what it was in the opening day on February 1st when in the Lismore No. 4 District one fish was recorded as being caught for that day. The first day this week was said to be good, all local boats being successful, one boat accounting for 10 fish. The North East gale on Tuesday somewhat hampered netting operations as it was high impossible to make a drift. The gale continued throughout the day and the few boats that took the chance were not very successful as only a few old fish were landed. With more suitable weather it is hoped that there will be a marked improvement in the catches as certainly net fishermen deserve to get a break to counter-act the last three seasons which were very poor indeed. It is gratifying to note that seals are conspicuous by their absence. One crew in Ardmore captured a seal in their nets last week. The Board of Conservators pay awards for destruction of the following predators: Otters and Caracaras 5/- each, Seals 20/-, Herons 2/- and Pike 1/-.

Youghal Man's Death in Boston

Sincere regret was felt in his native town at the announcement last week of the sad and unexpected death of a member of a well known family in the person of Mr. Cornelius O'Brien formerly of Rabes Road, Youghal, which took place at his residence 139 St. Alphonsus St. Hexbury, Mass. To his widow, formerly Miss Mary McSweeney daughter of the late Mr. Timothy Sweeney a local contractor and members of his family sincere sympathy is extended in their great sorrow. Deceased was one of the first to join the volunteers in Youghal. He was made Captain and took an active part through the whole period of the war of Independence. He was a well known figure in the Irish-American circles in Boston for the past 20 years. He was a much wanted man in 1919 by the Crown Forces and was later attached to the 1st. But Dublin Brigade. During his imprisonment in 1922 he was on hunger strike for 40 days before being released. After his release he went to London and in 1928 emigrated to America where he was a big asset in Irish Affairs and was closely associated with the Gaelic circles. Both he and his wife made many trips home and intended doing so in 1957 this year for the centenary of the Fenian Organisation at which he was appointed to represent the State of Massachusetts. CATHOLIC SCOUT NOTES

INTER-PATROL COMPETITION This competition is due to finish on St. Patrick's Day and here are the marks to date: Tigers - 348.02; Wolfhounds - 339.37; Wolves - 307.97; Panthers - 306.06; Eagles - 306.03. These do not include a 'Care of Den' report from the Wolfhounds which should gain them another 15 marks at least and this would put them up front, least until some other Patrol put on pressure. All during the competition the Tiger Patrol have held the lead. At one count they were 25 ahead of the Wolfhounds and this seems to indicate that it will be one of these patrols that will be there at the finishing post. What of the outsiders? Well, the Wolf Patrol are the holders and if all this patrol were really bending their backs I am sure the pace would be a cracking one. The Panthers seem to be spriters at the start they were up with the leaders but then slipped down gradually. Maybe we will see another sprint at the finish. Bringing up the rear we have the Eagles. This Patrol is badly handicapped but just the same they fight on. We will have to wait till the 17th to see the total marks.

TROOP MEETING

The meeting began as usual with questions, but this time questions were put by Scouts who didn't know the answers themselves so that they got some useful information. Then a two team relay race put a lot of chaps panting and gave slick scouts a chance of sucking sweets. During Roll Call each P.L. got a slip of paper with directions for a search for trout in the lake. This was a wonderful tribute to a work that will never fade. For the story will be told over and over again, wherever it is called 'THE MASCOT'. Read it and treasure it.

KILLARNEY

News is to hand of what seems like a good camp site in Killarney so maybe our scouts can search for trout in the lakes this summer, and look forward to roaming the mountain paths and woodland dells. LOURDES PILGRIMAGE A big number have become Associate Members and the first supply of leaflets ran out. A new supply has been obtained. The half-dozen pilgrims from 4th Waterford have got circulars about changing money into francs or travellers cheques. SYMPATHY... It is offered to Leut P. Arrigan and family on the recent death of his father at whose funeral a Guard of Honour of Scouts attended.

CO. BOARD RESOLVES DOHERTY DILEMMA

Divisional Vice-Chairmanship is Declared Vacant

ALLEGATIONS contained in a series of motions which came before the County Convention concerning the position of Mr. Michael O'Doherty, who was elected Vice-Chairman of the Western Divisional Board at the Annual Convention of that body last month had a sequel on Monday night when the Waterford County Board, acting on evidence furnished by a special Committee, was unanimous in declaring the position of Vice-Chairman of the Divisional Board vacant.

The decision was taken at a meeting presided over by Mr. Michael O'Doherty, Chairman of the County Board, in the C.V.M.S. Rooms, Dungarvan. The Committee - Messrs P.J. O'Sullivan, N.T. P. Kenneally, T. Lannon, T. Pinkert and D. Goode, Secretary of the County Board, directed the County Board to investigate charges against Mr. O'Doherty's illegality, found that evidence had been submitted and corroborated that he had attended a soccer match in Killohan Park, Waterford about six years ago.

