The Manager Writes A 'QUESTION TIME' Letter—

AND COLR. LANNON PROVES A POINT

CLEAR WATER FROM NOW ON

Waterford County Manager, Mr. S. J. Moylhan, was unable to be present at the resumed discussion on "the case of the unenclosed houses" at a meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council, but were I to do so," he told the members in a letter, "it would be to strongly protest against the tirade of abusive language and accusations made by Colr. Lannon against me at the last meeting, in the excitement caused by the outburst I did not notice that he had accused me of being amongst other things, a liar."

"You're prejudiced in this case, Mr. S. J. Moylhan, in your relation of the County Manager."
Mr. N. Kelly—None of that now, let us keep personalities out of this.
Mr. Lannon—Ah, shut up man, it's true and what about it.
At this stage a certain amount of cross-fire developed between the previous meeting, which he stated that the Chairman refused to sign the demolition orders.

HE WAS RIGHT
The Chairman pointed out that the Manager had admitted in his letter that what Mr. Lannon had stated at the last meeting was right and that cleared the issue.
At this stage, Mr. Lannon proposed an adjournment and was seconded by Mr. P. Qualey.
Mr. Moloney proposed an amendment that the discussion be continued. "We have been putting this off from day to day always," he added.
Mr. Lannon held that the only time to discuss the case properly was in the presence of the Manager and he proposed that the Manager be requested to attend the next meeting.

HE WAS SORRY.
Mr. T. Lannon said he was sorry the Manager was not present. It had been made clear however, that he (Mr. Lannon) had been proved correct in what he had stated previously. He received the demolition orders on the 24th June, 1953, at his home. They were not sent to him by post, as he had stated. They were then taken to a meeting of the Urban Council on the 26th June, 1953, as he would not sign them anywhere other than at a meeting. Mr. Lannon pointed out that he made it quite clear at the last meeting that he had the orders in his possession for a few days only and now it had been proved that he held them two days only.
When Mr. D. Moloney began to question Mr. Lannon on the manner in which he dealt with the demolition orders, Mr. Lannon replied in heated tones:

CONCLUDING the Manager stated: "Whilst I have noted Mr. Lannon's strictures on my responsibility and duty as Manager, it may be of interest to him and to the Council to know that Dungarvan Urban Council represents about one-fifth of my total responsibilities as County Manager."

COUNCIL RESCIND DECISION
The Urban Council of Dungarvan rescinded their decision to seek £300 an acre for the site of the proposed Cattle Mart at the Marsh. They also agreed to send a deputation to meet the directors of the Mart Association to negotiate a price if they are still interested in it.

Salary Increases Sought
One of the major items for discussion at Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture will be the consideration of salary increases for temporary instructors, a matter that caused outspoken comment at the last meeting.
The auditor's report on the affairs of the committee will also come up for consideration.

This was the outcome of a notice of motion moved by Colr. K. Keane, at a meeting of the Council held last week-end. This means that there is now every hope of an agreement being reached in the long drawn issue of the price question.

Clashmore Rural Electrification Charges

At a largely attended meeting held at Clashmore the question of wiring of houses of acceptors in the area was discussed a length. It was stated that a number of contractors had visited householders and that in some instances the charges varied considerably and in a few cases appeared to be excessive.
It was decided to seek quotations and to insist on a high standard of workmanship and the use of good quality materials.

Co. Council Meeting Re-Convened

BY ORDER OF MINISTER
The Chairman of Waterford County Council, Mr. Michael Morrissey, said, has reconvened the 14th meeting of the Council for the purpose of considering further the Estimate of Expenditure and Determination of Rates in the Pound for the financial year ending the 31st March, 1958.

This special meeting will be held at Dungarvan on Monday next and is a direction from the Minister for Local Government.
It is also a sequel to the rejection of the rate struck at the last meeting when the Manager refused to accept the figure of 39/0 in the £ on the grounds that it would be impossible for him to carry on the services of the Council with such an inadequate rate.

It took the members of the Council almost seven hours to strike the rate of 39/0 having previously rejected proposals covering sums of 41/4, 38/9 and 39/6 in the £. The Manager refusing to accept the rate of 39/0 stated: "I feel I cannot carry on the affairs of Waterford County Council with the rate that has been struck. I have to inform the Minister for Local Government."
Now the Minister has directed that the Estimates' Meeting be re-convened.

Salary Increases Sought

One of the major items for discussion at Saturday's meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture will be the consideration of salary increases for temporary instructors, a matter that caused outspoken comment at the last meeting.
The auditor's report on the affairs of the committee will also come up for consideration.

Arranged Marriages Favoured

Kinsalebeg brought off the honours in the Macra na Feirme County Final debate held at the Fairy Hall last Sunday night. Their opponents on the platform were Kilmacthomas when the motion under debate was "that arranged marriages are more successful than love matches."
Presiding was Mr. P. Conroy, C.A.O., Waterford County Committee of Agriculture who paid high tribute to both teams for the excellent debate presented to a packed audience.

The adjudicators, Messrs. J. Dornan, Headmaster, Mooncoin Vocational School, Co. Kilkenny, and M. Conolly, Vocational teacher at the same school also paid tribute to both teams and stated that it was really a pity that there had to be a first prize as both teams proved exceptionally good. The marks given in the contest were 336 to 305 which showed a close margin.

Old as it may seem, Kinsalebeg won the day with their motion in favour of arranged marriages but the case put up by Kilmacthomas proved a tremendous interest and certainly went a long way towards a victory for the love matches.

Mr. P. Fives of the County Executive of Macra na Feirme, and Mr. Ed. Phelan, Secretary, were also present.

WATERFORD COUNTY RATES

INDEX 1946 = 100
--- CO. RATES
--- FARM PRICES

FACTS AND FIGURES

At the recent Estimates' Meeting of the Waterford County Council the deputation from the NFA County Executive produced facts and figures which showed beyond doubt that the county rates have now risen beyond the farmers' ability to pay. The NFA case for a reduction in the rates was based on a comparison of trends in farm prices and receipts from the Waterford County rates. From 1922 to 1951—a period of approximately 30 years—there has been a distinct relationship between the two—in other words, farmers were paying a rate in proportion to their income. But from 1951 onwards, the tradition has been broken—rates have now soared while farm prices tended to level out, showing a substantial decrease since 1954 and now taking a catastrophic decline.

On the graph reproduced here, the relationship between the Waterford County rate and farm prices from 1922 onwards can be studied. The graph speaks for itself—farm prices and rates now bear no relationship whatsoever to one another.

The figures of incidence of county rates submitted to the County Council by the NFA deputation last year showed that in 1955-56 (when the county rate was 33/5 in the £) Waterford paid the 4th highest average net rate per acre in the country. This net rate (which is the only reasonable standard of comparison between counties) is the average rate per acre of crops and pasture in each county which would not include barren mountain, bog swamp, waste or woodland, and has been calculated after deducting the total agricultural abatement for each county.

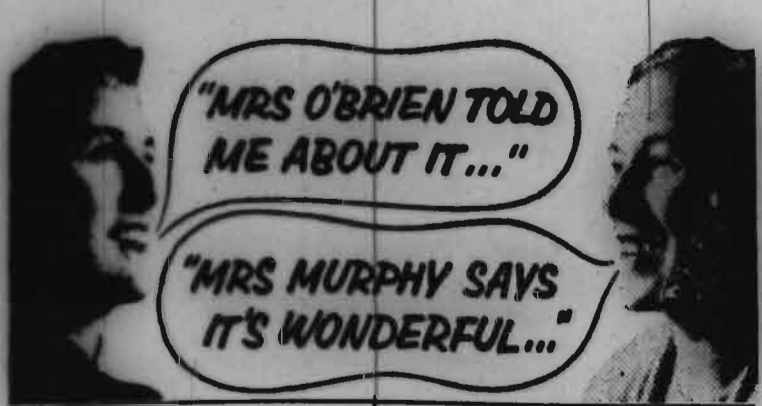

The increase in Waterford county rate in 1955/56 was 5/4 in the £, third highest in the country. A further increase of 3/6 in the £ was voted this year.

The members of NFA are

COUNCILS now have in their hands a great share of the responsibility for the well-being of the entire country, because they control taxation on agriculture—the fundamental industry—and the one on which the country's balance of payments depends and will depend still more in a Free Trade climate.

If farmers are given relief from the crushing burden of local taxation, they will be in a position to avail of the opportunities offered by Free Trade. To deny them this relief is to condemn the country to destitution.