This was accepted by the Board which also established that Mr. O'Doherty had not been a member of the Association at the time of the election. Mr. O'Doherty was instructed to resign his position as Vice-Chairman of the Board. The Board found that the only recourse in the circumstances was to declare the position of Vice-Chairman vacant. Subsequently a formal application for membership of the Association from the deposed officer was accepted.

The question of Mr. O'Doherty's illegality originally arose at the County Convention when Mr. Ed Fitzgerald, of the Catholic Brugha Club, moved a number of motions which were put to the vote. It was decided that this convention declare the election of the Vice-Chairman of the West Waterford Divisional Board, G.A.A., for 1958 to be null and void, at the person elected, Michael O'Doherty (Mr. O'Doherty or Doherty is not a person to hold any position on any Committee of Board of the G.A.A. as he has been a member of the G.A.A. at the time or previous to the time of breaking this rule, he did not apply for reinstatement if he was not a member of the G.A.A. at the time he attended or encouraged foreign games, he did not subsequently make personal application to the County Committee to be admitted to the Association.

(b) that this Convention set up a committee to investigate the election of Vice-Chairman of the West Waterford Divisional Board, G.A.A., at its Annual Convention in Cappoquin on January 9th 1958 or that this Convention instruct the incoming County Board to investigate the election. It is the opinion of the members of this club that the person elected is not eligible to take part in any capacity in the affairs of the G.A.A.

On the suggestion of the County Chairman, the matter was then referred to the incoming County Board. The Board in turn set up a committee which will be instructed to interview all persons in a position to tender information. This committee met in Dungarvan on Thursday night last week with Mr. P.J. O'Sullivan, N.T. in the chair.

When called before the committee Mr. Ed Fitzgerald, of the Catholic Brugha Club, deposed: "I sat in the same car with Michael O'Doherty going to a match in Waterford. I paid 10/- for my seat in the car and was travelling as a member of the Vigilance Committee at the time. The Secretary can confirm that Mr. O'Doherty was not at all in the Association at all the time. He travelled in the same car with me to a soccer match in Killohan Park."

Mr. Fitzgerald also submitted a written statement: "11/2/58. To all whom it may concern, A Chas. this is a statement to the effect that I was a passenger in a car which conveyed five people to a soccer match in Waterford in 1952/53. Michael O'Doherty, present Vice-Chairman of West Waterford Divisional Board, G.A.A., was one of the five. I saw him going in through the turnstile at Killohan Park, Waterford, to attend a soccer match which was being played there on the occasion. On the way in question I was accompanied by Eamon Mac Gearailt."

The author's name was not revealed. Mr. Fitzgerald then submitted a sworn affidavit: "I, Eamon Mac Gearailt, 9 L. St. Moy, Dungarvan, do solemnly swear that I travelled in a motor car with Michael O'Doherty, present Vice-Chairman of West Waterford Divisional Board, G.A.A., 1958, to attend a soccer match in Killohan Park, Waterford, on Monday 24/2/58 that you were never present at a soccer match in Killohan Park, Waterford. If the answer is 'Yes', will you submit a statement to the County Secretary before 7 p.m. on Monday, February 24th 1958."

Mr. O'Doherty - No I would not submit a sworn statement. That would be perjury. This convinced Mr. O'Doherty's evidence. The Committee, summing up, advised that Mr. Fitzgerald had admitted evidence that Mr. O'Doherty had attended a soccer match in Waterford about six years ago. They pointed out that his evidence was supported by a sworn affidavit and that Mr. O'Doherty was not prepared to corroborate his denial with a sworn statement.

After considering all the evidence furnished by the committee and an additional statement by Mr. O'Doherty, the Board was unanimous in taking the course stated at the outset.

EAMON MAC GEARAILT

In a public house with Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. O'Doherty withdrew at this stage and the committee proceeded to consider the evidence. After summing up, they decided to recall him and put the following: "Would you be prepared to answer to the accusation against you to submit a sworn statement before the County Board meeting on Monday 24/2/58 that you were never present at a soccer match in Killohan Park, Waterford. If the answer is 'Yes', will you submit a statement to the County Secretary before 7 p.m. on Monday, February 24th 1958."

BOARD OF FISHERY CONSERVATORS

At a monthly meeting of the Board of Conservators held at Mallow last week under the Chairmanship of Mr. R. G. Annesley there attended Captain Clayton, Major Maxwell, Col. Grehan, Captain Black, Major Partridge, Dr. Flynn, Messrs J. Villiers Stuart, M. Groenby, J. Healy, E. P. Lynch, Inspector Woulfe and Dr. A. E. J. Went, Scientific Advisor to the Dept. of Fisheries.