In view of these facts, County

ELECTRICITY AT LAST - Following the recent canvass, the ESB have decided to develop the Clashmore-Aglish area under the Rural Electrification Scheme and preliminary planning has already begun. The work proper will commence in the course of a few weeks and will give considerable employment in the area. The decision to develop the area is welcomed on all sides.

PLENTY OF WORK - There will be no scarcity of work in the area consisting of Aglish, Ardmore and Clashmore, for the next few years. So many projects are in the offing that it seems that some numbers of workers will have to be imported. Full employment is a good thing and means prosperity for all sections of the community.

COLLECTION FOR DROWNING TRAGEDY - On Sunday next collection boxes will be put in Aglish and Clashmore in aid of the fund for the dependants of the recent sad drowning tragedy at Dunmore East. Each person is asked to give a little towards this very deserving object and thus help to ease the hard lot of those who lost their breadwinners in the terrible tragedy.

CLASHMORE WHIST DRIVE - The Clashmore I.C.A. which drive arranged for last Sunday night was postponed. It will be held instead on to-night (Friday) and an enjoyable night is promised.

AGRICULTURAL PRICES - The recent decision to reduce the prices of wheat and feeding barley has proved very unpopular amongst the members of the agricultural community in this area. There is also uneasiness re milk prices and it is felt that any reduction would have disastrous consequences for the country as a whole. It is accepted by all that the dairy industry is the foundation of our whole economy and any recession would lead to depression and more unemployment.

LOCAL QUESTION-TIME WINNERS - Mr. Edmund Hartery, Clashmore, was a member of the Co. Waterford Macra na Feirme team which was successful in the recent Radio Eireann Question Time at Dungarvan. Mr. Hartery is a member of the Kinsalebeg branch. Also included in the successful team of five were Mr. and Mrs. T. Beston of Droichead, Aglish. All have been the recipient of numerous congratulations on their merited success.

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY - The introduction of the Rural Electrification Scheme to the Clashmore-Aglish area should mark the beginning of a new era of progress and prosperity for the people of the district. It will eliminate drudgery and make life easier for all and on the farm will make for efficiency and lower production costs. A big leeway has to be made up, however, as adjoining areas had the advantages of electricity for some years past.

HUNTING - The Kinsalebeg-Clashmore Harriers met at Laurentum Cross on Sunday last when a big number of followers turned out. A good day's sport which included one "kill" ensued.

MOLLOYS - Refreshing to record that the usual Lenten devotions which are being conducted in the Catholic Churches of these parts on three nights of each week (Sunday, Wednesday and Friday nights) during the penitential season are being assisted at by very large congregations of the faithful (children and adults alike).

Passing of Beloved Kilrossanty Parishioner - The death of Mrs. Bridget Coffey (widow), Curraheen, Leamybrien, which occurred last week-end at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, in the fullness of her years, occasioned deep and widespread regret.

A member of a respected and widely connected local family, the Fitzgeralds of Knockan, she enjoyed a most expansive circle of friends and was highly esteemed. Of a quiet, amiable disposition, her many fine traits of character endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. To her sons, daughters, grandchildren and nieces and nephews sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement and loss.

Accompanied by an extremely large and representative cortege, the remains were conveyed to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Sunday evening, and on arrival the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. P. Beecher, C.C. do.

After Office and High Mass on Monday, the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow. The clergy in attendance at the obsequies again officiated at the graveside. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets

Kilmacthomas, Kilrossanty and Stradbally Notes

Felicitations are most cordially offered to Mr. Aloysius Gallagher, son of Garda and Mrs. James Gallagher, Stradbally, and Miss Eva Christiana Leyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Leyne, Roundstone, Galway, on their marriage which took place on a recent date at the Church of Christ the King, Cabra, Dublin.

The Late Mr. Nicholas Stack, retired postman, Rathgormack, was brother-in-law of Mr. Patrick Ryan, Gortnalough, Leamybrien.

At Leamybrien Hall there was a full house for a very enjoyable entertainment on Friday night of last week, when the comedy entitled "Troubled Bachelors" was staged with a full supporting variety programme by the Leamybrien Dramatic Society. The performers certainly put on a show which not a few professional groups could be proud of.

Incidentally, the Society faced the footlights with a similar treat at Ballinacorney Hall, on Sunday night, again gained a big hand from a capacity audience.

Successful Year's Work - Kilmacthomas branch of Macra na Feirme at its annual general meeting heard a report from the Secretary of a distinctly successful year's work.