A letter was read from the Clerk to the Dublin Board expressing thanks for the generous increase in the Board's contribution towards the wages paid to the Market Inspector in Dublin. A letter was read from the Department approving the proposal to increase the Board's contribution to £200 per head of fish in the global list of £25 for producers award. Also requesting due course a report indicating where this increase proves effective and the number of awards for carterants given in respect of the years 1957 and 1958. The Department wrote informing the Board that the question of use of Water-tanks in Fishery duty is receiving due consideration and that a further communication would be forwarded in due course on the subject. Mr. Collins, Montgomery of Watergrasshill and Mrs. J.J. Barker of Fermoy wrote acknowledging with thanks the Board's expression of condolence in their recent bereavements.

A letter was received from the Department of Fisheries acknowledging receipt of the Board's views in reference to the cessing at the mouth of the river Bride where it flows into the main Blackwater river. The meeting adjourned to Thursday March 27th to be held in Lismore.

HATCHERY COMMITTEE MEETING. At a subsequent Hatchery Meeting presided over by the Chairman Mr. R. G. Annesley, Inspector Woulfe reported that all the salmon ova laid down for hatching at Mallow were hatched out and some will be ready for release by the third week in March in the River area and an order for its forfeiture was secured at Youghal District Court. Salmon fishing so far this season has been pretty slack with the exception of a few cases there have been no heavy catches. The nets in most cases had their best catches on the opening day. For the six hours available to nets and the whole day to rods approximately one ton of salmon was landed at the Tallow District Court on the 18th instant. Michael Fitzgerald of Curragh, Conna was prosecuted for the unlawful possession of seven salmon at Tallow Road Station. As there was some doubt as to how three of the salmon were killed, the Justice decided to send only in respect of four and imposed a fine of £10 with one shilling in respect of each salmon with £4.4.0 costs and £12.10.0 expenses. The offence was detected by Inspector J. Lannon when the salmon arrived at the Dublin Markets. At the same court the said Michael Fitzgerald was prosecuted for the unlawful possession of two salmon at Kilmacoe, and as one salmon was available for inspection by the Board's Inspector and his assistant the Justice decided to convict in respect of one and imposed a fine of £11.0.0 with £4.4.0 costs. Noted.

DEATH OF MR. M.L. ARRIGAN, B.A. The Board having been summoned to consider a proposal from the Bangor Board of Conservators that a central body or Committee be set up representing all Boards in the area which would meet when necessary to advise the Board's Inspector and his assistant the Justice decided to convene a meeting of the Board and Captain C. L. Clayton as representing the freshwater division, and Mr. J. Villiers Stuart as representing the Tidal Division were appointed to attend the proposed meeting and report back to the Board. A letter was read from the Kilwinish and District Trout Anglers Assoc. requesting the Board to hasten the removal of dace by electrical device from the Funcheon and Aragin rivers; and that the Kilwinish Association is not in favour of promoting coarse fishing in their waters. In this connection Dr. A. E. J. Went (Department of Fisheries) outlined in detail the use of this electrical device for the removal of coarse fish. He assured the members of the Board that from experiments previously carried out in America, Sweden and elsewhere, he was satisfied beyond any doubt that the use of this apparatus properly carried out would have no adverse effect on ova of game fish which may have been affected by the shock. He further assured the Board that its use would also have no adverse effect on water snails, grubs or shrimps which go to feed the fish. After some discussion the Board agreed that this electrical method may be used with safety in this district and expressed sincere thanks to Dr. Went for his attendance and valued assistance in this important matter. The Board also agreed to rescind the resolution in this connection of November 28th 1957. The members were now fully convinced of the safety of this method.

At a subsequent Hatchery Meeting presided over by the Chairman Mr. R. G. Annesley, Inspector Woulfe reported that all the salmon ova laid down for hatching at Mallow were hatched out and some will be ready for release by the third week in March in the River area and an order for its forfeiture was secured at Youghal District Court. Salmon fishing so far this season has been pretty slack with the exception of a few cases there have been no heavy catches. The nets in most cases had their best catches on the opening day. L. Clayton as representing the freshwater division, and Mr. J. Villiers Stuart as representing the Tidal Division were appointed to attend the proposed meeting and report back to the Board.

A great display of public sympathy with his bereaved wife and family was forthcoming when the remains were removed to Abbeyside Church on Friday evening, where the coffin was received by the Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, C.C., assisted by several other clergymen. Guards of honour were supplied by the Abbeyside Boy Scouts and students of St. Augustine's College.

Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass took place on Saturday morning. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., and the assisting clergy numbered 17. The funeral, which in point of size and representativeness was one of the largest seen locally for a long period, took place to Carrickbeg where internment was made. Sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by the bereaved family. (Funeral arrangements were by the Revs. of J. J. O'Connell, Grattan Square, Dungarvan.)