Officers elected for ensuing twelve months were: President, Mr. D. J. Coughlan; Vice-do, Messrs. M. Harney and Thos. Keating; Chairman, Mr. John Baldwin; Vice-do., Mr. Patrick Wally, Hon. Treas., Mr. John Keane; Hon. Sec., Mr. Ken Murphy; Asst. do., Miss Rosaleen O'Grady; committee, Messrs. Margaret Hearne and Messrs. M. Harney, Dick Kennedy, and Dick McKean; delegates to Co. Executive, Messrs. John Baldwin and M. Quigley; Press Officer, Miss R. O'Grady.

By the way, drama goers are reminded that the Kilmac Macra na Feirme is sponsoring the County Final of the drama competition, which will be decided in the local Rainbow Hall on Thursday, 27th inst.

Flanna Fall - Mr. Sean Ormond, T.D., Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, presided at a re-organising meeting of the Kilrossanty Cumann P.P. on the night of Saturday, 22nd ult., when the following officers were elected: Chairman, Mr. John Orchan, P.C. Knocknagilly; Vice-do., Mr. M. Keating, P.C. Carragh; Joint Hon. Treas., Messrs. Patrick Veale, Leamybrien, and Patrick Donovan, Knockacullen Upper; Hon. Sec., Mr. Patrick Hogan, Leamybrien; delegates to Comhairle Ceannair, the Vice-Chairman and the Hon. Sec., Salute Mr. N. Connors, Park Stradbally!

This well-known genial gentleman farmer has, since the turn of the century, been mainly associated with show jumpers. He has branched into the racing game with a most promising young hurdler in Isobob (by Isolation out of Milky Weed) which won his bumpers' race at Limerick at Christmas very impressively.

A five-year-old, Isobob, made an impressive debut at the Thurles race-meeting on Thursday of last week when in the Southern Maiden Hurdle (an event that attracted a field of nine runners), piloted by Mr. McLernon, he served up a delightfully smooth display and won with emphatic ease at 9 to 4 against.

MOLLOYS - Refreshing to record that the usual Lenten devotions which are being conducted in the Catholic Churches of these parts on three nights of each week (Sunday, Wednesday and Friday nights) during the penitential season are being assisted at by very large congregations of the faithful (children and adults alike).

Accompanied by an extremely large and representative cortege, the remains were conveyed to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Sunday evening, and on arrival the coffin was received and blessed by the Rev. P. Beecher, C.C. do.

F. C. A. NOTES

DUNGARVAN BATTALION FIELD DAY RANGE PRACTICES - On Sunday next, the 9th Mar., Kilworth Range will be at the disposal of this Unit for the purpose of firing annual range practices. It is hoped that a large number will attend. Range practices for the next month or so will be very important as the Battalion Staff will be on the look out for good shots for the annual shooting teams. The Area and Command Shooting Championships will take place during the month of May.

Transport will collect members at the various points mentioned hereunder: Ring, 10 o'clock; Dungarvan 11 o'clock; Aglish 11.30; Ardmore 11 o'clock; Piltown, 11.15; Millstreet, 11.45.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY - It is proposed to hold a Field Day at Dungarvan commencing at 10.30 on St. Patrick's Day. The Field Day to commence with a parade in 11.30 Mass at the Parish Church. Further details re transport arrangements etc. will be notified next week.

NIGHT EXERCISES - A series of night exercises will be run at Dungarvan centre for members of this centre on Tuesday nights. It is hoped that every available member of this Centre will turn out for these exercises.

NEW TRAINING CENTRES - On Thursday night last, the 28th ult., a meeting was held at the Dungarvan G.A. Club. At this meeting a new training centre was formed and new members were attested. It is proposed to have weekly training parades at this Centre on a Tuesday night from 8 to 10 p.m. All those eligible in this area are welcome and it is hoped that they will report on Tuesday nights for enlistment.

If there are any other areas anxious to have training centres organised in their district please communicate with Battalion Headquarters, a Youghal Road, Dungarvan, and the Battalion Staff will be only too anxious to help.

Geraldines take on Shamrocks SARGENT CUP GETS UNDER WAY ON SUNDAY NEXT

To Geraldines and Sarsfields—a selection drawn from Affane, the Glen Rovers, and Shamrocks—falls the honour of ushering in another season of competitive hurling and the signs are that the men of Aglish and the group selection will prove Cappoquin patrons with an hour of highly instructive fare when they cross cammas on Sunday next.

It most certainly goes without saying that there will be a very sizeable audience of hurling devotees in attendance when the rivals join issue in the round one Sargent Cup encounter.

The fact that this will be the initial appearance of Sarsfields, one of the newly reconstituted ground sides, has caused the onlookers, on which hinges a couple of precious points, to be awaited with more than ordinary interest by the everyday followers of the games.

Also whetting the appetite with which the likely trend of battle is surveyed is the belief that Geraldines will in all probability field a much changed fifteen from the side which did duty twelve months ago.

At first sight, Geraldines would appear to command a marked advantage in as much as they must be much better equipped in such vital matters as teamwork and experience. But when one reckons with the reserves of first-class material at the selection's disposal it will be appreciated that the Aglish men face a right formidable assignment.

Geraldines supporters are greatly perturbed by the news that they will have to take the field without such accomplished performers as Teddy Hallahan, who will be unable to make the journey down from Manorhamilton, and Tony Freeman and Boyle Rosayne, both of whom are presently domiciled Across-Channel. It but adds to the tale of woe that Jim Hallahan is again troubled by the knee injury which forced his retirement during the infamous championship encounter with Cappoquin last back end.

Against that, however, is the welcome arrival of a spate of promising newcomers to supplement the spirited hurling of the veteran Keating, Bunny Rosayne, Stylo Riordan, Paddy Keane, the Hallahans, Tom O'Connell, Lee and Mernin. These are the men to whom Geraldines folk look for a winning start in 1958.

Sarsfields, every man of whom is familiar with Geraldines games, are reputed to be confident of making their initial outing a winning one. Almost without exception they will be tasting senior hurling for the first time, and that alone should guarantee a supreme effort from Affane's Costin, Troy and Buckley, the Gearys, Murphy, Roberts and McGrath of Shamrocks and the Powers and Ronnell of the Glen. On paper this combination would appear capable of posing serious problems for any opposition.

Certain it is that the game, which is scheduled to commence at 3 o'clock, should provide hurling of a very informative nature. By the same token, it's not unlikely that the hour will be charged with its quota of excitement.

CORAS IOMPAID EIREANN

Waterford shock the Banner County

Waterford 2-8; Clare 0-7

Waterford footballers turned in a most encouraging performance when mastering Clare in a hard-fought and at times right exciting National League encounter at the Fraher Field on Sunday last.

Clare, strong favourites as a result of impressive victories over Tipperary and Kilkenny, in the earlier rounds, were never allowed into their stride by a rugged home combination. The winners, four points clear at the interval, maintained a crackling pace right through the second period and were deserving winners at the end.

As a result, Waterford will travel to Kilkenny on Sunday next with high hopes of forcing a triple play-off for group honours. Clare and Tipperary are already level with four points and a Daise victory over the Norersiders would leave them similarly placed.

The Waterford team showed a couple of changes from the original selection. Kilrossanty's Pete Gough replaced Teddy Hallahan, of Geraldines, who was not available, and Billy Barry of Stradbally, took the place of Jim Timmons at right full-forward; Jim Whyte was called in at centre-forward and Tom Power filled the left-corner position vacated by Frankie Walsh.

Billy Kirwan, from a penalty, and Ken Murphy had the home-side's goals and points were shared by D. Tobin, J. Power, B. Barry, A. Hallahan, T. Power and Kirwan.

Waterford—J. McCarthy (goal), S. Roche, M. Lonergan, P. Gough, T. Birmingham, T. Cunningham, G. Morrissey, B. Kirwan and K. Murphy; D. Tobin, J. Whyte, J. Power, B. Barry, A. Hallahan, T. Power.

SUNDAY'S PROGRAMME

AT KILKENNY—S.H.—Kilkenny v. The Rest of Ireland, 3.30. N.F.L. Kilkenny v. Waterford, 2 o'clock.

AT CAPPOQUIN—Sargent Cup S.H.—Geraldines v. Sarsfields, 3 o'clock.

FOOTBALLERS TRAVEL TO KILKENNY

Consequent on a well-merited victory over Divisional leaders, Clare, a week ago, Waterford footballers will be strong favourites when they line out against lively Kilkenny in a vital league encounter on Sunday next. On the home soil, though, it's not unlikely that the Ossory side, which will be endeavouring to record its first success in the competition, will push the Deeps men all the way.

Although by no means a model of consistency, Waterford, on form, should be capable of capturing the points necessary to force a play-off with Clare and Tipperary for group honours. Prestige apart, the result will be of little significance to pointless Kilkenny, on the other hand.

The overhauled Waterford fifteen certainly turned in a right encouraging exhibition against the Banner County men. Waterford played hard, direct football and mastered the Deacsians in most convincing manner imaginable. 'Tis true that the new look Deacs team must yet be taken on trust, but it goes without saying, that a reproduction of the form that shocked Clare should take the crucial points away from Novlan Park.

The selection is—J. McCarthy (Ballyduff); S. Roche (De La Salle), M. Lonergan (Kilrossanty); P. Gough (dp); T. Birmingham (Kill), T. Cunningham (Dungarvan), G. Morrissey (do.), K. Murphy (Stradbally); W. Kirwan (Kilrossanty); R. Tobin (Emmetts); J. Whyte (Kilrossanty), J. Power (dp); W. Barry (Stradbally); A. Hallahan (Dungarvan), T. Power (Old Parish); S. Power, F. O'Brien (Mount Sion); J. Timmons (Kilrossanty), M. Prendergast (do.), M. White (Dunhill), E. Power (Dungarvan).

An Abbeyside Double

Abbeyside made the journey to Cappoquin where they opposed the homesters in a double-featured challenge programme, a winning one on Sunday last.

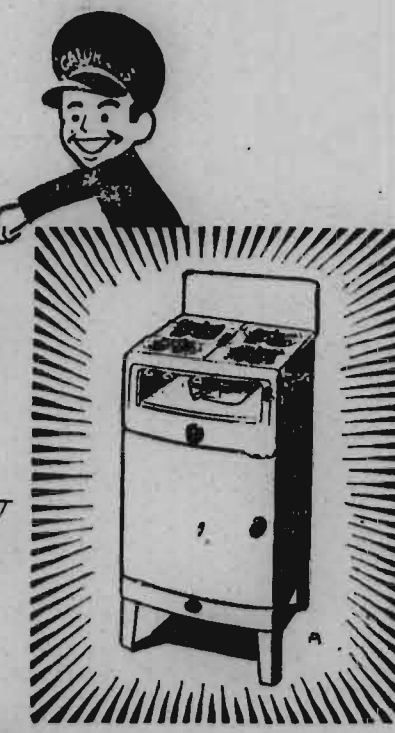

The Village minors, of which great things are expected, mastered a make-shift Cornerstone combination in the opening test and the senior fifteen completed the double with a well-merited victory over the Sargent Cup holders.

The dividing margin in both encounters, which were marked by an amount of fairly good hurling, was a mere couple of points.

POSTPONED

The fact that players from both clubs will be engaged with the county footballers at Kilkenny on Sunday next has caused the County Board to postpone the Dungarvan-Kilrossanty Sargent Cup encounter which was originally billed for the Fraher Field. Waterford's unexpected victory over Clare, which enhanced the likelihood of a play-off for group honours, resulted in a decision by the Central Council to bring forward the remaining tie with Kilkenny to Sunday next in an effort to avoid a possible clash of fixtures later on.

DUNGARVAN BOXING CLUB

The long-awaited Munster senior championships will be held on Sunday next in Dungarvan.

Weight-in and medical examination will be from 2 to 2.30 p.m. and there may be some bouts immediately after. Tickets will be on sale during this time and should there be some bouts then the tickets will hold good for the evening show. I would like to stress the fact that there only may be some bouts that evening but I think it is a good thing to book tickets in this way so as to be sure of being admitted.

Mr. D. J. Fitzpatrick, Mayor of Waterford, will act as judge and will present the prizes. The well-known Garda (Boy) Murphy will act as referee.

For the first time ever, Waterford City will have three entries in the senior championships and could be one of the surprises in the championships.

Ballinameala Attraction

The Leamybrien Dramatic Society continue their tour of rural halls with a trip to the Technical School, Ballinameala, on Sunday night. This first-class production has already drawn full houses at Leamybrien and Ballinrood. Amongst the artists taking part in the supporting programme will be Mr. Tommy Morrissey, Waterford county champion accordion player and Thomas Clancy, a Munster finalist with the harmonica and mouth organ.
